CARMINA SANCTORUM.

Invocation.

- 1 ^{11. 12. 12. 10.}
"Which was, and is, and is to come,"—REV. iv. 8.
- 1 HOLY, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;
Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and Mighty!
God in Three Persons, Blessed Trinity!
- 2 Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore Thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee, [shalt be.
Which wert, and art, and evermore
- 3 Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness
hide Thee,
Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see, [Thee,
Only Thou art Holy, there is none beside Perfect in power, in love, and purity.
- 4 Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
All Thy works shall praise Thy Name
in earth, and sky, and sea;
Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
God in Three Persons, Blessed Trinity!

Ep. Reginald Heber (1783—1826), 1827

OPENING HYMNS.

The Might and Mercy of God.—Ps. civ.

- 1 O WORSHIP the King,
 All glorious above;
 O gratefully sing
 His power and His love;
 Our Shield and Defender,
 The Ancient of days,
 Pavilioned in splendor,
 And girded with praise.
- 2 O tell of His might,
 O sing of His grace,
 Whose robe is the light,
 Whose canopy space;
 His chariots of wrath
 The thunder-clouds form,
 And dark is His path
 On the wings of the storm.
- 3 Thy bountiful care
 What tongue can recite?
 It breathes in the air,
 It shines in the light,
 It streams from the hills,
 It descends to the plain,
 And sweetly distils
 In the dew and the rain.
- 4 Frail children of dust,
 And feeble as frail,
 In Thee do we trust,
 Nor find Thee to fail:
 Thy mercies how tender,
 How firm to the end,
 Our Maker, Defender,
 Redeemer, and Friend.

Sir Robert Grant (1788—1838), 1839. Ab

"Jesus, our King."

- 1 YE servants of God,
Your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad
His wonderful Name;
• The Name all-victorious
Of Jesus extol;
His Kingdom is glorious,
And rules over all.
- 2 God ruleth on high,
Almighty to save:
And still He is nigh;
His presence we have.
The great congregation
His triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation
To Jesus, our King.
- 3 "Salvation to God,
Who sits on the throne,"
Let all cry aloud,
And honor the Son:
The praises of Jesus
The angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces,
And worship the Lamb.
- 4 Then let us adore,
And give Him His right,
All glory, and power,
And wisdom and might;
All honor and blessing,
With angels above,
And thanks never ceasing,
And infinite love.

Rev. Charles Wesley (1738—1788), 1744 Ab

- 1 LIGHT of Light, enlighten me!
Now anew the day is dawning;
Sun of grace, the shadows flee,
Brighten Thou my Sabbath morning:
With Thy joyous sunshine blest,
Happy is my day of rest.
- 2 Fount of all our joy and peace,
To Thy living waters lead me;
Thou from earth my soul release,
And with grace and mercy feed me;
Bless Thy Word that it may prove Rich in fruits that Thou dost love.
- 3 Kindle Thou the sacrifice
That upon my lips is lying;
Clear the shadows from mine eyes,
That, from every error flying,
No strange fire may in me glow
That Thine altar doth not know.
- 4 Let me with my heart to-day,
Holy, holy, holy, singing,
Rapt awhile from earth away,
All my soul to Thee up-springing,
Have a foretaste inly given,
How they worship Thee in Heaven.
- 5 Rest in me and I in Thee,
Build a paradise within me;
O reveal Thyself to me,
Blessed Love, who died'st to win me;
Fed from Thine exhaustless urn,
Pure and bright my lamp shall burn.
- 6 Hence all care, all vanity,
For the day to God is holy:

Come, thou glorious Majesty,
Deign to fill this temple lowly ;
Naught to-day my soul shall move,
Simply resting in Thy love.

Rev. Benjamin Schmolke (1672—1737), 1704.
Tr. by Miss Catherine Winkworth (1829—1878), 1858.

"Morgenglanz der Ewigkeit."

- 1 DAYSPRING of Eternity,
Brightness of the Father's Glory,
Dawn on us, that we may see
Clouds and darkness flee before Thee;
Drive afar, with conquering might,
All our night.
- 2 Let Thy grace, like morning dew,
Fall on hearts in Thee confiding ;
Thy sweet comfort, ever new,
Fill our souls with strength abiding ;
And Thy quickening eyes behold
Thy dear fold.
- 3 Give the flame of love, to burn
Till the bands of sin it breaketh,
Till, at each new day's return
Purer light my soul awaketh ;
O, ere twilight come, let me
Rise to Thee.
- 4 Thou who hast gone up on high,
Grant that when Thy trumpet soundeth,
When with glory, in the sky,
Thee the cloud of saints surroundeth,
We may stand among Thine own,
Round Thy throne.

- 5 Lead us to the golden shore,
 O Thou rising Sun of Morning,
 Lead where tears shall flow no more,
 Where all sighs to songs are turning,
 Where Thy glory sheds alway
 Perfect day.

Knorr von Rosenroth (1636—1688), 1634.
 Tr. by Rev. John Henry Hopkins (1820—), 1866. Sl. alt.

 "Hosanna, Lord."

- 1 HOSANNA to the Living Lord!
 Hosanna to th' Incarnate Word!
 To Christ, Creator, Saviour, King,
 Let earth, let Heaven, hosanna sing:
 Hosanna in the highest!
- 2 "Hosanna," Lord, Thine angels cry;
 "Hosanna," Lord, Thy saints reply;
 Above, beneath us, and around,
 The dead and living swell the sound:
 Hosanna in the highest!
- 3 O Saviour, with protecting care
 Return to this Thy house of prayer,
 Assembled in Thy sacred Name,
 Where we Thy parting promise claim:
 Hosanna in the highest!
- 4 But, chiefest, in our cleanséd breast,
 Eternal, bid Thy Spirit rest;
 And make our secret soul to be
 A temple pure, and worthy Thee:
 Hosanna in the highest!
- 5 So, in the last and dreadful day,
 When earth and heaven shall melt away,
 Thy flock, redeemed from sinful stain,

Shall swell the sound of praise again :
Hosanna in the highest!

Bp. Reginald Heber (1783—1826), 1811. Ref. alt.

"Te Deum Laudamus."

- 1 THEE we adore, Eternal Lord,
We praise Thy Name with one accord;
Thy saints, who here Thy goodness see,
Through all the world do worship Thee.
- 2 To Thee aloud all angels cry,
The heavens and all the powers on high :
Thee, Holy, holy, holy King,
Lord God of Hosts, they ever sing.
- 3 Th' Apostles join the glorious throng ;
The Prophets swell th' immortal song ;
The Martyrs' noble army raise
Eternal anthems to Thy praise.
- 4 From day to day, O Lord, do we Highly exalt and honor Thee :
Thy Name we worship and adore,
World without end, for evermore.
- 5 Vouchsafe, O Lord, we humbly pray,
To keep us safe from sin this day :
Have mercy, Lord, we trust in Thee ;
O let us ne'er confounded be.

Rev. John Gambold (1711—1771), 1754. Ab. and alt.

"The Trinity adored."

- 1 O HOLY, holy, holy Lord,
Bright in Thy deeds and in Thy Name,
For ever be Thy Name adored,
Thy glories let the world proclaim.
- 2 O Jesus, Lamb once crucified
To take our load of sins away,

- Thine be the hymn that rolls its tide
 Along the realms of upper day.
- 3 O Holy Spirit from above,
 In streams of light and glory given,
 Thou source of ecstasy and love,
 Thy praises ring thro' earth and Heav'n.
- 4 O God Triune, to Thee we owe
 Our every thought, our every song ;
 And ever may Thy praises flow
 From saint and seraph's burning tongue.

Rev. James Wallis Eastburn (1797—1819), 1819.

Thrice Holy.—Is. vi. 1-3. John xii. 41.

- 1 ROUND the Lord in glory seated,
 Cherubim and seraphim
 Filled His Temple and repeated,
 Each to each, th' alternate hymn:
- 2 "Lord, Thy glory fills the Heaven,
 "Earth is with its fulness stored;
 "Unto Thee be glory given,
 "Holy, holy, holy Lord!"
- 3 Heaven is still with glory ringing;
 Earth takes up the angels' cry,
 "Holy, holy, holy," singing,
 "Lord of Hosts, the Lord most High."
- 4 With His seraph train before Him,
 With His holy Church below,
 Thus conspire we to adore Him,
 Bid we thus our anthem flow:
- 5 "Lord, Thy glory fills the Heaven,
 Earth is with its fulness stored;
 Unto Thee be glory given,
 Holy, holy, holy Lord!"

- 6 Thus Thy glorious Name confessing,
 We adopt the angels' cry,
 Holy, holy, holy! blessing
 Thee, the Lord of Hosts most high.
 Bp. Richard Mant (1776—1848), 1837. Ab.

DOXOLOGY.

PRAISE the Father, earth, and Heaven,
 Praise the Son, the Spirit praise;
 As it was, and is, be given
 Glory, through eternal days.
 Unknown Author, 1827.

God my Refuge and Fortress.—Ps. xci.

- 1 CALL Jehovah thy Salvation,
 Rest beneath th' Almighty's shade,
 In His secret habitation
 Dwell, and never be dismayed.
- 2 There no tumult can alarm thee,
 Thou shalt dread no hidden snare;
 Guile nor violence can harm thee,
 In eternal safeguard there.
- 3 From the sword, at noonday wasting,
 From the noisome pestilence,
 In the depth of midnight, blasting,
 God shall be thy sure defence.
- 4 God shall charge His angel legions
 Watch and ward o'er thee to keep:
 Though thou walk thro' hostile regions,
 Though in desert wilds thou sleep.
- 5 Since, with pure and firm affection,
 Thou on God hast set thy love,
 With the wings of His protection
 He will shield thee from above.

- 6 Thou shalt call on Him in trouble,
 He will hearken, He will save ;
 Here for grief reward thee double,
 Crown with life beyond the grave.
 James Montgomery (1771—1854), 1822. Ab.

Praise from the whole Creation.—Ps. cxlviii.

- 1 PRAISE the Lord, ye Heavens, adore Him,
 Praise Him, angels, in the height ;
 Sun and moon, rejoice before Him ;
 Praise Him, all ye stars of light.
- 2 Praise the Lord, for He hath spoken ;
 Worlds His mighty voice obeyed ;
 Laws which never shall be broken,
 For their guidance He hath made.
- 3 Praise the Lord, for He is glorious ;
 Never shall His promise fail ;
 God hath made His saints victorious ;
 Sin and death shall not prevail.
- 4 Praise the God of our salvation ;
 Hosts on high, His power proclaim ;
 Heaven and earth, and all creation,
 Laud and magnify His Name.
 Rev. John Kemphorne (1775—1838), 1801.

God is Love.—1 JOHN iv. 8.

- 1 GOD is Love ; His mercy brightens
 All the path in which we rove ;
 Bliss He wakes, and woe He lightens :
 God is wisdom, God is love.
- 2 Chance and change are busy ever ;
 Man decays, and ages move ;

But His mercy waneth never;
God is wisdom, God is love.

3 E'en the hour that darkest seemeth
Will His changeless goodness prove;
From the mist His brightness streameth:
God is wisdom, God is love.

4 He with earthly cares entwineth
Hope and comfort from above;
Everywhere His glory shineth:
God is wisdom, God is love.

Sir John Bowring (1792—1872), 1825.

Praise on Earth and in Heaven.—REV. iv. 11.

1 PRAISE to Thee, Thou great Creator,
Praise be Thine from every tongue;
Join, my soul, with every creature,
Join the universal song.

2 Father, Source of all compassion,
Pure unbounded grace is Thine:
Hail the God of our salvation,
Praise Him for His love divine.

3 For ten thousand blessings given,
For the richest gifts bestowed,
Sound His praise thro' earth and Heaven,
Sound Jehovah's praise aloud.

4 Joyfully on earth adore Him,
Till in Heaven our song we raise;
There, enraptured fall before Him,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

Rev. John Fawcett (1739—1817), 1767. Alt.

"God of Mercy, God of Grace."—Ps. lxxvii.

- 1 GOD of mercy, God of grace,
Show the brightness of Thy face ;
Shine upon us, Saviour, shine,
Fill Thy Church with light divine ;
And Thy saving health extend
Unto earth's remotest end.
- 2 Let the people praise Thee, Lord,
Be by all that live adored :
Let the nations shout and sing
Glory to their Saviour-King ;
At Thy feet their tribute pay,
And Thy holy will obey.
- 3 Let the people praise Thee, Lord,
Earth shall then her fruits afford :
God to man His blessing give,
Man to God devoted live ;
All below, and all above,
One in joy, and light, and love.

Rev. Henry Francis Lyte (1793—1847), 1834.

"Matutinus altiora."

- 1 As the sun doth daily rise,
Brightening all the morning skies,
So to Thee with one accord
Lift we up our hearts, O Lord.
- 2 Be our Guard in sin and strife ;
Be the Leader of our life ;
While we daily search Thy Word,
Wisdom true impart, O Lord.
- 3 When the sun withdraws his light,
When we seek our beds at night,
Thou, by sleepless hosts adored,
Hear the prayer of faith, O Lord.

- 4 Praise we, with the heavenly host,
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost ;
 Thee would we with one accord
 Praise and magnify, O Lord.

King Alfred of England (849—901).
 Tr. by Earl Horatio Nelson (1823—), 1864. Ab.

Christ in Glory.

- 1 PRAISE to God who reigns above,
 Binding earth and Heaven in love:
 All the armies of the sky
 Worship His dread sovereignty.
 Seraphim His praises sing,
 Cherubim on fourfold wing,
 Thrones, dominions, princes, powers,
 Ranks of might that never cowers.
- 2 Angel hosts His word fulfil,
 Ruling nature by His will ;
 Round His throne archangels pour
 Songs of praise for evermore.
 Yet on man they joy to wait,
 All that bright celestial state ;
 For true man their Lord they see,
 Christ, th' incarnate Deity.
- 3 On the throne our Lord, who died,
 Sits in manhood glorified ;
 Where His people faint below,
 Angels count it joy to go.
 O the depths of joy divine,
 Thrilling through those orders nine,
 When the lost are found again,
 When the banished come to reign.

Rev. Richard Meux Benson, 1861. Ab

Thrice Holy.—Is. vi, 3.

- 1 HOLY, holy, holy, Lord!
 God of Hosts! When Heaven and earth,
 Out of darkness, at Thy word,
 Issued into glorious birth,
 All Thy works before Thee stood,
 And Thine eye beheld them good,
 While they sang with sweet accord,
 Holy, holy, holy, Lord!
- 2 Holy, holy, holy! Thee,
 One Jehovah evermore,
 Father, Son, and Spirit, we,
 Dust and ashes, would adore;
 Lightly by the world esteemed,
 From that world by Thee redeemed,
 Sing we here, with glad accord,
 Holy, holy, holy, Lord!
- 3 Holy, holy, holy! All
 Heaven's triumphant choir shall sing,
 When the ransomed nations fall
 At the footstool of their King:
 Then shall saints and seraphim,
 Hearts and voices, swell one hymn,
 Round the throne with full accord,
 Holy, holy, holy, Lord!

James Montgomery (1771—1854), 1836, 1853

"Speak, for Thy servant heareth."—1 SAM. iii, 10.

- 1 IN Thy Name, O Lord, assembling,
 We, Thy people, now draw near:
 Teach us to rejoice with trembling;
 Speak, and let Thy servants hear,
 Hear with meekness,
 Hear Thy Word with godly fear.

- 2 While our days on earth are lengthened,
 May we give them, Lord, to Thee ;
 Cheered by hope, and daily strengthened,
 May we run, nor weary be,
 Till Thy glory
 Without clouds in Heaven we see.
- 3 There in worship purer, sweeter,
 Thee Thy people shall adore ;
 Tasting of enjoyment greater
 Far than thought conceived before ;
 Full enjoyment,
 Full, unmixed, and evermore.

Rev. Thomas Kelly (1769—1855), 1815.

Dismission.

- 1 LORD, dismiss us with Thy blessing,
 Fill our hearts with joy and peace ;
 Let us now, Thy love possessing,
 Triumph in redeeming grace :
 O refresh us,
 Travelling through this wilderness.
- 2 Thanks we give, and adoration,
 For Thy Gospel's joyful sound :
 May the fruits of Thy salvation
 In our hearts and lives abound ;
 May Thy presence
 With us evermore be found.
- 3 So, whene'er the signal's given
 Us from earth to call away,
 Borne on angels' wings to Heaven,
 Glad the summons to obey,
 May we ever
 Reign with Christ in endless day.

Rev. John Fawcett (1739—1817), 1477.

1 WHEN, streaming from the eastern skies,
The morning light salutes mine eyes,
O Sun of Righteousness Divine,
On me with beams of mercy shine:
Chase the dark clouds of guilt away,
And turn my darkness into day.

2 And when to Heaven's all-glorious King
My morning sacrifice I bring,
And, mourning o'er my guilt and shame,
Ask mercy in my Saviour's Name,
Then, Jesus, cleanse me with Thy blood,
And be my advocate with God.

3 When each day's scenes and labors close,
And wearied nature seeks repose,
With pardoning mercy richly blest,
Guard me, my Saviour, while I rest;
And as each morning sun shall rise,
O lead me onward to the skies.

4 And at my life's last setting sun,
My conflicts o'er, my labors done,
Jesus, Thy Heavenly radiance shed,
To cheer and bless my dying bed;
And from death's gloom my spirit raise,
To see Thy face, and sing Thy praise.

William Shrubsole, Jr. (1759—1829), 1813. Ab. and alt

1 COME, Thou Almighty King,
Help us Thy Name to sing,
Help us to praise:

Father all-glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come, and reign over us,
Ancient of days.

2 Jesus, our Lord, arise ;
Scatter our enemies,
And make them fall ;
Let Thine almighty aid
Our sure defence be made ;
Our souls on Thee be stayed :
Lord, hear our call.

3 Come, Thou Incarnate Word,
Gird on Thy mighty sword,
Our prayer attend :
Come, and Thy people bless,
And give Thy Word success :
Spirit of Holiness,
On us descend.

4 Come, Holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear
In this glad hour :
Thou who Almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of Power.

5 To the great One and Three Eternal praises be
Hence, evermore.
His Sovereign Majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore.

Rev. Charles Wesley (1708—1788), 1757.

- 1 LORD, we come before Thee now,
 At Thy feet we humbly bow;
 O do not our suit disdain,
 Shall we seek Thee, Lord, in vain?
- 2 Lord, on Thee our souls depend
 In compassion, now descend;
 Fill our hearts with Thy rich grace,
 Tune our lips to sing Thy praise.
- 3 In Thine own appointed way,
 Now we seek Thee, here we stay:
 Lord, we know not how to go,
 Till a blessing Thou bestow.
- 4 Send some message from Thy Word,
 That may joy and peace afford;
 Let Thy Spirit now impart
 Full salvation to each heart.
- 5 Comfort those who weep and mourn,
 Let the time of joy return;
 Heal the sick, the captive free,
 Let us all rejoice in Thee.

Rev. William Hammond (—1783), 1745. Ab.

- 1 FOR the mercies of the day,
 For this rest upon our way,
 Thanks to Thee alone be given,
 Lord of earth, and King of Heaven.
- 2 Cold our services have been,
 Mingled every prayer with sin;
 But Thou canst and wilt forgive:
 By Thy grace alone we live.

- 3 Whilst this thorny path we tread,
 May Thy love our footsteps lead;
 When our journey here is past,
 May we rest with Thee at last.
- 4 Let these earthly Sabbaths prove
 Foretastes of our joys above;
 While their steps Thy pilgrims bend
 To the rest which knows no end.

O. P., 1826. Ab.

Asking of God.—1 KINGS iii. 5.

- 1 COME, my soul, thy suit prepare,
 Jesus loves to answer prayer;
 Thou art coming to a King,
 Large petitions with thee bring.
- 2 With my burden I begin,
 Lord, remove this load of sin;
 Let Thy blood, for sinners spilt,
 Set my conscience free from guilt.
- 3 Lord, I come to Thee for rest,
 Take possession of my breast;
 There Thy blood-bought right maintain,
 And without a rival reign.
- 4 While I am a pilgrim here,
 Let Thy love my spirit cheer;
 As my Guide, my Guard, my Friend,
 Lead me to my journey's end.
- 5 Show me what I have to do,
 Every hour my strength renew;
 Let me live a life of faith,
 Let me die Thy people's death.

Rev. John Newton (1725—1807), 1779. Ab.

The fading Light.

- 1 SOFTLY now the light of day
 Fades upon my sight away;
 Free from care, from labor free,
 Lord, I would commune with Thee.
- 2 Thou, whose all-pervading eye
 Naught escapes, without, within,
 Pardon each infirmity,
 Open fault, and secret sin.
- 3 Soon, for me, the light of day
 Shall forever pass away:
 Then, from sin and sorrow free,
 Take me, Lord, to dwell with Thee.
- 4 Thou who, sinless, yet hast known
 All of man's infirmity;
 Then, from Thine eternal throne,
 Jesus, look with pitying eye.

Bp. George Washington Doane (1799—1859), 1824

For the coming week.—Ps. lxxiii. 24.

- 1 THROUGH the passing of the week,
 Father, we Thy presence seek:
 'Midst this world's deceitful maze
 Keep us, Lord, in all our ways.
- 2 O, what snares our path beset!
 O, what cares our spirits fret!
 Let no earthly thing, we pray,
 Draw our souls from Thee away.
- 3 Thou hast set our daily task,
 Grace and strength from Thee we ask;
 Thou our joys and griefs dost send,
 To Thy will our spirits bend.

- 4 Still in duty's lowly round
Be our patient footsteps found:
With Thy counsel guide us here,
Till in glory we appear.

Bp. William Walsham How (1823—), 1872. Ab.

"Christ always with His people."

- 1 JESUS, where'er Thy people meet,
There they behold Thy Mercy-seat;
Where'er they seek Thee, Thou art found,
And every place is hallowed ground.
- 2 For Thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind;
Such ever bring Thee where they come,
And, going, take Thee to their home.
- 3 Dear Shepherd of Thy chosen few,
Thy former mercies here renew;
Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
The sweetness of Thy saving Name.
- 4 Here may we prove the power of prayer
To strengthen faith, and sweeten care,
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all Heaven before our eyes.
- 5 Lord, we are few, but Thou art near;
Nor short Thine arm, nor deaf Thine ear:
O rend the heavens, come quickly down,
And make a thousand hearts Thine own.

William Cowper (1731—1800), 1762. Ab.

"Jam lucis orto sidere."

- 1 WHILE now the daylight fills the sky,
We lift our hearts to God on high,
That He, in all we do or say,
Would keep us free from harm to-day.

- 2 So when the daylight leaves the sky,
And night's dark hours oncemore are nigh,
May we, unsoiled by sinful stain,
Sing glory to our God again.

Ambrose of Milan (340—397).

The Love of God shed abroad in the Heart.—Eph. iii. 16.

- 1 COME, dearest Lord, descend and dwell,
By faith and love, in every breast;
Then shall we know, and taste, and feel,
The joys that cannot be exprest.
- 2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength;
Make our enlarged souls possess,
And learn the height and breadth and
Of Thine immeasurable grace. [length
- 3 Now to the God, whose power can do
More than our thoughts or wishes know,
Be everlasting honors done,
By all the church, thro' Christ, His Son.

Rev. Isaac Watts (1674—1748), 1709.

"Gott ist gegenwärtig. O lasset uns anbeten."

- 1 Lo, God is here : let us adore,
And own how dreadful is this place ;
Let all within us feel His power,
And silent bow before His face.
- 2 Lo, God is here : Him day and night
United choirs of angels sing ;
To Him, enthroned above all height,
Let saints their humble worship bring.
- 3 Lord God of hosts, O may our praise
Thy courts with grateful incense fill ;

Still may we stand before Thy face,
Still hear and do Thy sovereign will.

"Ask what I shall give thee"—1 KINGS iii. 5.

- 1 BEHOLD the throne of grace !
The promise calls me near ;
There Jesus shows a smiling face,
And waits to answer prayer,
- 2 My soul, ask what thou wilt,
Thou canst not be too bold ;
Since His own blood for thee He spilt,
What else can He withhold ?
- 3 Thine image, Lord, bestow,
Thy presence and Thy love ;
I ask to serve Thee here below,
And reign with Thee above.
- 4 Teach me to live by faith,
Conform my will to Thine,
Let me victorious be in death,
And then in glory shine.

Rev. John Newton (1725—1807), 1779. Ab

Importunity in Prayer.—LUKE xviii 1-7.

- 1 OUR Lord, who knows full well
The heart of every saint,
Invites us all our griefs to tell,
To pray, and never faint.
- 2 He bows His gracious ear,
We never plead in vain ;
Yet we must wait till He appear,
And pray, and pray again.

3 Jesus, the Lord, will hear
 His chosen when they cry ;
 And though He may a while forbear,
 He'll help them from on high.

4 Then let us earnest be,
 And never faint in prayer ;
 He loves our importunity,
 And makes our cause His care.

Rev John Newton (1725—1807), 1779. Ab. and alt.

"Sweet is the Work."

1 SWEET is the work, O Lord,
 Thy glorious acts to sing,
 To praise Thy Name, and hear Thy Word,
 And grateful off' rings bring.

2 Sweet, at the dawning light,
 Thy boundless love to tell ;
 And, when approach the shades of night,
 Still on the theme to dwell.

3 Sweet, on this day of rest,
 To join in heart and voice
 With those who love and serve Thee best,
 And in Thy Name rejoice.

4 To songs of praise and joy
 Be every Sabbath given,
 That such may be our blest employ Eternally in Heaven.

Glory begun

1 COME, we that love the Lord,
 And let our joys be known :
 Join in a song of sweet accord,
 And thus surround the throne.

- 2 Let those refuse to sing
That never knew our God ;
But favorites of the heavenly King
May speak their joys abroad.
- 3 The men of grace have found
Glory begun below ;
Celestial fruits on earthly ground
From faith and hope may grow.
- 4 The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets
Before we reach the heavenly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.
- 5 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry ;
We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground
To fairer worlds on high.

Rev. Isaac Watts (1674—1748), 1709 Ab.

The Sabbath given to our Fathers.—Ps. lxxxi

- 1 SING to the Lord, our Might,
With holy fervor sing ;
Let hearts and instruments unite
To praise our heavenly King.
- 2 This is His holy house,
And this His festal day,
When He accepts the humblest vows
That we sincerely pay.
- 3 The Sabbath to our sires
In mercy first was given ;
The Church her Sabbaths still requires
To speed her on to Heaven.

4 We still, like them of old,
Are in the wilderness;
And God is still as near His fold,
To pity and to bless.

5 Then let us open wide
Our hearts for Him to fill;
And He that Israel then supplied,
Will help His Israel still.

Rev. Henry Francis Lyte (1793—1847), 1834.

The Day far spent.—LUKE xxiv. 29.

1 THE day, O Lord, is spent,
Abide with us, and rest;
Our hearts' desires are fully bent
On making Thee our guest.

2 We have not reached that land,
That happy land, as yet,
Where holy angels round Thee stand,
Whose sun can never set.

3 Our sun is sinking now,
Our day is almost o'er;
O Sun of Righteousness, do Thou
Shine on us evermore.

Rev. John Mason Neale (1818—1866), 1854.

The Worship that never ceases.

1 OUR day of praise is done;
The evening shadows fall;
Yet pass not from us with the sun,
True Light that lightenest all.

2 Around the throne on high
Where night can never be,
The white-robed harpers of the sky
Bring ceaseless hymns to Thee.

- 3 Too faint our anthems here ;
 Too soon of praise we tire ;
 But, O the strains, how full and clear,
 Of that eternal choir.
- 4 Yet, Lord, to Thy dear will
 If Thou attune the heart,
 We in 'Thine angels' music still
 May bear our lower part.
- 5 'Tis Thine each soul to calm,
 Each wayward thought reclaim,
 And make our daily life a psalm
 Of glory to Thy Name.
- 6 A little while, and then
 Shall come the glorious end ;
 And songs of angels and of men
 In perfect praise shall blend.

"Hath not where to lay His Head"—LUKE ix 58

- 1 ALMIGHTY God, to-night
 To Thee for help we pray ;
 To whom the darkness is as light,
 And midnight like the day.
- 2 Thy tender love and care
 Prepares our peaceful bed ;
 But Thou, O Saviour, hadst not where
 To lay Thy blessed head.
- 3 O keep us now from harm,
 As Thou hast done before ;
 And let Thine everlasting arm
 Be round us evermore.

- 4 Let holy angels stand
 About us every night,
 Until they bear us to the land
 Of everlasting light.

Morning Hymn.

- 1 AWAKE, my soul, and with the sun
 Thy daily stage of duty run ;
 Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
 To pay thy morning sacrifice.
- 2 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
 And with the angels bear thy part,
 Who, all night long, unwearied sing
 High praise to the eternal King.
- 3 All praise to Thee who safe hast kept,
 And hast refreshed me whilst I slept ;
 Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
 I may of endless life partake.
- 4 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew ;
 Disperse my sins as morning dew ;
 Guide my first springs of thought and will,
 And with Thyself my spirit fill.
- 5 Direct, control, suggest this day,
 All I design, or do, or say ;
 That all my powers, with all their might,
 In Thy sole glory may unite.

Evening Hymn.

- 1 ALL praise to Thee, my God, this night,
 For all the blessings of the light :
 Keep me, O keep me, King of kings,
 Beneath Thine own almighty wings.

- 2 Forgive me, Lord, for Thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done ;
That with the world, myself, and Thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.
- 3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed ;
To die, that this vile body may Rise glorious at the awful day.
- 4 O may my soul on Thee repose,
And may sweet sleep my eyelids close ;
Sleep, that shall me more vigorous make,
To serve my God when I awake.
- 5 When in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts supply,
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.
- 6 Praise God, from whom all blessings flow ;
Praise Him, all creatures here below ;
Praise Him above, ye Heavenly host ;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

"Splendor paternæ gloriæ."

- 1 O JESUS, Lord of light and grace,
Thou Brightness of the Father's face,
Thou fountain of eternal light,
Whose beams disperse the shades of night.
- 2 Come, Holy Sun of heavenly love,
Come in Thy radiance from above,
And to our inward hearts convey
The Holy Spirit's cloudless ray.
- 3 May He our actions deign to bless,
And loose the bonds of wickedness ;

From sudden falls our feet defend,
And guide us safely to the end.

- 4 O hallowed thus be every day ;
Let meekness be our morning ray,
Our faith like noontide splendor glow,
Our souls the twilight never know.

"Abide with us."—LUKE xxiv. 29.

- 1 SUN of my soul, Thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if Thou be near :
O may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes.
- 2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
Forever on my Saviour's breast.
- 3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without Thee I cannot live ;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.
- 4 If some poor wandering child of Thine
Have spurned, to-day, the voice divine ;
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin ;
Let him no more lie down in sin.
- 5 Watch by the sick ; enrich the poor
With blessings from Thy boundless store ;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night,
Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.
- 6 Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take ;
Till, in the ocean of Thy love,
We lose ourselves in Heaven above.

Evening Praise and Prayer.—Ps. iv.

- 1 THUS far the Lord has led me on,
 Thus far His power prolongs my days;
 And every evening shall make known
 Some fresh memorial of His grace.

 And I perhaps am near my home;
 But He forgives my follies past, [come.
 And gives me strength for days to
- 3 I lay my body down to sleep;
 Peace is the pillow for my head,
 While well-appointed angels keep
 Their watchful stations round my bed.
- 4 Faith in His Name forbids my fear;
 O may Thy presence ne'er depart;
 And, in the morning, make me hear
 The love and kindness of Thy heart.
- 5 Thus, when the night of death shall come,
 My flesh shall rest beneath the ground;

 With sweet salvation in the sound.

Evening Blessing.

- 1 SAVIOUR, breathe an evening blessing,
 Ere repose our spirits seal;
 Sin and want we come confessing,
 Thou canst save, and Thou canst heal.
- 2 Though destruction walk around us,
 Though the arrow past us fly,
 Angel-guards from Thee surround us,
 We are safe, if Thou art nigh.
- 3 Though the night be dark and dreary,
 Darkness cannot hide from Thee;

- Thou art He who, never weary,
 Watchest where Thy people be.
- 4 Should swift death this night o'ertake us,
 And our couch become our tomb,
 May the morn in Heaven awake us,
 Clad in light and deathless bloom.

 For the day is passing by;
 See, the shades of evening gather,
 And the night is drawing nigh.
- 2 Deeper, deeper grow the shadows,
 Paler now the glowing west;
 Swift the night of death advances;
 Shall it be the night of rest?
- 3 Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying,
 Lord, I cast myself on Thee;
 Tarry with me through the darkness;
 While I sleep, still watch by me.
- 4 Tarry with me, O my Saviour;
 Lay my head upon Thy breast
 Till the morning, then awake me:
 Morning of eternal rest.

An Evening Prayer.

- 1 HEAR my prayer, O Heavenly Father,
 Ere I lay me down to sleep:
 Bid Thine angels, pure and holy,
 Round my bed their vigil keep.
- 2 Great my sins are, but Thy mercy
 Far outweighs them every one;

Down before Thy cross I cast them,
Trusting in Thy help alone.

- 3 Keep me, through this night of peril,
Underneath its boundless shade ;
Take me to Thy rest, I pray Thee,
When my pilgrimage is made.
- 4 None shall measure out Thy patience
By the span of human thought ;
None shall bound the tender mercies
Which Thy holy Son has brought.
- 5 Pardon all my past transgressions ;
Give me strength for days to come ;
Guide and guard me with Thy blessing,
Till Thine angels bid me home.

Our Need of God.—Ps. cxxvii.

- 1 VAINLY through night's weary hours,
Keep we watch, lest foes alarm ;
Vain our bulwarks, and our towers,
But for God's protecting arm.
- 2 Vain were all our toil and labor,
Did not God that labor bless ;
Vain, without His grace and favor,
Every talent we possess.
- 3 Vainer still the hope of Heaven,
That on human strength relies ;
But to him shall help be given,
Who in humble faith applies.
- 4 Seek we, then, the Lord's Anointed ;
He will grant us peace and rest ;
Ne'er was suppliant disappointed,
Who thro' Christ his prayer addressed.

Walking in the Light of the Lord.—Is. ii. 5.

1 NOW, when the dusky shades of night
 retreating

Before the sun's red banner swiftly flee ;
 Now, when the terrors of the dark are fleeting,

O Lord, we lift our thankful hearts to Thee.

2 Look from the height of Heaven, and send to cheer us

Thy light and truth, and guide us onward still ;

Still let Thy mercy, as of old, be near us,
 And lead us safely to Thy holy Hill.

3 So, when that Morn of endless light is waking,

And shades of evil from its splendors
 flee,

Safe may we rise, this earth's dark vale
 forsaking,

Through all the long bright Day to dwell with Thee.

"Te Deum Laudamus."

1 HARK ! the loud celestial hymn,
 Angel-choirs above are raising ;

Cherubim and seraphim

In unceasing chorus praising,
 Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord :
 Holy ! holy ! holy Lord !

2 Lo ! the apostolic train

Join Thy sacred Name to hallow !
 Prophets swell the loud refrain,

And the white-robed martyrs follow ;
 And from morn till set of sun,
 Through the Church the song goes on.

- 3 Holy Father, Holy Son,
 Holy Spirit, Three we name Thee,
 While in essence, only One,
 Undivided God, we claim Thee ;
 And, adoring, bend the knee,
 While we own the mystery.
- 4 Spare Thy people, Lord, we pray,
 By a thousand snares surrounded :
 Keep us without sin to-day,
 Never let us be confounded.
 Lo! I put my trust in Thee,
 Never, Lord, abandon me.

- 1 Now the day is over,
 Night is drawing nigh,
 Shadows of the evening
 Steal across the sky.
- 2 Jesus, give the weary
 Calm and sweet repose ;
 With Thy tenderest blessing
 May our eyelids close.
- 3 Grant to little children
 Visions bright of Thee ;
 Guard the sailors tossing
 On the deep blue sea.
- 4 Through the long night-watches
 May Thine angels spread
 Their white wings above me,
 Watching round my bed.

- 5 When the morning wakens,
 Then may I arise,
 Pure and fresh and sinless
 In Thy holy eyes.

"The Lord is my Light."—Ps. xxvii. 1.

- 1 SWEET Saviour, bless us ere we go ;
 Thy word into our minds instill ;
 And make our luke-warm hearts to glow
 With lowly love and fervent will.
 Through life's long day and death's dark
 O gentle Jesus, be our Light. [night,
- 2 The day is done, its hours have run ;
 And Thou hast taken count of all—
 The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
 The broken vow, the frequent fall.
 Through life's long day and death's dark
 O gentle Jesus, be our Light. [night,
- 3 Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
 True absolution and release ;
 And bless us, more than in past days,
 With purity and inward peace.
 Through life's long day and death's dark
 O gentle Jesus, be our Light. [night,
- 4 Do more than pardon ; give us joy,
 Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
 And loving hearts without alloy,
 That only long to be like Thee.
 Through life's long day and death's dark
 O gentle Jesus, be our Light. [night,

- 5 For all we love, the poor, the sad,
 The sinful, unto Thee we call ;
 O let Thy mercy make us glad ;
 Thou art our Jesus and our All.
 Through life's long day and death's dark
 O gentle Jesus, be our Light. [night,

"Fast falls the Eventide."

- 1 ABIDE with me: fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts
flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.
- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou, who changest not, abide with me.
- 3 I need Thy presence every passing hour:
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me.

- 4 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless;
 Ills have no weight, and tears no bitter-
 ness;
 Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
 I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.
- 5 Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing
 eyes;
 Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies;
 Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
 In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

"Fainter and yet more faint."

- 1 THE day is gently sinking to a close,
 Fainter and yet more faint the sunlight
 glows;
 O brightness of Thy Father's glory,
 Thou,
 Eternal Light of light, be with us now;
 Where Thou art present darkness cannot
 be:
 Midnight is glorious noon, O Lord, with Thee.
- 2 Our changeful lives are ebbing to an end,
 Onward to darkness and to death we tend;
 O Conqueror of the grave, be Thou our Guide,
 Be Thou our light in death's darkeventide;
 Then in our mortal hour will be no gloom,
 No sting in death, no terror in the tomb.

- 3 Thou, who in darkness walking didst appear
 Upon the waves, and Thy disciples cheer, Come, Lord, in lonesome days, when storms assail,
 And earthly hopes and human succors fail:
 When all is dark, may we behold Thee
 nigh,
 And hear Thy voice, "Fear not, for it is I."
 4 The weary world is mouldering to decay,
 Its glories wane, its pageants fade away:
 In that last sunset, when the stars shall fall,
 May we arise, awakened by Thy call,
 With Thee, O Lord, forever to abide
 In that blest Day which has no eventide.

Sunset Prayer.—MARK i. 32.

- 1 AT even, ere the sun was set,
 The sick, O Lord, around Thee lay;
 O in what divers pains they met,
 O with what joy they went away.
 Once more 'tis eventide, and we,
 Oppressed with various ills, draw near:
 What if Thy form we cannot see?
 We know and feel that Thou art here.
 2 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel,
 For some are sick, and some are sad,
 And some have never loved Thee well,
 And some have lost the love they had;
 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
 For none are wholly free from sin:
 And they who fain would serve Thee best,
 Are conscious most of wrong within.

- 3 O Saviour Christ, 'Thou too art Man ;
 Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried;
 Thy kind but searching glance can scan
 The very wounds that shame would hide;
 Thy touch has still its ancient power,
 No word from Thee can fruitless fall ;
 Hear in this solemn evening hour,
 And in Thy mercy heal us all.

At Home with God everywhere.

- 1 MY Lord, how full of sweet content,
 I pass my years of banishment :
 Where'er I dwell, I dwell with Thee,
 In heaven, in earth, or on the sea.
 To me remains nor place, nor time ;
 My country is in every clime :
 I can be calm and free from care
 On any shore, since God is there.
- 2 While place we seek, or place we shun,
 The soul finds happiness in none ;
 But with a God to guide our way,
 'Tis equal joy, to go or stay.
 Could I be cast where Thou art not,
 That were indeed a dreadful lot ;
 But regions none remote I call,
 Secure of finding God in all.

"Fading, still fading."

- 1 FADING, still fading, the last beam is shin-
 ing,
 Father in Heaven, the day is declining,
 Safety and innocence fly with the light,

Temptation and danger walk forth with the night :
From the fall of the shade till the morning
bells chime,
Shield me from danger, save me from crime.
Father, have mercy, Father, have mercy,
Father, have mercy, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

- 2 Father in Heaven, O hear when we call,
Hear for Christ's sake, who is Saviour of all :
Feeble and fainting, we trust in Thy might;
In doubting and darkness Thy love be our light ;
Let us sleep on Thy breast while the night
taper burns,
Wake in Thy arms when morning returns.
Father, have mercy, etc.

Evening Hymn.

- 1 FATHER, by Thy love and power,
Comes again the evening hour ;
Light has vanished, labors cease
Weary creatures rest in peace :
We to Thee ourselves resign,
Let our latest thoughts be Thine.
- 2 Saviour, to Thy Father bear
This our feeble evening prayer ;
Thou hast seen how oft to-day
We, like sheep, have gone astray ;
Blessed Saviour, we, through Thee
Pray that we may pardoned be.

- 3 Holy Spirit, Breath of balm,
 Fall on us in evening's calm;
 Yet awhile, before we sleep,
 We with 'Thee will vigil keep.
 Melt our spirits, mould our will,
 Soften, strengthen, comfort still.
- 4 Blessed Trinity, be near
 Through the hours of darkness drear;
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 Round us set th' angelic Host,
 Till the flood of morning rays
 Wake us to a song of praise.

"Thy Word of Peace."

- 1 SAVIOUR, again to Thy dear name we raise,
 With one accord, our parting hymn of praise;
 We rise to bless Thee ere our worship cease,
 Then, lowly kneeling, wait Thy word of peace.
- 2 Grant us Thy peace upon our homeward
 way;
 With Thee began, with Thee shall end
 the day;
 Guard Thou the lips from sin, the hearts
 from shame,
 That in this house have called upon Thy Name.
- 3 Grant us Thy peace, Lord, through the coming night;
 Turn Thou for us its darkness into light.

From harm and danger keep Thy children free :

Darkness and light are both alike to Thee.

- 4 Grant us Thy peace throughout our earthly life,
Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife ;
Then, when Thy voice shall bid our conflict cease,
Call us, O Lord, to Thine eternal peace.

"The Day of holy Rest."

- 1 AGAIN returns the day of holy rest,
Which, when He made the world, Jehovah blest,
When, like His own, He bade our labors cease,
And all be piety, and all be peace.
- 2 Let us devote this consecrated day
To learn His will, and all we learn obey ;
So shall He hear, when fervently we raise
Our supplications and our songs of praise.
- 3 Father of Heaven, in whom our hopes confide,
Whose power defends us, and whose precepts guide,
In life our Guardian, and in death our Friend,
Glory supreme be Thine, till time shall end.

Rev. William Mason (1725—1797), 1811

"The Day which the Lord hath made."—Ps. cxviii. 24

- 1 O DAY of rest and gladness,
O day of joy and light,
O balm of care and sadness,
Most beautiful, most bright:
On thee, the high and lowly,
Through ages joined in tune,
Sing holy, holy, holy,
To the Great God Triune.
- 2 On thee, at the creation,
The light first had its birth;
On thee, for our salvation,
Christ rose from depths of earth;
On thee our Lord, victorious,
The Spirit sent from Heaven,
And thus on thee, most glorious,
A triple light was given.
- 3 To-day on weary nations
The heavenly manna falls;
To holy convocations
The silver trumpet calls,
Where gospel light is glowing
With pure and radiant beams,
And living water flowing
With soul-refreshing streams.
- 4 New graces ever gaining
From this our day of rest,
We reach the rest remaining
To spirits of the blest;
To Holy Ghost be praises,
To Father, and to Son;
The Church her voice upraises
To Thee, blest Three in One.

 Earth, tell it out abroad :
 The Passover of gladness,
 The Passover of God.
 From death to life eternal,
 From earth unto the sky,
 Our Christ hath brought us over,
 With hymns of victory,
- 2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
 That we may see aright
 The Lord in rays eternal
 Of resurrection-light ;
 And, listening to His accents,
 May hear, so calm and plain,
 His own "All hail!" and, hearing,
 May raise the victor-strain.
- 3 Now let the heavens be joyful ;
 Let earth her song begin ;
 Let the round world keep triumph,
 And all that is therein ;
 Invisible and visible,
 Their notes let all things blend,
 For Christ the Lord hath risen
 Our Joy that hath no end.

John of Damascus (—c. 780.)

Sabbath Morning.

- 1 WELCOME, delightful morn,
 Thou day of sacred rest :
 I hail thy kind return ;
 Lord, make these moments blest ;
 From the low train of mortal toys,
 ||: I soar to reach immortal joys. :||

- 2 Now may the King descend,
 And fill His throne of grace :
 Thy sceptre, Lord, extend,
 While saints address Thy face ;
 Let sinners feel Thy quickening word,
 ||: And learn to know and fear the Lord. :||
- 3 Descend, celestial Dove,
 With all Thy quickening powers,
 Make known a Saviour's love,
 And bless these sacred hours ;
 Then shall my soul new life obtain,
 ||: Nor sabbaths e'er be spent in vain. :||
- Hayward. In John Dobell's Collection, 1806. Sl. alt

- 1 LORD of the worlds above,
 How pleasant and how fair
 The dwellings of Thy love,
 Thine earthly temples are !
 To Thine abode my heart aspires,
 ||: With warm desires, to see my God. :||
- 2 O happy souls, that pray
 Where God appoints to hear ;
 O happy men, that pay
 Their constant service there .
 They praise Thee still ; and happy they,
 ||: That love the way to Zion's hill. :||
- 3 They go from strength to strength,
 Through this dark vale of tears,
 Till each arrives at length,
 Till each in Heaven appears :
 O glorious seat, when God, our King,
 ||: Shall thither bring our willing feet ! :||

"Safely, through another Week."

- 1 SAFELY, through another week,
 God hath brought us on our way ;
 Let us now a blessing seek,
 Waiting in His courts to-day :
 ||: Day of all the week the best,
 Emblem of eternal rest. :||
- 2 While we pray for pardoning grace,
 Through the dear Redeemer's Name,
 Show Thy reconciléd face,
 Take away our sin and shame ;
 ||: From our worldly cares set free,
 May we rest this day in Thee. :||
- 3 Here we come Thy Name to praise ;
 May we feel Thy presence near :
 May Thy glory meet our eyes,
 While we in Thy house appear :
 ||: Here afford us, Lord, a taste
 Of our everlasting feast. :||
- 4 May Thy Gospel's joyful sound
 Conquer sinners, comfort saints ;
 Make the fruits of grace abound,
 Bring relief for all complaints ;
 ||: Thus may all our Sabbaths prove,
 Till we join the Church above. :||

"The Day spring from on high."—LUKE i. 78.

- 1 CHRIST, whose glory fills the skies,
 Christ, the true, the only Light,
 Sun of Righteousness, arise,
 Triumph o'er the shades of night :
 ||: Day spring from on high, be near.
 Day-star, in our hearts appear. :||

- 2 Dark and cheerless is the morn,
 Unillumined, Lord, by Thee ;
 Joyless is the day's return,
 Till Thy mercy's beams we see ;
 ||: Lord, Thine inward light impart,
 Cheering each benighted heart. :||
- 3 Visit every soul of Thine,
 Pierce the gloom of sin and grief ;
 Fill us, Lord, with light divine,
 Scatter all our unbelief ;
 ||: More and more Thyself display,
 Shining to the perfect day. :||

"At Home."

- 1 'MID scenes of confusion and creature
 complaints,
 How sweet to the soul is communion with saints ;
 To find at the banquet of mercy there's room,
 And feel in the presence of Jesus at home?
 Home, home, sweet, sweet home ;
 Prepare me, dear Saviour, for glory, my home.
- 2 Sweet bonds that unite all the children of peace !
 And thrice precious Jesus, whose love cannot cease !
 Though oft from Thy presence in sadness
 I roam,
 I long to behold Thee in glory, at home.
 Home, home, sweet, etc.

- 3 While here in the valley of conflict I stay,
O give me submission, and strength as my
day ;

In all my afflictions to Thee would I come,
Rejoicing in hope of my glorious home.
Home, home, sweet, etc.

- 4 Whate'er Thou deniest, O give me Thy grace,
The Spirit's sure witness, and smiles of Thy face ;

Endue me with patience to wait at Thy throne,
And find, even now, a sweet foretaste of home.

Home, home, sweet, etc.

- 5 I long, dearest Lord, in Thy beauties to shine ;

No more as an exile in sorrow to pine ;
And in Thy dear image arise from the tomb,

With glorified millions to praise Thee at Home, home, sweet, etc. [home.

"Most calm, most bright."

- 1 BLEST Day of God, most calm, most
The first and best of days : [bright,
The toiler's rest, the saint's delight,
A day of joy and praise.

- 2 My Saviour's face did make thee shine,
His rising did thee raise ;
This made thee heavenly and divine
Beyond all other days.

- 3 The first-fruits do a blessing prove
 To all the sheaves behind ;
 And they, that do a Sabbath love,
 A happy week shall find.
- 4 My Lord on thee His Name did fix,
 Which makes thee rich and gay ;
 Amid His golden candlesticks
 My Saviour walks this day.
- 5 This day must I 'fore God appear,
 For, Lord, this day is Thine :
 O let me spend it in Thy fear,
 The day shall then be mine.

Rev. John Mason (1634—1694), 1683. Alt

- 1 My Lord, my Love, was crucified,
 He all the pains did bear :
 But in the sweetness of His rest
 He makes His servants share.
- 2 How sweetly rest Thy saints above
 Who in Thy bosom lie ;
 The Church below doth rest in hope
 Of that felicity.
- 3 Thou, Lord, who daily feed'st Thy sheep,
 Mak'st them a weekly feast ;
 Thy flocks assemble in their folds
 On this Thy day of rest.
- 4 Welcome and dear unto my soul
 Are these sweet feasts of love ;
 But what a Sabbath shall I keep
 When I shall rest above !

The Lord's Day Morning.

- 1 AGAIN the Lord of life and light
Awakes the kindling ray,
Unseals the eyelids of the morn,
And pours increasing day.
- 2 O what a night was that which wrapt
A heathen world in gloom ;
O what a sun which broke this day
Triumphant from the tomb.
- 3 The powers of darkness leagued in vain
To blind our Lord in death ;
He shook their kingdom, when He fell,
With His expiring breath.
- 4 And now His conq'ring chariot wheels
Ascend the lofty skies ;
While, broke beneath His powerful cross,
Death's iron sceptre lies.
- 5 This day be grateful homage paid,
And loud hosannas sung ;
Let gladness dwell in every heart,
And praise on every tongue.
- 6 Ten thousand, thousand lips shall join
To hail this welcome morn,
Which scatters blessings from its wings
On nations yet unborn.

"Our rising God."

- 1 BLEST morning, whose young dawning
Beheld our rising God ; [rays
That saw Him triumph o'er the dust,
And leave His dark abode.

- 2 In the cold prison of a tomb
 The dead Redeemer lay,
 Till the revolving skies had brought
 The third, th' appointed day.
- 3 Hell and the grave unite their force
 To hold our God, in vain ;
 The sleeping Conqueror arose,
 And burst their feeble chain.
- 4 To Thy great Name, Almighty Lord,
 These sacred hours we pay ;
 And loud hosannas shall proclaim
 The triumph of the day.
- 5 Salvation, and immortal praise,
 To our victorious King ;
 Let heaven and earth, and rocks and seas,
 With glad hosannas ring.

Rev. Isaac Watts (1674—1748), 1709

"Let us worship and bow down."—Ps. xciv. 1—6.

- 1 O COME, loud anthems let us sing,
 Loud thanks to our Almighty King ;
 For we our voices high should raise,
 When our salvation's Rock we praise.
- 2 Into His presence let us haste,
 To thank Him for His favors past ;
 To Him address, in joyful songs,
 The praise that to His Name belongs.
- 3 O let us to His courts repair,
 And bow with adoration there ;
 Down on our knees devoutly all
 Before the Lord our Maker fall.

The Eternal Sabbath.—HEB. iv. 9.

- 1 THINE earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love ;
But there's a nobler rest above ;
To that our laboring souls aspire
With ardent hope and strong desire.
- 2 No more fatigue, no more distress,
Nor sin, nor hell, shall reach the place ;
No groans to mingle with the songs
Which warble from immortal tongues.
- 3 No rude alarms of raging foes ;
No cares to break the long repose ;
No midnight shade, no clouded sun,
But sacred, high, eternal noon.
- 4 O long-expected day, begin ;
Dawn on these realms of woe and sin :
Fain would we leave this weary road,
And sleep in death, to rest with God.

The Christian Farewell.—2 COR. xiii. 11.

- 1 THY presence, everlasting God,
Wide o'er all nature spreads abroad ;
Thy watchful eyes, which cannot sleep,
In every place Thy children keep.
- 2 While near each other we remain,
Thou dost our lives and souls sustain ;
When absent, Thou dost make us share
Thy smiles, Thy counsels, and Thy care.
- 3 To Thee we all our ways commit,
And seek our comforts at Thy feet ;
Still on our souls vouchsafe to shine,
And guard and guide us still as Thine.

- 4 Give us, O Lord, within Thy house
 Again to pay our thankful vows ;
 Or if that joy no more be known,
 O let us meet around Thy throne.

"O luce qui mortalibus."

- 1 GREAT God, who, hid from mortal sight,
 Dost dwell in depths of dazzling light,
 Before whose presence angels bow,
 With faces veiled, in homage low :
 2 Awhile in darkness we remain,
 And round us yet are sin and pain ;
 But soon the everlasting day
 Shall chase our shades of night away.
 3 Then from its fleshly bonds set free,

"Return, my Soul."

- 1 ANOTHER six day's work is done,
 Another Sabbath is begun :
 Return, my soul, enjoy thy rest,
 Improve the day thy God hath blest.
 2 Come, bless the Lord, whose love assigns
 So sweet a rest to wearied minds ;
 Provides an antepast of Heaven,
 And gives this day the food of seven.
 3 O that our thoughts and thanks may rise,
 As grateful incense, to the skies ;
 And draw from Heaven that sweet repose,
 Which none but he that feels it knows.

4 This heavenly calm within the breast
Is the dear pledge of glorious rest,
Which for the Church of God remains,
The end of cares, the end of pains.

5 In holy duties let the day,
In holy pleasures, pass away ;
How sweet a Sabbath thus to spend,
In hope of one that ne'er shall end.

“Sacred Rest.”—Ps. xcii.

✓ 1 SWEET is the work, my God, my King,
To praise Thy Name, give thanks, and sing;
To show Thy love by morning light,
And talk of all Thy truth at night.

2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest ;
No mortal cares shall seize my breast ;
O may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound.

3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless His works, and bless His Word;
Thy works of grace, how bright they shine,
How deep Thy counsels, how divine !

4 Lord, I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil, to cheer my head.

5 Then shall I see, and hear, and know
All I desired or wished below ;
And every power find sweet employ,
In that eternal world of joy.

I was glad."—Ps. cxxii.

- 1 How did my heart rejoice to hear
 My friends devoutly say,
 ||: "In Zion let us all appear, :||
 And keep the solemn day!"
- 2 I love her gates, I love the road;
 The Church, adorned with grace,
 ||: Stands like a palace built for God, :||
 To show His milder face.
- 3 Up to her courts, with joys unknown,
 The holy tribes repair;
 ||: The Son of David holds His throne, :||
 And sits in judgment there.
- 4 Peace be within this sacred place,
 And joy a constant guest;
 ||: With holy gifts and heavenly grace, :||
 Be her attendants blest.
- 5 My soul shall pray for Zion still,
 While life or breath remains;
 ||: There my best friends, my kindred dwell, :||
 There God, my Saviour, reigns.

The Lord's Day Morning.—Ps. v.

- 1 LORD, in the morning Thou shalt hear
 My voice ascending high;
 ||: To Thee will I direct my prayer, :||
 To Thee lift up mine eye.
- 2 Up to the hills, where Christ is gone
 To plead for all His saints,
 ||: Presenting, at His Father's throne, :||
 Our songs and our complaints.
- 3 Thou art a God, before whose sight
 The wicked shall not stand;

||: Sinners shall ne'er be Thy delight, :||
Nor dwell at Thy right hand.

4 But to Thy house will I resort,
To taste Thy mercies there ;

||: I will frequent Thy holy court, :||
And worship in Thy fear.

5 O may Thy Spirit guide my feet
In ways of righteousness ;

||: Make every path of duty straight, :||
And plain before my face.

"The Day the Lord hath made."—Ps. cxviii.

1 THIS is the day the Lord hath made,
He calls the hours His own ;

||: Let Heaven rejoice, let earth be glad, :||
And praise surround the throne.

2 To-day He rose and left the dead,
And Satan's empire fell ;

||: To-day the saints His triumphs spread, :||
And all His wonders tell.

3 Hosanna to th' anointed King,
To David's holy Son ;

||: Help us, O Lord, descend and bring :||
Salvation from the throne.

4 Blest be the Lord, who comes to men
With messages of grace ;

||: Who comes in God His Father's Name, :||
To save our sinful race.

5 Hosanna, in the highest strains
The Church on earth can raise ;

||: The highest heavens, in which Hereigns, :||
Shall give Him nobler praise.

Rev. Isaac Watts, 1719

- 1 WITH gladsome feet we press
 To Zion's holy mount,
 Where gushes from its deep recess
 The cooling fount!
 O happy, happy hill,
 The joy of ev'ry saint!
 With sweet Siloam's crystal rill,
 That cheers the faint.
- 2 Great City, blest of God,
 Jerusalem the free!
 With ceaseless step the path be trod,
 That leads to Thee!
 The martyrs' bleeding feet,
 The saints with woundless breast,
 Alike have sought Thy golden seat,
 To win their rest.
- 3 We come, with fervent zeal,
 Beneath Thy hallowed dome,
 The pledge of our eternal weal,
 Our happy home!
 Thy house our Zion stands,
 Though reared of earthly stone,
 The type of that, not made with hands,
 Yet still Thine own.

Rev. Robert Corbet Singieton, 1867. Ab.

- 1 WELCOME, sweet day of rest,

 Welcome to this reviving breast,
 And these rejoicing eyes.
- 2 The King Himself comes near,
 And feasts His saints to-day;

Here we may sit, and see Him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.

- 3 One day amidst the place
Where my dear God hath been,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Of pleasure and of sin.

- 4 My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this,
And sit, and sing herself away
To everlasting bliss.

Our Redeemer worshipped.

Where my Redeemer God
Unveils the beauties of His face,
And sheds His love abroad.
- 2 Here, on the Mercy-seat,
With radiant glory crowned,
Our joyful eyes behold Him sit
And smile on all around.
- 3 To Him their prayers and cries
Each humble soul presents:
He listens to their broken sighs,
And grants them all their wants.
- 4 To them His sovereign will
He graciously imparts;
And in return accepts, with smiles,
The tribute of their hearts.

"Stand up, and bless the Lord."—NEH. ix. 5

- 1 STAND up, and bless the Lord,
Ye people of His choice :
Stand up and bless the Lord, your God,
With heart, and soul, and voice.
- 2 O for the living flame,
From His own altar brought,
To touch our lips, our minds inspire,
And wing to Heaven our thought.
- 3 God is our strength and song,
And His salvation ours ;
Then be His love in Christ proclaimed
With all our ransomed powers.
- 4 Stand up, and bless the Lord,
The Lord your God adore ;
Stand up, and bless His glorious Name,

"The Only Wise."—JUDE xxiv. 25.

- 1 To God the Only Wise
Our Saviour and our King,
Let all the saints below the skies
Their humble praises bring.
- 2 'Tis His almighty love,
His counsel and His care,
Preserves us safe from sin and death,
And every hurtful snare.
- 3 He will present our souls,
Unblemished and complete,
Before the glory of His face,
With joys divinely great.

- 4 Then all the chosen seed
 Shall meet around the throne,
 Shall bless the conduct of His grace,
 And make His wonders known.

 Wisdom and power belongs,
 Immortal crowns of majesty,
 And everlasting songs.

God's Sabbath.

- 1 LORD, in this sacred hour
 Within Thy courts we beth,
 And bless Thy love, and own Thy power,
 Our Father and our Friend.
- 2 But Thou art not alone
 In courts by mortals trod;
 Nor only is the day Thine own
 When man draws near to God.
- 3 Thy temple is the arch
 Of yon unmeasured sky;
 Thy Sabbath, the stupendous march
 Of grand eternity.

"The Lord reigneth."—Ps. xcix.

- 1 EXALT the Lord our God,
 And worship at His feet;
 His nature is all holiness,
 And mercy is His seat.

- 2 When Israel was His church,
When Aaron was His priest,
When Moses cried, when Samuel prayed,
He gave His people rest.
- 3 Oft He forgave their sins,
Nor would destroy their race ;
And oft He made His vengeance known
When they abused His grace.
- 4 Exalt the Lord our God,
Whose grace is still the same ;
Still He's a God of holiness,
And jealous for His Name.

Rev. Isaac Watts (1674—1748), 1709.

And love, and concord dwell ;
Here give the troubled conscience ease,
The wounded spirit heal.
- 3 The feeling heart, the melting eye,
The humble mind bestow ;
And shine upon us from on high,
To make our graces grow.
- 4 May we in faith receive Thy Word,
In faith present our prayers ;
And, in the presence of our Lord,
Unbosom all our cares.

 Our fainting hope to raise ;
 And pour Thy blessing from above,

 Where willing votaries throng,
 To breathe the humble, fervent prayer,
 And pour the choral song.
- 3 Spirit of grace, O deign to dwell

Sincerity.

- 1 LORD, when we bend before Thy throne,
 And our confessions pour,
 Teach us to feel the sins we own,
 And hate what we deplore.
- 2 Our broken spirits, pitying, see,
 And penitence impart ;
 Then let a kindling glance from Thee
 Beam hope upon the heart.

- 3 When we disclose our wants in prayer,
 May we our wills resign ;
 And not a thought our bosom share
 Which is not wholly 'Thine.
- 4 Let faith each meek petition fill,
 And waft it to the skies ;
 And teach our hearts, 'tis goodness still
 That grants it, or denies.

Rev. Joseph Dacre Carlyle (1759—1804), 1805. Ab

- 1 To Thy temple I repair ;
 Lord, I love to worship there,
 When within the veil I meet
 Christ before the Mercy-seat.
- 2 Thou through Him art reconciled,
 I through Him become Thy child ;
 Abba, Father, give me grace
 In Thy courts to seek Thy face.
- 3 While Thy glorious praise is sung,
 Touch my lips, unloose my tongue,
 That my joyful soul may bless
 Thee, the Lord, my Righteousness.
- 4 While the prayers of saints ascend,
 God of love, to mine attend ;
 Hear me, for Thy Spirit pleads,
 Hear, for Jesus intercedes.
- 5 While I hearken to Thy law,
 Fill my soul with humble awe,
 Till Thy gospel bring to me
 Life and immortality.

- 6 While Thy ministers proclaim
Peace and pardon in Thy Name,
Through their voice, by faith, may I
Hear Thee speaking from the sky.
- 7 From Thy house when I return,
May my heart within me burn;
And at evening let me say,
"I have walked with God to-day."

"The House of the Lord."—Ps. cxxii.

- 1 How pleased and blest was I,
 To hear the people cry,
 "Come, let us seek our God to-day!"
 Yes, with a cheerful zeal,
 We haste to Zion's hill,
 And there our vows and honors pay.
- 2 Zion, thrice happy place,
 Adorned with wondrous grace,
 And walls of strength embrace thee round:
 In thee our tribes appear,
 To pray, and praise, and hear
 The sacred Gospel's joyful sound.
- 3 There David's greater Son
 Has fixed His royal throne;
 He sits for grace and judgment there;
 He bids the saints be glad;
 He makes the sinner sad;
 And humble souls rejoice with fear.
- 4 May peace attend thy gate,
 And joy within thee wait,
 To bless the soul of every guest:
 The man that seeks thy peace,
 And wishes thine increase,
 A thousand blessings on him rest!
- 5 My tongue repeats her vows,
 "Peace to this sacred house!"

For there my friends and kindred dwell;
 And since my glorious God
 Makes thee His blest abode,
 My soul shall ever love thee well.

"From Strength to Strength."—Ps. lxxxiv.

- 1 How pleasant, how divinely fair,
 O Lord of hosts, Thy dwellings are:
 With long desire my spirit faints,
 To meet th' assemblies of Thy saints.
- 2 Blest are the saints who sit on high,
 Around Thy throne of majesty;

- 3 Blest are the souls who find a place
 Within the temple of Thy grace;
 There they behold Thy gentler rays,
 And seek Thy face, and learn Thy praise.
- 4 Blest are the men whose hearts are set
 To find the way to Zion's gate;
 God is their strength, and, thro' the road,
 They lean upon their Helper, God.
- 5 Cheerful they walk with growing strength,
 Till all shall meet in Heaven at length;
 Till all before Thy face appear,
 And join in nobler worship there.

The Church the Birth-place of Souls.—Ps. lxxxvii.

- 1 GOD in His earthly temple lays
 Foundations for His heavenly praise;
 He likes the tents of Jacob well,
 But still in Zion loves to dwell.

- 2 His mercy visits every house
That pays its night and morning vows ;
But makes a more delightful stay
Where churches meet to praise and pray.
- 3 What glories were described of old,
What wonders are of Zion told !
Thou City of our God below,
Thy fame shall Tyre and Egypt know.
- 4 Egypt and Tyre, and Greek and Jew,
Shall then begin their lives anew ;
Angels, and men shall join to sing
The hill where living waters spring.
- 5 When God makes up His last account
Of natives in His holy mount,
'Twill be an honor to appear
As one new-born or nourished there.

Rev. Isaac Watts (1674—1748), 1719.

- 1 MILLIONS within Thy courts have met,
Millions this day before Thee bowed ;
Their faces Zion-ward were set,
Vows with their lips to Thee they vowed.
- 2 Soon as the light of morning broke
O'er island, continent, or deep,
Thy far-spread family awoke,
Sabbath all round the world to keep.
- 3 And not a prayer, a tear, a sigh,
Hath failed this day some suit to gain !
To those in trouble Thou wert nigh :
Not one hath sought Thy face in vain.

- 4 Yet one prayer more, and be it one,
 In which both Heaven and earth accord:
 Fulfil Thy promise to Thy Son;
 Let all that breathe call Jesus Lord.

The Lord our Shepherd.—Ps. xxiii.

- 1 THE Lord my pasture shall prepare,
 And feed me with a shepherd's care;
 His presence shall my wants supply,
 And guard me with a watchful eye;
 My noonday walks He shall attend,
 And all my midnight hours defend.
- 2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
 Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
 To fertile vales, and dewy meads,
 My weary, wandering steps He leads,
 Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
 Amid the verdant landscape flow.
- 3 Though in the paths of death I tread,
 With gloomy horrors overspread,
 My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
 For Thou, O Lord, art with me still:
 Thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
 And guide me through the dreadful shade.
- 4 Though in a bare and rugged way,
 Through devious, lonely wilds I stray,
 Thy bounty shall my pains beguile:
 The barren wilderness shall smile,
 With sudden greens and herbage crowned,
 And streams shall murmur all around.
 Joseph Addison (1672—1719), 1712.

- 1 FORTH from the dark and stormy sky,
 Lord, to Thine altar's shade we fly;
 Forth from the world, its hope and fear,
 Saviour, we seek Thy shelter here:
 Weary and weak, Thy grace we pray;
 Turn not, O Lord, Thy guests away.
- 2 Long have we roamed in want and pain,
 Long have we sought Thy rest in vain;
 Wildered in doubt, in darkness lost,
 Long have our souls been tempest-tost:
 Low at Thy feet our sins we lay;
 Turn not, O Lord, Thy guests away.

Bp. Reginald Heber. (1783—1826), 1825.

- 1 BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne,
 Ye nations, bow with sacred joy;
 Know that the Lord is God alone;
 He can create, and He destroy.
- 2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
 Made us of clay, and formed us men;
 And when, like wand'ring sheep, we strayed,
 He brought us to His fold again.
- 3 We are His people, we His care,
 Our souls and all our mortal frame:
 What lasting honors shall we rear,
 Almighty Maker, to Thy Name?
- 4 We'll crowd Thy gates with thankful songs,
 High as the heavens our voices raise;

And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill Thy courts with sounding praise.

- 5 Wide as the world is Thy command,
Vast as eternity Thy love;
Firm as a rock Thy truth must stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

Rev. Isaac Watts (1674—1748), 1719. Ab. and alt.

"Sing to the Lord."—Ps. c.

- 1 ALL people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice:
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell,
Come ye before Him, and rejoice.
- 2 The Lord, ye know, is God indeed,
Without our aid He did us make:
We are His flock, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.
- 3 O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto:
Praise, laud, and bless His Name always,
For it is seemly so to do.
- 4 For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is forever sure:
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

Rev. William Kethe, 1561.

"Praise Him, all ye People."—Ps. cxvii.

- 1 FROM all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise:
Let the Redeemer's Name be sung,
Through every land, by every tongue.

- 2 Eternal are Thy mercies, Lord ;
 Eternal truth attends Thy Word ;
 Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore
 Till suns shall rise and set no more.

"The Heavens declare the Glory of God."—Ps. xix.

- 1 THE spacious firmament on high,
 With all the blue ethereal sky,
 And spangled heavens, a shining frame,
 'Their Great Original proclaim.
 'Th' unwearied sun, from day to day,
 Does his Creator's power display,
 And publishes to every land
 The work of an Almighty Hand.
- 2 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
 The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
 And nightly to the listening earth
 Repeats the story of her birth ;
 Whilst all the stars that round her burn,
 And all the planets in their turn,
 Confirm the tidings as they roll,
 And spread the truth from pole to pole.
- 3 What though in solemn silence all
 Move round the dark terrestrial ball?
 What though no real voice nor sound
 Amid their radiant orbs be found?
 In reason's ear they all rejoice,
 And utter forth a glorious voice ;
 For ever singing, as they shine,
 "The Hand that made us is Divine."

Joseph Addison (1672—1719), 1712.

Providence and Grace.—Ps. xxxvi. 5—9.

- 1 HIGH in the heavens, eternal God,
Thy goodness in full glory shines ;
Thy truth shall break through every cloud
That veils and darkens Thy designs.
- 2 Forever firm Thy justice stands,
As mountains their foundations keep ;
Wise are the wonders of Thy hands ;
Thy judgments are a mighty deep.
- 3 My God, how excellent Thy grace,
Whence all our hope and comfort
The sons of Adam in distress [springs ;
Fly to the shadow of Thy wings.
- 4 Life, like a fountain rich and free,
Springs from the presence of my Lord ·
And in Thy light our souls shall see
The glories promised in Thy Word.

God's Glory and Nearness to us.—ACTS xvii. 24—28.

- 1 LORD of all being ; throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star ;
Centre and soul of every sphere,
Yet to each loving heart how near.
- 2 Sun of our life, Thy quickening ray
Sheds on our path the glow of day ;
Star of our hope, Thy softened light
Cheers the long watches of the night.
- 3 Our midnight is Thy smile withdrawn ;
Our noontide is Thy gracious dawn ;
Our rainbow arch Thy mercy's sign ;
All, save the clouds of sin, are Thine.

- 4 Lord of all life, below, above,
Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Before Thy ever-blazing throne
We ask no lustre of our own.
- 5 Grant us Thy truth to make us free,
And kindling hearts that burn for Thee,
Till all Thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heavenly flame.

"Bless the Lord."—Ps. ciii.

- 1 BLESS, O my soul, the Living God,
Call home thy thoughts that rove abroad;
Let all the powers within me join
In work and worship so divine.
- 2 Bless, O my soul, the God of grace;
His favors claim thy highest praise;
Why should the wonders He hath wrought
Be lost in silence and forgot?
- 3 'Tis He, my soul, that sent His Son
To die for crimes which thou hast done;
He owns the ransom, and forgives
The hourly follies of our lives.
- 4 Let the whole earth His power confess;
Let the whole earth adore His grace:
The Gentile with the Jew shall join
In work and worship so divine.

God Triune praised.

- 1 PRAISES to Him, whose love has given,
In Christ, His Son, the Life of Heaven;
Who for our darkness gives us light,
And turns to day our deepest night.

- 2 Praises to Him, in grace who came,
To bear our woe, and sin, and shame;
Who lived to die, who died to rise,
The God-accepted sacrifice.
- 3 Praises to Him, the chain who broke,
Opened the prison, burst the yoke,
Sent forth its captives glad and free,
Heirs of an endless liberty.
- 4 Praises to Him, who sheds abroad
Within our hearts the love of God;
The Spirit of all truth and peace,
Fountain of joy and holiness!
- 5 To Father, Son, and Spirit now
The hands we lift, the knees we bow;
To Thee, Jehovah, thus we raise
The sinner's endless song of praise.

"Whose Love profound."

- 1 FATHER of Heaven, whose love profound
A ransom for our souls hath found,
Before Thy throne we sinners bend:
To us Thy pardoning love extend.
- 2 Almighty Son, Incarnate Word,
Our Prophet, Priest, Redeemer, Lord,
Before Thy throne we sinners bend:
To us Thy saving grace extend.
- 3 Eternal Spirit, by whose breath
The soul is raised from sin and death,
Before Thy throne we sinners bend:
To us Thy quickening power extend.

- 4 Jehovah, Father, Spirit, Son,
Mysterious Godhead, Three in One,
Before Thy throne we sinners bend:
Grace, pardon, life, to us extend.

"Mightier than the mighty Sea."—Ps. xciii. 3—5.

- 1 THE floods, O Lord, lift up their voice,
The mighty floods lift up their roar;
The floods in tumult loud rejoice,
And climb in foam the sounding shore.
- 2 But mightier than the mighty sea,
The Lord of glory reigns on high:
Far o'er its waves we look to Thee,
And see their fury break and die.
- 3 Thy word is true, Thy promise sure,
That ancient promise, sealed in love;
Here be Thy temple ever pure,
As Thy pure mansions shine above.

The Majesty and Mercy of God.—Ps. lxxviii.

- 1 KINGDOMS and thrones to God belong;
Crown Him, ye nations, in your song;
His wondrous names and powers rehearse;
His honors shall enrich your verse.
- 2 He shakes the heavens with loud alarms;
How terrible is God in arms!
In Israel are His mercies known,
Israel is His peculiar throne.
- 3 Proclaim Him King, pronounce Him blest;
He's your defence, your joy, your rest;
When terrors rise, and nations faint,
God is the strength of every saint.

Wonders of Creation and Grace.—Ps. cxxxvi.

- 1 GIVE to our God immortal praise ;
Mercy and truth are all His ways :
Wonders of grace to God belong ;
Repeat His mercies in your song.
- 2 He built the earth, He spread the sky,
And fixed the starry lights on high :
Wonders of grace to God belong ;
Repeat His mercies in your song.
- 3 He sent His Son with power to save,
From guilt, and darkness, and the grave :
Wonders of grace to God belong ;
Repeat His mercies in your song.
- 4 Thro' this vain world He guides our feet,
And leads us to His heavenly seat :
His mercies ever shall endure,
When this vain world shall be no more.

Guiding and Guarding.—Ps. cvii.

- 1 GIVE thanks to God ; He reigns above ;
Kind are His thoughts, His Name is Love :
His mercy ages past have known,
And ages long to come shall own.
- 2 Let the redeemed of the Lord
The wonders of His grace record ;
Israel, the nation whom He chose,
And rescued from their mighty foes.
- 3 He feeds and clothes us all the way,
He guides our footsteps lest we stray ;
He guards us with a powerful hand,
And brings us to the heavenly land.

- 4 O let the saints with joy record
 The truth and goodness of the Lord:
 How great His works! how kind His ways!
 Let every tongue pronounce His praise.

Enduring Mercies.—Ps. cxxxvi.

- 1 LET us, with a gladsome mind,
 Praise the Lord, for He kind:
 For His mercies shall endure,
 Ever faithful, ever sure.
- 2 He, with all-commanding might,
 Filled the new-made world with light;
 All things living He doth feed,
 His full hand supplies their need.
- 3 He His chosen race did bless
 In the wasteful wilderness;
 He hath, with a piteous eye,
 Looked upon our misery.
- 4 Let us therefore warble forth
 His high majesty and worth:
 For His mercies shall endure,
 Ever faithful, ever sure.

Thanks and Praise.—Ps. cvii; cxvii.

- 1 THANK and praise Jehovah's Name,
 For His mercies, firm and sure,
 From eternity, the same,
 To eternity endure.
- 2 Let the ransomed thus rejoice,
 Gathered out of every land;
 As the people of His choice,
 Plucked from the destroyer's hand.

- 3 Praise Him, ye who know His love,
 Praise Him from the depths beneath,
 Praise Him in the heights above ;
 Praise your Maker, all that breathe.
- 4 For His truth and mercy stand,
 Past, and present, and to be,
 Like the years of His right hand,
 Like His own eternity.

"Praise Him."—Ps. cl.

- 1 PRAISE the Lord ; His glories show,
 Saints within His courts below,
 Angels round His throne above,
 Praise Him, all that share His love.
- 2 Earth, to Heaven exalt the strain,
 Send it, Heaven, to earth again ;
 Age to age, and shore to shore,
 Praise Him, praise Him, evermore.
- 3 Praise the Lord ; His goodness trace,
 All the wonders of His grace ;
 All that He hath borne and done,
 All He sends us through His Son.
- 4 Strings and voices, hands and hearts,
 In the concert bear your parts ;
 All that breathe, your Lord adore,
 Praise Him, praise Him evermore.

The Condescension of God.—Ps. cxiii.

- 1 HALLELUJAH, raise, O raise
 To our God the song of praise :
 All His servants, join to sing
 God our Saviour and our King.

- 2 Blessed be for evermore
That dread Name which we adore :
O'er all nations God alone,
Higher than the heavens His throne.
- 3 Yet to view the heavens He bends ;
Yea, to earth He condescends ;
Passing by the rich and great,
For the low and desolate.
- 4 He can raise the poor to stand
With the princes of the land ;
Wealth upon the needy shower ;
Set the meanest high in power.
- 5 He the broken spirit cheers,
Turns to joy the mourner's tears ;
Such the wonders of His ways :
Praise His Name, forever praise.

Josiah Conder (1789—1855), 1837. Ab.

- 1 SWEET the time, exceeding sweet,
When the saints together meet ;
When the Saviour is the theme,
When they join to sing of Him.
- 2 Sing we then eternal love,
Such as did the Father move :
He beheld the world undone,
Loved the world, and gave His Son.
- 3 Sing the Son's amazing love :
How He left the realms above,
Took our nature and our place,
Lived and died to save our race.

- 4 Sing we, too, the Spirit's love :
 With our wretched hearts He strove,
 Took the things of Christ, and showed How to reach His blest abode.

"Songs of Praise."—JOB xxxviii. 7.

- 1 SONGS of praise the angels sang,
 Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
 When Jehovah's work begun,
 When He spake, and it was done.
- 2 Songs of praise awoke the morn,
 When the Prince of Peace was born ;
 Songs of praise arose, when He Captive led captivity.
- 3 Heaven and earth must pass away,
 Songs of praise shall crown that day :
 God will make new heavens, new earth,
 Songs of praise shall hail their birth.
- 4 Saints below, with heart and voice,
 Still in songs of praise rejoice ;
 Learning here, by faith and love,
 Songs of praise to sing above.
- 5 Borne upon their latest breath,
 Songs of praise shall conquer death ;
 Then, amidst eternal joy,
 Songs of praise their powers employ.

Mercies that never fail.

- 1 HOLY, holy, holy, Lord,
 Be Thy glorious Name adored :
 Lord, Thy mercies never fail ;
 Hail, celestial Goodness, hail !

- 2 Though unworthy, Lord, Thine ear
Deign our humble songs to hear;
Purer praise we hope to bring,
When around Thy throne we sing.
- 3 While on earth ordained to stay,
Guide our footsteps in Thy way,
Till we come to dwell with Thee,
Till we all Thy glory see.
- 4 Then, with angel-harps, again
We will wake a nobler strain;
There, in joyful songs of praise,
Our triumphant voices raise.

Endless Praise.—Ps. cxlvi.

- 1 I'LL praise my Maker with my breath,
 And, when my voice is lost in death,
 Praise shall employ my nobler powers :
 My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
 While life, and thought, and being last,
 Or immortality endures.
- 2 Happy the man, whose hopes rely
 On Israel's God : He made the sky,
 And earth, and seas, with all their train ;
 His truth forever stands secure ;
 He saves th' opprest, He feeds the poor,
 And none shall find His promise vain.
- 3 The Lord hath eyes to give the blind ;
 The Lord supports the sinking mind ;
 He sends the laboring conscience peace ;
 He helps the stranger in distress,
 The widow and the fatherless,
 And grants the prisoner sweet release.
- 4 I'll praise Him while He lends me breath,
 And, when my voice is lost in death,
 Praise shall employ my nobler powers :
 My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
 While life, and thought, and being last,
 Or immortality endures.

"Glory be to God alone."

- 1 FROM the vast and veiled throng,
 Round the Father's heavenly throne,
 Swells the everlasting song :
 Glory be to God alone !

Round Immanuel's cross of pain
Mortal men, in tribes unknown,
Sing to Him who once was slain :
Glory be to God alone !

- 2 Blend, ye raptured songs, in one,
Men redeemed, your Father own ;
Angels, worship ye the Son :
Glory be to God alone !
Spirit, 'tis within Thy light,
Streaming far from cross and throne,
Earth and Heaven their songs unite :
Glory be to God alone !

"The Lord reigneth."—Ps. xciii : xcvii.

- 1 THE Lord Jehovah reigns,
His throne is built on high ;
The garments He assumes
Are light and majesty :
His glories shine with beams so bright,
No mortal eye can bear the sight.
- 2 The thunders of His hand
Keep the wide world in awe ;
His wrath and justice stand
To guard His holy law ;
And where His love resolves to bless,
His truth confirms and seals the grace.
- 3 Through all His ancient works,
Surprising wisdom shines ;
Confounds the powers of hell,
And breaks their cursed designs ;
Strong is His arm, and shall fulfil
His great decrees, His sovereign will.

- 4 And can this mighty King
 Of Glory condescend?
 And will He write His Name,
 My Father and my Friend?
 I love His Name, I love His Word;
 Join, all my powers, and praise the Lord.

Praise from all Creatures.—Ps. cxlviii.

- 1 YE tribes of Adam, join
 With Heaven, and earth, and seas,
 And offer notes divine
 To your Creator's praise.
 Ye holy throng of angels bright,
 In words of light, begin the song.
- 2 The shining worlds above
 In glorious order stand,
 Or in swift courses move,
 By His supreme command:
 He spake the word, and all their frame
 From nothing came, to praise the Lord.
- 3 He moved their mighty wheels
 In unknown ages past,
 And each His Word fulfils,
 While time and nature last:
 In different ways His works proclaim
 His wondrous Name, and speak His praise.

"Take up the Strain."

- 1 SHALL hymns of grateful love
 Through Heaven's high arches ring,
 And all the hosts above
 Their songs of triumph sing;
 And shall not we take up the strain,
 And send the echo back again?

- 2 Shall they adore the Lord,
 Who bought them with His blood,
 And all the love record
 That led them home to God ;
 And shall not we take up the strain,
 And send the echo back again ?
- 3 O spread the joyful sound,
 The Saviour's love proclaim,
 And publish all around
 Salvation through His Name ;
 Till all the world take up the strain,
 And send the echo back again.

Exalted above the Heavens.—Ps. lvii.

- 1 My God, in whom are all the springs
 Of boundless love, and grace unknown,
 Hide me beneath Thy spreading wings,
 Till the dark cloud is overblown.
- 2 Up to the Heavens I send my cry ;
 The Lord will my desires perform :

The All-seeing God.—Ps. cxxxix.

- 1 LORD, Thou hast searched and seen me
through;
Thine eye commands with piercing view,
My rising and my resting hours,
My heart and flesh with all their powers.
- 2 My thoughts, before they are my own,
Are to my God distinctly known;
He knows the words I mean to speak,
Ere from my opening lips they break.
- 3 Within Thy circling power I stand;
On every side I find Thy hand:
Awake, asleep, at home, abroad,
I am surrounded still with God.
- 4 Amazing knowledge, vast and great,
What large extent, what lofty height:
My soul, with all the powers I boast,
Is in the boundless prospect lost.
- 5 O may these thoughts possess my breast,
Where'er I rove, where'er I rest,
Nor let my weaker passions dare
Consent to sin, for God is there.

The Pillars of Cloud and Fire.—Ex. xiii. 21.

- 1 WHEN Israel, of the Lord beloved,
Out from the land of bondage came,
Her fathers' God before her moved,
An awful guide, in smoke and flame.
- 2 By day, along th' astonished lands,
The cloudy pillar glided slow;
By night, Arabia's crimsoned sands
Returned the fiery column's glow.

3 Thus present still, though now unseen,
 O Lord, when shines the prosperous day,
 Be thoughts of Thee a cloudy screen,
 To temper the deceitful ray.

4 And O, when gathers on our path,
 In shade and storm, the frequent night,
 Be Thou long-suffering, slow to wrath,
 A burning and a shining light.

The Majesty and Might of God.—Ps. xciii.

1 THE Lord Jehovah reigns,
 And royal state maintains,
 His head with awful glories crowned:
 Arrayed in robes of light,
 Begirt with sovereign might,
 And rays of majesty around.

2 Upheld by Thy commands,
 The world securely stands,
 And skies and stars obey Thy word:
 Thy throne was fixed on high
 Before the starry sky:
 Eternal is Thy kingdom, Lord.

3 Let floods and nations rage,
 And all their powers engage;
 Let swelling tides assault the sky:
 The terrors of Thy frown
 Shall beat their madness down;
 Thy throne for ever stands on high.

4 Thy promises are true,
 Thy grace is ever new;
 There fixed, Thy church shall ne'er remove:

Thy saints with holy fear
 Shall in Thy courts appear,
 And sing Thine everlasting love.

God infinite and eternal.

- 1 GREAT God, how Infinite art Thou,
 What worthless worms are we ;
 Let the whole race of creatures bow,
 And pay their praise to Thee.
- 2 Thy throne eternal ages stood,
 Ere seas or stars were made ;
 Thou art the ever-living God,
 Were all the nations dead.
- 3 Eternity, with all its years,
 Stands present in Thy view ;
 To Thee there's nothing old appears,
 Great God, there's nothing new.
- 4 Our lives thro' various scenes are drawn,
 And vexed with trifling cares ;
 While Thine eternal thought moves on Thine undisturbed affairs.

Feared and loved.

- 1 MY God, how wonderful Thou art,
 Thy majesty how bright,
 How beautiful Thy Mercy-seat
 In depths of burning light.

- 2 How dread are Thine eternal years,
O Everlasting Lord;
By prostrate spirits day and night
Incessantly adored.
- 3 O how I fear Thee, living God,
With deepest, tenderest fears,
And worship Thee with trembling hope,
And penitential tears.
- 4 Yet I may love Thee too, O Lord,
Almighty as Thou art;
For Thou hast stooped to ask of me
The love of my poor heart.
- 5 No earthly father loves like Thee,
No mother half so mild
Bears and forbears, as Thou hast done
With me, Thy sinful child.
- 6 Father of Jesus, love's reward,
What rapture will it be,
Prostrate before Thy throne to lie,
And gaze, and gaze on Thee,

God our Help, and Security.—Ps. xc.

- 1 O GOD, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come;
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home:
- 2 Under the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.
- 3 Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,

From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

- 4 A thousand ages, in Thy sight,
Are like an evening gone ;
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.
- 5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away ;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.
- 6 O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

The constant Goodness of God.—Ps. cxxxix.

- 1 JEHOVAH, God, Thy gracious pow'r
On ev'ry hand we see ;
O may the blessings of each hour
Lead all our thoughts to Thee.
- 2 If on the wings of morn we speed
To earth's remotest bound,
Thy hand will there our footsteps lead,
Thy love our path surround.
- 3 Thy power is in the ocean deeps,
And reaches to the skies ;
Thine eye of mercy never sleeps,
Thy goodness never dies.
- 4 From morn till noon, till latest eve,
Thy hand, O God, we see ;
And all the blessings we receive,
Proceed alone from Thee.

- 5 In all the changing scenes of time,
 On Thee our hopes depend ;
 Through every age, in every clime,
 Our Father, and our Friend.

Rev. John Thomson (1782—1818), 1810. Sl. alt.

The Majesty of God.

- 1 THE Lord our God is clothed with might;
 The winds obey His will ;
 He speaks, and in His heav'nly height
 The rolling sun stands still.
- 2 Rebel, ye waves, and o'er the land
 With threatening aspect roar :
 The Lord uplifts His awful hand,
 And chains you to the shore.
- 3 Howl, winds of night, your force combine;
 Without His high behest,
 Ye shall not in the mountain pine
 Disturb the sparrow's nest.
- 4 His voice sublime is heard afar,
 In distant peals it dies ;
 He yokes the whirlwind to His car,
 And sweeps the howling skies.
- 5 Ye nations, bend, in reverence bend ;
 Ye monarchs, wait His nod ;
 And bid the choral song ascend,
 To celebrate our God.

Henry Kirke White (1785—1806), 1806.

The Sovereignty of God.

- 1 KEEP silence, all created things,
 And wait your Master's nod ;
 My soul stands trembling while she sings
 The honors of her God.

- 2 Life, death, and hell, and worlds unknown,
Hang on His firm decree;
He sits on no precarious throne,
Nor borrows leave to be.
- 3 His providence unfolds the book,
And makes His counsels shine;
Each opening leaf, and every stroke,
Fulfil some deep design.
- 4 In Thy fair book of life and grace
O may I find my name,
Recorded in some humble place,
Beneath my Lord, the Lamb.

Resignation to God's Will.

- 1 SINCE all the varying scenes of time
God's watchful eye surveys,
O who so wise to choose our lot,
Or to appoint our ways?
- 2 Good, when He gives, supremely good;
Nor less when He denies;
E'en crosses, from His sovereign hand,
Are blessings in disguise.
- 3 Why should we doubt a Father's love,
So constant and so kind?
To His unerring gracious will
Be every wish resigned.
- 4 In Thy fair book of life divine,
My God, inscribe my name;
There let it fill some humble place
Beneath my Lord, the Lamb.
Rev. James Hervey (1714—1758), 1746 Alt.

- 1 WHEN all Thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love, and praise.
- 2 Unnumbered comforts to my soul
Thy tender care bestowed,
Before my infant heart conceived
From whom those comforts flowed.
- 3 When worn with sickness, oft hast Thou
With health renewed my face;
And, when in sins and sorrows sunk,
Revived my soul with grace.
- 4 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ;
Nor is the least a cheerful heart
That tastes those gifts with joy.
- 5 Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I'll pursue;
And after death, in distant worlds,
The glorious theme renew.
- 6 Through all eternity to Thee
A joyful song I'll raise;
For O, eternity's too short
To utter all Thy praise.

Joseph Addison (1672—1719), 1712. Ab

- 1 IN all my vast concerns with Thee,
In vain my soul would try
To shun Thy presence, Lord, or flee
The notice of Thine eye.

- 2 Thine all-surrounding sight surveys
 My rising and my rest,
 My public walks, my private ways,
 And secrets of my breast.
- 3 My thoughts lie open to the Lord,
 Before they're formed within;
 And ere my lips pronounce the word,
 He knows the sense I mean.
- 4 If o'er my sins I seek to draw
 The curtains of the night,
 Those flaming eyes that guard Thy law
 Would turn the shades to light.
- 5 The beams of noon, the midnight hour,
 Are both alike to Thee:
 O may I ne'er provoke that power
 From which I cannot flee.

Rev. Isaac Watts (1674—1748), 1719. Ab.

Far off, yet near.—ACTS xvii. 24, 27.

- 1 BEYOND, beyond that boundless sea,
 Above that dome of sky,
 Farther than thought itself can flee,
 Thy dwelling is on high;
 Yet dear the awful thought to me
 That Thou, my God, art nigh.
- 2 We hear Thy voice when thunders roll
 Through the wide fields of air;
 The waves obey Thy dread control;
 Yet still Thou art not there:
 Where shall I find Him, O my soul,
 Who yet is everywhere?

- 3 O not in circling depth or height,
 But in the conscious breast,
 Present to faith, though veiled from sight,
 There doth His Spirit rest :
 O come, Thou Presence Infinite,
 And make Thy creature blest.

"He bowed the Heavens."—Ps. xviii.

- 1 THE Lord descended from above,
 And bowed the heavens most high ;
 And underneath His feet He cast
 The darkness of the sky.
- 2 On cherub and on cherubim
 Full royally He rode ;
 And on the wings of all the winds
 Came flying all abroad.
- 3 He sat serene upon the floods,
 Their fury to restrain ;
 And He, as Sovereign Lord and King,
 For evermore shall reign.
- 4 The Lord will give His people strength
 Whereby they shall increase ;
 And He will bless His chosen flock
 With everlasting peace.

Abounding Compassion of God.—Ps. ciii. 8—12.

- 1 My soul, repeat His praise,
 Whose mercies are so great ;
 Whose anger is so slow to rise,
 So ready to abate.

- 2 God will not always chide ;
 And when His strokes are felt,
 His strokes are fewer than our crimes,
 And lighter than our guilt.
- 3 High as the heavens are raised
 Above the ground we tread,
 So far the riches of His grace
 Our highest thoughts exceed.
- 4 His power subdues our sins,
 And His forgiving love,
 Far as the east is from the west,
 Doth all our guilt remove.

"He knoweth our Frame."—Ps. ciii. 13—18.

- 1 THE pity of the Lord
 To those that fear His Name,
 Is such as tender parents feel :
 He knows our feeble frame.
- 2 He knows we are but dust,
 Scattered with every breath ;
 His anger, like a rising wind,
 Can send us swift to death.
- 3 Our days are as the grass,
 Or like the morning flower ;
 If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field,
 It withers in an hour.
- 4 But Thy compassions, Lord,
 To endless years endure ;
 And children's children ever find
 Thy words of promise sure.

"Holy, holy, holy, Lord."

- 1 FATHER, 'Thine Elect who lovest
 With an everlasting love ;
 Saviour, who the bar removest
 From the holy home above ;
 Spirit, daily meetness bringing
 For the glory there upstored :
 List to Thy glad people singing,
 "Holy, holy, holy, Lord !"
- 2 Lord, with sin-bound souls 'Thou bearest,
 Struggling towards this strain divine ;
 Glad on mortal lips 'Thou hearest
 That thrice awful Name of 'Thine.
 But 'Thou listenest, O how sweetly !
 When from holy lips outpoured,
 Rings through Heaven this strain full
 "Holy, holy, holy, Lord !" [meetly,
- 3 Shall we, Lord, meet voices never
 Bring to that eternal hymn ?
 Hallow us to help th' endeavor
 Of 'Thy pure-lipped seraphim :
 Hark ! their own high strain we bring
 Listen to the full accord ! [Thee ;
 Sweet the song we ever sing Thee,
 "Holy, holy, holy, Lord !"

Perpetual Pentecost.

- 1 DAY divine, when sudden streaming
 To the Lord's first lovers came
 Glory new and treasures teeming,
 Mighty gifts and tongues of flame !

Day to happy souls commended,
 When the Holy Ghost was given,
 When the Comforter descended,
 And brought down the joy of Heaven !

2 Hath the Holy Ghost been holden
 By those ancient saints alone?
 Only may the ages olden
 Call the Comforter their own?
 Wonders we may not inherit,
 Signs and tongues we may not crave;
 Yet we still receive the Spirit,
 Still the Comforter we have.

3 Sure the Holy Ghost is dwelling
 With the souls that holier grow;
 Signs most glorious, all excelling,
 Witness brightest we may show:
 Hope that makes ashamed never,
 Perfect peace that passeth thought,
 Mighty joy that stayeth ever,
 Love Divine that changeth not.

Dismission.

LORD, dismiss us with Thy blessing,
 Bid us now depart in peace;
 Still on heavenly manna feeding,
 Let our faith and love increase:

 Up to Thee our hearts we raise;
 When we reach our blissful station,
 Then we'll give Thee nobler praise.

"What of the Night?"—Is. xxi. 11.

- 1 WATCHMAN, tell us of the night,
 What its signs of promise are :
 Traveller, o'er yon mountain's height,
 See that glory beaming star !
 Watchman, does its beauteous ray
 Aught of joy or hope foretell ?
 Traveller, yes ; it brings the day—
 ||: Promised day of Israel. :||
- 2 Watchman, tell us of the night ;
 Higher yet that star ascends :
 Traveller, blessedness and light,
 Peace and truth, its course portends.
 Watchman, will its beams alone
 Gild the spot that gave them birth ?
 Traveller, ages are its own,
 ||: See, it bursts o'er all the earth. :||
- 3 Watchman, tell us of the night,
 For the morning seems to dawn :
 Traveller, darkness takes its flight,
 Doubt and terror are withdrawn,
 Watchman, let thy wanderings cease ;
 Hie thee to thy quiet home :
 'Traveller, lo, the Prince of Peace,
 ||: Lo, the Son of God is come ! :||

Song of the Angels.—LUKE ii. 7—15.

- 1 WHILE shepherds watched their flocks by
 All seated on the ground, [night,
 The angel of the Lord came down,
 And glory shone around.

"Fear not," said he, for mighty dread
 Had seized their troubled mind;
 "Glad tidings of great joy I bring
 To you, and all mankind.

- 2 "To you, in David's town, this day,
 Is born of David's line,
 'The Saviour, who is Christ, the Lord;
 And this shall be the sign:
 The Heavenly Babe you there shall find
 To human view displayed,
 All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
 And in a manger laid."
- 3 Thus spake the seraph, and forthwith
 Appeared a shining throng
 Of angels, praising God, and thus Addressed their joyful song:
 "All glory be to God on high,
 And to the earth be peace;
 Good-will henceforth from Heaven to men
 Begin, and never cease."

"Hark, the glad Sound."—Is. lxi.

- 1 HARK, the glad sound, the Saviour comes,
 The Saviour promised long;
 Let ev'ry heart prepare a throne,
 ||: And ev'ry voice a song. :||
- 2 He comes, the prisoners to release
 In Satan's bondage held;
 The gates of brass before Him burst,
 ||: The iron fetters yield. :||
- 3 He comes, from thickest films of vice
 To clear the mental ray,

And on the eyeballs of the blind
||: To pour celestial day. :||

4 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And with the treasures of His grace
||: T' enrich the humble poor. :||

5 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
Thy welcome shall proclaim,
And Heaven's eternal arches ring
||: With Thy belovéd Name. :||

The Messiah's Coming and Kingdom.—Is. ix. 1—7.

1 THE race that long in darkness pined
Have seen a glorious Light;
The people dwell in day, who dwelt
||: In death's surrounding night. :||

2 To hail Thy rise, Thou better Sun,
The gathering nations come,
Joyous as when the reapers bear
||: The harvest-treasures home. :||

3 To us a Child of Hope is born,
To us a Son is given;
Him shall the tribes of earth obey,
||: Him all the hosts of Heaven. :||

4 His Name shall be the Prince of Peace
Forevermore adored,
The Wonderful, the Counsellor,
||: The great and mighty Lord. :||

5 His power increasing still shall spread;
His reign no end shall know;
Justice shall guard His throne above,

"The Herald Angels."

- 1 HARK, the herald angels sing,
 "Glory to the new-born King!
 Peace on earth, and mercy mild,
 God and sinners reconciled!"
 Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
 Join the triumph of the skies;
 ||: Universal nature say,
 "Christ the Lord is born to-day." :||
- 2 Christ, by highest Heaven adored!
 Christ, the everlasting Lord!
 Late in time behold Him come,
 Offspring of a Virgin's womb!
 Veiled in flesh the Godhead see,
 Hail, th' incarnate Deity!
 ||: Pleased as man with men to dwell,
 Jesus, our Immanuel. :||
- 3 Hail, the heavenly Prince of Peace!
 Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!
 Light and life to all He brings,
 Risen with healing in His wings.
 Mild He lays His glory by,
 Born that man no more may die,
 ||: Born to raise the sons of earth,
 Born to give them second birth. :||

"He has come."

- 1 HE has come, the Christ of God;
 Left for us His glad abode;
 Stooping from His throne of bliss,
 To this darksome wilderness!
 He has come, the Prince of Peace;
 Come to bid our sorrows cease;

- ||: Come to scatter, with His light,
All the shadows of our night. :||
- 2 He, the mighty King, has come,
Making this poor earth His home;
Come to bear our sin's sad load,
Son of David, Son of God.
He has come, whose Name of grace
Speaks deliverance to our race;
- ||: Left for us His glad abode,
Son of Mary, Son of God. :||
- 3 Unto us a Child is born;
Ne'er has earth beheld a morn
Out of all the morns of time
Half so glorious in its prime.
Unto us a Son is given;
He has come from God's own Heaven,
- ||: Bringing with Him from above
Holy peace, and holy love. :||

"Adeste Fideles."

- 1 COME, all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant,
To Bethlehem hasten now with glad accord;
Come, and behold Him
Born, the King of angels,
O come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord.
- 2 Sing, choirs of angels,
Sing in exultation,
Through Heaven's high arches be your praises poured;
Now to our God be
Glory in the highest:
O come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord.

3 Yea, Lord, we bless Thee,
 Born for our salvation;
 Jesus, forever be Thy Name adored;
 Word of the Father,
 Now in flesh appearing:
 O come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord.

Christmas Carol.

- 1 It came upon the midnight clear,
 That glorious song of old,
 From angels bending near the earth,
 To touch their harps of gold:
 "Peace on earth, good-will to men
 From Heaven's all-gracious King."
 The world in solemn stillness lay
 To hear the angels sing.
- 2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
 With peaceful wings unfurled;
 And still their heavenly music floats
 O'er all the weary world:
 Above its sad and lowly plains
 They bend on hovering wing,
 And ever o'er its Babel sounds
 The blessed angels sing.
- 3 But with the woes of sin and strife
 The world has suffered long;
 Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
 Two thousand years of wrong;
 And man, at war with man, hears not
 The love-song which they bring:
 O hush the noise, ye men of strife,
 And hear the angels sing.

- 4 And ye, beneath life's crushing load
 Whose forms are bending low,
 Who toil along the climbing way,
 With painful steps and slow,—
 Look now; for glad and golden hours
 Come swiftly on the wing:
 O rest beside the weary road,
 And hear the angels sing.
- 5 For lo, the days are hastening on,
 By prophet-bards foretold,
 When with the ever-circling years
 Comes round the age of gold:
 When peace shall over all the earth
 Its ancient splendors fling,
 And the whole world give back the song
 Which now the angels sing.

Rev. Edmund Hamilton Sears (1810—1876), 1850.

Christmas Song.

- 1 CALM on the listening ear of night
 Come Heaven's melodious strains,
 Where wild Judea stretches far
 Her silver-mantled plains;
 Celestial choirs, from courts above,
 Shed sacred glories there;
 And angels, with their sparkling lyres,
 Make music on the air.
- 2 The answering hills of Palestine
 Send back the glad reply,
 And greet from all their holy heights
 The Day-spring from on high:
 O'er the blue depths of Galilee
 There comes a holier calm;
 And Sharon waves in solemn praise
 Her silent groves of palm.

- 3 Glory to God! the lofty strain
 The realm of ether fills;
 How sweeps the song of solemn joy
 O'er Judah's sacred hills!
 "Glory to God!" the sounding skies
 Loud with their anthems ring:
 "Peace on the earth; good-will to men,
 From Heaven's eternal King."

God's great Love for Man.—Ps. viii.

- 1 O LORD, how good, how great art Thou,
 In Heaven and earth the same;
 There angels at Thy footstool bow,
 Here babes Thy grace proclaim.
- 2 When glorious in the nightly sky
 Thy moon and stars I see,
 O, what is man, I wondering cry,
 To be so loved by Thee.
- 3 To him Thou hourly deign'st to give
 New mercies from on high;
 Didst quit Thy throne with him to live,
 For him in pain to die.
- 4 Close to Thine own bright seraphim
 His favored path is trod;
 And all beside are serving him,
 That he may serve his God.
- 5 O Lord, how good, how great art Thou,
 In Heaven and earth the same;
 There angels at Thy footstool bow,
 Here babes Thy grace proclaim.

The glad Approach.

- 1 MESSIAH, at Thy glad approach
The howling winds are still;
Thy praises fill the lonely waste,
And breathe from every hill.
- 2 The hidden fountains, at Thy call,
Their sacred stores unlock;
Loud in the desert sudden streams
Burst living from the rock.
- 3 The incense of the Spring ascends
Upon the morning gale;
Red o'er the hill the roses bloom,
The lilies in the vale.
- 4 Renewed, the earth a robe of light,
A robe of beauty wears;
And in new heavens a brighter sun
Leads on the promised years.
- 5 Let Israel to the Prince of Peace
The loud hosanna sing;
With hallelujahs and with hymns,
O Zion, hail thy King.

Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the

"Crowned with Glory."—HEB. ii. 19.

- 1 WHO is He in yonder stall,
At whose feet the shepherds fall?
'Tis the Lord ! O wondrous story !
'Tis the Lord, the King of glory !
At His feet we humbly fall ;
Crown Him, crown Him, Lord of all !
- 2 Who is He in deep distress,
Fasting in the wilderness?
'Tis the Lord ! O wondrous story !
'Tis the Lord, the King of glory !

- At His feet we humbly fall;
Crown Him, crown Him, Lord of all!
- 3 Who is He that stands and weeps
At the grave where Lazarus sleeps?
'Tis the Lord! O wondrous story!
'Tis the Lord, the King of glory!
At His feet we humbly fall;
Crown Him, crown Him, Lord of all!
- 4 Lo, at midnight, who is He Prays in dark Gethsemane?
'Tis the Lord! O wondrous story!
'Tis the Lord, the King of glory!
At His feet we humbly fall;
Crown Him, crown Him, Lord of all!
- 5 On the cross, lo! who is He Sheds His precious blood for me?
'Tis the Lord! O wondrous story!
'Tis the Lord, the King of glory!
At His feet we humbly fall;
Crown Him, crown Him, Lord of all!
- 6 Who is He that from the grave
Comes to heal and help and save?
'Tis the Lord! O wondrous story!
'Tis the Lord, the King of glory!
At His feet we humbly fall;
Crown Him, crown Him, Lord of all!
- 7 Who is He that on yon throne
Reigns as King of kings alone?
'Tis the Lord! O wondrous story!
'Tis the Lord, the King of glory!
At His feet we humbly fall;
Crown Him, crown Him, Lord of all!

- 1 WHEN Jordan hushed his waters still,
And silence slept on Zion's hill; [night
When Bethlehem's shepherds thro' the Watched o'er their flocks by starry light:
- 2 Hark, from the midnight hills around,
A voice of more than mortal sound
In distant hallelujahs stole,
Wild murmuring o'er the raptured soul.
- 3 On wheels of light, on wings of flame,
The glorious hosts of Zion came;
High Heaven with songs of triumph rung.
While thus they struck their harps, and sung:

- 4 "O Zion, lift thy raptured eye,
The long-expected hour is nigh;
Renewed, creation smiles again,
The Prince of Salem comes to reign.
- 5 "He comes to cheer the trembling heart,

Which from the Father's bounty springs:
That in the heavenly realm we may
With Him enjoy eternal day.
- 3 Were earth a thousand times as fair,
Beset with gold and jewels rare,
She yet were far too poor to be
A narrow cradle, Lord, for Thee.
- 4 Ah, dearest Jesus, Holy Child,
Make Thee a bed, soft, undefiled,
Within my heart, that it may be
A quiet chamber kept for Thee.

"The Star of Bethlehem."

- 1 WHEN marshalled on the nightly plain,
The glittering host bestud the sky;
One star alone of all the train
Can fix the sinner's wandering eye.

- 2 Hark ! hark ! to God the chorus breaks,
From every host, from every gem ;
But one alone the Saviour speaks,
It is the Star of Bethlehem.
- 3 Once on the raging seas I rode,
The storm was loud, the night was dark,
The ocean yawned, and rudely blowed
The wind that tossed my foundering bark.
- 4 Deep horror then my vitals froze ;
Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem ;
When suddenly a star arose,
It was the Star of Bethlehem.
- 5 It was my guide, my light, my all,
It bade my dark forebodings cease ;
And, thro' the storm and danger's thrall,
It led me to the port of peace.
- 6 Now safely moored, my perils o'er,
I'll sing, first in night's diadem,
Forever and for evermore,
The Star, the Star of Bethlehem.

"Quæ stellæ solē pulchrior."

- 1 WHAT star is this, with beams so bright,
Which shame the sun's less radiant light ?
It shines t' announce a new-born King,
Glad tidings of our God to bring.
- 2 'Tis now fulfilled what God decreed,
"From Jacob shall a star proceed :"
And lo, the Eastern sages stand,
To read in Heaven the Lord's command.

- 3 O Jesus, while the star of grace
Invites us now to seek Thy face,
May we no more that grace repel,
Or quench that light which shines so well.

"Macht hoch die Thur."—Ps. xxiv.

- 1 LIFT up your heads, ye mighty gates,
Behold the King of glory waits;
The King of kings is drawing near,
The Saviour of the world is here.
- 2 O blest the land, the city blest
Where Christ, the Ruler, is confest:
O happy hearts and happy homes,
To whom this King of triumph comes.
- 3 Redeemer, come, I open wide
My heart to Thee; here, Lord, abide:
Let me Thy mighty presence feel,
Thy grace and love in me reveal.
- 4 So come, my Sovereign, enter in;
Let new and nobler life begin:
Thy Holy Spirit guide us on,
Until our shining goal is won.

"Good Tidings of great Joy."—LUKE ii. 10.

- 1 ANGELS, from the realms of glory,
Wing your flight o'er all the earth,
Ye who sang creation's story,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth:
Come and worship,
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

- 2 Shepherds, in the field abiding,
 Watching o'er your flocks by night,
 God with man is now residing;
 Yonder shines the infant-light;
 Come and worship,
 Worship Christ, the new-born King.
- 3 Sages, leave your contemplations,
 Brighter visions beam afar;
 Seek the great Desire of nations;
 Ye have seen His natal star:
 Come and worship,
 Worship Christ, the new-born King.
- 4 Saints before the altar bending,
 Watching long in hope and fear,
 Suddenly the Lord, descending,
 In His temple shall appear:
 Come and worship,
 Worship Christ, the new-born King.

Christ's Coming.

- 1 JESUS came, the Heavens adoring,
 Came with peace from realms on high;
 Jesus came for man's redemption,
 Lowly came on earth to die:
 Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
 Came in deep humility.
- 2 Jesus comes to hearts rejoicing,
 Bringing news of sins forgiven;
 Jesus comes in sounds of gladness,
 Leading souls redeemed to Heaven:
 Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
 Now the gate of death is riven.

- 3 Jesus comes in joy and sorrow,
 Shares alike our hopes and fears;
 Jesus comes whate'er befalls us,
 Glads our hearts, and dries our tears:
 Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
 Cheering e'en our failing years.
- 4 Jesus comes on clouds triumphant,
 When the heavens shall pass away;
 Jesus comes again in glory:
 Let us then our homage pay,
 Hallelujah! ever singing,
 Till the dawn of endless day.

"Leading onward."—MATT. ii. 10.

- 1 As with gladness men of old
 Did the guiding star behold;
 As with joy they hailed its light,
 Leading onward, beaming bright;
 So, most gracious Lord, may we Evermore be led to Thee.
- 2 As with joyful steps they sped
 To that lowly manger-bed,
 There to bend the knee before
 Him whom Heaven and earth adore;
 So may we with willing feet
 Ever seek the Mercy-seat.
- 3 As they offered gifts most rare
 At that manger rude and bare;
 So may we with holy joy,
 Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
 All our costliest treasures bring,
 Christ, to Thee, our heavenly King.

- 4 Holy Jesus, every day
 Keep us in the narrow way ;
 And, when earthly things are past,
 Bring our ransomed souls at last
 Where they need no star to guide,
 Where no clouds Thy glory hide.
- 5 In the heavenly country bright,
 Need they no created light ;
 Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,
 Thou its Sun, which goes not down :
 There forever may we sing
 Alleluias to our King.

 "Glory in the highest, glory,
 Glory be to God most high.

 Souls redeemed, and sins forgiven,
 Loud our golden harps shall sound.
- 4 Christ is born, the great Anointed ;
 Heaven and earth His glory sing :
 Glad receive whom God appointed
 For your Prophet, Priest, and King.

- 1 BRIGHTNESS of the Father's glory,
 Shall 'Thy praise unuttered lie?
 Fly, my tongue, such guilty silence,
 Sing the Lord who came to die.
- 2 Did archangels sing 'Thy coming?
 Did the shepherds learn their lays?
 Shame would cover me ungrateful,
 Should my tongue refuse to praise.

- 3 From the highest throne of glory,
 To the cross of deepest woe—
 All to ransom guilty captives ;
 Flow, my praise, forever flow.
- 4 Go, return, immortal Saviour,

 Thence return, and reign forever ;

The brighter Light.

- 1 BRIGHT was the guiding star that led,
 With mild benignant ray,
 The Gentiles to the lowly shed,
 Where the Redeemer lay.
- 2 But lo, a brighter, clearer light
 Now points to His abode ;
 It shines through sin and sorrow's night,
 To guide us to our God.
- 3 O haste to follow where it leads,
 The gracious call obey ;
 Be rugged wilds, or flowery meads,
 The Christian's destined way.
- 4 O gladly tread the narrow path
 While light and grace are given ;
 Who meekly follow Christ on earth,
 Shall reign with Him in Heaven.

 Thy Holy Spirit, when they need,
 Will show them how to go.

"Who went about doing Good."—ACTS x. 33.

- 1 BEHOLD, where, in a mortal form,
Appears each grace divine :
The virtues, all in Jesus met,
With mildest radiance shine.
- 2 To spread the rays of heavenly light,
To give the mourner joy,
To preach glad tidings to the poor,
Was His divine employ.
- 3 Lowly in heart, to all His friends
A Friend and Servant found,
He washed their feet, He wiped their tears,
And healed each bleeding wound.
- 4 'Midst keen reproach, and cruel scorn,
Patient and meek He stood ;
His foes, ungrateful, sought His life,
Who labored for their good.
- 5 To God He left His righteous cause,
And still His task pursued ;
With humble prayer, and holy faith,
His fainting strength renewed.
- 6 In the last hour of deep distress,
Before His Father's throne,
With soul resigned, He bowed, and said,
"Thy will, not mine, be done."
- 7 Be Christ our pattern and our guide,
His image may we bear ;
O may we tread His holy steps,
His joy and glory share.

"Grace is poured into Thy Lips."—Ps. xlv. 2.

- 1 WHAT grace, O Lord, and beauty shone
Around Thy steps below :
What patient love was seen in all
Thy life and death of woe.
- 2 Forever on Thy burdened heart
A weight of sorrow hung ;
Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
Escaped Thy silent tongue.
- 3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
Thy friends unfaithful prove ;
Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.
- 4 O give us hearts to love like Thee,
Like Thee, O Lord, to grieve
Far more for others' sins, than all
The wrongs that we receive.
- 5 One with Thyself, may every eye
In us, Thy brethren, see
The gentleness and grace that springs
From union, Lord, with Thee.

Christ our Pattern.—1 PET. ii. 21.

- 1 My dear Redeemer, and my Lord,
I read my duty in Thy Word ;
But in Thy life the law appears,
Drawn out in living characters.
- 2 Such was Thy truth, and such Thy zeal,
Such deference to Thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.

- 3 Cold mountains and the midnight air
 Witnessed the fervor of Thy prayer ;
 The desert Thy temptations knew,
 Thy conflict and Thy victory, too.
- 4 Be Thou my pattern ; make me bear
 More of Thy gracious image here ;
 Then God, the Judge, shall own my name
 Amongst the followers of the Lamb.

Christ's Works of Mercy.

- 1 WHEN, like a stranger on our sphere,
 The lowly Jesus sojourned here ;
 Where'er He went, affliction fled,
 And sickness reared her drooping head.
- 2 The eye that rolled in irksome night
 Beheld His face, for He was light,
 The opening ear, the loosened tongue,
 His precepts heard, His praises sung.
- 3 Demoniac madness, dark and wild,
 With melancholy transport smiled ;
 The storm of horror ceased to roll,
 And reason lightened through the soul.
- 4 His touch the outcast leper healed,
 His lips the sinner's pardon sealed ;
 Warm tears o'er Lazarus He shed,
 Then spake the word that raised the dead.

The Meekness of Christ.

- 1 Howauteous were the marks divine,
 That in Thy meekness used to shine,
 That lit Thy lonely pathway, trod
 In wondrous love, O Son of God.

- O who like Thee, so calm, so bright,
 So pure, so made to live in light?
 O who like Thee did ever go
 So patient, through a world of woe?
- 3 O who like Thee, so humbly bore
 The scorn, the scoffs of men, before?
 So meek, forgiving, godlike, high,
 So glorious in humility?
- 4 And death, that sets the prisoner free,
 Was pang, and scoff, and scorn to Thee;
 Yet love through all Thy torture glowed,
 And mercy with Thy life-blood flowed.
- 5 O in Thy light be mine to go,
 Illuming all my way of woe;
 And give me ever, on the road,
 To trace Thy footsteps, O my God.

"O, where is He that trod the Sea?"

- 1 O, WHERE is He that trod the sea,
 O, where is He that spake,
 And demons from their victims flee,
 The dead their slumbers break;
 The palsied rise in freedom strong,
 The dumb men talk and sing,
 And from blind eyes, benighted long,
 Bright beams of morning spring.
- O, where is He that trod the sea,
 'Tis only He can save;
 To thousands hungering wearily,
 A wondrous meal He gave:
 Full soon, with food celestial fed,
 Their mystic fare they take;

'Twas springtide when He blest the bread,
And harvest when He brake.

- 3 O, where is He that trod the sea,
My soul, the Lord is here :
Let all Thy fears be hushed in thee ;
To leap, to look, to hear,
Be thine : thy needs He'll satisfy :
Art thou diseased, or dumb ?
Or dost thou in thy hunger cry ?

"I come," said Christ, "I come."

The Demoniac of Gadara.—MARK V. 1—21.

- 1 THE winds were howling o'er the deep,
Each wave a watery hill ;
The Saviour wakened from His sleep :
He spake, and all was still.
The madman in a tomb had made
His mansion of despair :
Woe to the traveller who strayed
With heedless footsteps there.
- 2 The chains hung broken from his arm,
Such strength can hell supply ;
And fiendish hate, and fierce alarm,
Flashed from his hollow eye.
He met that glance so thrilling sweet,
He heard those accents mild ;
And, melting at Messiah's feet,
Wept like a weaned child.
- 3 O, madder than the raving man,
O, deafer than the sea :
How long the time since Christ began
To call in vain to me.

Yet could I hear Him once again,
 As I have heard of old,
 Methinks He should not call in vain
 His wanderer to the fold.

"And He healed them."

- 1 THINE arm, O Lord, in days of old
 Was stroug to heal and save :
 It triumphed o'er disease and death,
 O'er darkness and the grave ;
 To Thee they went, the blind, the dumb,
 The palsied and the lame,
 The leper with his tainted life,
 The sick with fevered frame.
- 2 And lo, Thy touch brought life and health,
 Gave speech, and strength, and sight ;
 And youth renewed and frenzy calmed
 Owned Thee, the Lord of light :
 And now, O Lord, be near to bless,
 Almighty as of yore,
 In crowded street, by restless couch,
 As by Gennesaret's shore.
- 3 Though Love and Might no longer heal
 By touch, or word or look ;
 Though they that do Thy work must read
 Thy laws in nature's book :
 Yet come to heal the sick man's soul,
 Come, cleanse the lep'rous taint ;
 Give joy and peace where all is strife,
 And strength where all is faint.
- 4 Be Thou our great Deliverer still,
 Thou Lord of life and death ;
 Restore and quicken, soothe and bless

With Thine almighty breath.
 To hands that work and eyes that see
 Give wisdom's heavenly lore,
 That whole and sick, and weak and strong,
 May praise Thee evermore.

The Fellowship of Suffering.

- 1 O LORD, when we the path retrace
 Which Thou on earth hast trod,
 'To man Thy wondrous love and grace,
 Thy faithfulness to God :
 Thy love, by man so sorely tried,
 Proved stronger than the grave ;
 The very spear that pierced Thy side
 Drew forth the blood to save.
- 2 Unmoved by Satan's subtle wiles,
 Or suffering, shame, and loss,
 Thy path, uncheered by earthly smiles,
 Led only to the cross.
 Give us Thy meek, Thy lowly mind :
 We would obedient be ;
 And all our rest and pleasure find

"It is good for us to be here."—MATT. xvii. 4.

- 1 O MASTER, it is good to be
 High on the mountain here with Thee ;
 Where stand revealed to mortal gaze
 Those glorious saints of other days ;
 Who once received on Horeb's height
 Th' eternal laws of truth and right ;
 Or caught the still small whisper, higher
 Than storm, than earthquake, or than fire.

- 2 O Master, it is good to be
 With Thee, and with Thy faithful Three :
 Here, where the apostle's heart of rock
 Is nerved against temptation's shock ;
 Here, where the son of thunder learns
 The thought that breathes, and word that burns ;
 Here, where on eagle's wings we move
 With Him whose last best creed is love.
- 3 O Master, it is good to be
 Entranced, enrapt, alone with Thee ;
 And watch Thy glistering raiment glow
 Whiter than Hermon's whitest snow,
 The human lineaments that shine
 Irradiant with a light divine :
 Till we too change from grace to grace,
 Gazing on that transfigured face.
- 4 O Master, it is good to be
 Here on the holy mount with Thee :
 When darkling in the depths of night,
 When dazzled with excess of light,
 We bow before the heavenly voice
 That bids bewildered souls rejoice,
 Though love wax cold, and faith be dim,
 " This is My Son, O hear ye Him."

 Hark, all the tribes Hosanna cry ;
 O Saviour meek, pursue Thy road
 With palms and scattered garments

- 2 Ride on, ride on in majesty !
 In lowly pomp, ride on to die :

O Christ, Thy triumphs now begin
O'er captive death and conquered sin.

- 3 Ride on, ride on in majesty!

Look down with sad and wondering eyes
To see th' approaching sacrifice.
- 4 Ride on, ride on in majesty!
Thy last and fiercest strife is nigh:

Christ in Gethsemane.

- 1 'Tis midnight, and on Olive's brow
The star is dimmed that lately shone:
'Tis mid-night; in the garden, now,
The suffering Saviour prays alone.
- 2 'Tis midnight; and from all removed,
The Saviour wrestles lone with fears;
E'en that disciple whom He loved
Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.
- 3 'Tis midnight; and for others' guilt
The Man of Sorrows weeps in blood;
Yet He that hath in anguish knelt
Is not forsaken by His God.
- 4 'Tis midnight; and from ether-plains
Is borne the song that angels know;
Unheard by mortals are the strains
That sweetly soothe the Saviour's woe.

Rev. William Bingham Tappan (1794—1849), 1819

- 1 WHEN on Sinai's top I see
God descend in majesty,
To proclaim His holy law,
All my spirit sinks with awe.
- 2 When, in ecstasy sublime,
Hermon's glorious steep I climb,
At the too transporting light,
Darkness rushes o'er my sight.
- 3 When on Calvary I rest,
God, in flesh made manifest,
Shines in my Redeemer's face,
Full of beauty, truth, and grace.
- 4 Here I would forever stay,
Weep and gaze my soul away :
Thou art Heaven on earth to me,
Lovely, mournful Calvary.

James Montgomery (1771—1854), 1812. Sl. alt.

- 1 Go to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel the tempter's power ;
Your Redeemer's conflict see ;
Watch with Him one bitter hour :
Turn not from His griefs away ;
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.
- 2 Follow to the judgment-hall,
View the Lord of life arraigned ;
O the wormwood and the gall !
O the pangs His soul sustained !
Shun not suffering, shame, or loss ;
Learn of Him to bear the cross.

- 3 Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
 There, adoring at His feet,
 Mark that Miracle of time,
 God's own sacrifice complete:
 "It is finished," hear the cry;
 Learn of Jesus Christ to die.
- 4 Early hasten to the tomb,
 Where they laid His breathless clay:
 All is solitude and gloom;
 Who hath taken Him away?
 Christ is risen; He meets our eyes;
 Saviour, teach us so to rise.

"Venit a cælo Mediator alto."

- 1 Zion's daughter, weep no more,
 Though thy troubled heart be sore:
 He of whom the psalmist sung,
 He who woke the prophet's tongue,
 Christ, the Mediator blest,
 Brings thee everlasting rest.
- 2 In a garden man became
 Heir of sin, and death, and shame:
 Jesus in a garden wins
 Life, and pardon for our sins;
 Through His hour of agony,
 Praying in Gethsemane.
- 3 There for us He intercedes;
 There with God the Father pleads;
 Willing there for us to drain
 To the dregs the cup of pain,
 That in everlasting day
 He may wipe our tears away.

- 1 THE royal banners forward go,
The cross shines forth in mystic glow;
Where He in flesh, our flesh who made,
Our sentence bore, our ransom paid;
- 2 Where deep for us the spear was dyed,
Life's torrent rushing from His side,
To cleanse us in the precious flood
Of water mingled with His blood.
- 3 O tree of glory, tree most fair,
Ordained those holy limbs to bear,
How bright in purple robe it stood,
The purple of a Saviour's blood!
- 4 Upon its arms, so widely flung,
The weight of this world's ransom hung:
The price which none but He could pay,
And spoiled the spoiler of his prey.
- 5 To Thee, Eternal Three in One,
Let homage meet by all be done:
As by the cross Thou dost restore,
So rule and guide us evermore.

- 1 O SACRED Head, now wounded,
With grief and shame weighed down,
Now scornfully surrounded
With thorns, Thine only crown;
O sacred Head, what glory,
What bliss, till now was Thine!
Yet, though despised and gory,
I joy to call Thee mine.

- 2 What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered
Was all for sinners' gain ;
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But Thine the deadly pain ;
Lo, here I fall, my Saviour !
'Tis I deserve Thy place ;
Look on me with Thy favor,
Vouchsafe to me Thy grace.
- 3 The joy can ne'er be spoken,
Above all joys beside,
When in Thy body broken
I thus with safety hide :
My Lord of life, desiring
Thy glory now to see,
Beside the cross expiring,
I'd breathe my soul to Thee.
- 4 What language shall I borrow
To thank Thee, dearest Friend,
For this Thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end ?
O make me Thine forever ;
And should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never,
Outlive my love to Thee.
- 5 And when I am departing,
O part not Thou from me ;
When mortal pangs are darting,
Come, Lord, and set me free ;
And when my heart must languish
Amidst the final throe,
Release me from mine anguish,
By Thine own pain and woe.

- 6 Be near me when I'm dying,
 O show Thy cross to me ;
 And for my succor flying,
 Come, Lord, and set me free :
 These eyes, new faith receiving,
 From Jesus shall not move ;
 For he who dies believing,
 Dies safely, through Thy love.

"Stabat Mater dolorosa."

- 1 NEAR the cross was Mary weeping,
 There her mournful station keeping,
 Gazing on her dying Son :
 There in speechless anguish groaning,
 Yearning, trembling, sighing, moaning,
 Through her soul the sword had gone.
- 2 But we have no need to borrow
 Motives from the mother's sorrow.
 At our Saviour's cross to mourn.
 'Twas our sins brought Him from Heaven,
 These the cruel nails had driven :
 All His griefs for us were borne.
- 3 When no eye its pity gave us,
 When there was no arm to save us.
 He His love and power displayed :
 By His stripes He wrought our healing,
 By His death, our life revealing,
 He for us the ransom paid.
- 4 Jesus, may Thy love constrain us.
 That from sin we may refrain us.
 In Thy griefs may deeply grieve ;
 Thee our best affections giving,

To Thy glory ever living,
May we in Thy glory live.

God is Love.

196

- 1 FROM the cross the blood is falling,
And to us a voice is calling,
Like a trumpet silver-clear.
'Tis the voice announcing pardon,
"It is finished," is its burden,
Pardon to the far and near.
- 2 God is love :—we read the writing
Traced so deeply in the smiting
Of the glorious surety there.
God is light :—we see it beaming,
Like a heavenly dayspring gleaming,
So divinely sweet and fair.
- 3 Cross of shame, yet tree of glory,
Round thee winds the one great story
Of this ever-changing earth ;
Centre of the true and holy,
Grave of human sin and folly,
Womb of nature's second birth.

"The wondrous Cross."

197

- 1 WHEN I survey the wondrous cross,
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
- 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God :
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to His blood.

- 3 See, from His head, His hands, His feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down:
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
- 4 His dying crimson, like a robe,
Spreads o'er His body on the tree;
Then I am dead to all the globe,
And all the globe is dead to me.
- 5 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

Rev. Isaac Watts, (1674—1748), 1709.

Before the Cross.

- 1 ALAS! and did my Saviour bleed?
And did my Sovereign die?
Would He devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?
- 2 Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!
- 3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When God, the mighty Maker, died
For man, the creature's sin.
- 4 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
While His dear cross appears:
Dissolve, my heart, in thankfulness,
And melt, mine eyes, to tears.

- 5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
 The debt of love I owe :
 Here, Lord, I give myself away ;
 'Tis all that I can do.

Kneeling at the Cross.

- 1 O JESUS, sweet the tears I shed,
 While at Thy cross I kneel,
 Gaze on Thy wounded, fainting head,
 And all Thy sorrows feel.
- 2 My heart dissolves to see Thee bleed,
 This heart so hard before ;
 I hear Thee for the guilty plead,
 And grief o'erflows the more.
- 3 'Twas for the sinful Thou didst die,
 And I a sinner stand :
 What love speaks from Thy dying eye,
 And from each piercéd hand.
- 4 I know this cleansing blood of Thine
 Was shed, dear Lord, for me :
 For me, for all, O Grace divine,
 Who look by faith on Thee.
- 5 O Christ of God, O spotless Lamb,
 By love my soul is drawn ;
 Henceforth, for ever, Thine I am ;
 Here life and peace are born.
- 6 In patient hope, the cross I'll bear,
 Thine arm shall be my stay ;
 And Thou, enthroned, my soul shalt spare,
 On Thy great judgment-day.

Rev. Ray Palmer (1808—), 1867

- 1 BEHOLD the Saviour of mankind
 Nailed to the shameful tree :
 How vast the love that Him inclined
 To bleed and die for thee !
- 2 Hark, how He groans, while nature shakes,
 And earth's strong pillars bend ;
 The temple's veil in sunder breaks,
 The solid marbles rend.
- 3 'Tis done, the precious ransom's paid,
 "Receive my soul," He cries :
 See where He bows His sacred head ;
 He bows His head and dies.
- 4 But soon He'll break death's envious
 And in full glory shine : [chain,
 O Lamb of God, was ever pain,
 Was ever love like Thine?

Rev. Samuel Wesley (1662—1735), 1709.

- 1 O COME, and mourn with me awhile ;
 O come ye to the Saviour's side ;
 O come, together let us mourn :
 Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.
- 2 Have we no tears to shed for Him,
 While soldiers scoff and Jews deride ?
 Ah, look how patiently He hangs :
 Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.
- 3 How fast His hands and feet are nailed ;
 His throat with parching thirst is dried ;

His failing eyes are dimmed with blood :
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

4 Seven times He spake, seven words of love ;
And all three hours His silence cried
For mercy on the souls of men :
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

5 Come, let us stand beneath the cross ;
So may th blood from out His side
Fall gently on us drop by drop :
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

6 A broken heart, a fount of tears
Ask, and they will not be denied ;
Lord Jesus, may we love and weep,
Since Thou for us art crucified.

In Pilate's Hall.

- 1 I SEE the crowd in Pilate's hall,
I mark their wrathful mien ;
Their shouts of "crucify" appall,
With blasphemy between.
- 2 And of that shouting multitude
I feel that I am one ;
And in that din of voices rudē,
I recognize my own.
- 3 I see the scourges tear His back
I see the piercing crown,
And of that crowd who smite and mock
I feel that I am one.
- 4 Around yon cross the throng I see,
Mocking the Sufferer's groan ;
Yet still my voice it seems to be,
As if I mocked alone.

5 'Twas I that shed the sacred blood,
 I nailed Him to the tree,
 I crucified the Christ of God,
 I joined the mockery.

6 Yet not the less that blood avails
 To cleanse away my sin ;
 And not the less that cross prevails
 To give me peace within.

At the Cross.

1 I SAW One hanging on a tree,
 In agonies and blood ;
 Who fixed His languid eyes on me,
 As near His cross I stood.

2 Sure, never till my latest breath,
 Can I forget that look ;
 It seemed to charge me with His death,
 Though not a word He spoke.

3 My conscience felt and owned the guilt,
 And plunged me in despair ;
 I saw my sins His blood had spilt,
 And helped to nail Him there.

4 Alas, I knew not what I did,
 But all my tears were vain ;
 Where could my trembling soul be hid,
 For I the Lord had slain.

5 A second look He gave, that said,
 "I freely all forgive ;

This blood is for thy ransom paid,
I die that thou mayest live."

"Sævo dolorum turbine."

- 1 O'ERWHELMED in depths of woe,
Upon the tree of scorn
Hangs the Redeemer of mankind,
With racking anguish torn.
- 2 See how the nails those hands
And feet so tender rend ;
See down His face, and neck, and breast,
His sacred blood descend.
- 3 Hark, with what awful cry
His spirit takes its flight,
That cry, it pierced His Mother's heart,
And whelmed her soul in night.
- 4 Earth hears, and to its base
Rocks wildly to and fro ;
Tombs burst ; seas, rivers, mountains
The veil is rent in two. [quake ;
- 5 The sun withdraws his light ;
The midday heavens grow pale ;
The moon, the stars, the universe
Their Maker's death bewail.
- 6 Shall man alone be mute ?
Come, youth and hoary hairs,
Come, rich and poor, come, all mankind,
And bathe those feet in tears.
- 7 Come, fall before His cross
Who shed for us His blood ;
Who died the Victim of pure love,
To make us sons of God.

- 8 Jesus, all praise to Thee,
 Our joy and endless rest ;
 Be Thou our guide while pilgrims here,
 Our crown amid the blest.

"The Heavenly Lamb."

- 1 NOT all the blood of beasts
 On Jewish altars slain,
 Could give the guilty conscience peace,
 Or wash away the stain.
- 2 But Christ, the heavenly Lamb,
 Takes all our sins away ;
 A sacrifice of nobler name,
 And richer blood, than they.
- 3 My faith would lay her hand
 On that dear head of Thine,
 While like a penitent I stand,
 And there confess my sin.
- 4 My soul looks back to see
 The burdens Thou didst bear,
 When hanging on the curséd tree,
 And hopes her guilt was there.
- 5 Believing, we rejoice
 To see the curse remove ;
 We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
 And sing His bleeding love.

"The dear Lord."

- 1 THERE is a green hill far away,
 Without a city wall,
 Where the dear Lord was crucified,
 Who died to save us all.

- 2 We may not know, we cannot tell
What pains He had to bear ;
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.
- 3 He died that we might be forgiven,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to Heaven,
Saved by His precious blood.
- 4 There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin ;
He only could unlock the gate
Of Heaven, and let us in.
- 5 O, dearly, dearly has He loved,
And we must love Him, too,
And trust in His redeeming blood,
And try His works to do.

In all His words most wonderful,
Most sure in all His ways.

- 1 COME, see the place where Jesus lies :
The last sad rite is done ;
With aching hearts, and weeping eyes,
The faithful few are gone.
- 2 They washed with tears each bloody trace
On those dear limbs that lay ;
Then spread the napkin o'er His face,
And turned and went their way.

The guards their vigils keep :

Watch o'er the Saviour's sleep.

Christ in the Tomb.

- 1 RESTING from His work to-day,
In the tomb the Saviour lay ;
Still He slept, from head to feet
Shrouded in the winding sheet,
Lying in the rock alone,
Hidden by the sealed stone.

- 2 Late at even there was seen,
 Watching long, the Magdalene;
 Early, ere the break of day,
 Sorrowful she took her way
 To the holy garden glade,
 Where her buried Lord was laid.
- 3 So with Thee, till life shall end,
 I would solemn vigil spend;
 Let me hew Thee, Lord, a shrine
 In this rocky heart of mine,
 Where in pure embalméd cell
 None but Thee may ever dwell.
- 4 Myrrh and spices will I bring,
 True affection's offering;
 Close the door from sight and sound
 Of the busy world around;
 And in patient watch remain
 Till my Lord appear again.

He lives again.

- 1 How calm and beautiful the morn,
That gilds the sacred tomb,
Where Christ the crucified was borne,
And veiled in midnight gloom !
O weep no more the Saviour slain,
The Lord is risen, He lives again.
- 2 Ye mourning saints, dry every tear
For your departed Lord ;
“ Behold the place, He is not here,”
The tomb is all unbarred :
The gates of death were closed in vain,
The Lord is risen, He lives again.
- 3 Now cheerful to the house of prayer
Your early footsteps bend ;
The Saviour will Himself be there,
Your Advocate and Friend :
Once by the law your hopes were slain,
But now in Christ ye live again.
- 4 How tranquil now the rising day !
'Tis Jesus still appears,
A risen Lord, to chase away
Your unbelieving fears :
O weep no more your comforts slain,
The Lord is risen, He lives again.
- 5 And when the shades of evening fall,
When life's last hour draws nigh,
If Jesus shines upon the soul,
How blissful then to die !
Since He has risen that once was slain,
Ye die in Christ to live again.

What comfort this sweet sentence gives,
He lives, He lives, who once was dead,
He lives, my ever-living Head.
- 2 He lives to bless me with His love,
He lives to plead for me above,
He lives my hungry soul to feed,
He lives to help in time of need.
- 3 He lives, my kind, my faithful Friend,

He lives, and while He lives I'll sing,
He lives, my Prophet, Priest, and King.

"He is risen, as He said."—MATT. xxviii. 6.

- 1 ALLELUIA! Alleluia!

Hearts to Heaven and voices raise;
Sing to God a hymn of gladness,
Sing to God a hymn of praise:
He who on the cross a victim
For the world's salvation bled,
Jesus Christ, the King of glory,
Now is risen from the dead.

- 2 Now the iron bars are broken,
Christ from death to life is born,
Glorious life, and life immortal,
On this holy Easter morn:
Christ has triumphed, and we conquer
By His mighty enterprise,
We with Him to life eternal
By His resurrection rise.

- 3 Christ is risen, Christ the first-fruits
Of the holy harvest-field,
Which will all its full abundance
At His second coming yield;
Then the golden ears of harvest
Will their heads before Him wave,
Ripened by His glorious sunshine,
From the furrows of the grave.

- 4 Christ is risen, we are risen !
 Shed upon us heavenly grace,
 Rain, and dew, and gleams of glory
 From the brightness of Thy face,
 So that we, with hearts in Heaven,
 Here on earth may fruitful be,
 And by angel-hands be gathered,
 And be ever, Lord, with Thee.
- 5 Alleluia ! Alleluia !
 Glory be to God on high,
 To the Father, and the Saviour,
 Who has gained the victory ;
 Glory to the Holy Spirit,
 Fount of love and sanctity :
 Alleluia ! Alleluia !
 To the Triune Majesty.

Mounting in Triumph.

220

- 1 SEE the Conqueror mounts in triumph,
 See the King in royal state,
 Riding on the clouds His chariot
 To His heavenly palace-gate ;
 Hark, the choirs of angel voices
 Joyful Hallelujahs sing,
 And the portals high are lifted,
 To receive their heavenly King.
- 2 Who is this that comes in glory,
 With the trump of jubilee ?
 Lord of battles, God of armies,
 He has gained the victory ;
 He who on the cross did suffer,
 He who from the grave arose,
 He has vanquished sin and Satan,
 He by death has spoiled His foes.

- 3 Thou hast raised our human nature
 On the clouds to God's right hand,
 There we sit in heavenly places,
 There with Thee in glory stand ;
 Jesus reigns adored by angels,
 Man with God is on the throne,
 Mighty Lord, in Thine ascension
 We by faith behold our own.
- 4 Lift us up from earth to Heaven,
 Give us wings of faith and love,
 Gales of holy aspiration
 Wafting us to realms above ;
 That, with hearts and minds uplifted,
 We with Christ our Lord may dwell,
 Where He sits enthroned in glory
 In the heavenly citadel.
- 5 So at last, when He appeareth,
 We from out our graves may spring,
 With our youth renewed like eagles',
 Flocking round our heavenly King,
 Caught up on the clouds of Heaven,
 And may meet Him in the air,
 Rise to realms where He is reigning,
 And may reign forever there.

 Cherubic legions guard Him home,
 And shout Him welcome to the skies.

 How high our great Deliverer reigns;
 Sing how He spoiled the hosts of hell,
 And led the monster, Death, in chains.

- 1 CROWN Him with many crowns,
 The Lamb upon His throne:
 Hark, how the heavenly anthem drowns
 All music but its own!
 With His most precious blood
 From sin He set us free:
 We hail Him as our matchless King
 Through all eternity.
- 2 Crown Him the Lord of love:
 Behold His hands and side,
 Rich wounds, yet visible above
 In beauty glorified:
 No angel in the sky
 Can fully bear that sight,
 But downward bends his burning eye
 At mysteries so bright.
- 3 Crown Him the Lord of peace,
 Whose power a sceptre sways,
 From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
 And all be prayer and praise:
 His reign shall know no end,
 And round His piercéd feet
 Fair flowers of Paradise extend Their fragrance ever sweet.

- 4 Crown Him the Lord of Heaven,
 One with the Father known,
 One with the Spirit through Him given
 From yonder radiant throne !
 To Thee be endless praise,
 For Thou for us hast died :
 Be Thou, O Lord, through endless days
 Adored and magnified.

 Take the King of glory in. :||
- 2 Him though highest Heaven receives,
 Still He loves the earth He leaves :
 Though returning to His throne,
 Still He calls mankind His own.
 See, He lifts His hands above ;
 See, He shows the prints of love ;
 ||: Hark, His gracious lips bestow
 Blessings on His Church below. :||
- 3 Still for us His death He pleads ;
 Prevalent, He intercedes ;
 Near Himself prepares our place,
 Harbinger of human race.
 Lord, though parted from our sight
 High above yon azure height,

||: Grant our hearts may thither rise,
Following Thee beyond the skies. :||

“Our Brother glorified.”—1 TIM. iii. 16.

.1 CHRIST to Heaven is gone before
In the body here He wore ;
He that as our Brother died
Is our Brother glorified.
Fear not, ye of little faith,
For He hath abolished death ;
Death, no longer now we die,
We but follow Christ on high.

2 And before each fainting one,
Dreading the dark way alone,
Now appear His footsteps bright,
Far diffusing holiest light.
As our Shepherd He is there,
With the comfort of His care
Fear no evil, doubt no more,
Christ to Heaven is gone before.
George Rawson (1807—), 1857. Ab.

“He is gone, and we remain.”

1 HE is gone ! and we remain
In this world of sin and pain :
In the void which He has left,
On this earth of Him bereft,
We have still His work to do,
We can still His path pursue ;
Seek Him both in friend and foe,
In ourselves His image show.

2 He is gone ! unto their goal
World and church must onward roll ;

For behind we leave the past ;
Forward all our glances cast :
Still His words before us range
Through the ages as they change ;
Whereso'er the truth shall lead,
He will give whate'er we need.

- 3 He is gone ! but we once more
Shall behold Him as before,
In the Heaven of heavens the same
As on earth He went and came :
In the many mansions there,
Place for us He will prepare :
In that world, unseen, unknown,
He and we shall yet be one.

"Gazing up."

- 1 MASTER, Lord, to Thee we cry
On Thy throne exalted high ;
See Thy faithful servants, see,
Ever gazing up to Thee.
Grant, though parted from our sight,
High above yon azure height,
Grant our hearts may thither rise,
Following Thee beyond the skies.

- 2 Ever may we upward move,
Wafted on the wings of love ;
Looking when our Lord shall come,
Looking for our heavenly home :
Then may we with Thee remain,
Partners of Thine endless reign ;
There Thy face unclouded see,
Find our Heaven of heavens in Thee.

Reigning in Light.

- 1 RISE, glorious Conqueror, rise
 Into Thy native skies;
 Assume Thy right;
 And where, in many a fold,
 The clouds are backward rolled,
 Pass through those gates of gold,
 And reign in light.
- 2 Victor o'er death and hell,
 Cherubic legions swell
 The radiant train:
 Praises all Heaven inspire;
 Each angel sweeps his lyre,
 And claps his wings of fire,
 Thou Lamb once slain.
- 3 Enter, incarnate God!
 No feet but Thine have trod
 The serpent down:
 Blow the full trumpets, blow,
 Wider yon portals throw,
 Saviour, triumphant, go,
 And take Thy crown.
- 4 Lion of Judah, Hail!
 And let Thy Name prevail
 From age to age:
 Lord of the rolling years,
 Claim for Thine own the spheres,
 For Thou hast bought with tears
 Thy heritage.

"Worthy the Lamb!"

- 1 GLORY to God on high,
 Let praises fill the sky!

Praise ye His Name.
 Angels His Name adore,
 Who all our sorrows bore,
 And saints cry evermore,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

2 All they around the throne
 Cheerfully join in one,
 Praising His Name.
 We who have felt His blood
 Sealing our peace with God,
 Spread His dear fame abroad :
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

3 Join all the human race,
 Our Lord and God to bless ;
 Praise ye His Name !
 In Him we will rejoice,
 Making a cheerful noise,
 And say with heart and voice,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

4 Though we must change our place,
 Our souls shall never cease
 Praising His Name ;
 To Him we'll tribute bring,
 Laud Him our gracious King,
 And without ceasing sing,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

The Victor crowned.

1 JESUS comes, His conflict over,
 Comes to claim His great reward ;
 Angels round the Victor hover,
 Crowding to behold their Lord ;
 Haste, ye saints, your tribute bring,
 Crown Him, everlasting King.

- 2 Yonder throne, for Him erected,
 Now becomes the Victor's seat;
 Lo, the Man on earth rejected!
 Angels worship at His feet:
 Haste, ye saints, your tribute bring,
 Crown Him, everlasting King.
- 3 Day and night they cry before Him,
 "Holy, holy, holy Lord!"
 All the powers of Heaven adore Him,
 All obey His sovereign word;
 Haste, ye saints, your tribute bring,
 Crown Him, everlasting King.

"Pange lingua gloriosi."

- 1 SING, my tongue, the Saviour's triumph,
 Tell His story far and wide;
 Tell aloud the famous story
 Of His body crucified;
 How upon the cross a Victim,
 Languishing in death He died.
- 2 Thrice ten years among us dwelling,
 All the time to flesh assigned;
 Born for this, He meets His passion,
 To His agony resigned;
 On the cross the Lamb is lifted,
 There the sacrifice they bind.
- 3 Equal praises to the Father,
 Equal praises to the Son,
 Equal praises to the Spirit,
 While unending ages run;
 Praise for all in earth and Heaven,
 To th' Eternal Three in One.

"Ascendens in altum Dominus."

- 1 THE Lord on high ascends,
Once more to take His seat:
Celestial powers rejoicing fly,
His glad return to greet.
- 2 The mighty battle gained,
The world's great prince undone,
Before His Father He presents
The mortal palm He won.
- 3 Upborne above the clouds,
Sweet hope He sheds on all:
He flings the gates of Eden back,
Shut fast by Adam's fall.
- 4 To our Redeemer's Name
All thanks and praise be given,
That He hath borne our mortal shape,
To tread the courts of Heaven.
- 5 May we, while waiting Christ,
To heavenly works arise,
And ever live such saintly lives,
That we may reach the skies.

"Hear us, O Christ."

- 1 SOVEREIGN of Heaven, who didst prevail
O'er death and with Thy life-blood dye
The path by which we hope to scale
Yon starry sky:
- 2 Look down in mercy from Thy throne
At God's right hand, O Lord, and see Us who are lingering here alone,
Orphaned of Thee.

- 3 Hear us, O Christ, for we were born
 Out of the travail of Thy soul;
 When by the spear Thy side was torn
 To make us whole.
- 4 Thy toils and anguish at an end,
 Thou wearest now a glorious crown:
 The hour is come; send, Saviour, send
 The Spirit down.

- 1 LOOK, ye saints, the sight is glorious,
 See "the Man of Sorrows" now;
 From the fight returned victorious,
 Every knee to Him shall bow;
 Crown Him, crown Him;
 Crowns become the Victor's brow.
- 2 Crown the Saviour, angels, crown Him:
 Rich the trophies Jesus brings:
 In the seat of power enthrone Him,
 While the vault of Heaven rings:
 Crown Him, crown Him;
 Crown the Saviour "King of kings."
- 3 Sinners in derision crowned Him,
 Mocking thus the Saviour's claim;
 Saints and angels crowd around Him,
 Own His title, praise His Name:
 Crown Him, crown Him;
 Spread abroad the Victor's fame.
- 4 Hark, those bursts of acclamation!
 Hark, those loud triumphant chords!
 Jesus takes the highest station:
 O what joy the sight affords!

Crown Him, crown Him ;
 "King of kings, and Lord of lords."

2 The joy of all who dwell above,
 The joy of all below
 To whom He manifests His love,

 Their profit and their joy to know
 The mystery of His love.

 His people's hope, His people's wealth,
 Their everlasting theme.

The universal Anthem.—REV. v. 11—13.

1 COME, let us join our cheerful songs
 With angels round the throne ;
 Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
 But all their joys are one.

2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
 "To be exalted thus ;"
 "Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply,
 "For He was slain for us."

- 3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine ;
And blessings, more than we can give,
Be, Lord, forever Thine.
- 4 Let all that dwell above the sky,
And air, and earth, and seas,
Conspire to lift Thy glories high,
And speak Thine endless praise.
- 5 The whole creation join in one,
To bless the sacred Name
Of Him that sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

To the Lamb that was slain.--REV. v. 6--12.

- 1 BEHOLD the glories of the Lamb,
Amidst His Father's throne:
Prepare new honors for His Name,
And songs before unknown.
- 2 Let elders worship at His feet,
The church adore around,
With vials full of odors sweet,
And harps of sweeter sound.
- 3 Those are the prayers of all the saints,
And these the hymns they raise:
Jesus is kind to our complaints,
He loves to hear our praise.
- 4 Now to the Lamb that once was slain,
Be endless blessings paid;
Salvation, glory, joy remain
Forever on Thy head.
- 5 Thou hast redeemed our souls with blood,
Hast set the prisoners free,
Hast made us kings and priests to God,
And we shall reign with Thee.

- 1 COME, let us lift our joyful eyes
Up to the courts above,
And smile to see our Father there,
Upon a throne of love.

And venture near the Lord:
No fiery cherub guards His seat,
Nor double flaming sword.

- 3 The peaceful gates of heavenly bliss
 Are opened by the Son ;
 High let us raise our notes of praise,
 And reach th' almighty throne.
- 4 To Thee ten thousand thanks we bring Great Advocate on high ;
 And glory to th' eternal King,
 Who lays His anger by.

 By His atoning blood ;
 Now He appears before the throne,
 And pleads our cause with God.
- 3 Clothed with our nature still, He knows
 The weakness of our frame,
 And how to shield us from the foes
 Which He Himself o'ercame.
- 4 O may we ne'er forget His grace,
 Nor blush to wear His Name ;
 Still may our hearts hold fast His faith,
 Our mouths His praise proclaim.

Our double Kindred to Emmanuel.—1 COR. xv. 47, 49.

- 1 O MEAN may seem this house of clay,
 Yet 'twas the Lord's abode;
 Our feet may mourn this thorny way,
 Yet here Emmanuel trod.
- 2 This fleshly robe the Lord did wear;
 This watch the Lord did keep;
 These burdens sore the Lord did bear;
 These tears the Lord did weep.
- 3 O vale of tears no longer sad,
 Wherein the Lord did dwell!

- O happy robe of flesh that clad
Our own Emmanuel !
- 4 But not this fleshly robe alone
Shall link us, Lord, to Thee ;
Not only in the tear and groan
Shall the dear kindred be.
- 5 We shall be reckoned for Thine own,
Because Thy Heaven we share,
Because we sing around Thy throne,
And Thy bright raiment wear.
- 6 O mighty grace, our life to live,
To make our earth divine !
O mighty grace, Thy Heaven to give,
And lift our life to Thine !

“The Incarnate Mystery.”—1 COR. i. 22—29.

- 1 DEAREST of all the names above,
My Jesus and my God,
Who can resist Thy heavenly love,
Or trifle with Thy blood ?
- 2 'Tis by the merits of Thy death
The Father smiles again ;
'Tis by Thine interceding breath
The Spirit dwells with men.
- 3 Till God in human flesh I see,
My thoughts no comfort find :
The holy, just, and sacred Three
Are terrors to my mind.
- 4 But if Immanuel's face appear,
My hope, my joy, begins :
His Name forbids my slavish fear
His grace removes my sins.

 I love th' incarnate Mystery,
 And there I fix my trust.

- 1 REJOICE, the Lord is King,
 Your Lord and King adore;
 Mortals, give thanks and sing,
 And triumph evermore:
 Lift up your heart, lift up your voice
 Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.
- 2 Jesus the Saviour reigns,

 Lift up your heart, lift up your voice,
 Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.
- 4 Rejoice in glorious hope;

The enthroned High Priest.

- 1 WHERE high the heavenly temple stands,
 The house of God not made with hands,

- A great High Priest our nature wears,
The Guardian of mankind appears.
- 2 He who for men their surety stood,
And poured on earth His precious blood,
Pursues in Heaven His mighty plan,
The Saviour and the Friend of man.
- 3 Though now ascended up on high,
He bends on earth a brother's eye;
Partaker of the human name,
He knows the weakness of our frame.
- 4 Our fellow-sufferer yet retains
A fellow-feeling of our pains;
And still remembers in the skies
His tears, and agonies, and cries.
- 5 In every pang, that rends the heart,
The Man of Sorrows had a part;
Touched with the feeling of our grief,
He to the sufferer sends relief.
- 6 With boldness, therefore, at the throne,
Let us make all our sorrows known,
And ask the aid of heavenly power,
To help us in the evil hour.

"Enthroned in Glory."

- 1 HAIL, Thou once despised Jesus,
Hail, Thou Galilean King!
Thou didst suffer to release us,
Thou didst free salvation bring:
Hail, Thou agonizing Saviour,
Bearer of our sin and shame;
By Thy merits we find favor;
Life is given through Thy Name.

2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
 All our sins on Thee were laid;
 By almighty love anointed,
 Thou hast full atonement made:
 All Thy people are forgiven
 Through the virtue of Thy blood;
 Opened is the gate of Heaven;
 Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

3 Jesus, hail, enthroned in glory,

 Till in glory we appear.

" I am with you alway. " — MATT. xxviii. 20.

- 1 ALWAYS with us, always with us,
 Words of cheer, and words of love :
 Thus the risen Saviour whispers,
 From His dwelling-place above.
 With us when the storm is sweeping
 O'er our pathway dark and drear,
 Waking hope within our bosoms,
 Stilling every anxious fear.
- 2 With us in the lonely valley,
 When we cross the chilling stream ;
 Lighting up the steps to glory
 Like the ancient prophet's dream.
 Always with us, always with us,
 Pilot on the surging main,

Guiding to the distant Heaven,
Where we shall be home again.

"Raise the Anthem."

- 1 COME, ye faithful, raise the anthem,
Cleave the skies with shouts of praise :
Sing to Him who found the ransom,
Ancient of eternal days :
God eternal, Word Incarnate,
Whom the Heaven of heavens obeys.
- 2 Ere He raised the lofty mountains,
Formed the sea, or built the sky,
Love eternal, free, and boundless,
Forced the Lord of Life to die ;
Lifted up the Prince of princes
On the throne of Calvary.
- 3 Now on those eternal mountains
Stands the sapphire throne, all bright,
Where unceasing hallelujahs
They upraise, the sons of light :
Zion's people tell His praises,
Victor after hard-won fight.
- 4 Bring your harps and bring your incense,
Sweep the string and pour the lay ;
Let the earth proclaim His wonders,
King of that celestial day :
He, the Lamb once slain, is worthy,
Who was dead and lives for aye.

Ιησοῦς ὁ ζωοδότης.

- 1 JESUS, Lord of Life eternal,
Taking those He loved the best,

Stood upon the Mount of Olives,
And His own the last time blest:
Then, though He had never left it,
Sought again His Father's breast.

2 Knit is now our flesh to Godhead,
Knit in everlasting bands:
Call the world to highest festal:
Floods and oceans, clap your hands:
Angels, raise the song of triumph:
Make response, ye distant lands.

3 Loosing death with all its terrors
Thou ascendedst up on high;
And to mortals, now immortal,
Gavest immortality,
As Thine own disciples saw Thee
Mounting Victor to the sky.

“The Song of Songs.”

1 COME, let us sing the song of songs,
The saints in Heaven began the strain,
The homage which to Christ belongs:
“Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!”

2 Slain to redeem us by His blood,
To cleanse from every sinful stain,
And make us kings and priests to God:
“Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!”

3 To Him, enthroned by filial right,
All power in Heaven and earth proclaim,
Honor, and majesty, and might:
“Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!”

- 4 Long as we live, and when we die, [reign,
 And while in Heaven with Him we
 This song our song of songs shall be :
 " Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain !"

"The Way, the Truth, the Life."—JOHN xiv. 6.

- 1 THOU art the Way : To Thee alone
 From sin and death we flee ;
 And he who would the Father seek,
 Must seek Him, Lord, by Thee.
 2 Thou art the Truth : Thy word alone
 True wisdom can impart ;
 Thou only canst inform the mind,
 And purify the heart.
 3 Thou art the Life : the rending tomb
 Proclaims Thy conquering arm,
 And those who put their trust in Thee
 Nor death, nor hell shall harm.
 4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life :
 Grant us that Way to know,
 That Truth to keep, that Life to win,
 Whose joys eternal flow.
 Bp. George Washington Doane (1799—1859), 1824

The Comforter comes.—JOHN xvi. 7.

- 1 OUR blest Redeemer, ere He breathed
 His tender last farewell,
 A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed
 With us to dwell.
 2 He came in semblance of a dove
 With sheltering wings outspread,
 The holy balm of peace and love
 On earth to shed.

- 3 He came sweet influence to impart,
 A gracious, willing guest,
 While He can find one humble heart
 Wherein to rest.
- 4 And His that gentle voice we hear,
 Soft as the breath of even,
 That checks each thought, that calms each fear,
 And speaks of Heaven.
- 5 And every virtue we possess,
 And every victory won,
 And every thought of holiness
 Are His alone.
- 6 Spirit of purity and grace,
 Our weakness, pitying, see :
 O make our hearts Thy dwelling-place,
 And meet for Thee.

Pentecost.—ACTS ii. 1—4.

- 1 No track is on the sunny sky,
 No footprints on the air :
 Jesus hath gone ; the face of earth
 Is desolate and bare.
- 2 That Upper Room is Heaven on earth :
 Within its precincts lie
 All that earth has of faith, or hope,
 Or Heaven-born charity.
- 3 He comes ! He comes ! that mighty Breath
 From Heaven's eternal shores ;
 His uncreated freshness fills
 His Bride, as she adores.

- 4 Earth quakes before that rushing blast,
 Heaven echoes back the sound,
 And mightily the tempest wheels
 That Upper Room around.
- 5 One moment—and the Spirit hung
 O'er all with dread desire;
 Then broke upon the heads of all
 In cloven tongues of fire.
- 6 The Spirit came into the Church
 With His unfailing power;
 He is the living Heart that beats
 Within her at this hour.
- 7 Most tender Spirit, mighty God,
 Sweet must Thy presence be,
 If loss of Jesus can be gain,
 So long as we have Thee!

Rev. Frederick William Faber (1814—1863), 1849. Ab. and sl. alt.

Pentecost.

- 1 WHEN God of old came down from Heaven,
 In power and wrath He came;
 Before His feet the clouds were riven,
 Half darkness, and half flame.
- 2 But when He came the second time,
 He came in power and love;
 Softer than gale at morning prime,
 Hovered His holy Dove.
- 3 The fires, that rushed on Sinai down
 In sudden torrents dread,
 Now gently light, a glorious crown,
 On every sainted head.
- 4 And, as on Israel's awe-struck ear
 The voice exceeding loud,

- The trump that angels quake to hear,
Thrilled from the deep dark cloud ;
- 5 So, when the Spirit of our God
Came down His flock to find,
A voice from Heaven was heard abroad,
A rushing mighty wind.
- 6 It fills the Church of God, it fills
The sinful world around ;
Only in stubborn hearts and wills
No place for it is found.
- 7 Come, Lord, come Wisdom, Love, and Power,
Open our ears to hear ;
Let us not miss th' accepted hour ;
Save, Lord, by love or fear.

"Veni, Creator Spiritus."

- 1 COME, O Creator Spirit blest,
And in our souls take up Thy rest ;
Come, with Thy grace and heavenly aid,
To fill the hearts which Thou hast made.
- 2 Great Comforter, to Thee we cry ;
O highest gift of God most high,
O Fount of life, O Fire of love,
And sweet anointing from above !
- 3 Kindle our senses from above,
And make our hearts o'erflow with love ;
With patience firm, and virtue high,
The weakness of our flesh supply.
- 4 Far from us drive the foe we dread,
And grant us Thy true peace instead ;

So shall we not, with Thee for Guide,
Turn from the path of life aside.

Prayer for Light and Guidance.

- 1 COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With peace and healing from above;
Be Thou my Light, be Thou my Guide,
O'er every thought and step preside.
- 2 The light of truth to me display,
That I may know and choose my way;
Plant holy fear within my heart,
That I from God may ne'er depart.
- 3 Conduct me safe, conduct me far,
From every sin and hurtful snare;
Lead me to God, my final Rest,
In His enjoyment to be blest.
- 4 Lead me to holiness, the road
That I must take to dwell with God;
Lead me to Christ, the living Way,
Nor let me from His pastures stray.

The Operations of the Spirit.

- 1 ETERNAL Spirit, we confess
And sing the wonders of Thy grace;
Thy power conveys our blessings down
From God the Father and the Son.
- 2 Enlightened by Thy heavenly ray,
Our shades and darkness turn to day;
Thine inward teachings make us know
Our danger and our refuge, too.
- 3 Thy power and glory work within,
And break the chains of reigning sin;

Do our imperious lusts subdue,
And form our wretched hearts anew.

- 4 The troubled conscience knows Thy voice;
Thy cheering words awake our joys;
Thy words allay the stormy wind,
And calm the surges of the mind.

"Holy Ghost, the Infinite.

- 1 HOLY GHOST, the Infinite,
Shine upon our nature's night
With Thy blessed inward light,
Comforter Divine!
- 2 We are sinful, cleanse us, Lord;
We are faint, Thy strength afford;
Lost, until by Thee restored,
Comforter Divine!
- 3 Like the dew, Thy peace distil:
Guide, subdue our wayward will,
Things of Christ unfolding still,
Comforter Divine!
- 4 In us, for us, intercede,
And with voiceless groaning plead
Our unutterable need,
Comforter Divine!
- 5 In us "Abba, Father," cry,
Earnest of our bliss on high,
Seal of immortality,
Comforter Divine!
- 6 Search for us the depths of God;
Bear us up the starry road,
To the height of Thine abode,
Comforter Divine!

George Rawson (1807—), 1853 A.D.

- 1 GRACIOUS Spirit, Holy Ghost,
Taught by Thee, we covet most,
Of Thy gifts at Pentecost,
Holy, heavenly Love.
- 2 Love is kind, and suffers long,
Love is meek, and thinks no wrong,
Love than death itself more strong:
Give us heavenly Love.
- 3 Prophecy will fade away,
Melting in the light of day;
Love will ever with us stay:
Give us heavenly Love.
- 4 Faith will vanish into sight,
Hope be emptied in delight;
Love in Heaven will shine more bright:
Give us heavenly Love.
- 5 Faith and Hope and Love we see
Joining hand in hand agree;
But the greatest of the three,
And the best, is Love.

Bp. Christopher Wordsworth (1807—1885), 1862. Ab. and alt.

- 1 LOVE Divine, all love excelling,
Joy of Heaven, to earth come down;
Fix in us Thy humble dwelling,
All Thy faithful mercies crown;
Jesus, Thou art all compassion,
Pure unbounded love Thou art;
Visit us with Thy salvation,
Enter every trembling heart.

- 2 Breathe, O breathe, Thy loving Spirit
Into every troubled breast ·
Let us all in Thee inherit,
Let us find that second rest ;
Take away our power of sinning,
Alpha and Omega be,
End of faith, as its beginning,
Set our hearts at liberty.
- 3 Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all Thy life receive ;
Suddenly return, and never,
Never more Thy temples leave.
Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve Thee as Thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing,
Glory in Thy perfect love.
- 4 Finish then Thy new creation,
Pure, and spotless let us be ;
Let us see Thy great salvation
Perfectly restored in Thee :
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in Heaven we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before Thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

Rev. Charles Wesley (1708—1788), 1747. Sl. alt.

Prayer for Light.

270

- 1 LIGHT of those whose dreary dwelling
Borders on the shades of death,
Come, and by Thy love's revealing
Dissipate the clouds beneath :
The new heaven and earth's Creator,
In our deepest darkness rise,
Scattering all the night of nature,
Pouring eye-sight on our eyes.

- 2 Still we wait for Thine appearing ;
 Life and joy Thy beams impart,
 Chasing all our fears, and cheering
 Every poor, benighted heart :
 Come, and manifest the favor
 God hath for our ransomed race ;
 Come, Thou glorious God and Saviour,
 Come, and bring the gospel-grace.
- 3 Save us in Thy great compassion,
 O thou mild, pacific Prince,
 Give the knowledge of salvation,
 Give the pardon of our sins ;
 By Thine all-restoring merit,
 Every burdened soul release,
 Every weary, wandering spirit
 Guide into Thy perfect peace.

The Anointing Spirit.

- 1 COME, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
 And lighten with celestial fire ;
 Thou the anointing Spirit art,
 Who dost Thy seven-fold gifts impart ;
 Thy blesséd unctïon from above,
 Is comfort, life, and fire of love.
- 2 Enable with perpetual light
 The dullness of our blinded sight ;
 Anoint and cheer our soiled face
 With the abundance of Thy grace ;
 Keep far our foes, give peace at home ;
 Where Thou art Guide, no ill can come.
- 3 Teach us to know the Father, Son,
 And Thee of both, to be but One ;
 That through the ages all along,

This still may be our endless song :
 All praise, with all the heavenly host,
 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost !

Prayer for Peace and Rest.

- 1 GRACIOUS Spirit, Dove divine,
 Let Thy light within me shine ;
 All my guilty fears remove,
 Fill me full of Heaven and love.
- 2 Speak Thy pardoning grace to me,
 Set the burdened sinner free,
 Lead me to the Lamb of God,
 Wash me in His precious blood.
- 3 Life and peace to me impart,
 Seal salvation on my heart,
 Breathe Thyself into my breast,
 Earnest of immortal rest.
- 4 Let me never from Thee stray,
 Keep me in the narrow way,
 Fill my soul with joy divine,
 Keep me, Lord, forever Thine.

Light, Power, Joy.

- 1 HOLY GHOST, with light divine,
 Shine upon this heart of mine ;
 Chase the shades of night away,
 Turn the darkness into day.
- 2 Holy Ghost, with power divine,
 Cleanse this guilty heart of mine ;
 Long has sin, without control,
 Held dominion o'er my soul.

- 3 Holy Ghost, with joy divine,
Cheer this saddened heart of mine;
Bid my many woes depart,
Heal my wounded, bleeding heart.
- 4 Holy Spirit, all divine,
Dwell within this heart of mine,
Cast down every idol-throne;
Reign supreme, and reign alone.

"Granted is the Saviour's Prayer."

- 1 GRANTED is the Saviour's prayer,
Sent the gracious Comforter,
Promise of our parting Lord,
Jesus, to His Heaven restored.
- 2 God, the everlasting God,
Makes with mortals His abode;
Whom the heavens cannot contain,
He stoops down to dwell in man.
- 3 Never will He thence depart,
Inmate of a humble heart;
Carrying on His work within,
Striving till He cast out sin.
- 4 Come, divine and peaceful Guest,
Enter our devoted breast:
Life divine in us renew,
Thou the Gift and Giver, too!

Prayer for Light and Love.

- 1 COME, Holy Spirit, come,
Let Thy bright beams arise,
Dispel the darkness from our minds,
And open all our eyes.

- 2 Revive our drooping faith,
Our doubts and fears remove,
And kindle in our breasts the flame
Of never-dying love.
- 3 Convince us of our sin,
Then lead to Jesus' blood,
And to our wondering view reveal
The secret love of God.
- 4 'Tis Thine to cleanse the heart,
To sanctify the soul,
To pour fresh life in every part,
And new-create the whole.
- 5 Dwell, Spirit, in our hearts,
Our minds from bondage free ;
Then we shall know, and praise, and love

The Descent of the Spirit.

- 1 LORD God, the Holy Ghost,
In this accepted hour,
As on the day of Pentecost,
Descend in all Thy power.
- 2 Like mighty rushing wind
Upon the waves beneath,
Move with one impulse every mind,
One soul, one feeling breathe.
- 3 The young, the old, inspire
With wisdom from above ;
And give us hearts and tongues of fire
To pray, and praise, and love.

The witnessing and sealing Spirit.

ROM. viii. 14, 16. EPH. i. 13, 14.

- 1 WHY should the children of a King
Go mourning all their days?
Great Comforter, descend and bring
Some tokens of Thy grace.
- 2 Dost Thou not dwell in all the saints,
And seal the heirs of Heaven?
When wilt Thou banish my complaints
And show my sins forgiven?
- 3 Assure my conscience of her part
In the Redeemer's blood;
And bear Thy witness with my heart,
That I am born of God.
- 4 Thou art the earnest of His love,
The pledge of joys to come;

Prayer to the Spirit.

278

- 1 SPIRIT Divine, attend our prayers,
And make this house Thy home;
Descend with all Thy gracious powers,
O come, Great Spirit, come!
- 2 Come as the light; to us reveal
Our sinfulness and woe;
And lead us in those paths of life
Where all the righteous go.

- 3 Come as the fire, and purge our hearts,
Like sacrificial flame.
Let our whole soul an offering be
To our Redeemer's Name.
- 4 Come as the wind, with rushing sound,
With Pentecostal grace;
And make the great salvation known,
Wide as the human race.
- 5 Spirit Divine, attend our prayers,
Make a lost world Thy home;
Descend with all Thy gracious powers,
O come, Great Spirit, come!

"Dwell with me."

- 1 GRACIOUS Spirit, dwell with me;
 I myself would gracious be,
 And with words that help and heal
 Would Thy life in mine reveal,
 And with actions bold and meek
 Would for Christ my Saviour speak.
- 2 Truthful Spirit, dwell with me;
 I myself would truthful be,
 And with wisdom kind and clear
 Let Thy life in mine appear,
 And with actions brotherly
 Speak my Lord's sincerity.
- 3 Tender Spirit, dwell with me;
 I myself would tender be,
 Shut my heart up like a flower
 At temptation's darksome hour,
 Open it when shines the sun,
 And His love by fragrance own.

- 4 Silent Spirit, dwell with me ;
 I myself would quiet be,
 Quiet as the growing blade
 Which through earth its way has made ;
 Silently, like morning light,
 Putting mists and chills to flight.
- 5 Mighty Spirit, dwell with me ;
 I myself would mighty be,
 Mighty so as to prevail
 Where unaided man must fail,
 Ever by a mighty hope
 Pressing on, and bearing up.
- 6 Holy Spirit, dwell with me ;
 I myself would holy be ;
 Separate from sin, I would Choose and cherish all things good,
 And what ever I can be
 Give to Him, who gave me Thee !

- 1 ENTHRONED on high, Almighty Lord,
 Thy Holy Ghost send down ;
 Fulfil in us Thy faithful word,

By Thy supplicating cry,
By Thy willingness to die,
5 By Thy tears of bitter woe
For Jerusalem below,
Let us not Thy love forego.

"The Light and Glory of the Word."

Ps. cxix. 130. 2 COR. iv. 4.

- 1 A GLORY gilds the sacred page,
Majestic, like the sun;
It gives a light to every age,
It gives, but borrows none.
2 The hand, that gave it, still supplies
The gracious light and heat;

- Its truths upon the nations rise,
They rise, but never set.
- 3 Let everlasting thanks be Thine,
For such a bright display,
As makes a world of darkness shine
With beams of heavenly day.
- 4 My soul rejoices to pursue
The steps of Him I love,
Till glory breaks upon my view,
In brighter worlds above.

A Lamp, and a Light.—Ps. cxix. 105. 2 TIM. iii. 16.

- 1 How precious is the Book divine,
By inspiration given:
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to Heaven.
Its light, descending from above,
Our gloomy world to cheer,
Displays a Saviour's boundless love,
And brings His glories near.
- 3 It shows to man his wandering ways,
And where his feet have trod;
And brings to view the matchless grace
Of a forgiving God.
- 4 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts,
In this dark vale of tears;
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.
- 5 'This lamp, thro' all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

The Scriptures our only Help and Guide.

- 1 LADEN with guilt, and full of fears,
I fly to Thee, my Lord;
And not a glimpse of hope appears,
But in Thy written word.
- 2 This is the field where hidden lies
The pearl of price unknown:
That merchant is divinely wise,
Who makes the pearl his own.
- 3 This is the judge that ends the strife,
Where wit and reason fail;
My guide to everlasting life,
Through all this gloomy vale.
- 4 O may Thy counsels, mighty God,
My roving feet command;
Nor I forsake the happy road,
That leads to Thy right hand.

Rev. Isaac Watts (1674—1748), 1709. Ab

"Holy Bible, Book Divine."

- 1 HOLY Bible, book divine,
Precious treasure, thou art mine;
Mine to tell me whence I came,
Mine to teach me what I am.
- 2 Mine to chide me when I rove,
Mine to show a Saviour's love;
Mine art thou to guide my feet,
Mine to judge, condemn, acquit.
- 3 Mine to comfort in distress,
If the Holy Spirit bless;
Mine to show by living faith
Man can triumph over death.

- 4 Mine to tell of joys to come,
 Light and life beyond the tomb;
 Holy Bible, book divine,
 Precious treasure, thou art mine.

John Burton (1773—1822), 1805. Ab.

"Walte, walte nah und fern."

- 1 SPREAD, O spread, thou mighty Word,
 Spread the kingdom of the Lord,
 Wheresoe'er His breath has given
 Life to beings meant for Heaven.
- 2 Tell them how the Father's will
 Made the world, and keeps it still;
 How He sent His Son to save
 All who help and comfort crave.
- 3 Word of life, most pure and strong,
 Lo, for Thee the nations long:
 Spread, till from its dreary night
 All the world awakes to light.
- 4 Lord of harvest, let there be
 Joy and strength to work for Thee:
 Let the nations, far and near,
 See Thy light, and learn Thy fear.

"O Word of God incarnate."

- 1 O WORD of God incarnate,
 O Wisdom from on high,
 O Truth unchanged, unchanging,
 O Light of our dark sky;
 We praise Thee for the radiance
 That from the hallowed page,
 A lantern to our footsteps,
 Shines on from age to age.

- 2 The Church from Thee, her Master,
 Received the gift divine;
 And still that light she lifteth
 O'er all the earth to shine.
 It is the golden casket
 Where gems of truth are stored;
 It is the Heaven-drawn picture
 Of Thee, the living Word.
- 3 It floateth like a banner
 Before God's host unfurled;
 It shineth like a beacon
 Above the darkling world;
 It is the chart and compass,
 That o'er life's surging sea,
 Mid mists, and rocks, and quicksands,
 Still guide, O Christ, to Thee.
- 4 O make Thy Church, dear Saviour,
 A lamp of burnished gold,
 To bear before the nations
 Thy true light, as of old.
 O teach Thy wandering pilgrims
 By this their path to trace,
 Till, clouds and darkness ended,
 They see Thee face to face.

Ep. William Walsham How (1823—), 1867.

- 1 THE heavens declare Thy glory, Lord,
 In every star Thy wisdom shines;
 But when our eyes behold Thy Word,
 We read Thy Name in fairer lines.

- 2 The rolling sun, the changing light,
 And nights and days, Thy power confess,
 But the blest volume Thou hast writ,
 Reveals Thy justice and Thy grace.
- 3 Sun, moon, and stars, convey Thy praise
 Round the whole earth, and never stand:
 So when Thy truth began its race,
 It touched and glanced on every land.
- 4 Nor shall Thy spreading gospel rest,
 Till thro' the world Thy truth has run;
 Till Christ has all the nations blessed
 That see the light, and feel the sun.
- 5 Great Sun of Righteousness, arise,
 Bless the dark world with heavenly
 light;
 Thy gospel makes the simple wise,
 Thy laws are pure, Thy judgments right.

Rev. Isaac Watts (1674—1748), 1719. Ab.

"God's Word our Guide."

- 1 GOD, in the gospel of His Son,
 Makes His eternal counsels known:
 Where love in all its glory shines,
 And truth is drawn in fairest lines.
- 2 Here sinners, of a humble frame,
 May taste His grace, and learn His Name;
 May read, in characters of blood,
 The wisdom, power, and grace of God.
- 3 Here faith reveals to mortal eyes
 A brighter world beyond the skies;
 Here shines the light which guides our way
 From earth to realms of endless day.

- 4 O grant us grace, Almighty Lord,
 To read and mark Thy holy Word;
 Its truth with meekness to receive,
 And by its holy precepts live.

Thanks for the Gospel.

- 1 LET everlasting glories crown
 Thy head, my Saviour, and my Lord;
 Thy hands have brought salvation down,
 And writ the blessings in Thy Word.
- 2 In vain the trembling conscience seeks
 Some solid ground to rest upon;
 With long despair the spirit breaks,
 Till we apply to Christ alone.
- 3 How well Thy blessed truths agree,
 How wise and holy Thy commands;
 Thy promises, how firm they be,
 How firm our hope and comfort stands!
- 4 Should all the forms that men devise
 Assault my faith with treacherous art,
 I'd call them vanity and lies,
 And bind the Gospel to my heart.

"The Voice of Free Grace."

- 1 THE voice of free grace cries, Escape to the mountain;
 For Adam's lost race, Christ has opened a fountain;
 For sin, and uncleanness, and every transgression,

His blood flows most freely, in streams
of salvation,
His blood flows most freely, in streams
of salvation.

Hallelujah to the Lamb, who hath purchased our pardon,
We'll praise Him again, when we pass
over Jordan,
We'll praise Him again, when we pass
over Jordan.

2 Ye souls that are wounded, O flee to the Saviour;
He calls you in mercy, 'tis infinite favor;
Your sins are increased as high as a mountain,
||: His blood can remove them, it flows from the fountain. :||

Hallelujah, &c.

3 With joy shall we stand, when escaped to the shore;
With harps in our hands, we will praise
Him the more;
We'll range the sweet plains on the banks of the river,
||: And sing of salvation for ever and ever. :||

Hallelujah, &c.

Rev. Richard Burdsall (1735—1824), 1796. Ab. and alt

1 O COME to the merciful Saviour that calls
you,

O come to the Lord who forgives and forgets ;

Though dark be the fortune on earth that befalls you,

||: There's a bright home above, where the sun never sets. :||

Hallelujah to the Lamb, who hath purchased our pardon.

We'll praise Him again, when we pass
over Jordan,

We'll praise Him again, when we pass
over Jordan.

2 O come then to Jesus, whose arms are extended

To fold His dear children in closest embrace.

O come, for your exile will shortly be ended,

||: And Jesus will show you His beautiful face. :||

Hallelujah, &c.

3 Then come to the Saviour, whose mercy grows brighter

The longer you look at the depths of
His love ;

And fear not, 'tis Jesus, and life's cares grow lighter

||: As you think of the home and the glory above. :||

Hallelujah, &c.

Rev Frederick William Faber (1814—1863), 1849. Ab.

- 1 BLOW ye the trumpet, blow
 The gladly solemn sound;
 Let all the nations know,
 To earth's remotest bound,
 ||: The year of jubilee is come; :||
 Return, ye ransomed sinners, home
- 2 Jesus, our great High-Priest,
 Hath full atonement made;
 Ye weary spirits, rest,
 Ye mournful souls, be glad:
 ||: The year of jubilee is come; :||
 Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.
- 3 Extol the Lamb of God,
 The all-atoning Lamb;
 Redemption in His blood
 Throughout the world proclaim:
 ||: The year of jubilee is come; :||
 Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.
- 4 Ye, who have sold for naught
 Your heritage above,
 Shall have it back unbought,
 The gift of Jesus' love:
 ||: The year of jubilee is come; :||
 Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.
- 5 The Gospel trumpet hear,
 The news of heavenly grace;
 And, saved from earth, appear
 Before your Saviour's face:
 ||: The year of jubilee is come; :||
 Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

"Let him come unto Me."—JOHN vii. 37.

- 1 FROM the cross uplifted high,
 Where the Saviour deigns to die,
 What melodious sounds I hear,
 Bursting on my ravished ear;
 "Love's redeeming work is done,
 Come and welcome, sinner, come."
- 2 "Sprinkled now with blood the throne;
 Why beneath thy burdens groan?
 On My piercé body laid,
 Justice owns the ransom paid:
 Bow the knee, and kiss the Son,
 Come and welcome, sinner, come.
- 3 "Spread for thee, the festal board
 See with richest dainties stored;
 To thy Father's bosom prest,
 Yet again a child confest,
 Never from His house to roam;
 Come and welcome, sinner, come.
- 4 "Soon the days of life shall end;
 Lo! I come, your Saviour, Friend,
 Safe your spirits to convey
 To the realms of endless day,
 Up to My eternal home:
 Come and welcome, sinner, come."

Standing at the Door.

- 1 O JESUS, Thou art standing
 Outside the fast-closed door,
 In lowly patience waiting
 To pass the threshold o'er:

- Shame on us, Christian brethren,
 His Name and sign who bear,
 O shame, thrice shame upon us,
 To keep Him standing there!
- 2 O Jesus, Thou art knocking :
 And lo, that hand is scarred,
 And thorns Thy brow encircle,
 And tears Thy face have marred.
 O love that passeth knowledge,
 So patiently to wait !
 O sin that hath no equal,
 So fast to bar the gate !
- 3 O Jesus, Thou art pleading
 In accents meek and low,
 "I died for you, My children,
 And will ye treat Me so?"
 O Lord, with shame and sorrow
 We open now the door :
 Dear Saviour, enter, enter,
 And leave us never more.
- Bp. William Walsham How (1823—), 1854

- 1 THERE'S a wideness in God's mercy,
 Like the wideness of the sea :
 There's a kindness in His justice,
 Which is more than liberty.
 There is welcome for the sinner,
 And more graces for the good ;
 There is mercy with the Saviour ;
 There is healing in His blood.
- 2 There is plentiful redemption
 In the blood that has been shed ;

There is joy for all the members
 In the sorrows of the Head.
 If our love were but more simple,
 We should take Him at His word;
 And our lives would be all sunshine
 In the sweetness of our Lord.

"In Everything by Prayer."—PHIL. iv. 6.

- 1 WHAT a Friend we have in Jesus,
 X All our sins and griefs to bear!
 What a privilege to carry
 Everything to God in prayer!
 O what peace we often forfeit,
 O what needless pain we bear,
 All because we do not carry
 Everything to God in prayer!
- 2 Have we trials and temptations?
 Is there trouble anywhere?
 We should never be discouraged—
 Take it to the Lord in prayer.
 Can we find a friend so faithful,
 Who will all our sorrows share?
 Jesus knows our every weakness:
 Take it to the Lord in prayer.
- 3 Are we weak and heavy laden,
 Cumbered with a load of care?
 Precious Saviour, still our refuge!
 Take it to the Lord in prayer.
 Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
 Take it to the Lord in prayer;
 In His arms He'll take and shield thee;
 Thou wilt find a solace there.

"Come, ye disconsolate."

- 1 COME, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish,
 Come to the mercy-seat, fervently kneel;
 Here bring your wounded hearts, here
 tell your anguish,
 Earth has no sorrows that Heaven cannot heal.
- 2 Joy of the desolate, Light of the straying,
 Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure;
 Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying,
 Earth has no sorrows that Heaven cannot cure.
- 3 Here see the Bread of Life, see waters flowing
 Forth from the throne of God, pure from above;
 Come to the feast prepared, come, ever knowing
 Earth has no sorrows but Heaven can remove.

Christ giving Rest.

- 1 COME unto me, when shadows darkly gather,
 When the sad heart is weary and distressed,
 Seeking for comfort from your heavenly Father,
 Come unto me, and I will give you rest.

- 2 Large are the mansions in thy Father's dwelling, [dim,
 Glad are the homes that sorrows never Sweet are the harps in holy music swelling,
 Soft are the tones which raise the heavenly hymn.
- 3 There, like an Eden blossoming in gladness, [rudely pressed;
 Bloom the fair flowers the earth too
 Come unto me all ye who droop in sadness,
 Come unto me, and I will give you rest.

"Come, and welcome."

- 1 COME, ye sinners, poor and wretched,
 Weak and wounded, sick and sore:
 Jesus ready stands to save you,
 Full of pity, joined with power:
 He is able, He is able,
 ||: He is willing, doubt no more. :||
- 2 Let not conscience make you linger,
 Nor of fitness fondly dream;
 All the fitness He requireth
 Is to feel your need of Him:
 This He gives you, this He gives you;
 ||: 'Tis the Spirit's rising beam. :||
- 3 Come, ye weary, heavy-laden,
 Bruised and mangled by the fall;
 If you tarry till you're better,
 You will never come at all:
 Not the righteous, Not the righteous,
 ||: Sinners, Jesus came to call. :||

- 4 Lo, th' incarnate God, ascended,
 Pleads the merit of His blood :
 Venture on Him, venture wholly,
 Let no other trust intrude ;
 None but Jesus, None but Jesus
 ||: Can do helpless sinners good. :||

Κόπον τε καὶ κάματον.

- 1 ART thou weary, art thou languid,
 Art thou sore distrest?
 “Come to me,” saith One, “and coming
 Be at rest !”
- 2 Hath He marks to lead me to Him,
 If He be my Guide?
 “In His feet and hands are wound-prints,
 And His side.”
- 3 Is there diadem, as Monarch,
 That His brow adorns?
 “Yea, a crown in very surety,
 But of thorns.”

"And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come."
 REV. xvii. 17-20.

- 1 THE Spirit, in our hearts,
 Is whispering, "Sinner, come ;"
 The Bride, the Church of Christ, proclaims
 To all His children, "Come."
- 2 Let him that heareth, say
 To all about him, "Come ;"
 Let him that thirsts for righteousness,
 To Christ, the Fountain, come.
- 3 Yes, whosoever will,
 O let him freely come,
 And freely drink the stream of life :
 'Tis Jesus bids him come.
- 4 Lo, Jesus, who invites,
 Declares, "I quickly come ;"
 Lord, even so ; I wait Thine hour ;
 Jesus, my Saviour, come.

The Gospel Trumpet.

- 1 YE trembling captives, hear ;
 The gospel-trumpet sounds ;
 No music more can charm the ear,
 Or heal your heart-felt wounds.
- 2 'Tis not the trump of war,
 Nor Sinai's awful roar ;
 Salvation's news is spread afar,
 And vengeance is no more.
- 3 Forgiveness, love, and peace,
 Glad Heaven aloud proclaims ;
 And earth the jubilee's release
 With eager rapture claims.

- 4 Far, far to distant lands
 The saving news shall spread;
 And Jesus all His willing bands
 In glorious triumph lead.

"Return!"—JER. XXXI. 18—20.

- 1 RETURN, O wanderer, return,
 And seek thine injured Father's face;
 Those new desires that in thee burn,
 Were kindled by reclaiming grace.
- 2 Return, O wanderer, return,
 And seek a Father's melting heart;
 Whose pitying eyes thy grief discern,
 Whose hand can heal thine inward smart.
- 3 Return, O wanderer, return,
 He heard thy deep repentant sigh,
 He saw thy softened spirit mourn,
 When no intruding ear was nigh.

- 4 Return, O wanderer, return,
 Thy Saviour bids thy spirit live;
 Go to His bleeding feet, and learn
 How freely Jesus can forgive.
- 5 Return, O wanderer, return,
 And wipe away the falling tear;
 'Tis God who says, "No longer mourn,"
 'Tis mercy's voice invites thee near.

Christ knocking at the Door.—Cant. v. 2. REV. iii. 20.

- 1 BEHOLD, a Stranger at the door;
 He gently knocks, has knocked before;
 Has waited long, is waiting still:
 You treat no other friend so ill.
- 2 O lovely attitude! He stands
 With melting heart, and laden hands:
 O matchless kindness! and He shows
 This matchless kindness to His foes.
- 3 Rise, touched with gratitude divine;
 Turn out His enemy and thine,
 That soul-destroying monster, Sin;
 And let the heavenly Stranger in.
- 4 Admit Him, for the human breast
 Ne'er entertained so kind a guest:
 Admit Him, ere His anger burn;
 His feet, departed, ne'er return!

"Jesu auctor clementior."

- 1 OF Him who did salvation bring,
 I could forever think and sing;
 Arise, ye needy, He'll relieve;
 Arise, ye guilty, He'll forgive.

- 2 Ask but His grace, and lo, 'tis given;
Ask, and He turns your hell to Heaven:
Though sin and sorrow wound my soul,
Jesus, Thy balm will make it whole.
- 3 To shame our sins, He blushed in blood;
He closed His eyes to show us God:
Let all the world fall down and know,
That none but God such love can show.
- 4 'Tis Thee I love, for Thee alone
I shed my tears, and make my moan;
Where'er I am, where'er I move,
I meet the object of my love.
- 5 Insatiate, to this spring I fly;
I drink, and yet am ever dry:
Ah, who against Thy charms is proof?
Ah, who that loves can love enough?

"The gracious Call."—MATT. xi. 28—30.

- 1 COME, said Jesus' sacred voice,
Come, and make My path your choice;
I will guide you to your home,
Weary pilgrim, hither come.
- 2 Thou who, houseless, sole, forlorn,
Long hast borne the proud world's scorn,
Long hast roamed the barren waste,
Weary pilgrim, hither haste.
- 3 Ye who, tossed on beds of pain,
Seek for ease, but seek in vain;
Ye, by fiercer anguish torn,
In remorse for guilt who mourn;

 Balm that flows for every wound,
 Peace that ever shall endure,
 Rest eternal, sacred, sure.

The Issues of Life and Death.

- 1 O WHERE shall rest be found,
 Rest for the weary soul?
 'Twere vain the ocean-depths to sound,
 Or pierce to either pole.
- 2 The world can never give
 The bliss for which we sigh;
 'Tis not the whole of life to live,
 Nor all of death to die.
- 3 Beyond this vale of tears
 There is a life above,
 Unmeasured by the flight of years;
 And all that life is love.
- 4 There is a death, whose pang
 Outlasts the fleeting breath:
 O what eternal horrors hang Around the second death!
- 5 Lord God of truth and grace,
 Teach us that death to shun,
 Lest we be banished from Thy face,
 And evermore undone.

 Before Thy throne of grace I fall,
 Be merciful to me.

- 2 Out of the deep I cry,
 The woful deep of sin,
 Of evil done in days gone by,
 Of evil now within.

 I plead the precious Name.

Tears of Penitence.

- 1 DID Christ o'er sinners weep,
 And shall our cheeks be dry?
 Let floods of penitential grief
 Burst forth from every eye.
- 2 The Son of God in tears
 Angels with wonder see:
 Be thou astonished, O my soul,
 He shed those tears for thee.
- 3 He wept that we might weep;
 Each sin demands a tear;
 In Heaven alone no sin is found,
 And there's no weeping there.
- 4 Then tender be our hearts,
 Our eyes in sorrow dim,
 Till every tear from every eye
 Is wiped away by Him.

The Prayer of the Publican.—LUKE xviii. 13.

- 1 WITH broken heart, and contrite sigh,
 A trembling sinner, Lord, I cry:
 Thy pardoning grace is rich and free;
 O God, be merciful to me.

- 2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt opprest,
Christ and His cross my only plea;
O God, be merciful to me.
- 3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare uplift them to the skies;
But Thou dost all my anguish see;
O God, be merciful to me.
- 4 Nor alms, nor deeds that I have done,
Can for a single sin atone;
To Calvary alone I flee;
O God, be merciful to me.
- 5 And when, redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God has been merciful to me.

Pleading for Pardon.—Ps. li.

- 1 SHOW pity, Lord, O Lord, forgive;
Let a repenting rebel live:
Are not Thy mercies large and free?
May not a sinner trust in Thee?
- 2 O wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean;
Here on my heart the burden lies,
And past offences pain mine eyes.
- 3 My lips with shame my sins confess,
Against Thy law, against Thy grace;
Lord, should Thy judgments grow severe,
I am condemned, but Thou art clear.

- 4 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord,
 Whose hope, still hovering round Thy
 Word,
 Would light on some sweet promise there,
 Some sure support against despair.

- 1 God calling yet! shall I not hear?
 Earth's pleasures shall I still hold dear?
 Shall life's swift passing years all fly,
 And still my soul in slumber lie?
- 2 God calling yet! and shall He knock
 And I my heart the closer lock?
 He still is waiting to receive,
 And shall I dare His Spirit grieve?
- 3 God calling yet! and shall I give

Coming to Christ.

- 1 APPROACH, my soul, the mercy-seat
 Where Jesus answers prayer;
 There humbly fall before His feet,
 For none can perish there.
- 2 Thy promise is my only plea,
 With this I venture nigh;

- Thou callest burdened souls to Thee,
And such, O Lord, am I.
- 3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely prest,
By war without, and fears within,
I come to Thee for rest.
- 4 Be Thou my shield and hiding-place,
That, sheltered near Thy side,
I may my fierce accuser face,
And tell him, Thou hast died.
- 5 O wondrous love, to bleed and die,
To bear the cross and shame,
That guilty sinners, such as I,
Might plead Thy gracious Name.

Crying for Mercy.

- 1 O LORD, turn not Thy face from me,
Who lie in woful state,
Lamenting all my sinful life,
Before Thy mercy-gate :
- 2 A gate that opens wide to those
That do lament their sin ;
Shut not that gate against me, Lord,
But let me enter in.
- 3 And call me not to strict account
How I have sojourned here ;
For then my guilty conscience knows
How vile I shall appear.
- 4 Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask ;
This is my humble prayer ;
For mercy, Lord, is all my suit,
O let Thy mercy spare.

John Mardley, 1562. Ab. and alt.

- 1 PROSTRATE, dear Jesus, at Thy feet,
A guilty rebel lies :
And upwards to Thy mercy-seat
||: Presumes to lift his eyes. :||
- 2 O let not justice frown me hence ;
Stay, stay the vengeful storm :
Forbid it, that Omnipotence
||: Should crush a feeble worm. :||
- 3 If tears of sorrow would suffice
To pay the debt I owe,
Tears should from both my weeping eyes
||: In ceaseless torrents flow. :||
- 4 But no such sacrifice I plead
To expiate my guilt ;
No tears but those which Thou hast shed,
||: No blood but Thou hast spilt. :||
- 5 Think of Thy sorrows, dearest Lord,
And all my sins forgive ;
Justice will well approve the word,
||: That bids the sinner live. :||

Rev. Samuel Stennett (1727—1795), 1787.

- 1 WHEN wounded sore the stricken soul
Lies bleeding and unbound,
One only hand, a piercé hand,
Can heal the sinner's wound.
- 2 When sorrow swells the laden breast,
And tears of anguish flow,
One only heart, a broken heart,
Can feel the sinner's woe.

- 3 When penitence has wept in vain
Over some foul dark spot.
One only stream, a stream of blood,
Can wash away the blot.
- 4 Lift up Thy bleeding hand, O Lord ;
Unseal that cleansing tide ;
We have no shelter from our sin
But in Thy wounded side.

"Take me."

- 1 TAKE me, O my Father, take me,
Take me, save me, through Thy Son ;
That, which Thou wouldst have me, make
Let Thy will in me be done. [me,
- 2 Long from Thee my footsteps straying,
Thorny proved the way I trod ;
Weary come I now, and praying,
Take me to Thy love, my God.
- 3 Fruitless years with grief recalling,
Humbly I confess my sin ;
At Thy feet, O Father, falling,
To Thy household take me in.
- 4 Freely now to Thee I proffer
This relenting heart of mine :
Freely, life and soul I offer,
Gift unworthy love like Thine.
- 5 Once the world's Redeemer dying,
Bore our sins upon the tree ;
On that sacrifice relying,
Now I look in hope to Thee :

- 6 Father, take me ; all forgiving,
 Fold me to Thy loving breast ;
 In Thy love for ever living,
 I must be for ever blest.

After a Relapse into Sin.—HEB. x 29.

- 1 DEPTH of mercy, can there be
 Mercy still reserved for me?
 Can my God His wrath forbear?
 Me, the chief of sinners, spare?
- 2 I have long withstood His grace,
 Long provoked Him to His face ;
 Would not hearken to His calls ;
 Grieved Him by a thousand falls.
- 3 Kindled His relentings are ;
 Me He now delights to spare ;
 Cries. "How shall I give thee up?"
 Lets the lifted thunder drop.
- 4 There for me the Saviour stands,
 Shows His wounds, and spreads His
 God is Love: I know, I feel ; [hands ;
 Jesus weeps, but loves me still.

Rest in Christ.

- 1 JESUS, full of truth and love,
 We Thy kindest word obey :
 Faithful let Thy mercies prove,
 Take our load of guilt away.
- 2 Weary of this war within,
 Weary of this endless strife,
 Weary of ourselves and sin,
 Weary of a wretched life ;

- 3 Burdened with a world of grief,
 Burdened with our sinful load,
 Burdened with this unbelief,
 Burdened with the wrath of God :
- 4 Lo, we come to Thee for ease,
 True and gracious as Thou art ;
 Now our groaning soul release,
 Write forgiveness on our heart.

"Bless me, even me also."—GEN. xxvii. 34.

- 1 PASS me not, O gracious Father,
 Sinful though my heart may be ;
 Thou might'st curse me, but the rather
 Let Thy mercy light on me,
 Even me, Even me,
 Let Thy mercy light on me.
- 2 Pass me not, O tender Saviour,
 Let me love and cling to Thee ;
 I am longing for Thy favor ;
 When Thou comest, call for me,
 Even me, &c.
- 3 Pass me not, O mighty Spirit,
 Thou canst make the blind to see ;
 Witnesser of Jesus' merit,
 Speak the word of power to me,
 Even me, &c.
- 4 Love of God, so pure and changeless,
 Blood of God, so rich and free,
 Grace of God, so strong and boundless,
 Magnify them all in me,
 Even me, &c.

Mrs. Elizabeth Codner, 1861. Ab.

- 1 Jesus, Name all names above,
 Jesus, best and dearest,
 Jesus, Fount of perfect love,
 Holiest, tenderest, nearest;
 Jesus, Source of grace completest,
 Jesus, purest, Jesus, sweetest,
 Jesus, Well of power divine,
 Make me, keep me, seal me Thine.

- 2 Jesus, open me the gate
 Which the sinner entered,
 Who, in his last dying state,
 Wholly on Thee ventured;
 Thou, whose wounds are ever pleading,
 And Thy passion interceding,
 From my misery let me rise
 To a home in Paradise.

- 3 Jesus, crowned with thorns for me,
 Scourged for my transgression,
 Witnessing, through agony,
 That Thy good confession;
 Jesus, clad in purple raiment,
 For my evil making payment;
 Let not all Thy woe and pain,
 Let not Calvary, be in vain.

- 4 When I cross death's bitter sea,
 And its waves roll higher,
 Help the more forsaking me
 As the storm draws nigher;
 Jesus, leave me not to languish,
 Helpless, hopeless, full of anguish:

Tell me, "Verily, I say,
 "Thou shalt be with Me to-day."

Sin Forgiven.

- 1 WEARY of earth and laden with my sin,
~~X~~ I look to Heaven and long to enter in,
 But there no evil thing may find a home;
 And yet I hear a voice that bids me
 "come."
- 2 So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand
 In the pure glory of that holy land?
 Before the whiteness of that throne appear?
 Yet there are hands stretched out to draw
 me near;
- 3 It is the voice of Jesus that I hear;
 His are the hands stretched out to draw
 me near,
 And His the blood that can for all atone,
 And set me faultless there before the throne.
- 4 'Twas He who found me on the deathly
 wild,
 And made me heir of Heaven, the Father's child,
 And day by day, whereby my soul may live,
 Gives me His grace of pardon, and will give.
- 5 Yea, Thou wilt answer for me, Righteous
 Lord:
 Thine all the merits, mine the great reward;

Thine the sharp thorns, and mine the golden crown ;
Mine the life won, and Thine the life laid down.

"Just as I am."—JOHN vi. 37.

- 1 JUST as I am, without one plea
But that Thy blood was shed for me,
And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.
- 2 Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To Thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come.
- 3 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
With fears within, and foes without,
O Lamb of God, I come.
- 4 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind ;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.
- 5 Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve :
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.
- 6 Just as I am, Thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down :
Now, to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

"Christi Blut und Gerechtigkeit."

- 1 JESUS, Thy blood and righteousness
My beauty are, my glorious dress :
Midst flaming worlds, in these arrayed,
With joy shall I lift up my head.
- 2 Fully through these absolved I am
From sin and fear, from guilt and shame :
Thy blood washed out the crimson stains,
And white as snow my soul remains.
- 3 When from the dust of death I rise
To claim my mansion in the skies,
E'en then, this shall be all my plea,
"Jesus hath lived, hath died for me."
- 4 This spotless robe the same appears
When ruined nature sinks in years :
No age can change its constant hue ;
Thy blood preserves it ever new.
- 5 O let the dead now hear Thy voice ;
Now bid Thy banished ones rejoice :
Their beauty this, their glorious dress,
Jesus, Thy blood and righteousness.

"Rock of Ages."

- 1 ROCK of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee ;
Let the water and the blood,
From Thy riven side which flowed,
Be of sin the double cure,
Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

- 2 Not the labors of my hands
 Can fulfil Thy law's demands ;
 Could my zeal no respite know,
 Could my tears for ever flow,
 All for sin could not atone ;
 Thou must save, and Thou alone.
- 3 Nothing in my hand I bring ;
 Simply to Thy cross I cling ;
 Naked, come to Thee for dress ;
 Helpless, look to Thee for grace ;
 Foul, I to the fountain fly ;
 Wash me, Saviour, or I die.
- 4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
 When my eye-lids close in death,
 When I soar to worlds unknown,
 See Thee on Thy judgment-throne,
 Rock of ages, cleft for me,
 Let me hide myself in Thee.

"He hath borne our Grievs."—Is. liii. 4, 5, 12.

- 1 SURELY Christ thy griefs hath borne ;
 Weeping soul, no longer mourn :
 View Him bleeding on the tree :
 Pouring out His life for thee :
 There thy every sin He bore ;
 Weeping soul, lament no more.
- 2 Weary sinner, keep thine eyes
 On th' atoning sacrifice :
 There th' incarnate Deity
 Numbered with transgressors see ;
 There His Father's absence mourns.
 Nailed and bruised, and crowned with thorns.

- 3 Cast Thy guilty soul on Him,
Find Him mighty to redeem ;
At His feet thy burden lay,
Look thy doubts and cares away ;
Now by faith the Son embrace,
Plead His promise, trust His grace.

"A Fountain opened."—ZECH. xiii. 1.

- 1 THERE is a fountain filled with blood
Drawn from Emmanuel's veins ;
And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
||: Lose all their guilty stains. :||
- 2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day ;
And there have I, as vile as he,
||: Washed all my sins away. :||
- 3 Dear dying Lamb, Thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed Church of God
||: Be saved, to sin no more. :||
- 4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
||: And shall be till I die. :||
- 5 And when this feeble, stammering tongue
Lies silent in the grave,
Then in a nobler, sweeter song,
||: I'll sing Thy power to save. :||

"Lord, to whom shall we go?"—JOHN vi. 68.

- 1 I BRING my sins to Thee,
The sins I cannot count,
That all may cleanséd be
In Thy once opened fount.
I bring them, Saviour, all to Thee;
The burden is too great for me.
- 2 My heart to Thee I bring,
The heart I cannot read—
A faithless, wandering thing,
An evil heart indeed.
I bring it, Saviour, now to Thee,
That fixed and faithful it may be.
- 3 My life I bring to Thee,
I would not be my own;
O Saviour, let me be
Thine ever, Thine alone.
My heart, my life, my all I bring
To Thee, my Saviour and my King!

Prophet, Priest, and King.

- 1 JOIN all the glorious names
Of wisdom, love, and power
That ever mortals knew,
That angels ever bore:
All are too mean to speak His worth,
Too mean to set my Saviour forth.
- 2 Great Prophet of my God,
My tongue would bless Thy Name;
By Thee the joyful news
Of our salvation came:
The joyful news of sins forgiven,
Of hell subdued, and peace with Heaven.

3 Jesus, my great High Priest,
Offered His blood and died;
My guilty conscience seeks
No sacrifice beside:
His powerful blood did once atone,
And now it pleads before the throne.

4 My dear Almighty Lord,
My Conqueror and my King,
Thy sceptre and Thy sword,
Thy reigning grace I sing:
Thine is the power; behold, I sit,

3 Thy cross, not mine, O Christ,

Of sins that none in Heaven
Or earth could bear but God:
To whom save Thee, who canst alone
For sin atone, Lord, shall I flee?

The Prayer of Faith.

- 1 O THOU that hear'st the prayer of faith,
 Wilt Thou not save a soul from death,
 That casts itself on Thee ?
 I have no refuge of my own,
 But fly to what my Lord hath done,
 And suffered once for me.
- 2 Slain in the guilty sinner's stead,
 His spotless righteousness I plead,
 And His availing blood :
 Thy merit, Lord, my robe shall be,
 Thy merit shall atone for me,
 And bring me near to God.
- 3 Then snatch me from eternal death,
 The Spirit of adoption breathe,
 His consolations send ;
 By Him some word of life impart,
 And sweetly whisper to my heart,
 "Thy Maker is thy Friend."

The Voice from Galilee.—JOHN i. 16.

- 1 I HEARD the voice of Jesus say,
 "Come unto Me and rest ;
 Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
 Thy head upon My breast."
 I came to Jesus as I was,

- Weary, and worn, and sad ;
 I found in Him a resting-place,
 And He has made me glad.
- 2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "Behold, I freely give
 The living water ; thirsty one,
 Stoop down, and drink, and live."
 I came to Jesus, and I drank
 Of that life-giving stream ;
 My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
 And now I live in Him.
- 3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "I am this dark world's Light ;
 Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise,
 And all thy day be bright."
 I looked to Jesus, and I found
 In Him my Star, my Sun ;
 And in that Light of Life I'll walk
 'Till all my journey's done.

"Behold the Man."

- 1 ARISE, my soul, arise,
 Shake off thy guilty fears ;
 The bleeding Sacrifice
 In my behalf appears ;
 ||: Before the throne my Surety stands, :||
 My name is written on His hands.
- 2 He ever lives above,
 For me to intercede,
 His all-redeeming love,
 His precious blood, to plead ;
 ||: His blood atoned for all our race, :||
 And sprinkles now the throne of grace.

- 3 Five bleeding wounds He bears,
 Received on Calvary ;
 They pour effectual prayers,
 They strongly plead for me :—
 ||: Forgive him, O forgive, they cry, :||
 Nor let that ransom'd sinner die.
- 4 The Father hears Him pray,
 His dear anointed One :
 He cannot turn away
 The presence of His Son :
 ||: His Spirit answers to the blood, :||
 And tells me I am born of God.
- 5 My God is reconciled,
 His pardoning voice I hear,
 He owns me for His child ;
 I can no longer fear,
 ||: With confidence I now draw nigh, :||
 And Father, Abba, Father, cry.

Sweet Subjection.

- 1 DEAR Lord and Master mine,
 Thy happy servant see :
 My Conqueror, with what joy divine
 Thy captive clings to Thee.
- 2 I would not walk alone,
 But still with Thee, my God ;
 At every step my blindness own,
 And ask of Thee the road.

"Morgenglanz der Ewigkeit."—Ps. v. 3.

- 1 JESUS, Sun of righteousness,
 Brightest beam of love divine,
 With the early morning rays,
 Do Thou on our darkness shine,
 And dispel, with purest light,
 All our long and gloomy night.
- 2 Like the sun's reviving ray,
 May Thy love, with tender glow,
 All our coldness melt away,
 Warm and cheer us, forth to go ;
 Gladly serve Thee and obey,
 All our life's short earthly day.
- 3 Thou, our only Hope and Guide,
 Never leave us nor forsake ;
 Keep us ever at Thy side,
 Till th' eternal morning break ;
 Moving on to Zion's hill,
 Onward, upward, homeward still.

"Majestic Sweetness."

- 1 MAJESTIC sweetness sits enthroned
 Upon the Saviour's brow ;
 His head with radiant glories crowned,
 ||: His lips with grace o'erflow. :||
- 2 No mortal can with Him compare
 Among the sons of men ;

- Fairer is He than all the fair
That fill the heavenly train.
- 3 He saw me plunged in deep distress,
He flew to my relief;
For me He bore the shameful cross,
And carried all my grief.
- 4 To Him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death,
He saves me from the grave.
- 5 To Heaven, the place of His abode,
He brings my weary feet,
Shows me the glories of my God,
And makes my joy complete.
- 6 Since from His bounty I receive
Such proofs of love divine,
Had I a thousand hearts to give,
Lord, they should all be Thine.

Singing for Joy.

- 1 I'VE found the pearl of greatest price,
My heart doth sing for joy;
And sing I must; for Christ is mine,
Christ shall my song employ.
- 2 Christ is my Prophet, Priest, and King;
A Prophet full of light,
My great High-Priest before the throne,
My King of heavenly might.
- 3 For He indeed is Lord of lords,
And He the King of kings;
He is the Sun of righteousness,
With healing in His wings.

- 4 Christ is my Peace ; He died for me,
For me He gave His blood ;
And as my wondrous Sacrifice,
Offered Himself to God.
- 5 Christ Jesus is my All in all,
My Comfort and my Love,
My Life below, and He shall be
My Joy and Crown above.

Prayer for Sight.—MARK x. 47, 48.

- 1 "MERCY, O Thou Son of David,"
Thus blind Bartimeus prayed ;
"Others by Thy word are saved,
Now to me afford Thine aid."
- 2 Many for his crying chid him,
But he called the louder still ;
Till the gracious Saviour bid him
"Come, and ask Me what you will."
- 3 Money was not what he wanted,
Though by begging used to live ;
But he asked, and Jesus granted,
Alms which none but He could give.
- 4 "Lord, remove this grievous blindness,
Let mine eyes behold the day !"
Straight he saw and, won by kindness,
Followed Jesus in the way.
- 5 O methinks I hear him praising,
Publishing to all around,
Friends, is not my case amazing ?
What a Saviour I have found !

- 6 "O that all the blind but knew Him,
And would be advised by me,
Surely they would hasten to Him,
He would cause them all to see."

"He received his sight."—MARK x. 51, 52.

- 1 LORD, I know Thy grace is nigh me,
Though Thyself I cannot see;
Jesus, Master, pass not by me;
Son of David, pity me.
- 2 While I sit in weary blindness,
Longing for the blessed light,
Many taste Thy loving-kindness;
"Lord, I would receive my sight."
- 3 I would see Thee and adore Thee,
And Thy word the power can give;
Hear the sightless soul implore Thee:
Let me see Thy face and live.
- 4 Ah, what touch is this that thrills me?
What this burst of strange delight?
Lo, the rapturous vision fills me!
This is Jesus! this is sight!
- 5 Room, ye saints that throng behind Him!
Let me follow in the way;
I will teach the blind to find Him
Who can turn their night to day.

"Open, Lord, and let me in."

- 1 AT the door of mercy sighing
With the burden of my sin,
Day and night my soul is crying,
"Open, Lord, and let me in."

- 2 Waiting 'mid the darkness dreary,
Stretching out my hands to Thee,
In the refuge for the weary
Is there not a place for me?
- 3 Hark, what sounds my ear receiveth,
Sweet as songs of seraphim !
He that in the Lord believeth
Life eternal hath in Him.
- 4 At the outer door why staying?
Nothing, soul, hast thou to pay :
Christ in love to thee is saying,
"Weary child, come in to-day."

"I bless the Christ of God."

- 1 I BLESS the Christ of God ;
I rest on love divine ;
And with unfaltering lip and heart,
I call this Saviour mine.
- 2 His cross dispels each doubt ;
I bury in His tomb
Each thought of unbelief and fear,
Each lingering shade of gloom.
- 3 I praise the God of grace ;
I trust His truth and might ;
He calls me His, I call Him mine,
My God, my Joy, my Light.
- 4 'Tis He who saveth me,
And freely pardon gives ;
I love because He loveth me,
I live because He lives.

 My death has passed away,
 My clouds have melted into light,
 My midnight into day.

Christ our Righteousness.—1 COR. i. 30.

- 1 How heavy is the night
 That hangs upon our eyes,
 Till Christ, with His reviving light,
 Over our souls arise !
- 2 Our guilty spirits dread
 To meet the wrath of Heaven ;
 But, in His righteousness arrayed,
 We see our sins forgiven.
- 3 Unholy and impure
 Are all our thoughts and ways :
 His hands infected nature cure,
 With sanctifying grace.
- 4 The powers of hell agree
 To hold our souls in vain ;
 He sets the sons of bondage free,
 And breaks the curséd chain.
- 5 Lord, we adore Thy ways
 To bring us near to God
 Thy sovereign power, Thy healing grace,
 And Thine atoning blood.

Grateful Recollection.

- 1 COME, Thou Fount of every blessing,
 Tune my heart to sing Thy grace ;
 Streams of mercy never ceasing,
 Call for songs of loudest praise .

Teach me some melodious sonnet,
 Sung by flaming tongues above ;
 Praise the mount, I'm fixed upon it,
 Mount of God's unchanging love.

- 2 Here I raise my Ebenezer,
 Hither by Thy help I'm come ;
 And I hope, by Thy good pleasure,
 Safely to arrive at home :
 Jesus sought me, when a stranger,
 Wandering from the fold of God ;
 He, to rescue me from danger,
 Interposed His precious blood.
- 3 O to grace how great a debtor,
 Daily I'm constrained to be ;
 Let that grace now, like a fetter,
 Bind my wandering heart to Thee :
 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it,
 Prone to leave the God I love ;
 Here's my heart, O take and seal it,
 Seal it from Thy courts above.

- 1 I WILL love Thee, all my Treasure ;
 I will love Thee, all my Strength ;
 I will love Thee without measure,
 And will love Thee right at length :
 I will love Thee, Light divine,
 Till I die and find Thee mine.
- 2 I will praise Thee, Sun of glory,
 For Thy beams have gladness brought ;
 I will praise Thee, will adore Thee,
 For the light I vainly sought ;

Praise Thee that Thy words so blest
Spake my sin-sick soul to rest.

- 3 I will love in joy or sorrow,
Crowning joy! will love Thee well;
I will love to-day, to-morrow,
While I in this body dwell:
I will love Thee, Light divine,
Till I die, and find Thee mine.

"Saving Grace."—EPH. ii. 5

- 1 GRACE, 'tis a charming sound,
Harmonious to mine ear;
Heaven with the echo shall resound,
And all the earth shall hear.
- 2 Grace first contrived a way
To save rebellious man,
And all the steps that grace display,
Which drew the wondrous plan.
- 3 Grace taught my wandering feet
To tread the heavenly road;
And new supplies each hour I meet,
While pressing on to God.
- 4 Grace all the work shall crown,
Through everlasting days;
It lays in Heaven the topmost stone,
And well deserves the praise.

Of Moses and the Lamb;
Wake every heart and every tongue,
To praise the Saviour's Name.

- 2 Sing of His dying love ;
Sing of His rising power ;
Sing how He intercedes above
For those whose sins He bore.
- 3 Sing till we feel our hearts
Ascending with our tongues ;
Sing till the love of sin departs,
And grace inspires our songs.
- 4 Sing on your heavenly way,
Ye ransomed sinners, sing ;
Sing on, rejoicing every day
In Christ th' eternal King.
- 5 Soon shall ye hear Him say,
"Ye blessed children, come ;"
Soon will He call you hence away,
And take His wanderers home.
- 6 There shall our raptured tongue
His endless praise proclaim,
And sweeter voices swell the song
Of Moses and the Lamb.

"The Loving-Kindness of the Lord."—Is. lxiii. 7.
- 1 AWAKE, my soul, in joyful lays,
And sing thy great Redeemer's praise;
He justly claims a song from me,
His loving-kindness, is so free,
Loving-kindness, loving-kindness,
His loving-kindness, is so free.
 - 2 He saw me ruined in the fall,
Yet loved me notwithstanding all,
And saved me from my lost estate,
His loving-kindness is so great.
His loving-kindness, &c.

- 3 Through mighty hosts of cruel foes,
Where earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along,
His loving-kindness is so strong.
His loving-kindness, &c.
- 4 So when I pass death's gloomy vale,
And life and mortal powers shall fail,
O may my last expiring breath
His loving-kindness sing in death.
His loving-kindness, &c.
- 5 Then shall I mount, and soar away
To the bright world of endless day;
There shall I sing, with sweet surprise,
His loving-kindness in the skies.
His loving-kindness, &c.

The new Joy.

- 1 TREMBLING before Thine awful throne,
O Lord, in dust my sins I own;
Justice and mercy for my life
Contend; O smile, and heal the strife.
- 2 The Saviour smiles; upon my soul
New tides of hope tumultuous roll;
His voice proclaims my pardon found,
Seraphic transport wings the sound.
- 3 Earth has a joy unknown to Heaven,
The new-born peace of sins forgiven;
Tears of such pure and deep delight,
Ye angels, never dimmed your sight.
- 4 Ye saw of old, on chaos rise
The beauteous pillars of the skies;
Ye know where morn exulting springs,
And evening folds her drooping wings.

- 5 Bright heralds of the Eternal Will,
 Abroad His errands ye fulfil;
 Or, throned in floods of beamy day,
 Symphonious in His presence play.
- 6 Loud is the song, the heavenly plain
 Is shaken with the choral strain;
 And dying echoes, floating far,
 Draw music from each chiming star.
- 7 But I amid your choirs shall shine,
 And all your knowledge shall be mine;
 Ye on your harps must learn to hear
 A secret chord that mine will bear.

"Bless the Lord, O my Soul."—Ps. ciii.

- 1 PRAISE, my soul, the King of Heaven;
 To His feet thy tribute bring,
 Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
 Evermore His praises sing:
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 Praise the everlasting King.
- 2 Praise Him for His grace and favor
 To our fathers in distress;
 Praise Him still the same as ever,
 Slow to chide, and swift to bless:
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 Glorious in His faithfulness.
- 3 Father-like, He tends and spares us,
 Well our feeble frame He knows;
 In His hands He gently bears us,
 Rescues us from all our foes:
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 Praise with us the God of grace.

"To live is Christ, and to die is Gain."—PHIL 1:21

- 1 CHRIST, of all my hopes the Ground,
 Christ, the Spring of all my joy,
 Still in Thee may I be found,
 Still for Thee my powers employ.
 Fountain of o'erflowing grace,
 Freely from Thy fulness give;
 Till I close my earthly race,
 May I prove it, "Christ to live."
- 2 When I touch the blessed shore,
 Back the closing waves shall roll:
 Death's dark stream shall never more
 Part from Thee my ravished soul.
 Thus, O thus, an entrance give
 To the land of cloudless sky;
 Having known it, "Christ to live,"
 Let me know it, "Gain to die."
- 3 Gain, to part from all my grief;
 Gain, to bid my sins farewell;
 Gain, of all my gains the chief,
 Ever with the Lord to dwell:
 This Thy people's portion, Lord,
 Peace on earth, and bliss on high;
 This their ever-sure reward,
 "Christ to live, and gain to die."

"Only Thee."

- 1 BLESSED Saviour, Thee I love,
 All my other joys above;
 All my hopes in Thee abide,
 Thou my Hope, and naught beside;
 Ever let my glory be,
 Only, only, only Thee.

- 2 Once again beside the cross,
 All my gain I count but loss ;
 Earthly pleasures fade away ;
 Clouds they are that hide my day :
 Hence, vain shadows, let me see
 Jesus, crucified for me.
- 3 From beneath that thorny crown
 Trickle drops of cleansing down ;
 Pardon from Thy piercé hand
 Now I take, while here I stand ;
 Only then I live to Thee,
 When Thy wounded side I see.
- 4 Blessed Saviour, Thine am I,
 Thine to live, and Thine to die ;
 Height or depth, or earthly power,
 Ne'er shall hide my Saviour more :
 Ever shall my glory be,
 Only, only, only Thee.

Rev. George Duffield (1818—), 1859.

Happy Trust.

- 1 SAVIOUR, happy would I be,
 If I could but trust in Thee ;
 Trust Thy wisdom me to guide ;
 Trust Thy goodness to provide ;
 Trust Thy saving love and power ;
 Trust Thee every day and hour :
- 2 Trust Thee as the only light
 In the darkest hour of night ;
 Trust in sickness, trust in health ;
 Trust in poverty and wealth ;
 Trust in joy, and trust in grief ;
 Trust Thy promise for relief :

- 3 Trust Thy blood to cleanse my soul ;
 Trust Thy grace to make me whole ;
 Trust Thee living, dying, too ;
 Trust Thee all my journey through ;
 Trust Thee till my feet shall be Planted on the crystal sea.

Wrestling Jacob.—GEN. xxxii. 24.

- 1 COME, O Thou Traveller unknown,
 Whom still I hold, but cannot see ;
 My company before is gone,
 And I am left alone with Thee ;
 With Thee all night I mean to stay,
 And wrestle till the break of day.
- 2 I need not tell Thee who I am ?
 My sin and misery declare ;
 Thyself hast called me by my name ;
 Look on Thy hands, and read it there :
 But who, I ask Thee, who art Thou ?
 Tell me Thy Name, and tell me now.
- 3 My prayer hath power with God ; the grace
 Unspeakable I now receive ;
 Through faith I see Thee face to face,
 I see Thee face to face and live ;
 In vain I have not wept and strove,
 Thy Nature, and Thy Name, is Love.
- 4 I know Thee, Saviour, who Thou art,
 Jesus, the feeble sinner's Friend ;
 Nor wilt Thou with the night depart,
 But stay and love me to the end :
 Thy mercies never shall remove,
 Thy Nature, and Thy Name, is Love.

"Jesu, dulcis memoria."—REV. xxii. 4.

- 1 JESUS, the very thought of Thee
With sweetness fills my breast;
But sweeter far Thy face to see,
And in Thy presence rest.
- 2 Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find
A sweeter sound than Thy blest Name,
O Saviour of mankind!
- 3 O Hope of every contrite heart,
O Joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind Thou art!
How good to those who seek!
- 4 Jesus, our only Joy be Thou,
As Thou our Prize wilt be;
Jesus, be Thou our Glory now,
And through eternity.

"O Deus, ego amo Te."

- 1 My God, I love Thee: not because
I hope for Heaven thereby,
Nor yet because who love Thee not
Must die eternally.
- 2 Thou, O my Jesus, Thou didst me
Upon the cross embrace;
For me didst bear the nails, and spear,
And manifold disgrace;
- 3 And griefs, and torments numberless,
And sweat of agony;
Yea, death itself; and all for me
Who was Thine enemy.

- 4 Then why, O blessed Jesus Christ,
Should I not love Thee well?
Not for the hope of winning Heaven,
Nor of escaping hell.
- 5 Not with the hope of gaining aught,
Nor seeking a reward;
But as Thyself hast loved me,
O ever-loving Lord.
- 6 So would I love Thee, dearest Lord,
And in Thy praise will sing;
Solely because Thou art my God,
And my eternal King.

"Thou knowest that I love Thee."—JOHN xxi. 15.

- 1 Do not I love Thee, O my Lord?
Behold my heart and see;
And turn each curséd idol out,
That dares to rival Thee.
- 2 Do not I love Thee from my soul?
Then let me nothing love;
Dead be my heart to every joy,
When Jesus cannot move.
- 3 Is not Thy Name melodious still
To mine attentive ear?
Doth not each pulse with pleasure bound
My Saviour's voice to hear?
- 4 Hast Thou a lamb in all Thy flock
I would disdain to feed?
Hast Thou a foe before whose face
I fear Thy cause to plead?

- 5 Would not my heart pour forth its blood
 In honor of Thy Name,
 And challenge the cold hand of death
 To damp th' immortal flame?
- 6 Thou know'st I love Thee, dearest Lord,
 But O, I long to soar
 Far from the sphere of mortal joys,
 And learn to love Thee more.

Christ precious.—1 PET. ii. 7.

- 1 JESUS, I love Thy charming Name,
 'Tis music to mine ear;
 Fain would I sound it out so loud
 That earth and Heaven should hear.
- 2 All my capacious powers can wish
 In Thee doth richly meet;
 Not to mine eyes is light so dear,
 Nor friendship half so sweet.
- 3 Thy grace still dwells upon my heart,
 And sheds its fragrance there;
 The noblest balm of all its wounds,
 The cordial of its care.
- 4 I'll speak the honors of Thy Name
 With my last laboring breath;
 Then, speechless, clasp Thee in mine arms,
 The Conqueror of death.

"I'm a Miracle of Grace."

- 1 HAIL, my ever blessed Jesus!
 Only Thee I wish to sing;
 To my soul Thy Name is precious,
 Thou my Prophet, Priest, and King:

- O, what mercy flows from Heaven,
 O, what joy and happiness !
 Love I much, I've much forgiven ;
 I'm a miracle of grace.
- 2 Once with Adam's race in ruin,
 Unconcerned in sin I lay,
 Swift destruction still pursuing,
 Till my Saviour passed that way.
 Witness, all ye host of Heaven,
 My Redeemer's tenderness.
 Love I much, I've much forgiven ;
 I'm a miracle of grace !
- 3 Shout, ye bright, angelic choir,
 Praise the Lamb enthroned above,
 While, astonished, I admire
 God's free grace and boundless love.
 That blest moment I received Him
 Filled my soul with joy and peace.
 Love I much, I've much forgiven ;
 I'm a miracle of grace.

Praise for pardoning Grace.

- 1 LORD, with glowing heart I'd praise Thee
 For the bliss Thy love bestows,
 For the pardoning grace that saves me,
 And the peace that from it flows.
 Help, O God, my weak endeavor,
 This dull soul to rapture raise ;
 Thou must light the flame, or never
 Can my love be warmed to praise.
- 2 Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
 Wretched wanderer, far astray ;

Found thee lost, and kindly brought thee
 From the paths of death away.
 Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
 Him who saw thy guilt-born fear,
 And, the light of hope revealing,
 Bade the blood-stained cross appear.

- 3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
 Vainly would my lips express ;
 Low before Thy footstool kneeling,
 Deign Thy suppliant's prayer to bless.
 Let Thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
 Love's pure flame within me raise ;
 And since words can never measure,
 Let my life show forth Thy praise.

"We are the Lord's."—Rom. xiv. 8.

- 1 JESUS, I live to Thee,
 The loveliest and best ;
 My life in Thee, Thy life in me,
 In Thy blest love I rest.
- 2 Jesus, I die to Thee,
 Whenever death shall come ;
 To die in Thee is life to me,
 In my eternal home.
- 3 Whether to live or die,
 I know not which is best ;
 To live in Thee is bliss to me,
 To die is endless rest.
- 4 Living or dying, Lord,
 I ask but to be Thine ;
 My life in Thee, Thy life in me,
 Makes Heaven forever mine.

1 FAIREST Lord JESUS,
 Ruler of all nature,
 O Thou of God and man the Son!
 Thee will I cherish,
 Thee will I honor,
 Thou, my soul's glory, joy, and crown.

2 Fair are the meadows,
 Fairer still the woodlands,
 Robed in the blooming garb of spring:
 Jesus is fairer,
 Jesus is purer,
 Who makes the woful heart to sing.

Unseen, but loved.—1 PET. i. 8.

1 JESUS, these eyes have never seen
 That radiant form of Thine;
 The veil of sense hangs dark between
 Thy blessed face and mine.

2 I see Thee not, I hear Thee not,
 Yet art Thou oft with me;
 And earth hath ne'er so dear a spot,
 As where I meet with Thee.

3 Like some bright dream that comes un-
 When slumbers o'er me roll, [sought
 Thine image ever fills my thought,
 And charms my ravished soul.

- 4 Yet though I have not seen, and still Must rest in faith alone,
I love Thee, dearest Lord,—and will,
Unseen, but not unknown.
- 5 When death these mortal eyes shall seal,
And still this throbbing heart,
The rending veil shall Thee reveal,
All-glorious as Thou art.

Which unto Thee I send;

The sweet Name.

- 1 How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear;
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear.

- 2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast ;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.
- 3 By Thee my prayers acceptance gain,
Although with sin defiled ;
Satan accuses me in vain,
And I am owned a child.
- 4 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought ;
But when I see Thee as Thou art,
I'll praise Thee as I ought.

"O Jesus Christus, wach's in mir."

- 1 O JESUS Christ, grow Thou in me,
And all things else recede ;
My heart be daily nearer Thee,
From sin be daily freed.
- 2 Each day, let Thy supporting might
My weakness still embrace ;
My darkness vanish in Thy light,
Thy life my death efface.
- 3 In Thy bright beams, which on me fall,
Fade every evil thought ;
That I am nothing, Thou art all,
I would be daily taught.
- 4 Make this poor self grow less and less,
Be Thou my life and aim,
O, make me daily, through Thy grace,
More worthy of Thy Name.

- 5 Let faith in Thee and in Thy might
 My every motive move ;
 Be Thou alone my soul's delight,
 My passion and my love.

Christ praised.

- 1 WHEN morning gilds the skies,
 My heart awaking cries,
 May Jesus Christ be praised :
 Alike at work and prayer
 To Jesus I repair ;
 May Jesus Christ be praised.
- 2 When sleep her balm denies,
 My silent spirit sighs,
 May Jesus Christ be praised :
 When evil thoughts molest,
 With this I shield my breast,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.
- 3 The night becomes as day,
 When from the heart we say,
 May Jesus Christ be praised :
 The powers of darkness fear,
 When this sweet chant they hear,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.
- 4 In Heaven's eternal bliss
 The loveliest strain is this,
 May Jesus Christ be praised :
 Let air, and sea, and sky
 From depth to height reply,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

Rev. Edward Caswall (1814—1878), 1849. Ab

- 1 HERE I can firmly rest,
I dare to boast of this,
That God, the highest and the best,
My Friend and Father is.
- 2 From dangerous snares He saves :
Where'er He bids me go
He checks the storms and calms the waves,
That naught can work me woe.
- 3 He whispers in my breast
Sweet words of holy cheer,
How he who seeks in God his rest
Shall ever find Him near ;
- 4 How God hath built above
A city fair and new,
Where eye and heart shall see and prove
What faith has counted true.
- 5 My heart for gladness springs,
It cannot more be sad,
For very joy it laughs and sings,
Sees naught but sunshine glad.
- 6 The Sun that glads mine eyes
Is Christ the Lord I love :
I sing for joy of that which lies
Stored up for us above.

- 1 JESUS is the Name we treasure ;
Name beyond what words can tell ;
Name of gladness, Name of pleasure,

Ear and heart delighting well ;
 Name of sweetness, passing measure,
 Saving us from sin and hell.

- 2 'Tis the Name for adoration,
 Name for songs of victory,
 Name for holy meditation
 In this vale of misery,
 Name for joyful veneration
 By the citizens on high.

- 3 Jesus is the Name exalted
 Over every other name ;
 In this Name, whene'er assaulted,
 We can put our foes to shame ;
 Strength to them who else had halted,
 Eyes to blind, and feet to lame.

- 4 Therefore we in love adoring,
 This most blessed Name revere ;
 Holy Jesus, Thee imploring
 So to write it in us here,
 That hereafter heavenward soaring,
 We may sing with angels there.

Converting Grace.

- 1 O GIFT of gifts ! O grace of faith !
 My God, how can it be
 That Thou, who hast discerning love,
 Shouldst give that gift to me ?
- 2 How many hearts Thou mightst have had
 More innocent than mine,
 How many souls more worthy far
 Of that sweet touch of Thine !

- 3 Ah, grace, into unlikeliest hearts
 It is thy boast to come,
 The glory of thy light to find
 In darkest spots a home.
- 4 The crowd of cares, the weightiest cross,
 Seem trifles less than light;
 Earth looks so little and so low
 When faith shines full and bright.
- 5 O happy, happy that I am!

 The treasure that thou art in life,
 What wilt thou be in death?

"Sing unto the Lord."—Ps. xxvi. 7.

- 1 SING of Jesus, sing forever,
Of the love that changes never,
Who or what from Him can sever
Those He makes His own?
- 2 With His blood the Lord has bought them;
When they knew Him not, He sought them,
And from all their wanderings brought them ;
His the praise alone.

- 3 Through the desert Jesus leads them,
 With the bread of Heaven He feeds them,
 And through all the way He speeds them
 To their home above.

 Him who by His Spirit taught them,
 Him they serve and love.

One Song on Earth and in Heaven.

- 1 SAINTS in glory, we together
 Know the song that ceases never;
 Song of songs, Thou art, O Saviour,
 All that endless day.
- 2 Theme of Adam, when forgiven,
 Theme of Abr'am, David, Stephen;
 Souls, ye chant it entering Heaven,
 Now, henceforth, always.
- 3 Come, ye angels, round us gather,
 While to Jesus we draw nearer;
 In His throne He'll seat forever
 Those for whom He died.
- 4 Underneath His throne a river,
 Clear as crystal, flows forever,
 Like His fulness, failing never:
 Hail, enthronéd Lamb!
- 5 O the unsearchable Redeemer!
 Shoreless ocean, sounded never!
 Yesterday, to-day, forever,
 Jesus Christ, the same.

- 1 MY faith looks up to Thee,
 Thou Lamb of Calvary,
 Saviour divine:
 Now hear me while I pray,
 Take all my guilt away,
 O let me from this day
 Be wholly Thine.
- 2 May Thy rich grace impart
 Strength to my fainting heart,
 My zeal inspire;
 As Thou hast died for me,
 O may my love to Thee,
 Pure, warm, and changeless be,
 A living fire.
- 3 While life's dark maze I tread,
 And griefs around me spread,
 Be Thou my Guide;
 Bid darkness turn to day,
 Wipe sorrow's tears away,
 Nor let me ever stray
 From Thee aside.
- 4 When ends life's transient dream,
 When death's cold, sullen stream
 Shall o'er me roll;
 Blest Saviour, then, in love,
 Fear and distrust remove;
 O, bear me safe above,
 A ransomed soul.

"Jesus, my Lord!"

- 1 JESUS, Thy Name I love,
 All other names above,

Jesus, my Lord !
 O Thou art all to me ;
 Nothing to please I see,
 Nothing apart from Thee,
 Jesus, my Lord !

2 When unto Thee I flee,
 Thou wilt my Refuge be,
 Jesus, my Lord !
 What need I now to fear?
 What earthly grief or care,
 Since Thou art ever near,
 Jesus, my Lord !

3 Soon Thou wilt come again :
 I shall be happy then,
 Jesus, my Lord !
 Then Thine own face I'll see,
 Then I shall like Thee be,
 Then evermore with Thee,
 Jesus, my Lord !

James George Deck (1802—), 1837. Ab.

1 O LORD, how happy is the time
 When in Thy love I rest ;
 When in my weariness I climb
 E'en to Thy tender breast.
 The night of sorrow endeth there :
 Thou'rt brighter than the sun ;
 And in Thy pardon, and Thy care,
 The Heaven of Heaven is won.

2 Let this world call itself my foe,
 Or let the world allure :
 I care not for the world ; I go
 To this dear Friend and sure ;

And when life's fiercest storms are sent
 Upon life's wildest sea,
 My little bark is confident,
 Because it holds by Thee.

- 3 When Thy law threatens endless death
 Upon the awful hill,
 Straightway from its consuming breath
 My soul goes higher still;
 Goeth to Jesus, wounded, slain,
 And maketh Him her home,
 Whence she will not go out again,
 And where death cannot come.

- 4 Thou art my Rest: on Thee I lean;
 Thou mak'st my heart to sing,
 And to Thy heavenly pastures green
 All Thy dear flock dost bring.
 That is not losing much of life
 Which is not losing Thee,
 Who art as present in the strife
 As in the victory.

"The Crucified"

- 1 Ask ye what great thing I know
 That delights and stirs me so?
 What the high reward I win?
 Whose the name I glory in?
 Jesus Christ, the Crucified.
- 2 What is faith's foundation strong?
 What awakes my lips to song?
 He who bore my sinful load,
 Purchased for me peace with God,
 Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

- 3 Who defeats my fiercest foes?
 Who consoles my saddest woes?
 Who revives my fainting heart,
 Healing all its hidden smart?
 Jesus Christ, the Crucified.
- 4 Who is Life in life to me?
 Who the Death of death will be?
 Who will place me on His right
 With the countless hosts of light?
 Jesus Christ, the Crucified.
- 5 This is that great thing I know;
 This delights and stirs me so:
 Faith in Him who died to save,
 Him who triumphed o'er the grave,
 Jesus Christ, the Crucified.
- Rev. John Samuel Bewley Monsell (1811—1875), 1863.

- 1 O LOVE divine, how sweet Thou art!
 When shall I find my willing heart
 All taken up by Thee?
 I thirst, and faint, and die to prove
 The greatness of redeeming love,
 The love of Christ to me.
- 2 God only knows the love of God;
 O that it now were shed abroad
 In this poor, stony heart!
 For love I sigh, for love I pine
 This only portion, Lord, be mine,
 Be mine this better part.
- 3 O that I could forever sit
 With Mary at the Master's feet!
 Be this my happy choice,

My only care, delight, and bliss,
 My joy, my heaven on earth, be this,
 To hear the Bridegroom's voice.

"The Matchless Worth."—Ps. lxvi. 2.

- 1 O COULD I speak the matchless worth,
 O could I sound the glories forth,
 Which in my Saviour shine,
 I'd soar, and touch the heavenly strings,
 And vie with Gabriel while he sings,
 In notes almost divine.
- 2 I'd sing the precious blood He spilt,
 My ransom from the dreadful guilt
 Of sin, and wrath divine;
 I'd sing His glorious righteousness,
 In which all-perfect, heavenly dress
 My soul shall ever shine.
- 3 I'd sing the characters He bears,
 And all the forms of love He wears,
 Exalted on His throne;
 In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
 I would to everlasting days
 Make all His glories known.
- 4 Well, the delightful day will come
 When my dear Lord will bring me home,
 And I shall see His face;
 Then with my Saviour, Brother, Friend,
 A blest eternity I'll spend,
 Triumphant in His grace.

The Pilgrim welcomed.

- 1 PILGRIM, burdened with thy sin,
 Come the way to Zion's gate:

- There, till mercy lets thee in,
 Knock, and weep, and watch, and wait.
 Knock, He knows the sinner's cry ;
 Weep, He loves the mourner's tears ;
 Watch, for saving grace is nigh ;
 Wait, till heavenly light appears.
- 2 Hark, it is the Bridegroom's voice :
 " Welcome, pilgrim, to thy rest !"
 Now within the gate rejoice,
 Safe, and sealed, and bought and blest :
 Safe, from all the lures of vice ;
 Sealed, by signs the chosen know ;
 Bought by love, and life the price ;
 Blest, the mighty debt to owe.
- 3 Holy pilgrim, what for thee
 In a world like this remain ?
 From thy guarded breast shall flee
 Fear, and shame, and doubt, and pain ;
 Fear, the hope of Heaven shall fly ;
 Shame, from glory's view retire ;
 Doubt, in certain rapture die ;
 Pain, in endless bliss expire.

Rev. George Crabbe (1754—1832), 1807. Ab.

Numbered with God's Sons.

- 1 BLESSED are the sons of God,
 They are bought with Jesus' blood ;
 They are ransomed from the grave,
 Life eternal they shall have :
 With them numbered may we be,
 Here, and in eternity.
 With them numbered may we be,
 Here, and in eternity.

- 2 God did love them in His Son,
 Long before the world begun;
 All their sins are washed away;
 They shall stand in God's great day:
 With them numbered may we be,
 Here, and in eternity.
 With them numbered may we be,
 Here, and in eternity.
- 3 They are lights upon the earth,
 Children of a heavenly birth,
 One with God, with Jesus one;
 Glory is in them begun:
 With them numbered may we be,
 Here, and in eternity.
 With them numbered may we be,
 Here, and in eternity.

"Travelling Home."

- 1 CHILDREN of the heavenly King,
 As ye journey, sweetly sing;
 Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
 Glorious in His works and ways.
- 2 We are travelling home to God,
 In the way the fathers trod:
 They are happy now, and we
 Soon their happiness shall see.
- 3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest,
 You on Jesus' throne shall rest;
 There your seat is now prepared,
 There your kingdom and reward.

- 4 Fear not, brethren, joyful stand
On the borders of your land;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.
- 5 Lord, obediently we go,
Gladly leaving all below;
Only Thou our Leader be,
And we still will follow Thee.

Rev. John Cennick (1717—1755), 1742. Ab.

"Onward go."

- 1 OFT in sorrow, oft in woe,
Onward, Christians, onward go;
Bear the toil, maintain the strife,
Strengthened with the Bread of Life.
- 2 Let not sorrow dim your eye,
Soon shall every tear be dry;
Let not fear your course impede,
Great your strength, if great your need.
- 3 Let your drooping hearts be glad;
March in heavenly armour clad;
Fight, nor think the battle long,
Soon shall victory wake your song.
- 4 Onward then to glory move;
More than conquerors ye shall prove;
Though opposed by many a foe,
Christian soldiers, onward go.

Henry Kirke White (1785—1806), 1806. Very much alt.

"Faint not, Christian."

- 1 FAINT not, Christian, though the road,
Leading to thy blest abode,
Darksome be, and dangerous, too;
Christ, thy Guide, will bring thee through.

- 2 Faint not, Christian, though the world
Has its hostile flag unfurled ;
Hold the cross of Jesus fast,
Thou shalt overcome at last.
- 3 Faint not, Christian, though within
There's a heart so prone to sin ;
Christ, the Lord, is over all,
He'll not suffer thee to fall.
- 4 Faint not, Christian, look on high
See the harpers in the sky :
Patient, wait, and thou wilt join
Chant with them of love divine.

Prayer for Guidance.—NUMBERS X. 33.

- 1 LEAD us, heavenly Father, lead us
O'er the world's tempestuous sea ;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us,
For we have no help but Thee ;
Yet possessing every blessing,
If our God our Father be.
- 2 Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us ;
All our weakness Thou dost know ;
Thou didst tread this earth before us ;
Thou didst feel its keenest woe ;
Lone and dreary, faint and weary,
Through the desert Thou didst go.
- 3 Spirit of our God, descending,
Fill our hearts with heavenly joy,
Love with every passion blending,
Pleasure that can never cloy ;
Thus provided, pardoned, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy.

James Edmeston (1791—1867), 1820.

- 1 SAVIOUR, like a shepherd lead us,
 Much we need Thy tender care ;
 In Thy pleasant pastures feed us,
 For our use Thy folds prepare.
 ||: Blesséd Jesus, Blesséd Jesus,
 Thou hast bought us, Thine we are. :||
- 2 We are Thine, do Thou befriend us,
 Be the guardian of our way ;
 Keep Thy flock, from sin defend us,
 Seek us when we go astray ;
 ||: Blesséd Jesus, Blesséd Jesus,
 Hear the children when they pray. :||
- 3 Early let us seek Thy favor,
 Early let us do Thy will ;
 Holy Lord, our only Saviour,
 With Thy grace our bosoms fill ;
 ||: Blesséd Jesus, Blesséd Jesus,
 Thou hast loved us, love us still. :||

Miss Dorothy Ann Thrupp (1779—1847), 1838. Ab.

- 1 SAFE across the waters,
 Foes forever gone,
 Now we march in safety,
 God our guide alone.
 'Tis the silent desert,
 Sand and rock and waste ;
 But the chain is broken,
 And the peril past.
 Onward, then, right onward,
 This our watchword still :
 Till we reach the glory
 Of the wondrous hill.

- 2 On through waste and blackness,
 O'er our desert road :
 On till Sinai greets us,
 Mountain of our God !
 On past Edom's valley,
 Moab's mountain wall,
 Jordan's sea-board rushings,
 'The pillar-cloud o'er all.
 Past the palmy city,
 Rock and hill our road :
 On till Salem greets us,
 City of our God.

"Jesus, geh voran."

- 1 JESUS, still lead on,
 Till our rest be won ;
 And although the way be cheerless,
 We will follow, calm and fearless :
 Guide us by Thy hand
 ||: To our Fatherland. :||
- 2 If the way be drear,
 If the foe be near,
 Let not faithless fears o'ertake us,
 Let not faith and hope forsake us ;
 For, through many a foe,
 ||: To our home we go. :||
- 3 When we seek relief
 From a long-felt grief,
 When temptations come alluring,
 Make us patient and enduring ;
 Show us that bright shore,
 ||: Where we weep no more. :||

4 Jesus, still lead on,
 Till our rest be won ;
 Heavenly Leader, still direct us,
 Still support, console, protect us,
 Till we safely stand
 ||: In our Fatherland. :||

"Wer ist wohl wie Du?"

1 JESUS, who can be
 Once compared with Thee !
 Source of rest and consolation,
 Life and light, and full salvation ;
 Son of God, with Thee
 None compared can be !

2 Thou hast died for me,
 From all misery
 And distress me to deliver,
 And from death to save forever ;
 I am by Thy blood
 Reconciled to God.

3 Grant me steadiness,
 Lord, to run my race,
 Following Thee with love most tender,
 So that Satan may not hinder
 Me by craft or force ;
 Further Thou my course.

4 When I hence depart,
 Strengthen Thou my heart ;
 Where Thou art, O Lord, convey me,
 In Thy righteousness array me,

That at Thy right hand
Joyful I may stand.

The Pilgrims of Jesus.

- 1 O HAPPY band of pilgrims,
If onward ye will tread,
With Jesus as your Fellow,
To Jesus as your Head.
O happy, if ye labor
As Jesus did for men :
O happy, if ye hunger
As Jesus hungered then.
- 2 The cross that Jesus carried
He carried as your due :
The crown that Jesus weareth
He weareth it for you.
The faith by which ye see Him,
The hope in which ye yearn,
The love that through all trouble
To Him alone will turn :
- 3 What are they but forerunners
To lead you to His sight?
What are they save th' effluence
Of uncreated Light?
The trials that beset you,
The sorrows ye endure,
The manifold temptations
That death alone can cure :
- 4 What are they, but His jewels
Of right celestial worth?
What are they but the ladder,
Set up to Heaven on earth?

O happy band of pilgrims,
 Look upward to the skies ;
 Where such a light affliction
 Shall win you such a prize.

"Gently, Lord."

1 GENTLY, Lord, O gently lead us,
 Pilgrims in this vale of tears,
 Through the trials yet decreed us,
 Till our last great change appears.
 When temptation's darts assail us,
 When in devious paths we stray,
 Let Thy goodness never fail us,
 Lead us in Thy perfect way.

2 In the hour of pain and anguish,
 In the hour when death draws near,
 Suffer not our hearts to languish,
 Suffer not our souls to fear ;
 And, when mortal life is ended,
 Bid us in Thine arms to rest,
 Till, by angel bands attended,
 We awake among the blest.

Prayer for Guidance.

1 GUIDE me, O Thou great Jehovah,
 Pilgrim through this barren land ;
 I am weak, but Thou art mighty ;
 Hold me with Thy powerful hand ;
 ||: Bread of Heaven, :||
 Feed me till I want no more.

- 2 Open now the crystal fountain,
 Whence the healing stream doth flow ;
 Let the fire and cloudy pillar
 Lead me all my journey through :
 ||: Strong Deliverer, :||
 Be Thou still my strength and shield.
- 3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
 Bid my anxious fears subside ;
 Death of deaths, and hell's destruction,
 Land me safe on Canaan's side :

 I will ever give to Thee.

- 1 To Canaan's sacred bound
 We haste with songs of joy,
 Where peace and liberty are found,
 And sweets that never cloy.
 Hallelujah ! Hallelujah !
 We are on our way to God.
- 2 Our toils and conflicts cease
 On Canaan's happy shore ;
 We there shall dwell in endless peace,
 And never hunger more.
 Hallelujah ! Hallelujah !
 We are on our way to God.
- 3 There, in celestial strains,
 Enraptured myriads sing ;
 There love in every bosom reigns,
 For God Himself is King.
 Hallelujah ! Hallelujah !
 We are on our way to God.

 Beneath earth's sultry noon;
 This is the day of service true,
 But the rest cometh soon.
 Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
 There remains a rest for us.

 Upward our journey still;
 Ours is the path the Master trod,
 Through good report and ill.
 Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
 There remains a rest for us.

 We gird our loins, and hasten on;
 The end, the end is peace.

 Before Thy throne of grace:
 God of our fathers, be the God

The March to Canaan.

- 1 FORTH to the Land of Promise bound,
Our desert path we tread;
God's fiery pillar for our guide,
His Captain at our head.
- 2 E'en now we faintly trace the hills,
And catch their distant blue;
And the bright city's gleaming spires
Rise dimly on our view.
- 3 Soon, when the desert shall be crossed,
The flood of death past o'er,
Our pilgrim hosts shall safely land
On Canaan's peaceful shore.

The High-way to Zion.—Is. xxxv. 8—10.

- 1 SING, ye redeemed of the Lord,
Your great Deliverer sing:
Pilgrims for Zion's city bound,
Be joyful in your King.
- 2 A hand divine shall lead you on
Through all the blissful road,
Till to the sacred mount you rise,
And see your smiling God.

- 3 There garlands of immortal joy
 Shall bloom on every head ;
 While sorrow, crying, and distress,
 Like shadows all are fled.
- 4 March on in your Redeemer's strength ;
 Pursue His footsteps still ;
 And let the prospect cheer your eye,
 While laboring up the hill.

Heavenly Hope.

- 1 WHEN I can read my title clear
 To mansions in the skies,
 I bid farewell to every fear,
 And wipe my weeping eyes.
- 2 Should earth against my soul engage,
 And hellish darts be hurled,
 Then I can smile at Satan's rage,
 And face a frowning world.
- 3 Let cares like a wild deluge come,
 And storms of sorrow fall ;
 May I but safely reach my home,
 My God, my Heaven, my All ;
- 4 There shall I bathe my weary soul
 In seas of heavenly rest,
 And not a wave of trouble roll
 Across my peaceful breast.

Watching for the Morning.

- 1 LIGHT of the lonely pilgrim's heart,
 Star of the coming day,
 Arise, and, with Thy morning beams,
 Chase all our griefs away.

- 2 Come, blesséd Lord, bid every shore
 And answering island sing
 The praises of Thy royal Name,
 And own Thee as their King.
- 3 Lord, Lord, Thy fair creation groans,
 The air, the earth, the sea,
 In unison with all our hearts,
 And calls aloud for Thee.
- 4 Thine was the cross, with all its fruits
 Of grace and peace divine :
 Be Thine the crown of glory now,
 The palm of victory Thine.

"Lead Thou me on."

- ✓ 1, LEAD, kindly Light, amid th' encircling
 Lead Thou me on ; [gloom,
 The night is dark, and I am far from home,
 Lead Thou me on ;
 Keep Thou my feet ; I do not ask to see
 The distant scene ; one step enough for me.
- 2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
 Shouldst lead me on ;
 I loved to choose and see my path ; but now
 Lead Thou me on !
 I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
 Pride ruled my will. Remember not past years !
- 3 So long Thy power has blest me, sure it still
 Will lead me on
 O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
 The night is gone,

And with the morn those angel faces smile
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile !

Weak Believers encouraged.

- 1 YOUR harps, ye trembling saints,
Down from the willows take ;
Loud to the praise of love divine
Bid every string awake.
- 2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home ;
And nearer to our house above
We every moment come.
- 3 His grace will to the end
Stronger and brighter shine ;
Nor present things, nor things to come,
Shall quench the spark divine.
- 4 Soon shall our doubts and fears
Subside at His control ;
His loving-kindness shall break through
The midnight of the soul.
- 5 Blest is the man, O God,
That stays himself on Thee ;
Who wait for Thy salvation, Lord,

"Rise, my Soul."

- 1 RISE, my soul, and stretch thy wings,
Thy better portion trace ;
Rise from transitory things
Towards Heaven, thy native place :

Sun and moon and stars decay ;
 Time shall soon this earth remove ;
 Rise, my soul, and haste away
 To seats prepared above.

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
 Nor stay in all their course ;
 Fire, ascending, seeks the sun ;
 Both speed them to their source :
 So a soul, that's born of God,
 Pants to view His glorious face,
 Upward tends to His abode,
 To rest in His embrace.

3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn,
 Press onward to the prize ;
 Soon our Saviour will return
 Triumphant in the skies :
 Yet a season, and you know
 Happy entrance will be given,
 All our sorrows left below,
 And earth exchanged for Heaven.

1 TIME is winging us away
 To our eternal home ;
 Life is but a winter's day,
 A journey to the tomb ;
 Youth and vigor soon will flee,
 Blooming beauty lose its charms ;
 All that's mortal soon shall be
 Enclosed in death's cold arms.

2 Time is winging us away

 Health and beauty soon, above,
 Far beyond the world's annoy,
 Secure in Jesus' love.

"Worn and Weary."

- 1 MY feet are worn and weary with the march
 O'er the rough road and up the steep hill-side ;
 O City of our God, I fain would see Thy pastures green, where peaceful waters glide.
- 2 My garments, travel-worn and stained with dust,

- Oft rent by briers and thorns that crowd my way,
Would fain be made, O Lord, my Righteousness,
Spotless and white in Heaven's unclouded ray.
- 3 My heart is weary of its own deep sin :
Sinning, repenting, sinning still again ;
When shall my soul Thy glorious presence feel,
And find, dear Saviour, it is free from stain?
- 4 Patience, poor soul! the Saviour's feet
were worn,
The Saviour's heart and hands were weary, too ;
His garments stained and travel-worn,
and old,
His vision blinded with a pitying dew.
- 5 Love thou the path of sorrow that He trod ;
Toil on, and wait in patience for thy rest ;
O City of our God, we soon shall see Thy jasper walls, home of the loved and blest.

"Thy Mercy Sweet."—Ps. cix. 20.

- 1 SWEET is Thy mercy, Lord ;
Before Thy mercy-seat
My soul, adoring, pleads Thy word,
And owns Thy mercy sweet.

2 My need, and Thy desires,
Are all in Christ complete;
Thou hast the justice truth requires,
And I Thy mercy sweet.

3 Where'er Thy Name is blest,
Where'er Thy people meet,
There I delight in Thee to rest,
And find Thy mercy sweet.

4 Light Thou my weary way,
Place Thou my weary feet,
That while I stray on earth I may Still find Thy mercy sweet.

5 Thus shall the heavenly host
Hear all my songs repeat
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
My joy, Thy mercy sweet.

"Seelenbräutigam, o Du Gottes-Lamm."

1 O THOU, to whose all-searching sight
The darkness shineth as the light,
Search, prove my heart, it pants for Thee;
O burst these bonds, and set it free.

2 Wash out its stains, refine its dross;
Nail my affections to the cross;
Hallow each thought; let all within
Be clean, as Thou, my Lord, art clean.

3 If in this darksome wild I stray,

The Guiding Banner.

- 1 BRIGHTLY gleams our banner,
 Pointing to the sky,
 Waving wanderers onward
 To their home on high;
 Journeying o'er a desert,
 Gladly thus we pray,
 Still with hearts united,
 Singing on our way.
 Brightly gleams our banner,
 Pointing to the sky,
 Waving wanderers onward
 To their home on high.
- 2 All our days direct us
 In the way we go,
 Lead us on victorious
 Over every foe;
 Bid Thine angels shield us,
 When the storm-clouds lower,
 Pardon Thou and save us
 In the last dread hour.
 Brightly gleams, &c.

- 3 Then with saints and angels
 May we join above,
 Offering prayers and praises
 At Thy throne of love;
 When the toil is over
 Then comes rest and peace,
 Jesus in His beauty,
 Songs that never cease.
 Brightly gleams, &c.

"Forward into Light!"—EX. xiv. 15.

- 1 FORWARD! be our watchword,
 Steps and voices joined;
 Seek the things before us,
 Not a look behind:
 Burns the fiery pillar
 At our army's head;
 Who shall dream of shrinking,
 By our Captain led?
 Forward through the desert,
 Through the toil and fight:
 Jordan flows before us,
 Zion beams with light!
- 2 Forward, flock of Jesus,
 Salt of all the earth;
 Till each yearning purpose
 Spring to glorious birth:
 Sick, they ask for healing,
 Blind, they grope for day;
 Pour upon the nations
 Wisdom's loving ray.
 Forward, out of error,

Leave behind the night;
Forward through the darkness,
Forward into light!

- 3 Far o'er yon horizon
Rise the city towers,
Where our God abideth;
That fair home is ours:
Flash the walls with jasper,
Shine the streets with gold;
Flows the gladdening river
Shedding joys untold;
Thither, onward thither,
In the Spirit's might:
Pilgrims to your country,
Forward into light!

"Onward, Christian Soldiers."

- 1 ONWARD, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before.
Christ, the Royal Master,
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, His banners go.
Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before.
- 2 Like a mighty army
Moves the Church of God:
Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod;

We are not divided,
 All one body we,
 One in hope and doctrine,
 One in charity.
 Onward, &c.

3 Crowns and thrones may perish,
 Kingdoms rise and wane,
 But the Church of Jesus
 Constant will remain :
 Gates of hell can never
 'Gainst that Church prevail ;
 We have Christ's own promise,
 And that cannot fail.
 Onward, &c.

4 Onward, then, ye people,
 Join our happy throng,
 Blend with ours your voices
 In the triumph-song :
 Glory, laud, and honor
 Unto Christ our King ;
 This through countless ages,
 Men and angels sing.
 Onward, &c.

Οὐ γὰρ βλέπεις τοὺς παράπτοντας.

I CHRISTAIN, dost thou see them
 On the holy ground,
 How the troops of Midian
 Prowl and prowl around ?
 Christain, up and smite them,
 Counting gain but loss ;
 Smite them by the merit
 Of the holy cross.

2 Christian, dost thou hear them,
 How they speak thee fair?
 "Always fast and vigil?
 Always watch and prayer?"
 Christian, say but boldly,
 "While I breathe I pray."
 Peace shall follow battle,
 Night shall end in day.

3 "Well I know thy trouble,
 O My servant true;
 Thou art very weary,
 I was weary, too;
 But that toil shall make thee
 Some day all Mine own,
 And the end of sorrow
 Shall be near My throne."

St. Andrew of Crete (660—732).

"The good Fight."—1 TIM. vi. 12.

1 FIGHT the good fight with all thy might,
 Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy
 Lay hold on life, and it shall be [right;
 ||: Thy joy and crown eternally. :||

2 Run the straight race through God's good grace,
 Lift up thine eyes, and seek His face;
 Life with its way before us lies,
 ||: Christ is the path, and Christ the prize. :||

3 Cast care aside, upon thy guide
 Lean, and His mercy will provide;
 Lean, and the trusting soul shall prove
 ||: Christ is its life, and Christ its love. :||

- 4 Faint not nor fear, His arms are near,
 He changeth not, and thou art dear:
 Only believe, and thou shalt see
 ||: That Christ is all in all to thee. :||

"March boldly on."

- 1 STAND up, my soul, shake off thy fears,
 And gird the gospel armor on;
 March to the gates of endless joy,
 Where Jesus, thy great Captain's gone.
 2 Hell and thy sins resist thy course,
 But hell and sin are vanquished foes;
 Thy Jesus nailed them to the cross,
 And sung the triumph when He rose.
 3 Then let my soul march boldly on,
 Press forward to the heavenly gate:
 There peace and joy eternal reign,
 And glittering robes for conquerors wait.
 4 There shall I wear a starry crown,
 And triumph in almighty grace;
 While all the armies of the skies
 Join in my glorious Leader's praise.

Walking by Faith.

- 1 'Tis by the faith of joys to come,
 We walk through deserts dark as night;
 Till we arrive at Heaven, our home,
 Faith is our guide, and faith our light.
 2 The want of sight she well supplies;
 She makes the pearly gates appear;
 Far into distant worlds she pries,
 And brings eternal glories near.

- 3 Cheerful we tread the desert through,
 While faith inspires a heavenly ray;
 Though lions roar and tempests blow,
 And rocks and dangers fill the way.
- 4 So Abr'am, by divine command,
 Left his own house to walk with God;
 His faith beheld the promised land,
 And fired his zeal along the road.

"The whole Armor."—EPH. vi. 11—18.

- 1 SOLDIERS of Christ, arise,
 And put your armor on,
 Strong in the strength which God supplies
 Through His eternal Son.
- 2 Strong in the Lord of hosts,
 And in His mighty power,
 Who in the strength of Jesus trusts,
 Is more than conqueror.
- 3 Stand, then, in His great might,
 With all His strength endued,
 And take, to arm you for the fight,
 The panoply of God.
- 4 Leave no unguarded place,
 No weakness of the soul;
 Take every virtue, every grace,
 And fortify the whole.
- 5 To keep your armor bright,
 Attend with constant care,
 Still walking in your Captain's sight,
 And watching unto prayer,

"Arm these Thy Soldiers."

- 1 ARM these Thy soldiers, mighty Lord,
With shield of faith and Spirit's sword;
Forth to the battle may they go,
And boldly fight against the foe,
With banner of the cross unfurled,
And by it overcome the world;
And so at last receive from Thee
The palm and crown of victory.
- 2 Come, ever-blessed Spirit, come,
And make Thy servants' hearts Thy home;
May each a living temple be,
Hallowed for ever, Lord, to Thee;
Enrich that temple's holy shrine
With sevenfold gifts of grace divine;
With wisdom, light, and knowledge bless,
Strength, counsel, fear, and godliness.

"Be on thy Guard."

- 1 MY soul, be on thy guard;
Ten thousand foes arise,
And hosts of sin are pressing hard
To draw thee from the skies.
- 2 O watch, and fight, and pray,
The battle ne'er give o'er;
Renew it boldly every day,
And help divine implore.
- 3 Ne'er think the victory won,
Nor once at ease sit down;
Thine arduous work will not be done
Till thou receive thy crown.

308 CONQUERING AND CROWNED.

"Keep the Charge of the Lord."—LEV. viii. 35.

- 1 A CHARGE to keep I have,
A God to glorify,
A never-dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky;
2 To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfil:
O may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will.
3 Arm me with jealous care,
As in Thy sight to live,
And O Thy servant, Lord, prepare
A strict account to give.
4 Help me to watch and pray,
And on Thyself rely,
Assured, if I my trust betray,
I shall for ever die.

"Weigh not thy Life."

- 1 My soul, weigh not thy life
Against thy heavenly crown,
Nor suffer Satan's deadliest strife
To beat thy courage down.
2 With prayer and crying strong,
Maintain the fearful fight,
And let the breaking day prolong
The wrestling of the night.

- 3 The battle soon will yield,
If thou thy part fulfil;
For strong as is the hostile shield,
Thy sword is stronger still.
- 4 Thine armor is divine,
Thy feet with victory shod;
And on thy head shall quickly shine
The diadem of God.

- 2 Gird thy heavenly armor on,
Wear it ever, night and day;
Ambushed lies the evil one:

Strong in faith resist the foe
Boundless is the pledged reward:
Unto them who serve the Lord.

- 2 'Tis no palm of fading leaves
That the conqueror's hand receive; ;
Joys are his, serene and pure,
Light, that ever shall endure.

And shall I fear to own His cause,
||: Or blush to speak His Name? :||
- 2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,

Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,

 Increase my courage, Lord;
 I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
 ||: Supported by Thy word. :||

 And an immortal crown.

 Which shall new lustre boast,

 Shall blend in common dust. [gems

"Go forward, Christian Soldier."

- 1 Go forward, Christian soldier,
 Beneath His banner true :
 The Lord Himself, thy Leader,
 Shall all thy foes subdue.
 His love foretells thy trials,
 He knows thine hourly need ;
 He can, with bread of Heaven,
 Thy fainting spirit feed.
- 2 Go forward, Christian soldier,
 Fear not the secret foe ;
 Far more are o'er thee watching
 Than human eyes can know.
 Trust only Christ, thy Captain,
 Cease not to watch and pray ;
 Heed not the treacherous voices,
 That lure thy soul astray.
- 3 Go forward, Christian soldier,
 Nor dream of peaceful rest,
 Till Satan's host is vanquished,
 And Heaven is all possess ;
 Till Christ Himself shall call thee
 To lay thine armor by,
 And wear, in endless glory,
 The crown of victory.
- 4 Go forward, Christian soldier,
 Fear not the gathering night ;

The Lord has been thy shelter,
 The Lord will be thy light;
 When morn His face revealeth,
 Thy dangers all are past;
 O pray that faith and virtue
 May keep thee to the last.

Marching on.

- 1 REJOICE, ye pure in heart,
 Rejoice, give thanks and sing;
 Your festal banner wave on high,
 The cross of Christ your King.
- 2 Your clear hosannas raise,
 And alleluias loud;
 While answering echoes upward float,
 Like wreaths of incense-cloud.
- 3 Still lift your standard high,
 Still march in firm array,
 As warriors through the darkness toil,
 Till dawns the golden day.
- 4 At last the march shall end,
 The wearied ones shall rest,
 The pilgrims find the Father's house,
 Jerusalem the blest.
- 5 Then on, ye pure in heart;
 Rejoice, give thanks, and sing;
 Your festal banner wave on high,
 The cross of Christ your King.

Rev. Edward Hayes Plumptre (1821—), Ab.

- 1 STAND up, stand up for Jesus,
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high His royal banner,
It must not suffer loss:
From victory unto victory
His army shall He lead,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.
- 2 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict,
In this His glorious day:
"Ye that are men, now serve Him"
Against unnumbered foes;
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.
- 3 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Stand in His strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you,
Ye dare not trust your own:
Put on the gospel armor,
Each piece put on with prayer;
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.
- 4 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
The strife will not be long;
This day, the noise of battle,
The next, the victor's song:
To him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;

He with the King of Glory
Shall reign eternally.

"A Mighty Fortress."

- 1 A MIGHTY Fortress is our God,
A bulwark never failing;
Our Helper He, amid the flood
Of mortal ills prevailing.
For still our ancient foe
Doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and power are great,
And armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.
- 2 Did we in our own strength confide,
Our striving would be losing;
Were not the right man on our side,
The man of God's own choosing.
Dost ask who that may be?
Christ Jesus, it is He;
Lord Sabaoth is His Name,
From age to age the same,
And He must win the battle.
- 3 And though this world, with devils filled,
Should threaten to undo us;
We will not fear, for God hath willed
His truth to triumph through us.
The Prince of darkness grim,
We tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure,
For lo! his doom is sure:
One little word shall fell him.

- 4 That word above all earthly powers,
 No thanks to them, abideth ;
 The Spirit and the gifts are ours
 Through Him who with us sideth.
 Let goods and kindred go,
 This mortal life also ;
 The body they may kill ;
 God's truth abideth still,
 His Kingdom is for ever. >

 Rejoice and praise our mighty Lord,
 Whose arm hath brought salvation ;
 His works of love proclaim
 The greatness of His Name ;
 For He is God alone,
 Who hath His mercy shown ;
 Let all His saints adore Him !
- 2 When in distress to Him we cried,
 He heard our sad complaining ;
 Oh, trust in Him, whate'er betide,
 His love is all-sustaining ;
 Triumphant songs of praise
 To Him our hearts shall raise ;
 Now every voice shall say,
 " O praise our God alway ;"
 Let all His saints adore Him
- 3 Rejoice to-day with one accord,
 Sing out with exultation ;
 Rejoice and praise our mighty Lord,

Whose arm hath brought salvation;
 His works of love proclaim
 The greatness of His Name;
 For He is God alone,
 Who hath His mercy shown;
 Let all His saints adore Him!

The good Soldier.—2 TIM. ii. 3.

- I MARCH, march onward, soldiers true!
 Take through cloud and mist your way,
 Yonder flows the fount of life,
 Yonder dwells eternal day.
 March, though myriad foes are nigh,
 Forward till you reach the shore,
 Then, when all the strife is done,
 Rest in peace for evermore.
- 2 Hark, hark, loud the trumpet sounds!
 Wake, ye children of the light;
 Time is past for sloth and sleep;
 Wake, and arm you for the fight!
 Spear and sword each warrior needs;
 Foes are round you, friends are few;
 Faint not, though the way be long;
 Fainting, still your way pursue!
- 3 See, see, yonder shines your home,
 Gates of pearl, and streets of gold,
 Joy, that heart hath never known,
 Bliss, that tongue hath never told.
 Victors then through Christ your Lord,
 Gathered round His glorious throne,
 Be it yours to sing His praise,
 Praise that He, your King, shall own.

 Our march to the golden Zion;
 For our Captain has broken the brazen
 gates,
 ||: And burst the bars of iron. :||

Not ashamed of Jesus.—ROM. i. 16. HEB. ii. 11.

- 1 JESUS, and shall it ever be,
 A mortal man ashamed of Thee?
 Ashamed of Thee, whom angels praise,
 Whose glories shine through endless days?
- 2 Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far
 Let evening blush to own a star:
 He sheds the beams of light divine
 O'er this benighted soul of mine.
- 3 Ashamed of Jesus, that dear Friend,
 On whom my hopes of Heaven depend!
 No, when I blush, be this my shame,
 That I no more revere His Name.
- 4 Ashamed of Jesus! yes, I may,
 When I've no guilt to wash away,
 No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
 No fear to quell, no soul to save.

 Till then I boast a Saviour slain;

"Take up thy Cross."—MATT. xvi. 24.

- 1 TAKE up thy cross, the Saviour said,
 If thou wouldst My disciple be;
 Deny thyself, the world forsake,
 And humbly follow after Me.
- 2 Take up thy cross; let not its weight
 Fill thy weak spirit with alarm;

His strength shall bear thy spirit up,
And brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.

3 Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame,
Nor let thy foolish pride rebel :
Thy Lord for thee the cross endured,
To save thy soul from death and hell.

4 Take up thy cross, and follow Christ,

For only he who bears the cross
May hope to wear the starry crown.

Hasting on.

- 1 TAKE, my soul, thy full salvation,
 Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;
 Joy to find in every station
 Something still to do or bear.

 What a Father's smile is thine;
 What a Saviour died to win thee:
 Child of Heaven, shouldst thou repine?

"Follow Me."

- 1 JESUS calls us: o'er the tumult
 Of our life's wild, restless sea,
 Day by day His sweet voice soundeth,
 Softly, clearly—"Follow Me."
- 2 Jesus calls us, from the evil
 In a world we cannot flee,

From each idol that would keep us,
Softly, clearly—"Follow Me."

- 3 Still in joy and still in sadness
We discern our own decree;
Still He calls, in cares and pleasures,
Softly, clearly—"Follow Me."

Give our hearts to Thine obedience,
Rise, leave all, and follow Thee.

"Leaving all."—MARK X. 28.

- 1 JESUS, I my cross have taken,
All to leave, and follow Thee;
Destitute, despised, forsaken,
Thou, henceforth, my all shalt be:
Perish, every fond ambition,
All I've sought, and hoped, and known;
Yet how rich is my condition,
God and Heaven are still my own!
- 2 Let the world despise and leave me,
They have left my Saviour, too;
Human hearts and looks deceive me;
Thou art not, like man, untrue;
And while Thou shalt smile upon me,
God of wisdom, love, and might,
Foes may hate, and friends may shun me,
Show Thy face, and all is bright.
- 3 Go, then, earthly fame and treasure;
Come, disaster, scorn, and pain!
In Thy service, pain is pleasure;
With Thy favor, loss is gain.

I have called Thee, Abba, Father ;
 I have stayed my heart on Thee :
 Storms may howl, and clouds may gather,
 All must work for good to me.

- 4 Man may trouble and distress me,
 'Twill but drive me to Thy breast ;
 Life with trials hard may press me,
 Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.
 O 'tis not in grief to harm me,
 While Thy love is left to me ;
 O 'twere not in joy to charm me,
 Were that joy unmixed with Thee.

No Cross, no Crown.

 But now they taste unmingled love,

Christ our Example.—JOHN xiii. 15.

- 1 LORD, as to Thy dear cross we flee,
 And plead to be forgiven,
 So let Thy life our pattern be,
 And form our souls for Heaven.
- 2 Help us, through good report and ill,
 Our daily cross to bear ;
 Like Thee, to do our Father's will,
 Our brethren's griefs to share.
- 3 If joy shall at Thy bidding fly,
 And grief's dark day come on,
 We in our turn would meekly cry,
 Father, Thy will be done.
- 4 Should friends misjudge, or foes defame
 Or brethren faithless prove,
 Then, like Thine own, be all our aim
 To conquer them by love.
- 5 Kept peaceful in the midst of strife,
 Forgiving and forgiven,
 O may we lead the pilgrim's life,
 And follow Thee to Heaven.

"I am not ashamed."—2 TIM. i. 12.

- 1 I'M not ashamed to own my Lord,
 Or to defend His cause,
 Maintain the honor of His word,
 The glory of His cross.
- 2 Jesus, my God ! I know His Name,
 His Name is all my trust ;

Nor will He put my soul to shame.
Nor let my hope be lost.

- 3 Firm as His throne His promise stands,
And He can well secure
What I've committed to His hands,
Till the decisive hour.
- 4 Then will He own my worthless name
Before His Father's face,
And in the New Jerusalem
Appoint my soul a place.

Ζοφεράς τρικυμίας.

- 1 FIERCE was the wild billow,
Dark was the night,
Oars labored heavily,
Foam glimmered white,
Trembled the mariners,
Peril was high;
Then said the God of gods,
"Peace! it is I!"
- 2 Ridge of the mountain-wave,
Lower thy crest!
Wail of Euroclydon,
Be thou at rest!
Sorrow can never be,
Darkness must fly,
Where saith the Light of light,
"Peace! it is I!"
- 3 Jesus, Deliverer,
Come Thou to me:
Soothe Thou my voyaging
Over life's sea;

Thou, when the storm of death
 Roars, sweeping by,
 Whisper, Thou Truth of truth,
 "Peace! it is I!"

Clinging to Christ.

- 1 CLING to the mighty One,
 Cling in thy grief;
 Cling to the holy One,
 He gives relief;
 Cling to the gracious One,
 Cling in thy pain;
 Cling to the faithful One,
 He will sustain.
- 2 Cling to the living One,
 Cling in thy woe;
 Cling to the loving One,
 Through all below;
 Cling to the pardoning One,
 He speaketh peace;
 Cling to the healing One,
 Anguish shall cease.
- 3 Cling to the pierced One,
 Cling to His side;
 Cling to the risen One,
 In Him abide;
 Cling to the coming One,
 Hope shall arise;
 Cling to the reigning One,
 Joy lights thine eyes.

"Jesus, Lover of my Soul."

- 1 JESUS, Lover of my soul,
Let me to Thy bosom fly,
While the billows nearer roll,
While the tempest still is high;
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide;
O receive my soul at last.
- 2 Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on Thee;
Leave, ah! leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me.
All my trust on Thee is stayed,
All my help from Thee I bring;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of Thy wing.
- 3 Wilt Thou not regard my call?
Wilt Thou not accept my prayer?
Lo, I sink, I faint, I fall!
Lo, on Thee I cast my care.
Reach me out Thy gracious hand!
While I of Thy strength receive,
Hoping against hope I stand
Dying, and behold I live!
- 4 Thou, O Christ, art all I want;
More than all in Thee I find:
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
Just and holy is Thy Name;
I am all unrighteousness;
False and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

- 5 Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
 Grace to cover all my sin :
 Let the healing streams abound,
 Make and keep me pure within.
 Thou of life the Fountain art ;
 Freely let me take of Thee ;
 Spring Thou up within my heart,
 Rise to all eternity.

The forgiven Debt.—MATT xviii. 32.

- 1 WHEN this passing world is done,
 When has sunk yon glaring sun ;
 When we stand with Christ in light,
 All our finished life in sight :
 Then, Lord, shall we fully know,
 Not till then, how much we owe.
- 2 When we stand before the throne,
 Dressed in beauty not our own ;
 When we see Thee as Thou art,
 Love Thee with unsinning heart :
 Then, Lord, shall we fully know,
 Not till then, how much we owe.
- 3 When the praise of Heaven we hear,
 Loud as thunders to the ear,
 Loud as many waters' noise,
 Sweet as harp's melodious voice :
 Then, Lord, shall we fully know,
 Not till then, how much we owe.

"Was von aussen und von innen."

- 1 LORD, Thou art my Rock of strength,
 And my home is in Thine arms ;
 Thou wilt send me help at length,

And I feel no wild alarms.
 Sin nor death can pierce the shield
 Thy defence has o'er me thrown;
 Up to Thee myself I yield,
 And my sorrows are Thine own.

2 When my trials tarry long,
 Unto Thee I look and wait,
 Knowing none, though keen and strong,
 Can my trust in Thee abate.
 And this faith I long have nursed,
 Comes alone, O God, from Thee;
 Thou my heart didst open first,
 Thou didst set this hope in me.

3 Mercy's wings o'er me outspread,
 Ever keep me close to Thee;
 In the peace Thy love doth shed,
 Let me dwell eternally.
 Be my All; in all I do,
 Let me only seek Thy will,
 Where the heart to Thee is true,
 All is peaceful, calm, and still.

"Shew forth His Salvation."—Ps. xcvi. 2.

S 1 To Thee, my God and Saviour,
 My heart exulting sings,
 Rejoicing in Thy favor,
 Almighty, King of kings:
 I'll celebrate Thy glory,
 With all Thy saints above,
 And tell the joyful story
 Of Thy redeeming love.

2 Soon as the morn with roses
 Bedecks the dewy east,
 And when the sun reposes
 Upon the ocean's breast,
 My voice in supplication,
 Well pleaséd, Thou shalt hear :
 O grant me Thy salvation,
 And to my soul draw near.

3 By Thee through life supported,
 I pass the dangerous road,
 With heavenly hosts escorted
 Up to their bright abode ;
 There cast my crown before Thee,
 Now all my conflicts o'er,
 And day and night adore Thee :
 What can an angel more ?

 My spirit turns for rest,
 My peace is in Thy favor,
 My pillow on Thy breast.
 Though all the world deceive me,
 I know that I am Thine ;
 And Thou wilt never leave me,
 O blessed Saviour mine.

2 O Thou, whose mercy found me,
 From bondage set me free ;
 And then for ever bound me
 With threefold cords to Thee :
 O for a heart to love Thee

More truly as I ought,
And nothing place above Thee
In deed, or word, or thought.

Safety in God.—Ps. xxxiv.

In trouble and in joy,
The praises of my God shall still
My heart and tongue employ.
- 2 Of His deliverance I will boast,
Till all that are distressed,
From my example comfort take,
And charm their griefs to rest.
- 3 The hosts of God encamp around
The dwellings of the just;
Deliverance He affords to all
Who on His succor trust.

His seeming triumph o'er God's saints
Lasts but a little hour.

- 2 Be of good cheer ; your cause belongs
 To Him who can avenge your wrongs ;
 Leave it to Him, our Lord.
 Though hidden yet from mortal eyes,
 Salvation shall for you arise :
 He girdeth on His sword !
- 3 As true as God's own Word is true,

Casting our Care on God.—1 PET. v. 7.

- 1 O LORD, how happy should we be
 If we could cast our care on Thee,
 If we from self could rest ;
 And feel at heart that One above,
 In perfect wisdom, perfect love,
 Is working for the best.
- 2 How far from this our daily life,
 How oft disturbed by anxious strife,
 By sudden wild alarms ;
 O could we but relinquish all
 Our earthly props, and simply fall
 On Thine almighty arms !

- 3 Could we but kneel and cast our load,
 E'en while we pray, upon our God,
 Then rise with lightened cheer;
 Sure that the Father, who is nigh
 To still the famished raven's cry,
 Will hear in that we fear.
- 4 We cannot trust Him as we should;
 So chafes weak nature's restless mood
 To cast its peace away;
 But birds and flowerets round us preach,
 All, all the present evil teach
 Sufficient for the day.
- 5 Lord, make these faithless hearts of ours
 Such lessons learn from birds and flowers;
 Make them from self to cease,
 Leave all things to a Father's will,
 And taste, before Him lying still,
 E'en in affliction, peace.

"Hear our solemn Litany."

- 1 SAVIOUR, when in dust to Thee,
 Low we bow th' adoring knee;
 When, repentant, to the skies
 Scarce we lift our weeping eyes,
 O by all Thy pains and woe
 Suffered once for man below,
 Bending from Thy throne on high,
 Hear our solemn Litany!
- 2 By Thy helpless infant years;
 By Thy life of want and tears;
 By Thy days of sore distress
 In the savage wilderness;

334 SAFETY AND BLESSEDNESS OF BELIEVERS.

By the dread, mysterious hour
Of th' insulting tempter's power;
Turn, O turn a pitying eye,
Hear our solemn Litany!

3 By Thine hour of dire despair;
By Thine agony of prayer;
By the cross, the nail, the thorn,
Piercing spear, and torturing scorn;
By the gloom that veiled the skies
O'er the dreadful sacrifice;
Listen to our humble cry,
Hear our solemn Litany!

4 By Thy deep expiring groan;
By the sad sepulchral stone;
By the vault, whose dark abode
Held in vain the rising God;
O, from earth to Heaven restored,
Mighty, reascended Lord,
Listen, listen to the cry
Of our solemn Litany!

“Blessed are they that mourn.”—MATT. v. 4.

1 O DEEM not they are blest alone,
Whose lives a peaceful tenor keep;
The Power, who pities man, has shown
A blessing for the eyes that weep.

2 The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.

- 3 There is a day of sunny rest
 For every dark and troubled night ;
 And grief may bide an evening guest,
 But joy shall come with early light.
- 4 And thou, who o'er thy friend's low bier
 Sheddest the bitter drops like rain,
 Hope that a brighter, happier sphere
 Will give him to thy arms again.
- 5 Nor let the good man's trust depart,
 Though life its common gift deny ;
 Though, with a pierced and broken heart,
 And spurned of men, he goes to die.
- 6 For God has marked each sorrowing day,
 And numbered every secret tear,
 And Heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
 For all His children suffer here.

God our Refuge.—Ps. xlv.

- 1 GOD is the Refuge of His saints,
 When storms of sharp distress invade ;
 Ere we can offer our complaints,
 Behold Him present with His aid.
- 2 Loud may the troubled ocean roar ;
 In sacred peace our souls abide,
 While every nation, every shore,
 Trembles, and dreads the swelling tide.
- 3 There is a stream, whose gentle flow
 Supplies the city of our God ;
 Life, love, and joy, still gliding through,
 And watering our divine abode.
- 4 That sacred stream, Thy holy Word,
 Our grief allays, our fear controls ;

Sweet peace Thy promises afford,
And give new strength to fainting souls

And every day I live, I seem
To love Thee more and more.

The sounds my ear that greet ;
Calm in the closet's solitude,
Calm in the bustling street ;
- 4 Calm in the hour of buoyant health,
Calm in my hour of pain ;

- Calm in my poverty or wealth,
 Calm in my loss or gain ;
 5 Calm in the sufferance of wrong,

The Mysteries of Providence.

- 1 GOD moves in a mysterious way
 His wonders to perform ;
 He plants His footsteps in the sea,
 And rides upon the storm.
- 2 Deep in unfathomable mines
 Of never-failing skill,
 He treasures up His bright designs,
 And works His sovereign will.
- 3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take ;
 The clouds ye so much dread
 Are big with mercy, and shall break
 In blessings on your head.
- 4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
 But trust Him for His grace ;
 Behind a frowning providence
 He hides a smiling face.
- 5 His purposes will ripen fast,
 Unfolding every hour ;
 The bud may have a bitter taste,
 But sweet will be the flower.
- 6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
 And scan His work in vain :
 God is His own intrepeter,
 And He will make it plain.

"My Times are in Thy Hand."—Ps. xxxi. 15.

- 1 FATHER, I know that all my life
 Is portioned out for me ;
 The changes that are sure to come
 I do not fear to see :
 I ask Thee for a present mind,
 Intent on pleasing Thee.
- 2 I would not have the restless will
 That hurries to and fro,
 Seeking for some great thing to do,
 Or secret thing to know :
 I would be treated as a child,
 And guided where I go.
- 3 I ask Thee for the daily strength,
 To none that ask denied,
 A mind to blend with outward life,
 While keeping at Thy side ;
 Content to fill a little space,
 If Thou be glorified.
- 4 In service which Thy will appoints
 There are no bonds for me ;
 My inmost heart is taught the truth
 That makes Thy children free :
 A life of self-renouncing love
 Is one of liberty.

Miss Anna Lætitia Waring (1820—), 1850. Ab. and alt.

- 1 WHILE Thee I seek, protecting Power,
 Be my vain wishes stilled ;
 And may this consecrated hour
 With better hopes be filled.
 Thy love the powers of thought bestowed,
 To Thee my thoughts would soar ;
 Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed,
 That mercy I adore.
- 2 In each event of life, how clear
 Thy ruling hand I see :
 Each blessing to my soul more dear,
 Because conferred by Thee.
 In every joy that crowns my days,
 In every pain I bear,
 My heart shall find delight in praise,
 Or seek relief in prayer.
- 3 When gladness wings my favored hour,
 Thy love my thoughts shall fill ;
 Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
 My soul shall meet Thy will.
 My lifted eye, without a tear,
 The lowering storm shall see ;
 My steadfast heart shall know no fear,
 That heart will rest on Thee.

Miss Helen Maria Williams (1762—1827), 1786.

- 1 IN heavenly love abiding,
 No change my heart shall fear ;
 And safe is such confiding,
 For nothing changes here.
 The storm may roar without me,

- My heart may low be laid,
 ||: But God is round about me,
 And can I be dismayed? :||
- 2 Wherever He may guide me,
 No want shall turn me back;
 My Shepherd is beside me,
 And nothing can I lack.
 His wisdom ever waketh,
 His sight is never dim,
 ||: He knows the way He taketh,
 And I will walk with Him. :||
- 3 Green pastures are before me,
 Which yet I have not seen;

 My path to life is free,

 O Lord of life, from Thee;
 In Thee is life provided
 For all mankind and me:
 I know no death, O Jesus,
 Because I live in Thee;
 ||: Thy death it is which frees us
 From death eternally. :||
- 2 I fear no tribulation,
 Since, whatsoe'er it be,
 It makes no separation
 Between my Lord and me.

If Thou, my God and Teacher,
 Vouchsafe to be my own,
 ||: Though poor, I shall be richer
 Than monarch on his throne. :||

3 If, while on earth I wander,
 My heart is light and blest,
 Ah, what shall I be yonder
 In perfect peace and rest?
 O blessed thought in dying,
 We go to meet the Lord,

 And strength diffused through all my soul.

2 The God of Heaven maintains His state,
 Frowns on the proud, and scorns the great;
 But from His throne descends to see

"I will fear no Evil."—Ps. xxiii. 4.

- 1 THE Lord is my Shepherd, no want shall
I know;
I feed in green pastures, safe-folded I
rest;
He leadeth my soul where the still waters
flow,
Restores me when wandering, redeems when oppressed.

2 Through the valley and shadow of death
 though I stray,
 Since Thou art my Guardian, no evil
 I fear;
 Thy rod shall defend me, Thy staff be

 No harm can befall, with my Comforter near.

3 In the midst of affliction my table is spread;
 With blessings unmeasured my cup
 runneth o'er;
 With perfume and oil Thou anointest my head;
 O what shall I ask of Thy providence
 more?

4 Let goodness and mercy, my bountiful
 God,
 Still follow my steps till I meet Thee
 above;
 I seek, by the path which my forefathers
 trod,
 Through the land of their sojourn, Thy kingdom of love.

James Montgomery (1771—1854), 1822.

1 THOUGH faint, yet pursuing, we go on our way;
 The Lord is our Leader, His Word is our

 Though suffering, and sorrow, and trial be near,

The Lord is our Refuge, and whom can we fear?

2 He raiseth the fallen, He cheereth the faint;

The weak and oppressed, He will hear their complaint;

The way may be weary, and thorny the road,

But how can we falter? our help is in God.

3 Though clouds may surround us, our God is our Light;

Though storms rage around us, our God

So faint, yet pursuing, still onward we come;

The Lord is our Leader, and Heaven is our home.

Where living waters gently pass,

Casting Care on God.—1 PET. v. 7.

- 1 WHERE wilt thou put thy trust?
 In a frail form of clay,
 That to its element of dust
 Must soon resolve away?
- 2 Where wilt thou cast thy care?
 Upon an erring heart,
 Which hath its own sore ills to bear,
 And shrinks from sorrow's dart?
- 3 No, place thy trust above
 This shadowy realm of night,
 In Him, whose boundless power and love
 Thy confidence invite.
- 4 His mercies still endure
 When skies and stars grow dim,
 His changeless promise standeth sure;
 Go, cast thy care on Him.

Light in Darkness.

- 1 My God, the Spring of all my joys,
 The Life of my delights,
 The Glory of my brightest days,
 And Comfort of my nights:
- 2 In darkest shades, if He appear,
 My dawning is begun;
 He is my soul's sweet Morning Star,
 And He my rising Sun.

- 3 The opening heavens around me shine
 With beams of sacred bliss,
 While Jesus shows His heart is mine,
 And whispers, I am His.
- 4 My soul would leave this heavy clay
 At that transporting word;
 Run up with joy the shining way,
 T' embrace my dearest Lord.
- 5 Fearless of hell and ghastly death,
 I'd break through every foe;
 The wings of love and arms of faith
 Should bear me conqueror through.

 "Nearer, my God, to Thee."—GEN. xxviii. 10—12.

- 1 NEARER, my God, to Thee,
 Nearer to Thee:
 E'en though it be a cross
 That raiseth me;
 Still all my song shall be,
 ||: Nearer, my God, to Thee, :||
 Nearer to Thee.
- 2 Though like the wanderer,
 The sun gone down,
 Darkness be over me,
 My rest a stone;
 Yet in my dreams I'd be
 ||: Nearer, my God, to Thee, :||
 Nearer to Thee.
- 3 There let the way appear
 Steps unto Heaven;
 All that Thou sendest me,
 In mercy given.

- Angels to beckon me
 ||: Nearer, my God, to Thee, :||
 Nearer to Thee.
- 4 Then, with my waking thoughts
 Bright with Thy praise,
 Out of my stony griefs
 Bethel I'll raise;
 So by my woes to be
 ||: Nearer, my God, to Thee, :||
 Nearer to Thee.
- 5 Or if on joyful wing
 Cleaving the sky,
 Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
 Upwards I fly,
 Still all my song shall be,
 ||: Nearer, my God, to Thee, :||
 Nearer to Thee.

 "More Love to Thee!"—JOHN xxi. 17.

- 1 MORE love to Thee, O Christ,
 More love to Thee!
 Hear Thou the prayer I make
 On bended knee;
 This is my earnest plea,
 More love, O Christ, to Thee,
 ||: More love to Thee! :||
- 2 Once earthly joy I craved,
 Sought peace and rest;
 Now Thee alone I seek,
 Give what is best:
 This all my prayer shall be,
 More love, O Christ, to Thee,
 ||: More love to Thee! :||

- 3 Let sorrow do its work,
 Send grief and pain ;
 Sweet are Thy messengers,
 Sweet their refrain,
 When they can sing with me,
 More love, O Christ, to Thee,
 ||: More love to Thee ! :||
- 4 Then shall my latest breath
 Whisper Thy praise ;
 This be the parting cry
 My heart shall raise,
 This still its prayer shall be,
 More love, O Christ, to Thee,
 ||: More love to Thee ! :||

The refining Fire of the Holy Spirit.

- 1 JESUS, Thine all-victorious love
 Shed in my heart abroad :
 Then shall my feet no longer rove,
 Rooted and fixed in God.
- 2 O that in me the sacred fire
 Might now begin to glow ;
 Burn up the dross of base desire,
 And make the mountains flow.
- 3 O that it now from Heaven might fall,
 And all my sins consume :
 Come, Holy Ghost, for Thee I call ;
 Spirit of burning, come.
- 4 Refining Fire, go through my heart ;
 Illuminate my soul ;
 Scatter Thy life through every part,
 And sanctify the whole.

Preservation by Day and Night.—Ps. cxxi.

- 1 To Heaven I lift my waiting eyes,
There all my hopes are laid ;
The Lord, that built the earth and skies,
Is my perpetual aid.
- 2 Their feet shall never slide nor fall,
Whom He designs to keep ;
His ear attends the softest call,
His eyes can never sleep.
- 3 Israel, rejoice and rest secure,
Thy Keeper is the Lord :
His wakeful eyes employ His power
For thine eternal guard.
- 4 Nor scorching sun, nor sickly moon,
Shall have His leave to smite ;
He shields thy head from burning noon,
From blasting damps at night.
- 5 He guards thy soul, He keeps thy breath,
Where thickest dangers come ;
Go and return, secure from death,
Till God commands thee home.

God our Portion here and hereafter.—Ps. lxxiii. 23—28.

- 1 THY counsels, Lord, shall guide my feet
Through this dark wilderness ;
Thy hand conduct me near Thy seat,
To dwell before Thy face.
- 2 Were I in Heaven without my God,
'Twould be no joy to me ;
And while this earth is my abode,
I long for none but Thee.

- 3 What if the springs of life were broke,
 And flesh and heart should faint?
 God is my soul's eternal Rock,
 The Strength of every saint.
- 4 But to draw near to Thee, my God,
 Shall be my sweet employ :
 My tongue shall sound Thy works abroad,
 And tell the world my joy.

"Make me a clean Heart."—Ps. li. 10.

- 1 O FOR a heart to praise my God,
 A heart from sin set free ;
 A heart that always feels Thy blood
 So freely shed for me.
- 2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
 My dear Redeemer's throne ;
 Where only Christ is heard to speak,
 Where Jesus reigns alone.
- 3 A humble, lowly, contrite heart,
 Believing, true, and clean ;
 Which neither life nor death can part
 From Him that dwells within.
- 4 A heart in every thought renewed,
 And full of love divine ;
 Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
 A copy, Lord, of Thine.

 Heavenly Shepherd, lead Thy charge,
 And my couch, with tenderest care,
 Mid the springing grass prepare.
- 2 When I faint with summer's heat
 Thou shalt guide my weary feet
 To the streams that, still and slow,
 Through the verdant meadows flow.
- 3 Safe the dreary vale I tread,
 By the shades of death o'erspread,
 With Thy rod and staff supplied,
 This my guard, and that my guide.

 A calm and heavenly frame,
 A light to shine upon the road
 That leads me to the Lamb!

 Sweet messenger of rest:
 I hate the sins that made Thee mourn,
 And drove Thee from my breast.

Panting for God.—Ps. xlii.

- 1 As pants the hart for cooling streams,
 When heated in the chase,
 So pants my soul, O Lord, for Thee,
 And Thy refreshing grace.
- 2 For Thee, the Lord, the living Lord,
 My thirsty soul doth pine:
 O when shall I behold Thy face,
 Thou Majesty Divine?

- 3 I sigh to think of happier days,
 When Thou, O Lord, wast nigh;
 When every heart was tuned to praise,
 And none so blest as I.
- 4 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
 Trust God, and thou shalt sing
 His praise again, and find Him still Thy health's eternal Spring.

- 1 FATHER of Love, our Guide and Friend,
 O lead us gently on,
 Until life's trial-time shall end,
 And heavenly peace be won.
- 2 We know not what the path may be
 As yet by us untrod;
 But we can trust our all to Thee,
 Our Father, and our God.
- 3 If called, like Abr'am's child, to climb
 The hill of sacrifice,
 Some angel may be there in time;
 Deliverance shall arise:
- 4 Or, if some darker lot be good,
 O teach us to endure
 The sorrow, pain, or solitude,
 That makes the spirit pure.
- 5 Christ by no flowery pathway came;
 And we, His followers here,
 Must do Thy will and praise Thy Name,
 In hope, and love, and fear.

- 6 And, till in Heaven we sinless bow,
 And faultless anthems raise,
 O Father, Son, and Spirit, now
 Accept our feeble praise.

The gentle Shepherd.

- 1 THERE is a little lonely fold,
 Whose flock one Shepherd keeps,
 Through summer's heat and winter's cold,
 With eye that never sleeps.
 2 By evil beast, or burning sky,
 Or damp of midnight air,
 Not one in all that flock shall die
 Beneath that Shepherd's care.
 3 For if, unheeding or beguiled,
 In danger's path they roam,
 His pity follows through the wild,
 And guards them safely home.

 Thy helpless charge in me;
 And take a wanderer to Thy fold,
 That, trembling, turns to Thee.

God's Care a Remedy for ours.—1 PET. v.

- 1 How gentle God's commands !
How kind His precepts are !
'Come, cast your burdens on the Lord,
And trust His constant care.'
- 2 While Providence supports,
Let saints securely dwell ;
That hand, which bears all nature up,
Shall guide His children well.
- 3 Why should this anxious load
Press down your weary mind ?
Haste to your heavenly Father's throne,
And sweet refreshment find.
- ✱
- 4 His goodness stands approved
Down to the present day ;
I'll drop my burden at His feet,
And bear a song away.

Rev. Philip Doddridge (1702—1751), 1755

- 1 IF, through unruffled seas,
Toward Heaven we calmly sail,
With grateful hearts, O God, to Thee,
We'll own the favoring gale.
- 2 But should the surges rise,
And rest delay to come,
Blest be the sorrow, kind the storm,
Which drives us nearer home.
- 3 Soon shall our doubts and fears
All yield to Thy control :
Thy tender mercies shall illumine
The midnight of the soul.
- 4 Teach us, in every state,
To make Thy will our own ;
And when the joys of sense depart,
To live by faith alone.

Rev. Augustus Montague Toplady (1740—1778), 1772. Ab. and much alt.

- 1 GIVE to the winds thy fears ;
Hope, and be undismayed :
God hears thy sighs, and counts thy tears ;
God shall lift up thy head.
- 2 Through waves and clouds and storms,
He gently clears thy way :
Wait thou His time, so shall this night
Soon end in joyous day. *
- 3 Far, far above thy thought
His counsel shall appear,
When fully He the work hath wrought
That caused thy needless fear.

- 4 Thou seest our weakness, Lord,
 Our hearts are known to Thee ;
 O lift Thou up the sinking hand,
 Confirm the feeble knee.

"Mein Jesu, wie Du willst."

- 1 My Jesus, as Thou wilt :
O may Thy will be mine ;
Into Thy hand of love
I would my all resign.
Through sorrow or through joy,
Conduct me as Thine own,
And help me still to say,
My Lord, Thy will be done.
- 2 My Jesus, as Thou wilt :
If needy here and poor,
Give me Thy people's bread,
Their portion rich and sure.
The manna of Thy Word
Let my soul feed upon ;
And if all else should fail,
My Lord, Thy will be done.
- 3 My Jesus, as Thou wilt :
Though seen through many a tear,

Let not my star of hope
 Grow dim or disappear.
 Since Thou on earth hast wept
 And sorrowed oft alone,
 If I must weep with Thee,
 My Lord, Thy will be done.

 Each changing future scene
 I gladly trust with Thee.

 However dark it be!
 Lead me by Thine own hand;
 Choose out the path for me.

 I would not, if I might;
 Choose Thou for me, my God,
 So shall I walk aright.

 Is Thine: so let the way
 That leads to it be Thine,
 Else I must surely stray.
 Take Thou my cup, and it
 With joy or sorrow fill,
 As best to Thee may seem;
 Choose Thou my good and ill.
- 3 Choose Thou for me my friends,
 My sickness or my health,
 Choose Thou my cares for me,
 My poverty or wealth.

"He is precious."—1 PET. ii. 7.

- 1 I NEED Thee, precious Jesus,
 For I am full of sin;
 My soul is dark and guilty,
 My heart is dead within;
 I need the cleansing fountain
 Where I can always flee,
 The blood of Christ most precious,
 The sinner's perfect plea.
- 2 I need Thee, precious Jesus,
 For I am very poor;
 A stranger and a pilgrim,
 I have no earthly store;
 I need the love of Jesus
 To cheer me on my way,
 To guide my doubting footsteps,
 To be my strength and stay.
- 3 I need Thee, precious Jesus,
 And hope to see Thee soon,

Encircled with the rainbow,
 And seated on Thy throne :
 There, with Thy blood-bought children,
 My joy shall ever be,
 To sing Thy praises, Jesus,
 To gaze, my Lord, on Thee.

 Look ever on Thy face ;
 Where gladsome Alleluias
 Unceasingly resound ;
 Where martyrs, now triumphant,
 Walk robed in white, and crowned.

 O give that last, best blessing
 That even saints can know,

The Good Shepherd.—JOHN X. 14.

- 1 O JESUS ever present,
 O Shepherd ever kind,
 Thy very Name is music,
 To ear, and heart, and mind.
 It woke my wondering childhood
 To muse on things above ;
 It drew my harder manhood
 With cords of mighty love.
- 2 How oft to sure destruction
 My feet had gone astray,
 Wert Thou not, patient Shepherd,
 The Guardian of my way.
 How oft, in darkness fallen,
 And wounded sore by sin,
 Thy hand has gently raised me,
 And healing balms poured in.
- 3 O Shepherd good, I follow
 Wherever Thou wilt lead ;
 No matter where the pasture,
 With Thee at hand to feed.
 Thy voice, in life so mighty,
 In death shall make me bold ;
 O bring my ransomed spirit
 To Thine eternal fold.

God's Way best for us.

- 1 OUR yet unfinished story
 Is tending all to this :
 To God the greatest glory,
 To us the greatest bliss.

Our plans may be disjointed,
 But we may calmly rest:
 What God has once appointed
 Is better than our best.

2 We cannot see before us,
 But our all-seeing Friend
 Is always watching o'er us,
 And knows the very end;
 And when amid our blindness
 His disappointments fall,
 We trust His loving-kindness
 Whose wisdom sends them all.

3 They are the purple fringes
 That hide His glorious feet;
 They are the fire-wrought hinges
 Where truth and mercy meet;
 By them the golden portal
 Of Providence shall ope,
 And lift to praise immortal
 The songs of faith and hope.
 Miss Frances Ridley Havergal (1836—1879), 1872. Ab.

1 WHEN our heads are bowed with woe,
 When our bitter tears o'erflow,
 When we mourn the lost, the dear,
 Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

2 When the solemn death-bell tolls
 For our own departing souls,
 When our final doom is near,
 Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

- 3 Thou hast bowed the dying head,
 Thou the blood of life hast shed,
 Thou hast filled a mortal bier :
 Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.
- 4 When the heart is sad within
 With the thought of all its sin,
 When the spirit shrinks with fear,
 Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.
- 5 Thou, the shame, the grief hast known ;
 Though the sins were not Thine own,
 Thou hast deigned their load to bear :
 Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

"Cast thy burden on the Lord."—Ps. lv. 22.

- 1 CAST thy burden on the Lord,
 Only lean upon His word ;
 Thou shalt soon have cause to bless
 His eternal faithfulness.
- 2 Ever in the raging storm
 Thou shalt see His cheering form,
 Hear His pledge of coming aid :
"It is I, be not afraid."
- 3 Cast thy burden at His feet ;
 Linger at His mercy-seat :
 He will lead thee by the hand
 Gently to the better land.
- 4 He will gird thee by His power,
 In thy weary, fainting hour ;
 Lean, then, loving, on His word,
 Cast thy burden on the Lord.

Rev. Rowland Hill (1744—1833), 1783. V. 1.
 George Rawson (1807—), 1857. Ab. and much alt.

- 1 LORD of mercy and of might,
Of mankind the Life and Light,
Maker, Teacher infinite,
Jesus, hear and save.
- 2 Strong Creator, Saviour mild,
Humbled to a mortal child,
Captive, beaten, bound, reviled,
Jesus, hear and save.
- 3 Throned above celestial things,
Borne aloft on angels' wings,
Lord of lords, and King of kings,
Jesus, hear and save.
- 4 Soon to come to earth again,
Judge of angels and of men,
Hear us now, and hear us then,
Jesus, hear and save.

Bp. Reginald Heber (1783—1826), 1811. Ab.

- 1 IN the dark and cloudy day,
When earth's riches flee away,
And the last hope will not stay,
Saviour, comfort me.
- 2 When the hoard of many years
Like a fleet-cloud disappears,
And the future's full of fears,
Saviour, comfort me.
- 3 When the secret idol's gone
That my poor heart yearned upon,
Desolate, bereft, alone,
Saviour, comfort me.

- 4 Thou, who wast so sorely tried,
In the darkness crucified,
Bid me in Thy love confide :
Saviour, comfort me.
- 5 In these hours of sad distress,
Let me know He loves no less,
Bids me trust His faithfulness :
Saviour, comfort me.
- 6 Not unduly let me grieve,
Meekly the kind stripes receive,
Let me humbly still believe :
Saviour, comfort me.

Christ able to succor the tempted.—HEB. ii. 18.

- 1 WHEN gathering clouds around I view,
And days are dark, and friends are few,
On Him I lean, who not in vain
Experienced every human pain ;
He sees my wants, allays my fears,
And counts and treasures up my tears.
- 2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
From heavenly wisdom's narrow way ;
To fly the good I would pursue,
Or do the sin I would not do ;
Still He who felt temptation's power,
Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.
- 3 When sorrowing o'er some stone I bend,
Which covers what was once a friend,
And from his voice, his hand, his smile,
Divides me for a little while ;
Thou, Saviour, mark'st the tears I shed,
For Thou didst weep o'er Lazarus dead.

- 4 And O, when I have safely past
 Through every conflict but the last,
 Still, still unchanging, watch beside
 My painful bed, for Thou hast died ;
 Then point to realms of cloudless day,
 And wipe the latest tear away.

The Mercy-seat.

- 1 FROM every stormy wind that blows,
 From every swelling tide of woes,
 There is a calm, a sure retreat :
 'Tis found beneath the mercy-seat.
- 2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
 The oil of gladness on our heads ;
 A place than all besides more sweet :
 It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.
- 3 There is a spot where spirits blend,
 Where friend holds fellowship with friend ;
 Though sundered far, by faith they meet
 Around one common mercy-seat.
- 4 There, there, on eagle wings we soar,
 And time and sense seem all no more ;
 And Heaven comes down our souls to greet,
 And glory crowns the mercy-seat.
- 5 O may my hand forget her skill,
 My tongue be silent, cold, and still,
 This bounding heart forget to beat,
 If I forget the mercy-seat.

Far from Home.

- 1 'Tis thus in solitude I roam
 O'er many a land and tossing sea ;

And yet, afar from friends and home,
I find, O God, a home in Thee.

- 2 I pass from things of space and time,
The finite meets or leaves my sight ;
But God expands o'er every clime,
The clothing of the Infinite.
- 3 He walks the earth, He rides the air ;
The lightning's speed He leaves behind.
His Name is Love. And tell me, where
Is sea or land He cannot find ?
- 4 O, long I've known Him. Could it be
That if He did not hold me dear,
He thus would travel land and sea,
And throw His arms around me here ?
- 5 I could not leave Him, if I would ;
I would not, if the power were given ;
'Twould be to leave the True and Good,
The soul's Repose, the spirit's Heaven.

Watching and Praying.

- 1 THEY pray the best who pray and watch,
They watch the best who watch and pray,
They hear Christ's fingers on the latch,
Whether He comes by night, or day.
- 2 Whether they guard the gates and watch,
Or, patient, toil for Him, and wait,
They hear His fingers on the latch,
If early He doth come, or late.

- 3 With trembling joy they hail their Lord,
 And haste His welcome feet to kiss,
 While He, well pleased, doth speak the word
 That thrills them with unending bliss:
- 4 "Well done, My servants, now receive,
 For faithful work, reward and rest,
 And wreaths which busy angels weave,
 To crown the men who serve Me best."

"Far from the World."

- 1 FAR from the world, O Lord, I flee,
 From strife and tumult far;
 From scenes where Satan wages still
 His most successful war.
- 2 The calm retreat, the silent shade,
 With prayer and praise agree,
 And seem by Thy sweet bounty made
 For those who follow Thee.
- 3 There, if Thy Spirit touch the soul,
 And grace her mean abode,
 O with what peace, and joy, and love
 She communes with her God!
- 4 Author and Guardian of my life,
 Sweet Source of love divine,
 And, all harmonious names in one,
 My Saviour, Thou art mine!
- 5 What thanks I owe Thee, and what love,
 A boundless, endless store,
 Shall echo through the realms above,
 When time shall be no more!

Moving the Hand which moves the World.

- 1 THERE is an eye that never sleeps
Beneath the wing of night;
There is an ear that never shuts,
When sink the beams of light.
- 2 There is an arm that never tires,
When human strength gives way;
There is a love that never fails,
When earthly loves decay.
- 3 That eye is fixed on seraph throngs;
That arm upholds the sky;
That ear is filled with angel songs;
That love is throned on high.
- 4 But there's a power which man can wield,
When mortal aid is vain,
That eye, that arm, that love to reach,
That listening ear to gain.
- 5 That power is prayer, which soars on high,
Through Jesus, to the throne,
And moves the hand which moves the world,
To bring salvation down.

Prayer.

- 1 PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire,
Uttered or unexpressed,
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.
- 2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.

- 3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try ;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.
- 4 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice
Returning from his ways,
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry, " Behold, he prays !"
- 5 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air,
His watchword at the gates of death ;
He enters Heaven with prayer.
- 6 O Thou, by whom we come to God,
The Life, the Truth, the Way,
The path of prayer Thyself hast trod :
Lord, teach us how to pray.

Evening Twilight.

- 1 I LOVE to steal awhile away
From every cumbering care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.
- 2 I love, in solitude, to shed
The penitential tear ;
And all His promises to plead
Where none but God can hear.
- 3 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore ;
And all my cares and sorrows cast
On Him whom I adore.

- 4 I love, by faith, to take a view
Of brighter scenes in Heaven ;
The prospect doth my strength renew,
While here by tempests driven.
- 5 Thus, when life's toilsome day is o'er,
May its departing ray
Be calm as this impressive hour,
And lead to endless day.

"Pray without ceasing."—1 THESS. v. 17.

- 1 PRAY, without ceasing, pray,
Your Captain gives the word :
His summons cheerfully obey,
And call upon the Lord.
- 2 To God your every want
In instant prayer display ;
Pray always ; pray, and never faint ;
Pray, without ceasing, pray.
- 3 From strength to strength go on ;
Wrestle, and fight, and pray ;
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day.
- 4 Still let the Spirit cry,
In all His soldiers—' Come, ''
Till Christ the Lord descends from high,
And takes the conquerors home.

To Thee all praise and glory be ;
How shall we show our love to Thee,
Who givest all ?

- 2 Thou didst not spare Thine only Son,
But gavest Him for a world undone,
And freely with that Blessed One
Thou givest all.
- 3 Thou givest the Spirit's blessed dower,
Spirit of life, and love, and power,
And dost His sevenfold graces shower
Upon us all.

For means of grace, and hopes of Heaven,
What can to Thee, O Lord, be given,

Serving Christ.—PHIL. i. 22.

To every service I can pay,

To hear Thy dictates and obey.
- 2 I would not breathe for worldly joy,
Or to increase my worldly good;
Nor future days nor powers employ
To spread a sounding name abroad.
- 3 'Tis to my Saviour I would live,
To Him who for my ransom died;
Nor could the bowers of Eden give Such bliss as blossoms at His side.
- 4 His work my hoary age shall bless,

"Go, labor on."

- 1 Go, labor on ; spend and be spent,
Thy joy to do the Father's will :
It is the way the Master went ;
Should not the servant tread it still ?
- 2 Go, labor on ; 'tis not for naught ;
Thine earthly loss is heavenly gain :
Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not ;
The Master praises,—what are men ?
- 3 Go, labor on ; enough, while here,
If He shall praise thee, if He deign
Thy willing heart to mark and cheer :
No toil for Him shall be in vain.
- 4 Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice ;
For toil comes rest, for exile, home ;
Soon shalt thou hear the Bridegroom's voice,
The midnight peal : " Behold, I come ! "

Adorning the Doctrine.—TITUS. ii. 10-13.

- 1 So let our lips and lives express
The holy gospel we profess ;
So let our works and virtues shine,
To prove the doctrine all divine.
- 2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
The honors of our Saviour God ;
When His salvation reigns within,
And grace subdues the power of sin.
- 3 Our flesh and sense must be denied,
Passion and envy, lust and pride ;
While justice, temperance, truth, and love,
Our inward piety approve.

The bright appearance of the Lord,
And faith stands leaning on His word.

The winning Side.

- 1 WORKMAN of God, O lose not heart,
But learn what God is like ;
And in the darkest battle-field
Thou shalt know where to strike.
- 2 Thrice blest is he to whom is given
The instinct that can tell
That God is on the field, when He Is most invisible.
- 3 Blest too is he who can divine,
Where real right doth lie,
And dares to take the side that seems
Wrong to man's blindfold eye.
- 4 Then learn to scorn the praise of men,
And learn to lose with God ;
For Jesus won the world through shame,
And beckons thee His road.
- 5 For right is right, since God is God,
And right the day must win ;
To doubt would be disloyalty,
To falter would be sin.

Waiting for Light.

And very Light of Light,
Whose feet this earth's dark valley trod,
That so it might be bright ;

Thick darkness blinds our eyes;
Cold is the night, and O we long
That Thou, our Sun, wouldst rise.

Where Thou, our everlasting Sun,
Art shining evermore.
- 4 We wait in faith, and turn our face
To where the daylight springs,
Till Thou shalt come our gloom to chase,
With healing on Thy wings.

"The Poor always with you."—MATT. XXVI. II.

- 1 LORD, lead the way the Saviour went,
By lane and cell obscure,
And let our treasures still be spent,
Like His, upon the poor.
- 2 Like Him, through scenes of deep distress,
Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their crowded loneliness,
Would seek the desolate.
- 3 For Thou hast placed us side by side
In this wide world of ill;
And that Thy followers may be tried,
The poor are with us still.
- 4 Mean are all offerings we can make;
But Thou hast taught us, Lord,
If given for the Saviour's sake,
They lose not their reward.

Rev. William Croswell (1804—1851), 1831

- 1 WE give Thee but Thine own,
Whate'er the gift may be :
All that we have is Thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.
- 2 O, hearts are bruised and dead,
And homes are bare and cold,
And lambs, for whom the Shepherd bled,
Are straying from the fold.
- 3 To comfort and to bless,
To find a balm for woe,
To tend the lone and fatherless,
Is angels' work below.
- 4 The captive to release,
To God the lost to bring,
To teach the way of life and peace,
It is a Christ-like thing.
- 5 And we believe Thy word,
Though dim our faith may be ;
Whate'er for Thine we do, O Lord,
We do it unto Thee.

Bp. William Walsham How (1823—), 1854. Ab

- 3 Nothing he calls his own ;

 And God alone obey.

 Which waits for Thy command,
 And doth its highest pleasure find

- 1 YE servants of the Lord,
 Each in his office wait,
 Observant of His heavenly word,
 And watchful at His gate.

- 2 Let all your lamps be bright,
And trim the golden flame ;
Gird up your loins as in His sight,

The Blessedness of Giving.—ACTS xx. 35.

- 1 LORD of Glory, who hast bought us
With Thy life-blood as the price,
Never grudging for the lost ones •
That tremendous sacrifice ;
And with that hast freely given
Blessings, countless as the sand,
To th' unthankful and the evil,
With Thine own unsparing hand.
- 2 Grant us hearts, dear Lord, to yield Thee
Gladly, freely of Thine own ;
With the sunshine of Thy goodness
Melt our thankless hearts of stone.

Wondrous honor hast Thou given
 To our humblest charity,
 In Thine own mysterious sentence,
 "Ye have done it unto Me."

- 3 Lord of Glory, who hast bought us
 With Thy life-blood as the price,
 Never grudging for the lost ones
 That tremendous sacrifice,
 Give us faith, to trust Thee boldly,
 Hope, to stay our souls on Thee;
 But, O best of all Thy graces,
 Give us Thine own charity.

The Call to Service.

- 1 WE are living, we are dwelling,
 In a grand and awful time,
 In an age on ages telling;
 To be living is sublime.
 Hark, the waking up of nations,
 Gog and Magog, to the fray.
 Hark, what soundeth? is creation
 Groaning for its latter day?
- 2 Worlds are charging, Heaven beholding,
 Thou hast but an hour to fight;
 Now the blazoned cross unfolding,
 On, right onward, for the right!
 On! let all the soul within you
 For the truth's sake go abroad.
 Strike! let every nerve and sinew
 Tell on ages, tell for God.

Bp. Arthur Cleveland Coxe (1818—), 1840.

- 1 SHINE on our souls, eternal God,
With rays of beauty shine :
O let Thy favor crown our days,
And all their round be Thine.
- 2 Did we not raise our hands to Thee,
Our hands might toil in vain ;
Small joy success itself could give,
If Thou Thy love restrain.
- 3 With Thee let every week begin,
With Thee each day be spent ;
For Thee each fleeting hour improved,
Since each by Thee is lent.
- 4 Thus cheer us through this desert road,
Till all our labors cease ;
And Heaven refresh our weary souls
With everlasting peace.

Rev. Philip Doddridge (1702—1751), 1755.

- 1 ALL unseen the Master walketh
By the toiling servant's side :
Comfortable words He speaketh,
While His hands uphold and guide.
- 2 Grief, nor pain, nor any sorrow
Rends thy heart, to Him unknown ;
He to-day, and He to-morrow,
Grace sufficient gives His own.
- 3 Holy strivings nerve and strengthen,
Long endurance wins the crown :
When the evening shadows lengthen,
Thou shalt lay thy burden down.

"The Lord is Thy Keeper."—Ps. cxxi. 5.

- 1 EVERY morning mercies new
Fall as fresh as morning dew ;
Every morning let us pay
Tribute with the early day ;
For Thy mercies, Lord, are sure ;
Thy compassion doth endure.
- 2 Still the greatness of Thy love
Daily doth our sins remove ;
Daily, far as east from west,
Lifts the burden from the breast ;
Gives unbought, to those who pray,
Strength to stand in evil day.
- 3 Let our prayers each morn prevail,
That these gifts may never fail ;
And, as we confess the sin
And the tempter's power within,
Feed us with the Bread of Life ;
Fit us for our daily strife.
- 4 As the morning light returns,
As the sun with splendor burns,
Teach us still to turn to Thee,
Ever blessed Trinity,
With our hands our hearts to raise,
In unfailing prayer and praise.

"New every Morning."—LAM. iii. 22, 23.

- 1 NEW every morning is the love
Our wakening and uprising prove ;
Through sleep and darkness safely brought,
Restored to life, and power, and thought,

- 2 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover round us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of Heaven
- 3 If on our daily course our mind
Be set, to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.
- 4 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we ought to ask,—
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.
- 5 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love
Fit us for perfect rest above;
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

Jesus the Best Beloved.

- 1 JESUS, my heart within me burns,
To tell Thee all its conscious love;
And from earth's low delights it turns,
To taste a joy like that above.

In love divine, Thou blessed One,
The moments that with Thee I spend,
Seem e'en as Heaven it elf begun.

They still the story would repeat;
To me the rapture ne'er grows old

- 1 LORD God of morning and of night,
 We thank Thee for Thy gift of light:
 As in the dawn the shadows fly,
 We seem to find Thee now more nigh.
- 2 Fresh hopes have wakened in the heart,
 Fresh force to do our daily part;
 Thy thousand sleeps our strength restore,
 A thousand-fold to serve Thee more.

- 3 Yet whilst Thy will we would pursue,
Oft what we would we cannot do ;
The sun may stand in zenith skies,
But on the soul thick midnight lies.
- 4 O Lord of lights, 'tis Thou alone [own;
Canst make our darkened hearts Thine
'Though this new day with joy we see,
O Dawn of God, we cry for Thee.

Through Heaven's great day of Evermore.

Communion with God and Christ.—1 JOHN i. 3.

- 1 OUR Heavenly Father calls,
And Christ invites us near ;
With both our friendship shall be sweet,
And our communion dear.
- 2 God pities all my griefs ;
He pardons every day ;

Almighty to protect my soul,
And wise to guide my way.

3 Jesus, my living Head,
We bless Thy faithful care;
Mine Advocate before the throne,
And my Forerunner there.

4 Here fix, my roving heart,
Here wait, my warmest love,
Till the communion be complete,
In nobler scenes above.

"Jam lucis orto sidere."

1 Now that the sun is gleaming bright,
Implore we, bending low,
That He, the uncreated light,
May guide us as we go.

2 No sinful word, nor deed of wrong,
Nor thoughts that idly rove;
But simple truth be on our tongue,
And in our hearts be love.

3 And grant that to Thine honor, Lord,
Our daily toil may tend;
That we begin it at Thy word,
And in Thy favor end.

4 Now to our God, the Father, Son,
And Holy Spirit, sing:
With praise to God, the Three in One,
Let all creation ring.

Tr. by Rev John Henry Newman (1801—
Paris Breviary, 1736.
, 1842. Ab. and alt.

- 1 GOD, that madest earth and Heaven,
 Darkness and light ;
 Who the day for toil hast given,
 For rest the night :
 May Thine angel-guards defend us,
 Slumber sweet Thy mercy send us,
 Holy dreams and hopes attend us,
 This live-long night.
- 2 And when morn again shall call us
 To run life's way,
 May we still, whate'er befall us,
 Thy will obey :
 From the power of evil hide us,
 In the narrow pathway guide us,
 Nor Thy smile be e'er denied us,
 The livelong day.
- 3 Guard us waking, guard us sleeping,
 And when we die,
 May we in Thy mighty keeping
 All peaceful lie :
 When the last dread call shall wake us,
 Do not Thou, our God, forsake us,
 But to reign in glory take us,
 With Thee on high.

Bp. Reginald Heber (1783—1826), 1827. V. 1.
 Abp. Richard Whately (1787—1863), . V. 3.

- 1 HERE the waning light decay,
 God of all, to Thee we pray,
 Thee Thy healthful grace to send,
 Thee, to guard us and defend.

2 Guard from dreams that may affright;
Guard from terrors of the night;
Guard from foes, without, within;
Outward danger, inward sin.

3 Hear the prayer, almighty King;
Hear Thy praises while we sing,
Hymning with Thy heavenly host,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

A Morning Hymn.

1 BEHOLD, the shade of night is now receding,
Kindling with splendors fair the dawn is glowing,
With fervent hearts, O let us all implore
Him,
Ruler, Almighty:

2 That He, our God, will look on us in pity,
Send strength for weakness, grant us His salvation,
And with a Father's pure affection give us
Glory eternal.

3 This grace O grant us, Godhead ever-blessed,
Of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost in union,
Whose praises be through earth's most distant regions
Ever resounding.

Gregory (540—604). Tr. by Rev. Ray Palmer (1806—), 1871.

- 1 'MID evening shadows let us all be watch-
ing,
Ever in psalms our deep devotion waking,
And with one voice hymns to the Lord, the Saviour,
Sweetly be singing.
- 2 That to the Holy King our songs ascend-
ing,
We worthily, with all His saints, may enter
The heavenly temple, joyfully partaking
Life everlasting.
- 3 This grace O grant us, Godhead ever-
blesséd,
Of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost in union,
Whose praises be through earth's most distant regions
Ever resounding.
- Gregory (540—604). Tr. by Rev. Ray Palmer, 1871.

- 1 THE twilight falls, the night is near,
I fold my work away,
And kneel to One who bends to hear
The story of the day.
- 2 The old, old story; yet I kneel
To tell it at Thy call,
And cares grow lighter as I feel
That Jesus knows them all.
- 3 Thou knowest all: I lean my head;
My weary eyelids close;
Content and glad awhile to tread
This path, since Jesus knows.

- 4 And He has loved me : all my heart
 With answering love is stirred,
 And every anguished pain and smart
 Finds healing in the word.
- 5 So here I lay me down to rest,
 As nightly shadows fall,
 And lean confiding on His breast
 Who knows and pities all.

The final Rest.

- 1 THE day is past and gone,
 Great God, we bow to Thee ;
 Again, as shades of night steal on,
 Unto Thy side we flee.
- 2 O when shall that day come,
 Ne'er sinking in the west,
 That country and that happy home,
 Where none shall break our rest ;
- 3 Where all things shall be peace,
 And pleasure without end,
 And golden harps, that never cease,
 With joyous hymns shall blend ;
- 4 Where we, preserved beneath
 The shelter of Thy wing,
 For evermore Thy praise shall breathe,
 And of Thy mercy sing.

"Immer muss ich wieder lesen."

- 1 EVER would I fain be reading
 In the ancient Holy Book,
 Of my Saviour's gentle pleading,
 Truth in every word and look.

- 2 How when children came He blessed them,
Suffered no man to reprove ;
Took them in His arms and pressed them
To His heart with words of love.
- 3 How He healed the sick and dying,
Heard the contrite sinner's moan,
Sought the poor, and stilled their crying,
Called them brothers and His own.
- 4 Still I read the ancient story,
And my joy is ever new ;
How for us He left His glory,
How He still is kind and true.
- 5 Let me kneel, my Lord, before Thee,
Let my heart in tears o'erflow,
Melted by Thy love adore Thee,
Blest in Thee mid joy or woe.

No Name so sweet in Heaven,

Jesus watching over Children.

- 1 DEAR Jesus, ever at my side,
 How loving Thou must be,
 To leave Thy home in Heaven to guard
 A little child like me !
 Thy beautiful and shining face
 I see not, though so near ;
 The sweetness of Thy soft, low voice
 I am too deaf to hear.
- 2 I cannot feel Thee touch my hand,
 With pressure light and mild,
 To check me as my mother did,
 When I was but a child.
 But I have felt Thee in my thoughts,
 Rebuking sin for me ;
 And, when my heart loves God, I know
 The sweetness is from Thee. *
- 3 And when, dear Saviour, I kneel down,
 Morning and night, to prayer,
 Something there is within my heart
 Which tells me, Thou art there.
 Yes, when I pray, Thou prayest, too ;
 Thy prayer is all for me :
 But when I sleep, Thou sleepest not,
 But watchest patiently.

Committed to the Shepherd's Care.

- I SAVIOUR, who Thy flock art feeding,
With the shepherd's kindest care,
All the feeble gently leading,
While the lambs Thy bosom share ;
- 2 Now, these little ones receiving,
Fold them in Thy gracious arm ;
There, we know, Thy word believing,
Only there, secure from harm.
- 3 Never, from Thy pasture roving,
Let them be the lion's prey ;
Let Thy tenderness, so loving,
Keep them all life's dangerous way.
- 4 Then, within Thy fold eternal,
Let them find a resting-place ;
Feed in pastures ever vernal,
Drink the rivers of Thy grace.

- I SHEPHERD of tender youth,
Guiding in love and truth
Through devious ways ;
*Christ, our triumphant King,
We come Thy Name to sing ;
Hither our children bring,
To shout Thy praise.
- 2 Thou art our Holy Lord,
The all-subduing Word,
Healer of strife ;
Thou didst Thyself abase,
That from sin's deep disgrace
Thou mightest save our race,
And give us life.

- 3 Thou art the great High Priest,
 Thou hast prepared the feast
 Of heavenly love ;
 While in our mortal pain
 None calls on Thee in vain ;
 Help Thou dost not disdain,
 Help from above.
- 4 Ever be Thou our Guide,
 Our Shepherd and our Pride,
 Our Staff and Song :
 Jesus, Thou Christ of God,
 By Thy perennial Word
 Lead us where Thou hast trod,
 Make our faith strong.
- 5 So now, and till we die,
 Sound we Thy praises high,
 And joyful sing :
 Infants, and the glad throng
 Who to Thy Church belong,
 Unite to swell the song
 To Christ our King.

The Children in the Temple.—MATT. xxi. 15, 16.

- 1 WHEN, His salvation bringing,
 To Zion Jesus came,
 The children all stood singing
 Hosanna to His Name.
 Nor did their zeal offend Him,
 But as He rode along,
 He let them still attend Him,
 And smiled to hear their song.

- 2 And since the Lord retaineth
 His love to children still,
 Though now as King He reigneth
 On Zion's heavenly hill;
 We'll flock around His banner,
 We'll bow before His throne,
 And cry aloud, Hosanna
 To David's royal Son.
- 3 For should we fail proclaiming
 Our great Redeemer's praise,
 The stones, our silence shaming,
 Would their hosannas raise.
 But shall we only render
 The tribute of our words?
 No; while our hearts are tender,
 They too shall be the Lord's.

- 1 WHEN in the Lord Jehovah's Name,
 The Saviour lowly riding came,
 Loudest and first an infant throng
 Greeted His coming with their song,
 Hosanna in the highest.
- 2 We too are taught to know the Lord,
 To fear His Name, to read His Word;
 And though we simple are and young,
 Can praise Him with our joyful song,
 Hosanna in the highest.
- 3 Soon shall the Lord again pass by
 To judgment, from His throne on high;
 And, from the saints' assembled throng,
 Shall burst upon the world the song,
 Hosanna in the highest.

- 4 Then may our youthful band be found
 With coronals of triumph crowned ;
 Raising, the heavenly hosts among,
 Our chorus of eternal song,
 Hosanna in the highest.

The Little Travellers.

- 1 LITTLE travellers Zion-ward,
 Each one entering into rest,
 In the kingdom of your Lord,
 In the mansions of the blest :
 There, to welcome, Jesus waits,
 Gives the crowns His followers win ;
 Lift your heads, ye golden gates !
 Let the little travellers in.
- 2 Who are they whose little feet,
 Pacing life's dark journey through,
 Now have reached that heavenly seat,
 They had ever kept in view ?
 " I from Greenland's frozen land ; "
 " I from India's sultry plain ; "
 " I from Afric's barren sand ; "
 " I from islands of the main."
- 3 All our earthly journey past,
 Every tear and pain gone by,
 Here together met at last
 At the portal of the sky :
 Each the welcome, " Come," awaits,
 Conquerors over death and sin ;
 Lift your heads, ye golden gates,
 Let the little travellers in.

Christ a Pattern for Children.—LUKE. ii. 40.

- 1 BY cool Siloam's shady rill
 How sweet the lily grows!
 How sweet the breath beneath the hill
 Of Sharon's dewy rose!
- 2 Lo, such the child whose early feet
 The paths of peace have trod;
 Whose secret heart, with influence sweet,
 Is upward drawn to God.
- 3 By cool Siloam's shady rill
 The lily must decay;
 The rose that blooms beneath the hill
 Must shortly fade away.
- 4 And soon, too soon, the wintry hour
 Of man's maturer age
 Will shake the soul with sorrow's power,
 And stormy passion's rage.
- 5 O Thou, whose infant feet were found
 Within Thy Father's shrine,
 Whose years, with changeless virtue
 Were all alike divine, [crowned,
- 6 Dependent on Thy bounteous breath,
 We seek Thy grace alone,
 In childhood, manhood, age, and death,
 To keep us still Thine own.

- 1 WITNESS, ye men and angels, now,
Before the Lord we speak;
To Him we make our solemn vow,
A vow we dare not break:—
- 2 That long as life itself shall last,
Ourselves to Christ we yield;
Nor from His cause will we depart,
Or ever quit the field.
- 3 We trust not in our native strength,
But on His grace rely,
That, with returning wants, the Lord
Will all our need supply.
- 4 O guide our doubtful feet aright,
And keep us in Thy ways;
And, while we turn our vows to prayers,
Turn Thou our prayers to praise.

Rejoicing in our Covenant-Engagements.—2 CHRON. XV. 15.

- 1 O HAPPY day, that fixed my choice
On Thee, my Saviour and my God:
Well may this glowing heart rejoice,
And tell its raptures all abroad.

- 2 O happy bond, that seals my vows
 To Him who merits all my love :
 Let cheerful anthems fill His house,
 While to that sacred shrine I move.
- 3 'Tis done, the great transaction's done ;
 I am my Lord's, and He is mine :
 He drew me, and I followed on,
 Charmed to confess the Voice divine.
- 4 Now rest, my long divided heart,
 Fixed on this blissful centre, rest ;
 With ashes who would grudge to part,
 When called on angels' bread to feast?
- 5 High Heaven, that heard the solemn vow,
 That vow renewed shall daily hear,
 Till in life's latest hour I bow,
 And bless in death a bond so dear.

One with Christ.—1 COR. vi. 17.

- 1 DEAR Saviour, I am Thine,

 Shall form me to His image bright,
 And teach His paths to tread.
- 4 Death may my soul divide
 From this abode of clay;
 But love shall keep me near His side,
 Through all the gloomy way.

- 1 LAMB of God, whose bleeding love
 We now recall to mind,
 Send the answer from above,
 And let us mercy find;
 Think on us who think on Thee;
 Every struggling soul release;
 O remember Calvary,
 And bid us go in peace.

 And bloody sweat, we pray,
 By Thy dying love to man,
 Take all our sins away ;
 Burst our bonds and set us free,
 From iniquity release ;
 O remember Calvary,
 And bid us go in peace.
- 3 Let Thy blood, by faith applied,

- 1 TILL He come, O let the words
 Linger on the trembling chords ;
 Let the little while between
 In their golden light be seen ;
 Let us think how Heaven and home
 Lie beyond that, till He come.
- 2 When the weary ones we love
 Enter on their rest above,
 Seems the earth so poor and vast,
 All our life-joy overcast?
 Hush, be every murmur dumb ;
 It is only, till He come.

 O make me love Thee more and more.

 How can I love Thee as I ought ;
 And how extol Thy matchless fame,

Before the Cross.

- 1 SWEET the moments, rich in blessing,
 Which before the cross I spend ;
 Life and health and peace possessing,
 From the sinner's dying Friend.
 Here I'll sit, forever viewing
 Mercy's streams in streams of blood :
 Precious drops, my soul bedewing,
 Plead and claim my peace with God.
- 2 Truly blessed is this station,
 Low before His cross to lie,
 While I see divine compassion
 Floating in His languid eye.
 Here it is I find my Heaven,
 While upon the Lamb I gaze ;
 Love I much? I've much forgiven ;
 I'm a miracle of grace.
- 3 Love and grief my heart dividing,
 With my tears His feet I'll bathe,
 Constant still, in faith abiding,
 Life deriving from His death.
 May I still enjoy this feeling,
 In all need to Jesus go ;
 Prove His blood each day more healing,
 And Himself most deeply know

"Closer than a Brother."

- 1 ONE there is, above all others,
 Well deserves the name of Friend;
 His is love beyond a brother's,
 Costly, free, and knows no end.
- 2 Which of all our friends, to save us,
 Could or would have shed his blood?
 But our Jesus died to have us
 Reconciled in Him to God.
- 3 When He lived on earth abaséd,
 Friend of sinners was His Name;
 Now above all glory raiséd,
 He rejoices in the same.
- 4 O for grace our hearts to soften;
 Teach us, Lord, at length to love;
 We, alas, forget too often
 What a Friend we have above.

Giving the Heart.

- 1 TAKE my heart, O Father, take it;
 Make and keep it all Thine own;
 Let Thy Spirit melt and break it,
 This proud heart of sin and stone.
- 2 Father, make it pure and lowly,
 Fond of peace, and far from strife;
 Turning from the paths unholy
 Of this vain and sinful life.
- 3 Ever let Thy grace surround it;
 Strengthen it with power divine,
 Till Thy cords of love have bound it:
 Make it to be wholly Thine.

- 4 May the blood of Jesus heal it,
 And its sins be all forgiven ;
 Holy Spirit, take and seal it,
 Guide it in the path to Heaven.

"Ad regias Agni dapes."

- 1 AT the Lamb's high feast we sing
 Praise to our victorious King,
 Who hath washed us in the tide
 Flowing from His piercé side.
- 2 Where the paschal blood is poured,
 Death's dark angel sheathes his sword ;
 Israel's hosts triumphant go
 Through the wave that drowns the foe.
- 3 Mighty Victim from the sky,
 Hell's fierce powers beneath Thee lie ;
 Thou hast conquered in the fight,
 Thou has brought us life and light.
- 4 Hymns of glory and of praise,
 Risen Lord, to Thee we raise ;
 Holy Father, praise to Thee,
 With the Spirit, ever be !

Grateful and tender Remembrance.

- 1 IF human kindness meets return,
 And owns the grateful tie ;
 If tender thoughts within us burn,
 To feel a friend is nigh ;
- 2 O shall not warmer accents tell
 The gratitude we owe

- To Him, who died, our fears to quell,
Our more than orphan's woe?
- 3 While yet His anguished soul surveyed
Those pangs He would not flee,
What love His latest words displayed
"Meet, and remember Me."
- 4 Remember Thee, Thy death, Thy shame,
Our sinful hearts to share!
O memory, leave no other name
But His recorded there.

At the Table.

- 1 How sweet and awful is the place,
With Christ within the doors,
While everlasting love displays
The choicest of her stores.
- 2 While all our hearts, and all our songs,
Join to admire the feast,
Each of us cry, with thankful tongues,
"Lord, why was I a guest?"
- 3 "Why was I made to hear Thy voice,
And enter while there's room,
When thousands make a wretched choice,
And rather starve than come?"
- 4 'Twas the same love that spread the feast,
That sweetly forced us in;
Else we had still refused to taste,
And perished in our sin.
- 5 Pity the nations, O our God;
Constrain the earth to come;
Send Thy victorious word abroad,
And bring the strangers home.

Remembrance pledged.

- 1 ACCORDING to Thy gracious word,
 In meek humility,
 This will I do, my dying Lord,
 I will remember Thee.
- 2 Thy body, broken for my sake,
 My Bread from Heaven shall be ;
 Thy testamental cup I take,
 And thus remember Thee.
- 3 When to the cross I turn mine eyes,
 And rest on Calvary,
 O Lamb of God, my sacrifice,
 I must remember Thee :
- 4 And when these failing lips grow dumb,
 And mind and memory flee,
 When Thou shalt in Thy kingdom come,
 Jesus, remember me.

"O Esca viatorum."

- 1 O BREAD to pilgrims given,
 O food that angels eat,
 O Manna sent from Heaven,
 For heaven-born natures meet :
 Give us, for Thee long pining,
 To eat till richly filled ;
 Till, earth's delights resigning,
 Our every wish is stilled.
- 2 O Water, life bestowing,
 From out the Saviour's heart,
 A fountain purely flowing,
 A fount of love Thou art :

O let us, freely tasting,
 Our burning thirst assuage ;
 Thy sweetness, never wasting,
 Avails from age to age.

- 3 Jesus, this feast receiving,
 We Thee unseen adore ;
 Thy faithful word believing,
 We take, and doubt no more :
 Give us, Thou true and loving,
 On earth to live in Thee ;
 Then, death the veil removing,
 Thy glorious face to see.

"Ermuntert euch, ihr Frommen."

- 1 REJOICE, rejoice, believers,
 And let your lights appear ;
 The evening is advancing,
 And darker night is near.
 The Bridegroom is arising,
 And soon He will draw nigh ;
 Up, pray, and watch, and wrestle,
 At midnight comes the cry.
- 2 See that your lamps are burning,
 Replenish them with oil ;
 Look now for your salvation,
 The end of sin and toil.
 The watchers on the mountain
 Proclaim the Bridegroom near,
 Go meet Him as He cometh,
 With hallelujahs clear.

- 3 Ye saints, who here in patience
 Your cross and sufferings bore,
 Shall live and reign forever,
 When sorrow is no more ;
 Around the Throne of glory
 The Lamb ye shall behold,
 In triumph cast before Him
 Your diadems of gold.
- 4 Our Hope and Expectation,
 O Jesus, now appear ;
 Arise, thou Sun so longed for,
 O'er this benighted sphere.
 With hearts and hands uplifted,
 We plead, O Lord, to see
 The day of earth's redemption,
 And ever be with Thee.

"The Saints above."

- 1 GIVE me the wings of faith, to rise
 Within the veil, and see
 The saints above, how great their joys,
 ||: How bright their glories be. :||
- 2 Once they were mourning here below,
 And wet their couch with tears ;
 They wrestled hard, as we do now,
 ||: With sins, and doubts, and fears. :||
- 3 I ask them, whence their victory came ?
 They, with united breath,
 Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
 ||: Their triumph to His death. :||
- 4 They marked the footsteps that He trod ;
 His zeal inspired their breast ;

And following their incarnate God,
||: Possess the promised rest. :||

- 5 Our glorious Leader claims our praise,
For His own pattern given,
While the long cloud of witnesses
||: Show the same path to Heaven. :||

One Church, one Army.

- 1 LET saints below in concert sing
With those to glory gone;
For all the servants of our King
||: In earth and Heaven are one. :||

- 2 One family, we dwell in Him,
One Church above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream,
||: The narrow stream of death. :||

- 3 One army of the living God,
To His command we bow;
Part of the host have crossed the flood,
||: And part are crossing now. :||

- 4 Dear Saviour, be our constant Guide;
Then, when the word is given,
Bid Jordan's narrow stream divide,
||: And land us safe in Heaven. :||

One Song.

- 1 HAPPY the souls to Jesus joined,
And saved by grace alone;
Walking in all Thy ways, we find
||: Our Heaven on earth begun. :||

- 2 The Church triumphant in Thy love,
Their mighty joys we know ;
They sing the Lamb in hymns above,
And we in hymns below.
- 3 Thee, in Thy glorious realm, they praise,
And bow before Thy throne ;
We, in the kingdom of Thy grace :
The kingdoms are but one.
- 4 The holy to the holiest leads ;
From hence our spirits rise ;
And he that in Thy statutes treads
Shall meet Thee in the skies.

"The golden Chain."

- 1 How sweet, how heavenly is the sight,
When those who love the Lord
In one another's peace delight,
And so fulfil His word.
- 2 When each can feel his brother's sigh,
And with him bear a part ;
When sorrow flows from eye to eye,
And joy from heart to heart ;
- 3 When, free from envy, scorn, and pride,
Our wishes all above,
Each can his brother's failings hide,
And show a brother's love ;
- 4 When love, in one delightful stream,
Through every bosom flows ;
When union sweet, and dear esteem,
In every action glows.

- 5 Love is the golden chain that binds
 The happy souls above ;
 And he's an heir of Heaven that finds
 His bosom glow with love.

The ancient Worthies.

- 1 RISE, O my soul, pursue the path,
 By ancient worthies trod ;
 Aspiring, view those holy men
 Who lived and walked with God.
- 2 Though dead, they speak in reason's ear,
 And in example live ;
 Their faith, and hope, and mighty deeds,
 Still fresh instruction give.
- 3 'Twas through the Lamb's most precious
 They conquered every foe ; [blood,
 And to His power and matchless grace
 Their crowns and honors owe.
- 4 Lord, may I ever keep in view
 The patterns Thou hast given ;
 And ne'er forsake the blessed path
 Which led them safe to Heaven.

"Pilgrims of the Night."

- 1 HARK, hark, my soul ; Angelic songs are swelling
 O'er earth's green fields, and ocean's wave-beat shore :
 How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
 Of that new life when sin shall be no
 more.

Angels of Jesus, Angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims, the pilgrims of the night.

- 2 Onward we go, for still we hear them
singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come ;"

And through the dark, its echoes sweetly
ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us home.—REF.

- 3 Far, far away, like bells at evening peal-
ing,
The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea ;

And laden souls, by thousands meekly stealing,
Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee.—REF.

- 4 Rest comes at length ; though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night
be past ;

Life's journey ends in welcome to the weary,
And Heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.—REF.

- 5 Angels, sing on: your faithful watches
 keeping,
 Sing us sweet fragments of the songs
 above;
 Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
 And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.—REF.

"The Fellowship of all the Saints."

- 1 FOR all the saints, who from their labors
 rest,
 Who Thee by faith before the world con-
 fest,
 Thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
 Alleluia, Alleluia.
- 2 Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress,
 and their Light;
 Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-
 fought fight;
 Thou, in the darkness drear, their Light of light.
 Alleluia, Alleluia.
- 3 O blest communion, fellowship divine!
 We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
 Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.
 Alleluia, Alleluia.
- 4 The golden evening brightens in the west;
 Soon, soon to faithful warriors comes the
 rest;
 Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.
 Alleluia, Alleluia.

- 5 But lo, there breaks a yet more glorious
day ;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array ;
The King of Glory passes on His way.
Alleluia, Alleluia.
- 6 From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Alleluia, Alleluia.

"Blest be the Tie."

- 1 BLEST be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love :
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.
- 2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers ;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.
- 3 We share our mutual woes ;
Our mutual burdens bear ;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.
- 4 When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain ;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

- 5 This glorious hope revives
 Our courage by the way ;
 While each in expectation lives,
 And longs to see the Day.
- 6 From sorrow, toil, and pain,
 And sin we shall be free ;
 And perfect love and friendship reign
 Through all eternity.

Cross and Crown.

- 1 O WHAT, if we are Christ's,
 Is earthly shame or loss?
 Bright shall the crown of glory be,
 When we have borne the cross.
- 2 Keen was the trial once,
 Bitter the cup of woe,
 When martyred saints, baptized in blood,
 Christ's sufferings shared below.
- 3 Bright is their glory now,
 Boundless their joy above,
 Where, on the bosom of their God,
 They rest in perfect love.
- 4 Lord, may that grace be ours,
 Like them in faith to bear
 All that of sorrow, grief, or pain
 May be our portion here.

Love to the Church.—Ps. cxxxvii.

- 1 I LOVE Thy kingdom, Lord,
 The house of Thine abode,
 The church our blest Redeemer saved
 With His own precious blood.

- 2 I love Thy church, O God :
Her walls before Thee stand,
Dear as the apple of Thine eye,
And graven on Thy hand.
- 3 For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend ;
To her my cares and toils be given,
Till toils and cares shall end.
- 4 Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.
- 5 Jesus, Thou Friend divine,
Our Saviour and our King,
Thy hand from every snare and foe
Shall great deliverance bring.
- 6 Sure as Thy truth shall last,
To Zion shall be given
The brightest glories earth can yield,
And brighter bliss of Heaven.

The Saints of the Lord.

Who strove in Thee to live,
Who followed Thee, obeyed, adored,
Our grateful hymn receive.
- 2 For all Thy saints, O Lord,
Accept our thankful cry,
Who counted Thee their great reward,

3 They all in life and death,

"Igjennem Nat og Trængsel."

1 THROUGH the night of doubt and sorrow,
 Onward goes the pilgrim band,
 Singing songs of expectation,
 Marching to the Promised Land,
 And before us through the darkness,
 Gleameth clear the guiding Light;
 Brother clasps the hand of brother,
 And steps fearless through the night.

2 One the strain which mouths of thousands
 Lift as from the heart of one;
 One the conflict, one the peril,
 One the march in God begun,
 One the gladness of rejoicing
 On the Resurrection shore,
 With one Father o'er us shining
 In His love for evermore.

3 Go we onward, pilgrim brothers,
 Visit first the cross and grave,
 Where the cross its shadow flingeth,
 Where the boughs of cypress wave.

Then, a shaking as of earthquakes,
 Then, a rending of the tomb,
 Then, a scattering of all shadows,
 And an end of toil and gloom.

Prayer for Union.

- 1 HAIL, Thou God of grace and glory,
 Who Thy Name hast magnified,
 By redemption's wondrous story,
 By the Saviour crucified;
 Thanks to Thee for every blessing,
 Flowing from the Fount of love;
 Thanks for present good unceasing,
 And for hopes of bliss above.
- 2 Hear us, as thus bending lowly,
 Near Thy bright and burning throne,
 We invoke Thee, God most holy,
 Through Thy well-belovéd Son;
 Send the baptism of Thy Spirit,
 Shed the pentecostal fire;
 Let us all Thy grace inherit,
 Waken, crown each good desire.
- 3 Bind Thy people, Lord, in union,
 With the sevenfold cord of love;
 Breathe a spirit of communion
 With the glorious hosts above;
 Let Thy work be seen progressing;
 Bow each heart, and bend each knee,
 Till the world, Thy truth possessing,
 Celebrates its jubilee.

Rev. Thomas William Aveling (1815—), 1844.

- 1 GLORIOUS things of thee are spoken,
 Zion, city of our God!
 He whose word cannot be broken,
 Formed thee for His own abode:
 On the Rock of ages founded,
 What can shake thy sure repose?
 With salvation's walls surrounded,
 Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.
- 2 See, the streams of living waters,
 Springing from eternal love,
 Well supply thy sons and daughters,
 And all fear of want remove:
 Who can faint, while such a river
 Ever flows their thirst t' assuage?
 Grace, which, like the Lord, the Giver,
 Never fails from age to age.
- 3 Round each habitation hovering,
 See the cloud and fire appear,
 For a glory and a covering,
 Showing that the Lord is near:
 Thus deriving from their banner
 Light by night, and shade by day,
 Safe they feed upon the manna
 Which He gives them when they pray.

Rev. John Newton (1725—1807), 1779.

- 1 PRAISE the Rock of our salvation,
 Laud His Name from zone to zone;
 On that Rock the Church is builded,
 Christ Himself the Corner-Stone;
 Vain against our rock-built Zion
 Winds and waters, fire and hail,

- Christ is in her midst ; against her
Sin and hell shall not prevail.
- 2 Stands four-square that heavenly city ;
Paved with gold like crystal bright ;
Gates of pearl, and walls of jasper,
Emerald and chrysolyte :
Broad and lofty tower its ramparts ;
At its gates twelve angels stand ;
On its walls twelve names are graven,
Of th' Apostles' chosen band.
- 3 Where Thou reignest, King of glory,
Throned in everlasting light,
Midst Thy saints, no more is needed
Sun by day, nor moon by night ;
Soon may we those portals enter
When this earthly strife is o'er,
There to dwell with saints and angels
In Thy presence evermore.

- 1 How beauteous are their feet,
Who stand on Zion's hill,
Who bring salvation on their tongues,
And words of peace reveal,
How charming is their voice,
How sweet the tidings are !
"Zion, behold thy Saviour King ;
||: He reigns and triumphs here." :||
- 2 How happy are our ears,
That hear this joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found !

How blessed are our eyes,
That see this heavenly light !
Prophets and kings desired it long,
||: But died without the sight. :||

- 3 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.
The Lord makes bare His arm
Through all the earth abroad ;
Let every nation now behold
||: Their Saviour and their God. :||

And bulwarks of our land.

The Pilgrim Church.

- 1 FAR down the ages now,
Much of her journey done,
The pilgrim church pursues her way,
Until her crown be won.
- 2 No wider is the gate,
No broader is the way,
No smoother is the ancient path,
That leads to light and day.
- 3 Thus onward still we press
Through evil and through good,
Through pain and poverty and want,
Through peril and through blood.

And to our Captain true,
We follow where He leads the way,
The kingdom in our view.

Zion kept by power divine;
All her foes shall be confounded,
Though the world in arms combine.

- 2 Every human tie may perish;
Friend to friend unfaithful prove;
Mothers cease their own to cherish;
Heaven and earth at last remove;
||: But no changes :||
Can attend Jehovah's love.
- 3 In the furnace God may prove thee,
Thence to bring thee forth more bright,
But can never cease to love thee;
Thou art precious in His sight:

God thine everlasting light.

Rev. Thomas Kelly (1769—1855), 1806. Ab.

On Him alone we build;
With His true saints alone
The courts of Heaven are filled;
On His great love our hopes we place
Of present grace, and joys above.
- 2 O, then, with hymns of praise
These hallowed courts shall ring;
Our voices we will raise
The Three in One to sing;
And thus proclaim in joyful song,
Both loud and long, that glorious Name.

- 3 Here, gracious God, do Thou
 Forevermore draw nigh;
 Accept each faithful vow,
 And mark each suppliant sigh;
 In copious shower, on all who pray,
 Each holy day, Thy blessings pour.

Prayer of Dedication.—Ps. cxxxii.

- 1 ARISE, O King of grace, arise,
And enter to Thy rest :
Lo, Thy church waits with longing eyes,
Thus to be owned and blest.
- 2 Enter with all Thy glorious train,
Thy Spirit and Thy Word ;
All that the ark did once contain
Could no such grace afford.
- 3 Here, mighty God, accept our vows,
Here let Thy praise be spread ;
Bless the provisions of Thy house,
And fill Thy poor with bread.

- 4 Here let the Son of David reign,
 Let God's Anointed shine,
 Justice and truth His court maintain,
 With love and power divine.
- 5 Here let Him hold a lasting throne,
 And as His kingdom grows,
 Fresh honors shall adorn His crown,
 And shame confound His foes.

God's Temple.

- 1 THE perfect world, by Adam trod,
 Was the first temple, built by God ;
 His fiat laid the corner-stone,
 And heaved its pillars one by one.
- 2 He hung its starry roof on high,
 The broad, illimitable sky ;
 He spread its pavement, green and bright,
 And curtained it with morning light.
- 3 The mountains in their places stood,
 The sea, the sky, and all was good ;
 And when its first pure praises rang,
 The morning stars together sang.
- 4 Lord, 'tis not ours to make the sea,
 And earth, and sky, a house for Thee ;
 But in Thy sight our offering stands,
 A humbler temple, made with hands.

Nathaniel Parker Willis (1807—1867), 1826. Ab.

The One Foundation.—EPH. ii. 20.

- 1 THE Church's one Foundation,
 Is Jesus Christ her Lord ;
 She is His new creation,
 By water and the word :
 From Heaven He came and sought her
 To be His holy Bride ;
 With His own blood He bought her,
 And for her life He died.

- 2 Elect from every nation,
 Yet one o'er all the earth,
 Her charter of salvation
 One Lord, one faith, one birth;
 One holy Name she blesses,
 Partakes one holy food,
 And to one hope she presses,
 With every grace endued.
- 3 'Mid toil and tribulation,
 And tumult of her war,
 She waits the consummation
 Of peace for evermore;
 Till with the vision glorious
 Her longing eyes are blest,
 And the great Church victorious
 Shall be the Church at rest.
- 4 The saints their watch are keeping,
 Their cry goes up, "how long?"
 And soon the night of weeping
 Shall be the morn of song.
 O happy ones and holy!
 Lord, give us grace, that we
 Like them, the meek and lowly,
 On high may dwell with Thee.

Rev. Samuel John Stone (1839—), 1866. Ab. and sl. alt.

Our Lord's Apostles.

- 1 LORD, who didst bless Thy chosen band
 And forth commissioned send
 To spread Thy Name from land to land,
 To Thee our hymns ascend.

- 2 The princes of Thy Church were they,
 Chiefs unsubdued in fight,
 Soldiers on earth of Heaven's array,
 The world's unerring light.
- 3 Theirs the firm faith of holy birth,
 The hope that looks above,
 And, trampling on the powers of earth,
 Their Saviour's perfect love.
- 4 In them the heavens exulting own
 The Father's might revealed,
 Thy triumph gained, begotten Son,
 Thy Spirit's influence sealed.

Bp. Richard Mant (1776—1848), 1837. Ab.

The great Commission.—MARK xvi. 15.

- 1 "Go preach My gospel," saith the Lord,
 Bid the whole earth My grace receive;
 He shall be saved that trusts My word,
 And he condemned that won't believe.
- 2 I'll make your great commission known;
 And ye shall prove My gospel true,
 By all the works that I have done,
 By all the wonders ye shall do.
- 3 Go, heal the sick; go, raise the dead;
 Go, cast out devils in My Name;
 Nor let My prophets be afraid,
 Though Greeks reproach, and Jews
 blaspheme.
- 4 Teach all the nations My commands,
 I'm with you till the world shall end;
 All power is trusted to My hands,
 I can destroy, and I defend."

- 5 He spake, and light shone round His head ;
 On a bright cloud to Heaven He rode ;
 They to the farthest nations spread
 The grace of their ascended God.

"Go ye into the World."—MARK xvi. 15.

- 1 YE Christian heralds, go, proclaim
 Salvation through Immanuel's Name ;
 To distant climes the tidings bear,
 And plant the Rose of Sharon there.
 2 He'll shield you with a wall of fire,
 With flaming zeal your breast inspire,
 Bid raging winds their fury cease,
 And hush the tempest into peace.
 3 And when our labors all are o'er,
 Then we shall meet to part no more,
 Meet, with the blood-bought throng to fall,
 And crown our Jesus Lord of all.

Ordination of a Minister.

- 1 FATHER of mercies, in Thy house,
 Smile on our homage, and our vows ;
 While, with a grateful heart, we share
 These pledges of our Father's care.
 2 The Saviour, when to Heaven He rose,
 In splendid triumph o'er His foes,
 Scattered His gifts on men below,
 And wide His royal bounties flow.
 3 Hence sprung th' apostles' honored name,
 Sacred beyond heroic fame ;
 In lowlier forms, to bless our eyes,
 Pastors from hence, and teachers rise.

- 4 So shall the bright succession run,
Through the last courses of the sun ;
While unborn churches, by their care,
Shall rise and flourish, large and fair.

The Spirit accompanying the Word.

- 1 O SPIRIT of the living God,
In all Thy plenitude of grace,
Where'er the foot of man hath trod,
Descend on our apostate race.
2 Give tongues of fire, and hearts of love,
To preach the reconciling Word ;
Give power and union from above,
Whene'er the joyful sound is heard.
3 Be darkness, at Thy coming, light,
Confusion, order in Thy path ;
Souls without strength inspire with Bid mercy triumph over wrath. [might ;
4 Baptize the nations ; far and nigh
The triumphs of the cross record ;
The name of Jesus glorify,
Till every kindred call Him Lord.

Christ's Dominion.—Ps. lxxii.

- 1 JESUS shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run ;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
2 To Him shall endless prayer be made,
And praises throng to crown His head ;
His Name, like sweet perfume, shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

- 3 Blessings abound where'er He reigns;
The prisoner leaps to lose his chains;
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.
- 4 Let every creature rise and bring
Peculiar honors to our King;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the loud Amen.

For a Missionary Meeting.

- 1 ASSEMBLED at Thy great command,
Before Thy face, dread King, we stand;
The voice that marshaled every star,
Has called Thy people from afar.
- 2 We meet, through distant lands to spread
The truth for which the martyrs bled;
Along the line, to either pole,
The thunder of Thy praise to roll.
- 3 Our prayers assist, accept our praise,
Our hopes revive, our courage raise,
Our counsels aid; and, O impart
The single eye, the faithful heart.
- 4 Forth with Thy chosen heralds come,
Recall the wandering spirits home;
From Zion's mount send forth the sound,
To spread the spacious earth around.

"Fling out the Banner."

- 1 FLING out the banner: let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and wide;
The sun, that lights its shining folds,
The cross, on which the Saviour died.

- 2 Fling out the banner : angels bend
 In anxious silence o'er the sign,
 And vainly seek to comprehend
 The wonder of the Love divine.
- 3 Fling out the banner : heathen lands
 Shall see from far the glorious sight ;
 And nations, crowding to be born,
 Baptize their spirits in its light.
- 4 Fling out the banner : let it float
 Skyward and seaward, high and wide :
 Our glory only in the cross,
 Our only hope, the Crucified.
- 5 Fling out the banner : wide and high,
 Seaward and skyward let it shine ;
 Nor skill, nor might, nor merit ours ;
 We conquer only in that sign.

The immovable Kingdom.—DAN. ii. 44.

- 1 O WHERE are kings and empires now
 Of old that went and came?
 But, Lord, Thy Church is praying yet,
 A thousand years the same.
- 2 We mark her goodly battlements,
 And her foundations strong ;
 We hear within the solemn voice
 Of her unending song.
- 3 For not like kingdoms of the world
 Thy holy Church, O God ! [ing her,
 Though earthquake shocks are threaten-
 And tempests are abroad ;

- 4 Unshaken as eternal hills,
 Immovable she stands,
 A mountain that shall fill the earth,
 A house not made by hands.

The Spirit creating all Things new.

- 1 SPIRIT of power and might, behold
 A world by sin destroyed;
 Creator, Spirit, as of old,
 Move on the formless void.
- 2 Give 'Thou the word: that healing sound
 Shall quell the deadly strife,
 And earth again, like Eden crowned,
 Produce the tree of life.
- 3 If sang the morning stars for joy
 When nature rose to view,
 What strains will angel-harps employ
 When 'Thou shalt all renew!
- 4 And if the sons of God rejoice
 To hear a Saviour's Name,
 How shall the ransomed raise their voice,
 To whom that Saviour came!
- 5 So every kindred, tongue, and tribe,
 Assembling round the throne,
 The new creation shall ascribe
 To sovereign love alone.

"From Greenland's icy Mountains."

- 1 FROM Greenland's icy mountains,
 From India's coral strand,
 Where Afric's sunny fountains
 Roll down their golden sand;

- From many an ancient river,
 From many a palmy plain,
 They call us to deliver
 Their land from error's chain.
- 2 What though the spicy breezes
 Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle,
 Though every prospect pleases,
 And only man is vile :
 In vain with lavish kindness
 The gifts of God are strown,
 The heathen in his blindness
 Bows down to wood and stone.
- 3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
 With wisdom from on high,
 Can we to men benighted
 The lamp of life deny ?
 Salvation, O salvation !
 The joyful sound proclaim,
 Till each remotest nation
 Has learnt Messiah's Name.
- 4 Waft, waft, ye winds, His story,
 And you, ye waters, roll,
 Till, like a sea of glory,
 It spreads from pole to pole ;
 Till o'er our ransomed nature,
 The Lamb for sinners slain,
 Redeemer, King, Creator,
 In bliss returns to reign.

Bp. Reginald Heber (1783—1826), 1819.

"Hail to the Lord's Anointed!"

- 1 HAIL to the Lord's Anointed,
 Great David's greater Son ;

Hail, in the time appointed,
 His reign on earth begun !
 He comes to break oppression,
 To set the captive free,
 To take away transgression,
 And rule in equity.

2 He comes with succor speedy
 To those who suffer wrong ;
 To help the poor and needy,
 And bid the weak be strong ;
 To give them songs for sighing,
 Their darkness turn to light,
 Whose souls, condemned and dying,
 Were precious in His sight.

3 For Him shall prayer unceasing
 And daily vows ascend ;
 His kingdom still increasing,
 A kingdom without end.
 O'er every foe victorious,
 He on His throne shall rest,
 From age to age more glorious,
 All-blessing and all-blest.

"The Morning Light is breaking."

1 THE morning light is breaking,
 The darkness disappears ;
 The sons of earth are waking
 To penitential tears :
 Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
 Brings tidings from afar
 Of nations in commotion,
 Prepared for Zion's war.

- 2 See heathen nations bending
 Before the God we love,
 And thousand hearts ascending,
 In gratitude above ;
 While sinners, now confessing,
 The gospel call obey,
 And seek the Saviour's blessing,
 A nation in a day.
- 3 Blest river of salvation,
 Pursue thine onward way ;
 Flow thou to every nation,
 Nor in thy riches stay ;
 Stay not, till all the lowly
 Triumphant reach their home ;
 Stay not, till all the holy Proclaim, "The Lord is come."
 Rev. Samuel Francis Smith (1808—), 1831. Ab

The final Triumph.

- 1 WHEN shall the voice of singing
 Flow joyfully along,
 When hill and valley, ringing
 With one triumphant song,
 Proclaim the contest ended,
 And Him, who once was slain,
 Again to earth descended,
 In righteousness to reign ?
- 2 Then from the craggy mountains
 The sacred shout shall fly ;
 And shady vales and fountains
 Shall echo the reply :
 High tower and lowly dwelling
 Shall send the chorus round,

All hallelujah swelling
In one eternal sound.

The good Tidings.

- 1 How beauteous, on the mountains,
The feet of him that brings,
Like streams from living fountains,
Good tidings of good things;
That publisheth salvation,
And jubilee release,
To every tribe and nation,
God's reign of joy and peace.
- 2 Lift up thy voice, O watchman,
And shout, from Zion's towers,
Thy hallelujah chorus,
"The victory is ours!"
The Lord shall build up Zion
In glory and renown,
And Jesus, Judah's Lion,
Shall wear His rightful crown.

"Awake, awake,"—Is. li. 9.

- 1 ARM of the Lord, awake, awake,
Put on Thy strength, the nations shake;
And let the world, adoring, see
||: Triumphs of mercy wrought by Thee. :||
- 2 Say to the heathen from Thy throne,
"I am Jehovah, God alone!"
Thy voice their idols shall confound,
||: And cast their altars to the ground. :||

- 3 No more let human blood be spilt,
Vain sacrifice for human guilt;
But to each conscience be applied
The blood that flowed from Jesus' side.
- 4 Almighty God, Thy grace proclaim,
In every clime, of every name,
Till adverse power before Thee fall,
And crown the Saviour, Lord of all.

Prayer for speedy Triumph.

- 1 SOON may the last glad song arise
Through all the millions of the skies,
That song of triumph, which records
That all the earth is now the Lord's.
- 2 Let thrones, and powers, and kingdoms be Obedient, mighty God, to Thee;
And over land, and stream, and main,
Wave Thou the sceptre of Thy reign.
- 3 O that the anthem now might swell,
And host to host the triumph tell,
That not one rebel heart remains,
But over all the Saviour reigns.

Prayer for Home Missions.

- 1 Look from Thy sphere of endless day,
O God of mercy and of might;
In pity look on those who stray,
Benighted, in this land of light.
- 2 In peopled vale, in lonely glen,
In crowded mart, by stream or sea,
How many of the sons of men
Hear not the message sent from Thee.

- 3 Send forth Thy heralds, Lord, to call
The thoughtless young, the hardened
A scattered, homeless flock, till all [old,
Be gathered to Thy peaceful fold.
- 4 Send them Thy mighty word to speak,
Till faith shall dawn, and doubt depart,
To awe the bold, to stay the weak,
And bind and heal the broken heart.
- 5 Then all these wastes, a dreary scene,
That make us sadden as we gaze,
Shall grow with living waters green,
And lift to Heaven the voice of praise.

"Uplift the blood-red Banner."

- 1 UPLIFT the blood-red banner,
And shout, with trumpet's sound,
Deliverance to the captive,
And freedom to the bound;
Earth's jubilee of glory,
The year of full release:
O tell the wondrous story,
Go forth and publish peace.
- 2 Go forth, confessors, martyrs,
With zeal and love unpriced,
And preach the blood of sprinkling,
And live, or die, for Christ;
For Christ claim every nation,
Your banner wide unfurled;
Go forth and preach salvation,
Salvation for the world.

Benjamin Gough (1805—), 1865. Ab.

- 1 O THAT the Lord's salvation
 Were out of Zion come,
 To heal His ancient nation,
 To lead His outcasts home.
 How long the holy city
 Shall heathen feet profane?
 Return, O Lord, in pity;
 Rebuild her walls again.
- 2 Let fall Thy rod of terror,
 Thy saving grace impart;
 Roll back the veil of error,
 Release the fettered heart.
 Let Israel, home returning,
 Her lost Messiah see;
 Give oil of joy for mourning,
 And bind Thy Church to Thee.

Rev. Henry Francis Lyte (1793—1847), 1834

- 1 LORD of all power and might,
 Father of love and light,
 Speed on Thy Word:
 O let the gospel sound
 All the wide world around,
 Wherever man is found:
 God speed His Word.
- 2 Hail, blessed Jubilee:
 Thine, Lord, the glory be;
 Hallelujah!
 Thine was the mighty plan,
 From Thee the work began;

Away with praise of man,
Glory to God !

3 Lo, what embattled foes,
Stern in their hate, oppose
God's holy Word :
One for His truth we stand,
Strong in His own right hand,
Firm as a martyr-band :
God shield His Word.

4 Onward shall be our course,
Despite of fraud or force ;
God is before :
His word ere long shall run
Free as the noon-day sun ;
His purpose must be done :
God bless His Word.

"Let there be Light !" — GEN. i. 3. 2 COR. iv. 6.

1 THOU, whose almighty word
Chaos and darkness heard,
And took their flight ;
Hear us, we humbly pray,
And where the gospel's day
Sheds not its glorious ray,
"Let there be light !"

2 Thou, who didst come to bring
On Thy redeeming wing
Healing and sight,
Health to the sick in mind,
Sight to the inly blind,
O, now to all mankind
"Let there be light !"

- 3 Spirit of truth and love,
 Life-giving, holy Dove,
 Speed forth Thy flight:
 Move o'er the water's face,
 Bearing the lamp of grace,
 And in earth's darkest place
 "Let there be light!"
- 4 Blessed and Holy Three,
 Glorious Trinity,
 Wisdom, Love, Might;
 Boundless as ocean's tide,
 Rolling in fullest pride,
 Through the world, far and wide,

Good Tidings to Zion.—Is. lii. 7.

- 1 ON the mountain's top appearing,
 Lo, the sacred herald stands,
 Welcome news to Zion bearing,
 Zion long in hostile lands:
 ||: Mourning captive, :||
 God Himself will loose thy bands.
- 2 Has thy night been long and mournful?
 Have thy friends unfaithful proved?
 Have thy foes been proud and scornful,
 By thy sighs and tears unmoved?
 ||: Cease thy mourning: :||
 Zion still is well-beloved.
- 3 God, thy God, will now restore thee;
 He Himself appears thy Friend;
 All thy foes shall flee before thee;

Light in the Darkness.—MATT. iv. 16.

- 1 O'ER the gloomy hills of darkness,
Look, my soul, be still and gaze;
Sun of Righteousness, arising,
Bring the bright, the glorious day:
||: Send the Gospel :||
To the earth's remotest bound.
- 2 Kingdoms wide that sit in darkness,
Grant them, Lord, Thy glorious light,
And from eastern coast to western
May the morning chase the night;
||: And redemption, :||
Freely purchased, win the day.
- 3 Fly abroad, thou mighty Gospel,
Win and conquer, never cease:
May thy lasting wide dominions
Multiply, and still increase;

"Put on Thy Strength."—Is. li. 9.

- 1 AWAKE, awake, put on Thy strength,
O arm of Christ the Lord;
Awake, as in the ancient days,
Fresh triumphs now record.
Thou dryest up the mighty sea,
The waters of the deep,
That joy might spring in saddened hearts,
And mourners cease to weep.

- 2 Thy ransomed people passed the wave,
 They trod the Red Sea floor;
 The cloudy pillar frowned behind,
 But smiled with light before.
 Lift up Thine arm, display Thy light,
 Again to guard and guide:
 Beneath Thy banner, mighty Lord,
 We too have crossed the tide.
- 3 On, on we haste with holy zeal,
 Since Thou the path hast blest;
 The distant mountains rise in view,
 Thy seat of peace and rest.
 There lies the City of our God,
 The City beaming bright;
 Where shines nor sun, nor moon, nor star,
 The Lamb its only light.

"Christ for the World."

- 1 CHRIST for the world we sing;
 The world to Christ we bring,
 With loving zeal;
 The poor, and them that mourn,
 The faint and overborne,
 Sin-sick and sorrow-worn,
 Whom Christ doth heal.
- 2 Christ for the world we sing;
 The world to Christ we bring,
 With fervent prayer:
 The wayward and the lost,
 By reckless passion tossed,
 Redeemed, at countless cost,
 From dark despair.

- 3 Christ for the world we sing ;
 The world to Christ we bring,
 With one accord ;
 With us the work to share,
 With us reproach to dare,
 With us the cross to bear,
 For Christ our Lord.
- 4 Christ for the world we sing ;
 The world to Christ we bring,
 With joyful song ;
 The new-born souls, whose days,
 Reclaimed from error's ways,
 Inspired with hope and praise,
 To Christ belong.

The Gospel for all Nations.—MARK xiii. 10.

- 1 GREAT God, the nations of the earth
 Are by creation Thine ;
 And in Thy works, by all beheld,
 Thy radiant glories shine.
- 2 But, Lord, Thy greater love has sent
 Thy gospel to mankind,
 Unveiling what rich stores of grace
 Are treasured in Thy mind.
- 3 Lord, when shall these glad tidings spread
 The spacious earth around,
 Till every tribe, and every soul,
 Shall hear the joyful sound ?

"The Glory of the latter Day."

- 1 O GOD, our God, Thou shinest here,
Thine own this latter day;
To us Thy radiant steps appear:
We watch Thy glorious way.
- 2 Thou tookest once our flesh; Thy face
Once on our darkness shone;
Yet through each age new births of grace
Still make Thy glory known.
- 3 Not only olden ages felt
The presence of the Lord;
Not only with the fathers dwelt
Thy Spirit and Thy word.
- 4 Doth not the Spirit still descend,
And bring the heavenly fire?
Doth not He still Thy church extend,
And waiting souls inspire?
- 5 Come, Holy Ghost, in us arise;
Be this Thy mighty hour;
And make Thy willing people wise
To know Thy day of power.

"Soldiers of the Cross, arise."

- 1 SOLDIERS of the cross, arise,
Gird you with your armor bright;
Mighty are your enemies,
Hard the battle ye must fight.
O'er a faithless, fallen world,
Raise your banner in the sky,
Let it float there, wide unfurled,
Bear it onward, lift it high.

- 2 'Mid the homes of want and woe,
 Strangers to the living Word,
 Let the Saviour's herald go,
 Let the voice of hope be heard.
 Where the shadows deepest lie,
 Carry truth's unsullied ray;
 Where are crimes of blackest dye,
 There the saving sign display.
- 3 To the weary and the worn
 Tell of realms where sorrows cease;
 To the outcast and forlorn
 Speak of mercy and of peace.
 Guard the helpless, seek the strayed,
 Comfort trouble, banish grief;
 With the Spirit's sword arrayed,
 Scatter sin and unbelief.
- 4 Be the banner still unfurled,
 Bear it bravely still abroad,
 Till the kingdoms of the world
 Are the kingdoms of the Lord,
 Praise with songs of holy glee,
 Saints of earth and heavenly Host,
 Godhead One in persons Three,
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

"Go, ye Messengers of God."

646

- 1 GO, ye messengers of God,
 Like the beams of morning fly,
 Take the wonder-working rod,
 Wave the banner-cross on high,
 Where the lofty minaret
 Gleams along the morning skies,
 Wave it till the crescent set,
 And the "Star of Jacob" rise.

- 2 Go to many a tropic isle,
 In the bosom of the deep,
 Where the skies for ever smile,
 And th' oppressed for ever weep.
 O'er the negro's night of care
 Pour the living light of Heaven;
 Chase away the fiend despair,
 Bid him hope to be forgiven.
- 3 Where the golden gates of day
 Open on the palmy East,
 Wide the bleeding cross display,
 Spread the gospel's richest feast.
 Bear the tidings round the ball,
 Visit every soil and sea;
 Preach the cross of Christ to all,
 Christ, whose love is full and free.

The Victory anticipated.—Ps. lxxii.

- 1 HASTEN, Lord, the glorious time,
 When, beneath Messiah's sway,
 Every nation, every clime,
 Shall the gospel call obey.
 Mightiest kings His power shall own,
 Heathen tribes His Name adore:
 Satan and his host o'erthrown,
 Bound in chains, shall hurt no more.
- 2 Then shall wars and tumults cease,
 Then be banished grief and pain;
 Righteousness, and joy, and peace,
 Undisturbed shall ever reign.
 Time shall sun and moon obscure,
 Seas be dried, and rocks be riven,

But His reign shall still endure,
Endless as the days of Heaven.

"The Song of 'Jubilee.'"

- 1 HARK, the song of jubilee,
Loud as mighty thunders roar,
Or the fulness of the sea,
When it breaks upon the shore :
Hallelujah ! for the Lord
God Omnipotent shall reign ;
Hallelujah ! let the word
Echo round the earth and main.
- 2 Hallelujah ! hark, the sound,
From the centre to the skies,
Wakes above, beneath, around,
All creation's harmonies.
See Jehovah's banners furled, [done,
Sheathed His sword : He speaks ; 'tis
And the kingdoms of this world
Are the kingdoms of His Son.
- 3 He shall reign from pole to pole
With illimitable sway :
He shall reign, when like a scroll
Yonder heavens have passed away.
Then the end ; beneath His rod
Man's last enemy shall fall :
Hallelujah ! Christ in God,
God in Christ, is All in all.

"So shall He sprinkle many Nations."—Is. lii. 15.

- 1 SAVIOUR, sprinkle many nations,
Fruitful let Thy sorrows be ;
By Thy pains and consolations,

Draw the Gentiles unto Thee :
 Of Thy cross the wondrous story,
 Be it to the nations told
 Let them see Thee in Thy glory,
 And Thy mercy manifold.

- 2 Far and wide, though all unknowing,
 Pants for Thee each mortal breast ;
 Human tears for Thee are flowing,
 Human hearts in Thee would rest,
 Thirsting, as for dews of even,
 As the new-mown grass for rain ;
 Thee, they seek, as God of Heaven,
 Thee as Man for sinners slain.
- 3 Saviour, lo, the isles are waiting,
 Stretched the hand, and strained the sight,
 For Thy Spirit, new creating
 Love's pure flame and wisdom's light ;
 Give the word, and of the preacher
 Speed the foot, and touch the tongue,
 Till on earth by every creature
 Glory to the Lamb be sung.

"Come over and help us."—ACTS xvi. 9.

- 1 HARK, what mean those lamentations,
 Rolling sadly through the sky ?
 'Tis the cry of heathen nations,
 "Come and help us, or we die."
 Lost and helpless and desponding,
 Wrapt in error's night they lie ;
 To their cries your hearts responding,
 Haste to help them ere they die.

- 2 Hark, again those lamentations
 Rolling sadly through the sky ;
 Louder cry the heathen nations,
 "Come and help us, or we die."
 Hear the heathen's sad complaining ;
 Christians, hear their dying cry ;
 And the love of Christ constraining,
 Join to help them ere they die.

The latter Day.

- 1 HAIL to the brightness of Zion's glad
 morning ;
 Joy to the lands that in darkness have lain ;
 Hushed be the accents of sorrow and mourning ;
 Zion in triumph begins her mild reign.
- 2 Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad
 morning,
 Long by the prophets of Israel foretold ;
 Hail to the millions from bondage return-
 ing ;
 Gentiles and Jews the blest vision behold.
- 3 Lo, in the desert rich flowers are spring-
 ing ;
 Streams ever copious are gliding along ;
 Loud from the mountain-tops echoes are
 ringing ;
 Wastes rise in verdure, and mingle in song.

- 4 See, from all lands, from the isles of the ocean,
Praise to Jehovah ascending on high ;
Fallen are the engines of war and commotion ;
Shouts of salvation are rending the sky.

The Church victorious.

- 1 DAUGHTER of Zion, awake from thy sad-
ness ;
Wake, for thy foes shall oppress thee
no more :
Bright o'er thy hills dawns the day-star of gladness ;
Rise, for the night of thy sorrow is o'er.
- 2 Strong were thy foes ; but the arm that subdued them,
And scattered their legions, was might-ier far :
They fled, like the chaff, from the scourge that pursued them :
Vain were their steeds and their char-iots of war.
- 3 Daughter of Zion, the power that hath saved thee
Extolled with the harp and the timbrel should be ;
Shout, for the foe is destroyed that enslaved thee ;
Th' oppressor is vanquished, and Zion is free.

The Restoration of Israel.—Is. lii. 1—10

- 1 DAUGHTER of Zion, from the dust
Exalt thy fallen head ;
Again in thy Redeemer trust :
He calls thee from the dead.
- 2 Awake, awake, put on thy strength,
Thy beautiful array ;
The day of freedom dawns at length,
The Lord's appointed day.
- 3 Rebuild thy walls, thy bounds enlarge,
And send thy heralds forth ;
Say to the South, "Give up thy charge,
And keep not back, O North."
- 4 They come, they come ; thine exiled bands,
Where'er they rest or roam,
Have heard Thy voice in distant lands,
And hasten to their home.

The Martyr-Spirit.

- 1 THE Son of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain ;
His blood-red banner streams afar :
Who follows in His train ?
- 2 Who best can drink His cup of woe,
Triumphant over pain,
Who patient bears His cross below,
He follows in His train.
- 3 The martyr first, whose eagle eye
Could pierce beyond the grave,
Who saw his Master in the sky,
And called on Him to save :

- 4 Like Him, with pardon on His tongue,
 In midst of mortal pain,
 He prayed for them that did the wrong :
 Who follows in his train ?
- 5 A glorious band, the chosen few
 On whom the Spirit came,
 Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,
 And mocked the cross and flame.
- 6 They climbed the steep ascent of Heaven
 Through peril, toil, and pain :
 O God, to us may grace be given
 To follow in their train.

Prayer heard, and Zion restored.—Ps. cii. 13—21.

- 1 LET Zion and her sons rejoice ;
 Behold the promised hour :
 Her God hath heard her mourning voice,
 And comes t'exalt His power.
- 2 The Lord will raise Jerusalem,
 And stand in glory there ;
 Nations shall bow before His Name,
 And kings attend with fear.
- 3 He sits a Sovereign on His throne,
 With pity in His eyes ;
 He hears the dying prisoners groan,
 And sees their sighs arise.
- 4 He frees the souls condemned to death,
 Nor when His saints complain,
 Shall it be said, that praying breath
 Was ever spent in vain.

The Millennium.—MICAH, iv. 1, 2. Isa. ii. 1—4.

- 1 BEHOLD, the Mountain of the Lord
In latter days shall rise,
Above the mountains and the hills,
And draw the wondering eyes.
- 2 The beam that shines on Zion's hill
Shall lighten every land;
The King who reigns in Zion's towers
Shall all the world command.
- 3 No strife shall vex Messiah's reign,
Or mar the peaceful years; [swords,
To ploughshares soon they beat their
To pruning-hooks their spears.
- 4 No longer hosts encountering hosts
Their millions slain deplore;
They hang the trumpet in the hall,
And study war no more.

To worship at His shrine;
And, walking in the light of God,
With holy beauties shine.

That leads the train of night,
Shines on their march, and guides from far
His servants to the fight.

 Where hallowed footsteps never trod,
 Take your appointed post.

Gentiles coming into the Church.

- 1 RISE, crowned with light, imperial Salem,
 rise:
 Exalt thy towering head, and lift thine
 eyes;
 See Heaven its sparkling portals wide display,
 And break upon thee in a flood of day.
- 2 See a long race thy spacious courts adorn,
 See future sons and daughters yet unborn
 In crowding ranks on every side arise,
 Demanding life, impatient for the skies.
- 3 See barbarous nations at thy gates attend,
 Walk in thy light, and in thy temple bend;
 See thy bright altars thronged with prostrate kings,
 While every land its joyful tribute brings.
- 4 The seas shall waste, the skies to smoke
 decay,
 Rocks fall to dust, and mountains melt
 away;

But fixed His Word, His saving power remains;
Thy realm shall last, thy own Messiah reigns.

- 1 ON Zion and on Lebanon,
On Carmel's blooming height,
On Sharon's fertile plains, once shone
The glory, pure and bright.
- 2 From thence its mild and cheering ray
Streamed forth from land to land;
And empires now behold its day;
And still its beams expand.
- 3 But ah, our deserts deep and wild
See not this heavenly light;
No sacred beams, no radiance mild,
Dispel their dreary night.

On Carmel who didst shine,
Our deserts let Thy glory fill,
Thy excellence divine.

Meeting the Bridegroom.

- 1 AWAKE, awake, O Zion,
Put on thy strength divine,
Thy garments bright in beauty,
The bridal dress be thine.
Jerusalem the holy,
To purity restored;
Meek Bride, all fair and lowly,
Go forth and meet thy Lord.

- 2 The Lamb who bore our sorrow,
 Comes down to earth again;
 No sufferer now, but Victor,
 For evermore to reign;
 To reign in every nation,
 To rule in every zone:
 O wide-world coronation,
 In every heart a throne.

- 3 Awake, awake, O Zion,
 The bridal day draws nigh,
 The day of signs and wonders,
 And marvels from on high:
 Thy sun uprises slowly,
 But keep thou watch and ward;
 Fair Bride, all pure and lowly,
 Go forth to meet thy Lord.

"Mighty to save."—Is. lxiii. 1.

- 1 HE comes in blood-stained garments;
 Upon His brow a crown;
 The gates of brass fly open,
 The iron bands drop down;
 From off the fettered captive
 The chains of Satan fall,
 While angels shout triumphant,
 That Christ is Lord of all.
- 2 O Christ, His love is mighty,
 Long-suffering is His grace;
 And glorious is the splendor
 That beameth from His face.

 When we behold that love,
 As we go singing onward
 To dwell with Him above.

Christ on the Lake of Galilee.—MARK iv. 38.

- 1 TOSSED upon life's raging billow,
 Sweet it is, O Lord, to know,
 Thou didst press a sailor's pillow,
 And canst feel a sailor's woe.
 Never slumbering, never sleeping,
 Though the night be dark and drear,
 Thou the faithful watch art keeping,
 "All, all's well," Thy constant cheer.
- 2 And though loud the wind is howling,
 Fierce though flash the lightnings red,
 Darkly though the storm-cloud's scowling
 O'er the sailor's anxious head;
 Thou canst calm the raging ocean,
 All its noise and tumult still,
 Hush the tempest's wild commotion,
 At the bidding of Thy will.
- 3 Thus my heart the hope will cherish,
 While to Thee I lift mine eye,
 Thou wilt save me ere I perish,
 Thou wilt hear the sailor's cry;
 And though mast and sail be riven,
 Life's short voyage will soon be o'er;
 Safely moored in Heaven's wide haven,
 Storms and tempests vex no more.

Rev. George Washington Bethune (1805—1862), 1847. Alt

The waters of the mighty sea,
And barrest ocean with the sand
By Thy perpetual decree :

And in the waters ply their toil,
Are lifted on the surge's crown,
And plunged where seething eddies boil ;

And bind the tempest with Thy will ;
Tread, as of old, the water's path, [still.]

Comes to me o'er and o'er,
Nearer my parting hour am I
Than e'er I was before.
- 2 Nearer my Father's house,
Where many mansions be ;
Nearer the throne where Jesus reigns,
Nearer the crystal sea ;
- 3 Nearer my going home,
Laying my burden down,
Leaving my cross of heavy grief,
Wearing my starry crown.

Winding through shades of night,
Rolling its cold, dark waves between
Me and the world of light.

 Lest by base denial
 I depart from Thee:
 When Thou seest me waver,
 With a look recall,
 Nor for fear or favor,
 Suffer me to fall.

 Thou in love chastise,
 Pour Thy benediction
 On the sacrifice:
 Then, upon Thine altar
 Freely offered up,
 Though the flesh may falter,
 Faith shall drain the cup.

Far from Home.—Ps. cxxxvii.

- 1 FAR from my heavenly home,
 Far from my Father's breast,
 Fainting I cry, "Blest Spirit, come,
 And speed me to my rest."

 My harp has silent hung :
 How should I sing a cheerful song
 Till Thou inspire my tongue?

 And fain would thither flee ;
 My heart, O Zion, droops and yearns,
 When I remember thee.

 A dark and toilsome road :
 When shall I pass the wilderness,
 And reach the saints' abode?

 There sweet be my rest, till He bid me

"Gone to the Grave."

1 THOU art gone to the grave ; but we will not deplore thee,
 Though sorrows and darkness encompass the tomb :
 The Saviour has passed through its portal before thee,
 And the lamp of His love is thy guide through the gloom.

- 2 'Thou art gone to the grave; we no longer behold thee,
 Nor tread the rough path of the world
 by thy side;
 But the wide arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee,
 And sinners may die, for the Sinless hath died.
- 3 'Thou art gone to the grave; and, its mansion forsaking,
 Perchance thy weak spirit in fear lingered long;
 But the mild rays of Paradise beamed on thy waking,
 And the sound which thou heardst was the seraphim's song.
- 4 'Thou art gone to the grave; but we will
 not deplore thee;
 Whose God was thy Ransom, thy
 Guardian and Guide:
 He gave thee, He took thee, and He will restore thee;
 And death has no sting, for the Saviour has died.

Bp. Reginald Heber (1783—1826), 1812.

- 1 A FEW more years shall roll,
 A few more seasons come,
 And we shall be with those that rest
 Asleep within the tomb.
 Then, O my Lord, prepare
 My soul for that great day;

O wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

2 A few more storms shall beat
On this wild, rocky shore ;
And we shall be where tempests cease,
And surges swell no more.—CHO.

3 A few more struggles here,
A few more partings o'er,
A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more.—CHO.

Who died that we might live, who lives
That we with Him may reign.—CHO.

"Immanuel's Land."

1 THE sands of time are sinking,
The dawn of Heaven breaks ;
The summer morn I've sighed for,
The fair, sweet morn awakes :
Dark, dark hath been the midnight,
But day-spring is at hand,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

2 O Christ, He is the fountain,
The deep, sweet well of love ;
The streams of earth I've tasted,
More deep I'll drink above.
There to an ocean fulness
His mercy doth expand,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

- 3 The bride eyes not her garment,
 But her dear bridegroom's face ;
 I will not gaze at glory,
 But on my King of grace ;
 Not at the crown He giveth,
 But on His piercé'd hand :
 The Lamb is all the glory
 Of Immanuel's land.

"Asleep in Jesus."

- 1 ASLEEP in Jesus : blessed sleep,
 From which none ever wakes to weep,
 A calm and undisturbed repose,
 Unbroken by the last of foes.
- 2 Asleep in Jesus : O how sweet
 To be for such a slumber meet ;
 With holy confidence to sing,
 That death hath lost his venom'd sting.
- 3 Asleep in Jesus : peaceful rest,
 Whose waking is supremely blest ;
 No fear, no woe, shall dim that hour
 That manifests the Saviour's power.
- 4 Asleep in Jesus : O for me
 May such a blissful refuge be ;
 Securely shall my ashes lie,
 Waiting the summons from on high.

The Death of the Righteous.—NUM. xxiii. 10.

- 1 How blest the righteous, when he dies,
When sinks a weary soul to rest;
How mildly beam the closing eyes,
How gently heaves th' expiring breast.
- 2 So fades a summer cloud away;
So sinks the gale, when storms are o'er;
So gently shuts the eye of day;

And naught disturbs that peace profound,

On the Death of a Minister.

- 1 SERVANT of God, well done,
 Rest from thy loved employ;
 The battle fought, the victory won,
 Enter thy Master's joy.
 The voice at midnight came,
 He started up to hear;
 A mortal arrow pierced his frame,
 He fell, but felt no fear.
- 2 At midnight came the cry,
 "To meet thy God prepare!"
 He woke, and caught his Captain's eye;
 Then, strong in faith and prayer,
 His spirit with a bound
 Left its encumbering clay;
 His tent, at sunrise, on the ground,
 A darkened ruin lay.
- 3 The pains of death are past,
 Labor and sorrow cease,
 And, life's long warfare closed at last,
 His soul is found in peace.
 Soldier of Christ, well done,
 Praise be thy new employ;
 And, while eternal ages run,
 Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

Signal Consecration and Courage.

- 1 O SHEPHERD of the sheep,
 High Priest of things to come,
 Who didst in grace Thy servant keep,
 And take him sweetly home:

His heart was Thine alone,
 From selfish longings free;
 Thy throne the cross, a cross his throne,
 His life was hid in Thee.

- 2 So, trusting in Thy might,
 He won a fair renown;
 So, waxing valiant in the fight,
 He trod the lion down;
 Then rendered up to Thee
 The charge Thy love had given,
 And passed away, Thy face to see
 Revealed in highest Heaven.

"Marching to the Tomb."

- 1 THROUGH sorrow's night and danger's
 Amid the deepening gloom, [path,
 We, soldiers of an injured King,
 Are marching to the tomb.
- 2 There, when the turmoil is no more,
 And all our powers decay,
 Our cold remains in solitude
 Shall sleep the years away.
- 3 Our labors done, securely laid
 In this our last retreat,
 Unheeded, o'er our silent dust
 The storms of life shall beat.
- 4 Yet not thus lifeless, thus inane,
 The vital spark shall lie;
 For o'er life's wreck that spark shall rise
 To seek its kindred sky.

- 5 These ashes too, this little dust,
 Our Father's care shall keep,
 Till the last angel rise and break
 The long and dreary sleep.
- 6 Then love's soft dew o'er every eye
 Shall shed its mildest rays,
 And the long-silent dust shall burst
 With shouts of endless praise.

 "To live is Christ, and to die is Gain."—PHIL. i. 21.

- 1 LORD, it belongs not to my care
 Whether I die or live;
 To love and serve Thee is my share,
 And this Thy grace must give.
- 2 Christ leads me through no darker rooms
 Than He went through before;
 He that unto God's kingdom comes
 Must enter by this door.
- 3 Come, Lord, when grace hath made me
 Thy blessed face to see; [mect
 For, if Thy work on earth be sweet,
 What will Thy glory be?
- 4 Then I shall end my sad complaints,
 And weary sinful days,
 And join with the triumphant saints
 That sing Jehovah's praise.
- 5 My knowledge of that life is small;
 The eye of faith is dim;
 But it's enough that Christ knows all,
 And I shall be with Him.

A Student's Death.

- 1 BROTHER, though from yonder sky
 Cometh neither voice nor cry,
 Yet we know from thee to-day
 Every pain hath passed away.
- 2 Not for thee shall tears be given,
 Child of God and heir of Heaven;
 For He gave thee sweet release;
 Thine the Christian's death of peace.
- 3 Well we know thy living faith
 Had the power to conquer death;
 As a living rose may bloom
 By the border of the tomb.
- 4 Brother, in that solemn trust
 We commend thee, dust to dust;
 In that faith we wait, till, risen
 Thou shalt meet us all in Heaven
- 5 While we weep as Jesus wept,
 Thou shalt sleep as Jesus slept;
 With thy Saviour thou shalt rest,
 Crowned, and glorified, and blest.

Citizenship in Heaven.—Ps. xv.

- 1 WHO, O Lord, when life is o'er,
 Shall to Heaven's blest mansions soar?
 Who, an ever-welcome guest,
 In Thy holy place shall rest?
- 2 He whose heart Thy love has warmed;
 He, whose will to Thine conformed,
 Bids his life unsullied run;
 He whose words and thoughts are one;

Loving those who love their God;
Who, with hope and faith unfeigned,
Treads the path by Thee ordained;

Not in aught himself hath done;
He, great God, shall be Thy care,
And Thy choicest blessings share.

"The Dead in Christ."

- 1 THEY whose course on earth is o'er,
Think they of their brethren more?
They before the Throne who bow,
Feel they for their brethren now?
- 2 Yea, the dead in Christ have still
Part in all our joy and ill;
Keeping all our steps in view,
Guiding them, it may be, too.
- 3 We, by enemies distressed,
They, in Paradise at rest;
We the captives, they the freed,
We and they are one indeed.
- 4 One in all we seek or shun;
One, because our Lord is One;
One in heart, and one in love:
We below, and they above.

Earth and Heaven shaken.—HEB. xii. 26.

- 1 THE Lord of might from Sinai's brow
Gave forth His voice of thunder;
And Israel lay on earth below,
Outstretched in fear and wonder:

Beneath His feet was pitchy night,
And at His left hand and His right
The rocks were rent asunder.

- 2 The Lord of love, on Calvary,
A meek and suffering stranger,
Upraised to Heaven His languid eye
In nature's hour of danger :
For us He bore the weight of woe,
For us He gave His blood to flow,
And met His Father's anger.
- 3 The Lord of love, the Lord of might,
The King of all created,
Shall back return to claim His right,
On clouds of glory seated ;
With trumpet-sound, and angel-song,
And hallelujahs loud and long,
O'er death and hell defeated.

"He is coming."

- 1 HE is coming, He is coming,
Not as once He came before,
Wailing infant, born in weakness
On a lowly stable floor :
But upon His cloud of glory,
In the crimson-tinted sky,
Where we see the golden sunrise
In the rosy distance lie.
- 2 He is coming, He is coming,
Not as once He wandered through
All the hostile land of Judah,
With His followers poor and few :

But with all the holy angels
 Waiting round His Judgment-seat,
 And the chosen twelve Apostles
 Sitting crownéd at His feet.

- 3 He is coming, He is coming;
 Let His lowly first estate,
 And His tender love, so teach us
 That in faith and hope we wait,
 Till in glory eastward burning,
 Our redemption draweth near;
 And we see the sign in Heaven
 Of our Judge and Saviour dear.

 Thou art coming, O my King,
 In Thy beauty all-resplendent,
 In Thy glory all-transcendent;
 Well may we rejoice and sing;
 Coming! In the opening east
 Herald brightness slowly swells;
 Coming! O my glorious Priest,
 Hear we not Thy golden bells?
- 2 Thou art coming, Thou art coming;
 We shall meet Thee on Thy way,
 We shall see Thee, we shall know Thee,
 We shall bless Thee, we shall show Thee
 All our hearts could never say;
 What an anthem that will be,
 Bringing out our love to Thee,
 Pouring out our rapture sweet
 At Thine own all-glorious feet.

- 3 O the joy to see Thee reigning,
 Thee, my own belovéd Lord!
 Every tongue Thy Name confessing,
 Worship, honor, glory, blessing,
 Brought to Thee with one accord;
 Thee, my Master and my Friend,
 Vindicated and enthroned,
 Unto earth's remotest end
 Glorified, adored, and owned.

The final Joy.

- 1 WAKE, awake, for night is flying,
 The watchmen on the heights are crying;
 Awake, Jerusalem, at last!
 Midnight hears the welcome voices,
 And at the thrilling cry rejoices:
 Come forth, ye virgins, night is past!
 The Bridegroom comes, awake,
 Your lamps with gladness take;
 Hallelujah!
 And for His marriage-feast prepare,
 For ye must go to meet Him there.
- 2 Zion hears the watchmen singing,
 And all her heart with joy is springing,
 She wakes, she rises from her gloom;
 For her Lord comes down all-glorious,
 The strong in grace, in truth victorious,
 Her Star is risen, her Light is come!
 Ah, come, Thou blessed One,
 God's own belovéd Son;
 Hallelujah!
 We follow till the halls we see,
 Where Thou hast bid us sup with Thee.

Ἰδοὺ ὁ Νύμφιος ἔρχεται.

- 1 BEHOLD, the Bridegroom cometh in the middle of the night,
And blest is he whose loins are girt,
whose lamp is burning bright ;
But woe to that dull servant, whom the Master shall surprise
With lamp untrimmed, unburning, and with slumber in his eyes.
- 2 Do thou, my soul, beware, beware lest thou in sleep sink down,
Lest thou be given o'er to death, and lose the golden crown ;
But see that thou be sober, with watchful eye, and thus Cry, "Holy, holy, holy God, have mercy upon us."
- 3 That day, the day of fear, shall come ;
my soul slack not thy toil,
But light thy lamp, and feed it well, and make it bright with oil ;
Who knowest not how soon may sound
the cry at eventide,
"Behold the Bridegroom comes. Arise !
Go forth to meet the Bride."
- 4 Beware, my soul, take thou good heed,
lest thou in slumber lie,
And, like the five, remain without, and knock, and vainly cry ;
But watch, and bear thy lamp undimmed, and Christ shall gird thee on His own bright wedding-robe of light,
the glory of the Son.

- 1 Lo! He comes, with clouds descending,
 Once for favored sinners slain;
 Thousand thousand saints attending
 Swell the triumph of His train:
 ||: Hallelujah! :||
 God appears, on earth to reign.
- 2 Every eye shall now behold Him,
 Robed in dreadful majesty;
 Those who set at naught and sold Him,
 Pierced and nailed Him to the tree,
 ||: Deeply wailing, :||
 Shall the true Messiah see.
- 3 Now redemption, long expected,
 See in solemn pomp appear:
 All His saints, by men rejected,
 Now shall meet Him in the air:
 ||: Hallelujah! :||
 See the day of God appear.
- 4 Yea, amen; let all adore Thee,
 High on Thine eternal throne:
 Saviour, take the power and glory;
 Claim the kingdom for Thine own:

 Hallelujah! come, Lord, come.

 When wilt Thou return to me ?
- 3 Nearer is my soul's salvation,
 Spent the night, the day at hand ;
 Keep me in my lowly station,
 Watching for Thee, till I stand,
 ||: O my Saviour, :||
 In Thy bright and promised land.

The Saints marching up.

- 1 TEN thousand times ten thousand
In sparkling raiment bright,
The armies of the ransomed saints
Throng up the steeps of light :
'Tis finished, all is finished,
Their fight with death and sin :
Fling open wide the golden gates,
And let the victors in.
- 2 What rush of hallelujahs
Fills all the earth and sky ;
What ringing of a thousand harps
Bespeaks the triumph nigh.
O day, for which creation
And all its tribes were made ;
O joy, for all its former woes
A thousand fold repaid.
- 3 O then what raptured greetings
On Canaan's happy shore ;

What knitting severed friendships up,
 Where partings are no more.
 Then eyes with joy shall sparkle,
 That brimmed with tears of late :
 Orphans no longer fatherless,
 Nor widows desolate.

Heaven in Prospect.—REV. vii. 9.

- 1 PALMS of glory, raiment bright,
 Crowns that never fade away,
 Gird and deck the saints in light,
 Priests, and kings, and conquerors they.
 Yet the conquerors bring their palms
 To the Lamb amidst the throne,
 And proclaim, in joyful psalms,
 Victory through His cross alone.
- 2 Kings for harps their crowns resign,
 Crying, as they strike the chords,
 "Take the kingdom, it is Thine,
 King of kings, and Lord of lords."
 Round the altar, priests confess,
 If their robes are white as snow,
 'Twas the Saviour's righteousness,
 And His blood, that made them so.
- 3 Who were these?—On earth they dwelt,
 Sinners once of Adam's race,
 Guilt, and fear, and suffering felt,
 But were saved by sovereign grace.
 They were mortal, too, like us :
 Ah, when we, like them, shall die,
 May our souls, translated thus,

The Heavenly Rest.

- 1 THERE is an hour of peaceful rest
 To mourning wanderers given ;
 There is a joy for souls distressed,
 A balm for every wounded breast :
 'Tis found above, in Heaven.
- 2 There is a home for weary souls
 By sin and sorrow driven ;
 When tossed on life's tempestuous shoals,
 Where storms arise, and ocean rolls,
 And all is drear but Heaven.

 To brighter prospects given ;
 And views the tempest passing by,

The Song of the Sealed.—REV. vii. 9—16.

- 1 WHAT are these in bright array,
 This innumerable throng,
 Round the altar, night and day,
 Hymning one triumphant song?
 "Worthy is the Lamb, once slain,
 Blessing, honor, glory, power ;
 Wisdom, riches, to obtain,
 New dominion every hour."

- 2 These through fiery trials trod ;
 These from great afflictions came ;
 Now, before the throne of God,
 Sealed with His almighty Name ;
 Clad in raiment pure and white,
 Victor-palms in every hand,
 Through their dear Redeemer's might,
 More than conquerors they stand.
- 3 Hunger, thirst, disease, unknown,
 On immortal fruits they feed ;
 Them the Lamb amidst the throne,

 Joy and gladness banish sighs,
 Perfect love dispels all fear,
 And forever from their eyes
 God shall wipe away the tear.

 "The goodly Land."

- 1 THE goodly land I see,
 With peace and plenty blest ;
 A land of sacred liberty,
 And endless rest ;
 There milk and honey flow,
 And oil and wine abound,
 And trees of life forever grow
 With mercy crowned.
- 2 There dwells the Lord, our King,
 The Lord, our Righteousness :
 Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
 The Prince of Peace,
 On Zion's sacred height,
 His kingdom still maintains,

And glorious, with His saints in light,
For ever reigns.

- 3 Before the Saviour's face
The ransomed nations bow,
O'erwhelmed at His almighty grace,
For ever new :
He shows His prints of love :
They kindle to a flame,
And sound, through all the worlds above,
"The slaughtered Lamb !"

- 4 The whole triumphant host
Give thanks to God on high ;
"Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,"
They ever cry.
Hail, Abr'am's God and mine !
(I join the heavenly lays)
All might and majesty are Thine,
And endless praise.

Rev. Thomas Olivers (1725—1799), 1770 Ab

714 ^{6 6. 8. 4 D.} The God of Abr'am praised.—Ex. iii 6 Ps cxlvi 2

- 1 THE God of Abr'am praise,
Who reigns enthroned above ;
Ancient of everlasting days,
And God of love :
Jehovah, Great I Am !
By earth and Heaven confest :
I bow and bless the sacred Name,
For ever blest.
- 2 The God of Abr'am praise,
At whose supreme command
From earth I rise, and seek the joys
At His right hand :

I all on earth forsake,
 Its wisdom, fame, and power;
 And Him my only portion make,
 My Shield and Tower.

- 3 He by Himself hath sworn,
 I on His oath depend;
 I shall on eagles' wings upborne
 To Heaven ascend;
 I shall behold His face,
 I shall His power adore,
 And sing the wonders of His grace
 For evermore.

The Multitude before the Throne.—REV. iv. 6; vii. 9.

- 1 HARK, the sound of holy voices,
 Chanting at the crystal sea,
 Hallelujah, hallelujah,
 Hallelujah! Lord, to Thee.
 Multitude, which none can number,
 Like the stars in glory stand,
 Clothed in white apparel, holding
 Palms of victory in their hand.
- 2 They have come from tribulation,
 And have washed their robes in blood,
 Washed them in the blood of Jesus;
 Tried they were, and firm they stood.
 Gladly, Lord, with Thee they suffered,
 Gladly, Lord, with Thee they died;
 And by death to life immortal
 They were born, and glorified.
- 3 Now they reign in heavenly glory,
 Now they walk in golden light,
 Now they drink, as from a river,

Holy bliss and infinite.
 Love and peace they taste forever,
 And all truth and knowledge see
 In the beatific vision
 Of the Blessed Trinity.

Bp. Christopher Wordsworth (1807—1885), 1863. Ab.

"Hora novissima."

- 1 THE world is very evil,
 The times are waxing late;
 Be sober and keep vigil,
 The Judge is at the gate;
 The Judge that comes in mercy,
 The Judge that comes with might,
 To terminate the evil,
 To diadem the right.
- 2 Arise, arise, good Christian,
 Let right to wrong succeed;
 Let penitential sorrow
 To heavenly gladness lead;
 To light that hath no evening,
 That knows no moon nor sun,
 The light so new and golden,
 The light that is but one.
- 3 O Home of fadeless splendor,
 Of flowers that fear no thorn,
 Where they shall dwell as children
 Who here as exiles mourn.
 'Midst power that knows no limit,
 Where wisdom has no bound,
 The beatific vision
 Shall glad the saints around.

- 1 FOR thee, O dear, dear country,
 Mine eyes their vigils keep ;
For very love, beholding
 Thy happy name, they weep.
The mention of thy glory
 Is unction to the breast,
And medicine in sickness,
 And love, and life, and rest.
- 2 O one, O only mansion,
 O paradise of joy,
Where tears are ever banished,
 And smiles have no alloy ;
The Lamb is all thy splendor,
 The Crucified thy praise ;
His laud and benediction
 Thy ransomed people rise.
- 3 With jasper glow thy bulwarks,
 Thy streets with emerald blaze ;
The sardius and the topaz
 Unite in thee their rays ;
Thine ageless walls are bonded
 With amethyst unpriced ;
The saints built up its fabric,
 And the Corner-stone is Christ.
- 4 Thou hast no shore, fair ocean ;
 Thou hast no time, bright day :
Dear fountain of refreshment
 To pilgrims far away.
Upon the Rock of Ages
 They raise thy holy tower ;

Thine is the victor's laurel,
And thine the golden dower.

"Urbs Syon aurea,"

- 1 JERUSALEM, the golden,
With milk and honey blest,
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice opprest:
I know not, O I know not,
What social joys are there;
What radiancy of glory,
What light beyond compare.
- 2 They stand, those halls of Zion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng:
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pasture of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen,
- 3 There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast;
And they who, with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever, and forever,
Are clad in robes of white.

Bernard of Cluny, c. 1145.

- 1 BRIEF life is here our portion ;
 Brief sorrow, short-lived care ;
 The life that knows no ending,
 The tearless life, is there.
 O happy retribution :
 Short toil, eternal rest ;
 For mortals and for sinners
 A mansion with the blest.
- 2 And now we fight the battle,
 But then shall wear the crown
 Of full and everlasting
 And passionless renown.
 But He whom now we trust in Shall then be seen and known ;
 And they that know and see Him
 Shall have Him for their own.
- 3 The morning shall awaken,
 The shadows shall decay,
 And each true-hearted servant
 Shall shine as doth the day.
 There God our King and Portion,
 In fulness of His grace,
 Shall we behold forever,
 And worship face to face.

 The home of God's elect,
 O sweet and blessed country
 That eager hearts expect :

Jesus, in mercy bring us
 To that dear land of rest ;
 Who art with God the Father,

The Rest that remaineth.

- I THERE is a blessed home
 Beyond this land of woe,
 Where trials never come,
 Nor tears of sorrow flow ;
 Where faith is lost in sight,
 And patient hope is crowned,
 And everlasting light
 Its glory throws around.
- 2 There is a land of peace,
 Good angels know it well ;
 Glad songs that never cease
 Within its portals swell ;
 Around its glorious throne
 Ten thousand saints adore
 Christ, with the Father One
 And Spirit, evermore.
- 3 O joy all joys beyond,
 To see the Lamb who died,
 And count each sacred wound
 In hands, and feet, and side ;
 To give to Him the praise
 Of every triumph won,
 And sing, through endless days,
 The great things He hath done.

- 4 Look up, ye saints of God,
 Nor fear to tread below
 The path your Saviour trod
 Of daily toil and woe;
 Wait but a little while
 In uncomplaining love,
 His own most gracious smile
 Shall welcome you above.

Paradise.

- 1 O PARADISE! O Paradise!
 Who doth not crave for rest?
 Who would not seek the happy land
 Where they that loved are blest?
 Where loyal hearts and true
 Stand ever in the light,
 All rapture through and through,
 In God's most holy sight?
- 2 O Paradise! O Paradise!
 The world is growing old;
 Who would not be at rest and free
 Where love is never cold?—CHO.
- 3 O Paradise! O Paradise!
 'Tis weary waiting here;
 I long to be where Jesus is,
 To feel, to see Him near;—CHO.
- 4 O Paradise! O Paradise!
 I want to sin no more,
 I want to be as pure on earth
 As on Thy spotless shore;—CHO.

5 O Paradise ! O Paradise !
 I greatly long to see
 The special place my dearest Lord
 In love prepares for me ;—CHO.

"Saints of the most High."

- 1 FROM all Thy saints in warfare,
 For all Thy saints at rest,
 To Thee, O blessed Jesus,
 All praises be addressed :
 Thou, Lord, didst win the battle
 That they might conquerors be ;
 Their crowns of living glory
 Are lit with rays from Thee.
- 2 Apostles, prophets, martyrs,
 And all the sacred throng,
 Who wear the spotless raiment,
 Who raise the ceaseless song ;
 For these passed on before us,
 Saviour, we Thee adore,
 And walking in their footsteps,
 Would serve Thee more and more.
- 3 Then praise we God the Father,
 And praise we God the Son,
 And God the Holy Spirit,
 Eternal Three in One ;

Till all the ransomed number
 Fall down before the throne,
 And honor, power, and glory
 Ascribe to God alone.

For New Year's Day.—Ps. lxx. 11.

- 1 ETERNAL Source of every joy,
 Well may Thy praise our lips employ,
 While in Thy temple we appear,
 Whose goodness crowns the circling year.
- 2 Wide as the wheels of nature roll,
 Thy hand supports and guides the whole;
 The sun is taught by Thee to rise,
 And darkness when to veil the skies.
- 3 The flowery spring, at Thy command,
 Perfumes the air and paints the land;
 The summer rays with vigor shine,
 To raise the corn and cheer the vine.
- 4 Thy hand in autumn richly pours
 Through all our coasts redundant stores;
 And winters, softened by Thy care,
 No more a face of horror wear.
- 5 Seasons, and months, and weeks, and days,
 Demand successive songs of praise;
 And be the grateful homage paid,
 With morning light and evening shade.
- 6 Here in Thy house let incense rise,
 And circling Sabbaths bless our eyes;
 Till to those lofty heights we soar,
 Where days and years revolve no more.

Help obtained of God.—ACTS xxvi. 22.

1 GREAT God, we sing that mighty hand
By which supported still we stand :
The opening year Thy mercy shows ;
Let mercy crown it till it close.

2 By day, by night, at home, abroad,
Still we are guided by our God ;
By His incessant bounty fed,
By His unerring counsel led.

3 With grateful hearts the past we own ;
The future, all to us unknown,
We to Thy guardian care commit,
And peaceful leave before Thy feet.

4 In scenes exalted or deprest,
Be Thou our joy, and Thou our rest ;
Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adorned through all our changing days.

Thanksgiving for Harvest.

1 THE God of harvest praise,
In loud thanksgivings, raise
Hand, heart, and voice ;
The valleys laugh and sing,
Forests and mountains ring,
The plains their tribute bring,
The streams rejoice.

2 Yea, bless His holy Name,
And joyous thanks proclaim
Through all the earth ;
To glory in your lot
Is comely ; but be not
God's benefits forgot
Amidst your mirth.

- 3 The God of harvest praise ;
 Hands, hearts, and voices raise
 With one accord ;
 From field to garner throng,
 Bearing your sheaves along,
 And in your harvest song
 Bless ye the Lord.

The New Year.

- 1 WHILE with ceaseless course the sun
 Hasted through the former year,
 Many souls their race have run,
 Nevermore to meet us here :
 Fixed in an eternal state,
 They have done with all below ;
 We a little longer wait,
 But how little, none can know.
- 2 As the wingéd arrow flies
 Speedily the mark to find ;
 As the lightning from the skies
 Darts and leaves no trace behind ;
 Swiftly thus our fleeting days
 Bear us down life's rapid stream :
 Upward, Lord, our spirits raise,
 All below is but a dream.
- 3 Thanks for mercies past receive ;
 Pardon of our sins renew ;
 Teach us henceforth how to live
 With eternity in view :
 Bless Thy word to young and old ;
 Fill us with a Saviour's love ;
 And when life's short tale is told,
 May we dwell with Thee above.

Rev. John Newton (1725—1807), 1779.

For New Year's Eve.

1 FOR Thy mercy and Thy grace,
Faithful through another year,
Hear our songs of thankfulness,
Father and Redeemer, hear.
In our weakness and distress,
Rock of strength, be Thou our Stay;
In the pathless wilderness
Be our true and living Way.

2 Who of us death's awful road
In the coming year shall tread?
With Thy rod and staff, O God,
Comfort Thou his dying bed.
Keep us faithful, keep us pure,
Keep us evermore Thine own;
Help Thy servants to endure,
Fit us for the promised crown.

New Year's Day.

1 COME, let us anew
Our journey pursue,
Roll round with the year, [pear.
And never stand still till the Master ap-
His adorable will
Let us gladly fulfil,
And our talents improve
||: By the patience of hope, and the labor of love. :||

2 Our life is a dream,
Our time, as a stream,
Glides swiftly away,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay.

The arrow is flown,
 The moment is gone,
 The millennial year
 ||: Rushes on to our view, and eternity's here. :||

3 O that each in the day
 Of His coming might say,
 "I have fought my way through,
 "I have finished the work Thou didst give me to do."
 O that each from his Lord
 May receive the glad word,
 "Well and faithfully done,
 ||: "Enter into My joy, and sit down on My throne." :||

"Life passeth soon."

1 DAYS and moments quickly flying
 Speed us onward to the dead;
 O how soon shall we be lying
 Each within his narrow bed!
 Jesus, merciful Redeemer,
 Rouse dead souls to hear Thy voice;
 Wake, O wake each idle dreamer
 Now to make th' eternal choice.

Life passeth soon: death draweth near:
 Keep us, good Lord, till Thou
 appear:
 With Thee to live, with Thee to die,
 With Thee to reign through eternity.

- 2 As a shadow life is fleeting ;
 As a vapor so it flies ;
 For the old year now retreating
 Pardon grant and make us wise ;
 Soon before the Judge all-glorious
 We with all the dead shall stand ;
 Saviour over death victorious,
 Place us then on Thy right hand.—REF.

Thanksgiving.—Ps. lxx.

- 1 PRAISE to God, immortal praise,
 For the love that crowns our days !
 Bounteous Source of every joy,
 Let Thy praise our tongues employ.
- 2 For the blessings of the field,
 For the stores the gardens yield ;
 For the fruits in full supply,
 Ripened 'neath the summer sky ;
- 3 Flocks that whiten all the plain ;
 Yellow sheaves of ripened grain ;
 Clouds that drop their fattening dews ;
 Suns that temperate warmth diffuse ;
- 4 All that spring with bounteous hand
 Scatters o'er the smiling land ;
 All that liberal autumn pours
 From her rich o'erflowing stores :
- 5 These to Thee, my God, we owe,
 Source whence all our blessings flow ;
 And for these my soul shall raise
 Grateful vows and solemn praise.

Mrs. Anna Lætitia Barbauld (1743—1825), 1773. Ab. and alt

- 1 WITH songs and honors sounding loud,
 Address the Lord on high :
 Over the heavens He spreads His cloud,
 And waters veil the sky.
 He sends His showers of blessings down,
 To cheer the plains below ;
 He makes the grass the mountains crown,
 And corn in valleys grow.
- 2 His steady counsels change the face
 Of the declining year ;
 He bids the sun cut short his race,
 And wintry days appear.
 His hoary frost, His fleecy snow,
 Descend and clothe the ground ;
 The liquid streams forbear to flow,
 In icy fetters bound.
- 3 He sends His word and melts the snow,
 The fields no longer mourn ;
 He calls the warmer gales to blow,
 And bids the spring return.
 The changing wind, the flying cloud,
 Obey His mighty word :
 With songs and honors, sounding loud,
 Praise ye the sovereign Lord.

Rev. Isaac Watts (1674—1748), 1719. Ab.

- 1 LIFT up to God the voice of praise,
 Whose breath our souls inspired ;
 Loud, and more loud, the anthem raise,
 With grateful ardor fired.
 Lift up to God the voice of praise.
 Whose goodness, passing thought,

Loads every moment, as it flies,
With benefits unsought.

- 2 Lift up to God the voice of praise,
From whom salvation flows ;
Who sent His Son our souls to save
From everlasting woes.
Lift up to God the voice of praise,
For hope's transporting ray, [death,
Which lights, through darkest shades of
To realms of endless day.

God's Dealings with our Fathers.—Ps. xliv.

- 1 O LORD, our fathers oft have told,
In our attentive ears,
Thy wonders in their days performed,
||: And elder times than theirs. :||
- 2 For not their courage, not their sword,
To them salvation gave ;
Nor strength that from unequal force
||: Their fainting troops could save. :||
- 3 But Thy right hand and powerful arm,
Whose succor they implored ;
Thy presence with the chosen race,
||: Who Thy great Name adored. :||
- 4 As Thee their God our fathers owned,
Thou art our sovereign King :
O therefore, as Thou didst to them,
||: To us deliverance bring. :||
- 5 To Thee the triumph we ascribe,
From whom the conquest came ;
In God we will rejoice all day,
||: And ever bless Thy Name. :||

The Story handed down.—Ps. lxxviii.

- 1 LET children hear the mighty deeds,
Which God performed of old ;
Which in our younger years we saw,
And which our fathers told.
- 2 He bids us make His glories known,
His works of power and grace ;
And we'll convey His wonders down
Through every rising race.
- 3 Our lips shall tell them to our sons,
And they again to theirs,
That generations yet unborn
May teach them to their heirs.
- 4 Thus shall they learn, in God alone
Their hope securely stands ;
That they may ne'er forget His works,
But practise His commands.

"Herr Gott, wir danken Dir."

- 1 LORD God, we worship Thee:
In loud and happy chorus
We praise Thy love and power,
Whose goodness reigneth o'er us.
To heaven our song shall soar,
For ever shall it be Resounding o'er and o'er,
Lord God, we worship Thee.
- 2 Lord God, we worship Thee:
For Thou our land defendest;
Thou pourest down Thy grace,
And strife and war Thou endest.
Since golden peace, O Lord,
Thou grantest us to see,
Our land with one accord,
Lord God, gives thanks to Thee.

- 3 Lord God, we worship Thee :
 Thou didst indeed chastise us,
 Yet still Thy anger spares,
 And still Thy mercy tries us.
 Once more our Father's hand
 Doth bid our sorrows flee,
 And peace rejoice our land ;
 Lord God, we worship Thee.

Forefathers' Day.

- 1 O God, beneath Thy guiding hand,
 Our exiled fathers crossed the sea ;
 And when they trod the wintry strand,
 With prayer and psalm they worshipped
 Thee.
- 2 Thou heard'st, well pleased, the song, the prayer :
 Thy blessing came, and still its power
 Shall onward through all ages bear
 The memory of that holy hour.
- 3 Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God
 Came with those exiles o'er the waves ;
 And where their pilgrim feet have trod,
 The God they trusted guards their graves.
- 4 And here Thy Name, O God of love,
 Their children's children shall adore,
 Till these eternal hills remove,
 And spring adorns the earth no more.

Rev. Leonard Bacon (1802—1880), 1838 1845. Ab.

- 1 SUMMER suns are glowing
Over land and sea ;
Happy light is flowing,
Bountiful and free.
Everything rejoices
In the mellow rays ;
All earth's thousand voices
Swell the psalm of praise.

- 2 God's free mercy streameth
Over all the world,
And His banner gleameth,
Everywhere unfurled.
Broad and deep and glorious,
As the heaven above,
Shines in might victorious
His eternal love.

- 3 Lord, upon our blindness,
Thy pure radiance pour ;
For Thy loving-kindness
Makes us love Thee more.
And when clouds are drifting
Dark across our sky,
Then, the veil uplifting,
Father, be Thou nigh.

- 4 We will never doubt Thee,
Though Thou veil Thy light ;
Life is dark without Thee,
Death with Thee is bright.
Light of light, shine o'er us
On our pilgrim way,

Go Thou still before us
To the endless day.

Harvest Hymn.

- 1 COME, ye thankful people, come,
Raise the song of Harvest-home:
All is safely gathered in,
Ere the winter storms begin;
God, our Maker, doth provide
For our wants to be supplied:
Come to God's own temple, come,
Raise the song of Harvest-home.
- 2 All the world is God's own field,
Fruit unto His praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown;
First the blade, and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear:
Lord of Harvest, grant that we Wholesome grain and pure may be.
- 3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take His harvest home;
From His field shall in that day
All offences purge away;
Give His angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast;
But the fruitful ears to store
In His garner evermore.
- 4 Even so, Lord, quickly come
To Thy final Harvest-home;
Gather Thou Thy people in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin:

There, forever purified,
 In Thy presence to abide :
 Come, with all Thine angels, come,
 Raise the glorious Harvest-home.

Thanksgiving or Fast.

- 1 CHRIST, by heavenly hosts adored,
 Gracious, mighty, sovereign Lord,
 God of nations, King of kings,
 Head of all created things,
 By the Church with joy confest,
 God o'er all forever blest ;
 Pleading at Thy throne we stand,
 Save Thy people, bless our land.
- 2 On our fields of grass and grain
 Drop, O Lord, the kindly rain ;
 O'er our wide and goodly land
 Crown the labors of each hand ;
 Let Thy kind protection be
 O'er our commerce on the sea ;
 Open, Lord, Thy bounteous hand,
 Bless Thy people, bless our land.
- 3 Let our rulers ever be
 Men that love and honor Thee ;
 Let the powers by Thee ordained,
 Be in righteousness maintained ;
 In the people's hearts increase
 Love of piety and peace ;
 Thus, united we shall stand
 One wide, free, and happy land.

Rev. Henry Harbaugh (1818—1867), 1860. Ab. and alt.

- 1 My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing ;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

- 2 My native country, thee,
Land of the noble, free,
Thy name I love ;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills ;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

- 3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song :
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

- 4 Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing ;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light ;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

"God save the State."

1 God bless our native land:
 Firm may she ever stand,
 Through storm and night;
 When the wild tempests rave,
 Ruler of wind and wave,
 Do Thou our country save
 By Thy great might.

2 For her our prayer shall rise
 To God, above the skies;
 On Him we wait;
 Thou who art ever nigh,
 Guarding with watchful eye,
 To Thee aloud we cry,
 God save the State.

Rev. Charles Timothy Brooks (1813—1883), 1835
 Alt. by Rev. John Sullivan Dwight (1813—), 1844.

The Landing of the Pilgrims.

1 THE breaking waves dashed high,
 On a stern and rock-bound coast,
 And the woods against a stormy sky
 Their giant branches tossed;
 And the heavy night hung dark
 The hills and waters o'er,
 When a band of exiles moored their bark
 On the wild New England shore.

2 Not as the conqueror comes,
 They, the true-hearted, came;
 Not with the roll of the stirring drums,
 And the trumpet that sings of fame;

Not as the flying come,
In silence and in fear :—
They shook the depths of the desert gloom
With their hymns of lofty cheer.

- 3 Amidst the storm they sang,
And the stars heard, and the sea ;
And the sounding aisles of the dim woods rang
To the anthem of the free.
The ocean eagle soared
From his nest by the white wave's foam,
And the rocking pines of the forest roared—
This was their welcome home !

- 4 What sought they thus afar?
Bright jewels of the mine?
The wealth of seas, the spoils of war?
They sought a faith's pure shrine !
Ay, call it holy ground,
The soil where first they trod !
They have left unstained what there they found—
Freedom to worship God.

Mrs. Felicia Dorothea Hemans (1794—1835),

DOXOLOGIES.

PRAISE God, from whom all blessings flow;
 Praise Him, all creatures here below;
 Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
 Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Bp. Thomas Ken (1637—1711), 1697

L. M.

To God the Father, God the Son,
 And God the Spirit, Three in One,
 Be honor, praise, and glory given,
 By all on earth, and all in Heaven.

Rev. Isaac Watts (1674—1748), 1709

5

L. M. 6l.

To God the Father, God the Son,
 And God the Spirit, Three in One,
 Be honor, praise, and glory given,
 By all on earth, and all in Heaven;
 As was through ages heretofore,
 Is now, and shall be evermore.

Rev. Isaac Watts, 1709. First 4 lines.

C. P. M.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 The God whom Heaven's triumphant host
 And saints on earth adore ;
 Be glory as in ages past,
 As now it is, and so shall last,
 When time shall be no more.

Tate and Brady, 1696. Alt.

L. P. M.

Now to the great and sacred Three,
 The Father, Son, and Spirit, be
 Eternal praise and glory given,
 Through all the worlds where God is known,
 By all the angels near the throne,
 And all the saints in earth and Heaven.

Rev. Isaac Watts, 1719.

H. M.

O GOD, for ever blest,
 To Thee all praise be given ;
 Thy Name Triune confest
 By all in earth and Heaven ;
 As heretofore it was, is now,
 And shall be so for evermore.

Rev. Edward Henry Bickersteth (1825—), 1870

8, 7.

PRAISE the Father, earth and Heaven,
 Praise the Son, the Spirit praise,
 As it was, and is, be given
 Glory through eternal days.

Unknown Author, 1827

10

8, 7. D.

WORSHIP, honor, glory, blessing,
 Lord, we offer to Thy Name :
 Young and old their praise expressing,
 Join Thy goodness to proclaim.
 As the saints in Heaven adore Thee,
 We would bow before Thy throne ;
 As the angels serve before Thee,
 So on earth Thy will be done !

Edward Osler (1798—1863), 1836.

11

8, 7. 4.

GLORY be to God the Father,
 Glory be to God the Son,
 Glory be to God the Spirit,
 Great Jehovah, Three in One :
 Glory, glory,
 While eternal ages run.

Rev. Horatius Bonar (1808—), 1866.

12

7, 6. D.

FATHER, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 One God whom we adore,
 Join we with the heavenly host,
 To praise Thee evermore :
 Live, by Heaven and earth adored,
 Three in One, and One in Three,
 Holy, holy, holy Lord,
 All glory be to Thee.

Rev. Charles Wesley (1708—1788), 1746. Alt.

13

SING we to our God above
 Praise eternal as His love :
 Praise Him, all ye heavenly host,
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,

Rev. Charles Wesley, 1740.

14

7. 61.

Praise the Name, of God most high,
 Praise Him, all below the sky,
 Praise Him, all ye heavenly host,
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost;
 As through countless ages past,
 Evermore His praise shall last.

Unknown Author, 1827

7. 61.

GOD the Father, God of grace,
 Saviour, born of mortal race,
 Comforter, our Life and Light,
 One in essence, love and might;
 Thee whom all in Heaven adore,
 We would worship evermore.

Rev Ray Palmer (1808—), 1873.

PRaise our glorious King and Lord,
 Angels waiting on His word,
 Saints that walk with Him in white,
 Pilgrims walking in His light:
 Glory to the Eternal One,
 Glory to His Only Son,
 Glory to the Spirit be
 Now, and through eternity.

Rev. Alexander Ramsay Thompson (1822—), 1869.

17

6, 4.

To the great One in Three
 The highest praises be,
 Hence evermore;
 His sovereign majesty
 May we in glory see,
 And to eternity
 Love and adore.

Rev. Charles Wesley, 1757.

18

6, 4.

To God the Father, Son,
 And Spirit, Three in One,
 All praise be given :
 Crown Him in every song ;
 To Him your hearts belong
 Let all His praise prolong
 On earth, in Heaven.

Rev. Edwin Francis Hatfield (1807—1883), 1843.

19

10.

ALL praise and glory to the Father be
 And Son and Spirit, undivided Three,
 As hath been alway, shall be, and is now,
 To Thee, O God, the everlasting Thou.

Bp. Edward Henry Bickersteth (1825—), 1870.

20

10, 11.

ALL glory to God, the Father and Son,
 And Spirit of grace, the great Three in One ;
 Let highest ascriptions forever be given
 By all the creation on earth and in Heaven.

Rippon's Collection, 1778.

O FATHER Almighty, to Thee be address,
 With Christ and the Spirit, One God ever blest,
 All glory and worship, from earth and from Heaven,
 As was, and is now, and shall ever be given.

	HYMN
A CHARGE to keep I have	426
A few more years shall roll	678
A glory gilds the sacred page	287
A mighty Fortress is our God	435
Abide with me, fast falls the eventide	55
According to Thy gracious word	587
Again our earthly cares we leave	90
Again returns the day of holy rest	62
Again the Lord of life and light	72
Alas! and did my Saviour bleed	198
All hail the power of Jesus' name	241
All people that on earth do dwell	102
All praise to Thee, eternal Lord	163
All praise to Thee, my God, this night	40
All unseen the Master walketh	540
Alleluia! alleluia! Hearts to heaven	219
Alleluia, sing to Jesus	255
Almighty God, to-night	38
Always with us, always with us	256
Am I a soldier of the cross	430
Angels, from the realms of glory	169
Another six days' work is done	78
Approach, my soul, the mercy-seat	320
Arise, my soul, arise	340
Arise, O King of grace, arise	613
Arm of the Lord, awake, awake	632
Arm these Thy soldiers, mighty Lord	424
Art thou weary, art thou languid	306
As pants the hart for cooling streams	489
As the sun doth daily rise	15
As with gladness men of old	171
Ask ye what great thing I know	384
Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep	680

	HYMN
Assembled at Thy great command	623
At even ere the sun was set	57
At the door of mercy sighing	347
At the Lamb's high feast we sing	584
Awake, and sing the song	353
Awake, awake, O Zion	660
Awake, awake, put on Thy strength	641
Awake, my soul, and with the sun	39
Awake, my soul, in joyful lays	354
Awake, my soul, stretch every nerve	431
BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne	101
Behold, a Stranger at the door	311
Behold, the Bridgroom cometh	698
Behold the glories of the Lamb	238
Behold the Lamb	575
Behold, the Mountain of the Lord	656
Behold the Saviour of mankind	200
Behold, the shade of night is now receding	551
Behold the throne of grace	31
Behold, what wondrous grace	571
Behold, where, in a mortal form	178
Beyond, beyond that boundless sea	140
Bless, O my soul, the living God	107
Blessed are the sons of God	388
Blessed Saviour, Thee I love	358
Blest be the tie that binds	597
Blest day of God, most calm, most bright	70
Blest morning, whose young dawning rays	73
Blow ye the trumpet, blow	298
Bread of Heaven, on Thee I feed	574
Bread of the world, in mercy broken	580
Breast the wave, Christian	412
Brief life is here our portion	719
Bright was the guiding star that led	175
Brightest and best of the sons of the morning	161
Brightly gleams our banner	416
Brightness of the Father's glory	174
Brother, though from yonder sky	688
By cool Siloam's shady rill	563

CALL Jehovah thy salvation	10
Calm me, my God, and keep me calm	465
Calm on the listening ear of night	155
Cast thy burden on the Lord	514
Children of the heavenly King	389
Christ, above all glory seated	254
Christ, by heavenly hosts adored	743
Christ for the world we sing	642
Christ is made the sure Foundation	614
Christ is our Corner-stone	610
Christ, of all my hopes the ground	357
Christ, the Lord, is risen to-day	216
Christ to Heaven is gone before	225
Christ, whose glory fills the skies	68
Christian, dost thou see them	419
Christian, seek not yet repose	428
Cling to the Mighty One	449
Come, all ye faithful	153
Come, dearest Lord, descend and dwell . .	29
Come, Holy Ghost, in love	281
Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire	271
Come, Holy Spirit, come.	275
Come, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove	265
Come, Kingdom of our God	607
Come, let us anew	729
Come, let us join in songs of praise	240
Come, let us join our cheerful songs	236
Come, let us lift our joyful eyes	239
Come, let us sing the song of songs	259
Come, my soul, thy suit prepare	24
Come, O Creator, Spirit blest	264
Come, O Thou Traveller unknown	360
Come, said Jesus' sacred voice	313
Come, see the place where Jesus lies	208
Come, Thou Almighty King	21
Come, Thou Fount of every blessing	350
Come, Thou long-expected Jesus	173
Come unto me when shadows darkly	304
Come, we that love the Lord	34
Come, ye disconsolate, where'er ye	303

	HYMN
Come, ye faithful, raise the anthem	257
Come, ye sinners, poor and wretched	305
Come, ye thankful people, come	742
Commit thou all thy griefs	503
Crown Him with many crowns	223
DAUGHTER of Zion, awake from thy sadness	652
Daughter of Zion, from the dust	653
Day divine, when sudden streaming	145
Days and moments quickly flying	730
Dayspring of eternity	5
Dear Jesus, ever at my side	557
Dear Lord and Master mine	341
Dear Saviour, I am Thine	570
Dearest of all the names above	243
Depth of mercy, can there be	325
Did Christ o'er sinners weep	316
Dismiss us with Thy blessing, Lord	579
Do not I love Thee, O my Lord	363
EARTH blooms afresh in joyous dyes	214
Enthroned on high, Almighty Lord	283
Ere the waning light decay	550
Eternal Source of every joy	724
Eternal Spirit, we confess	266
Ever would I fain be reading	555
Every morning mercies new	541
Exalt the Lord our God	89
FADING, still fading, the last beam	59
Faint not, Christian, though the road	391
Fairest Lord Jesus	368
Far down the ages now	608
Far from my heavenly home	673
Far from the world, O Lord, I flee	521
Father, by Thy love and power	60
Father, I know that all my life	469
Father of Heaven, whose love profound	109
Father of Love, our God and Friend	490
Father of mercies, in Thy house	620

HYMN

Father, Thine Elect who lovest	144
Father, whate'er of earthly bliss	463
Fear not, O little flock, the foe	456
Fear not, poor, weary one	493
Fierce was the wild billow	448
Fight the good fight with all thy might	420
Fling out the banner! let it float	624
For all the saints who from their labors rest	596
For all Thy saints, O Lord	600
For ever with the Lord	674
For the mercies of the day	23
For thee, O dear, dear country	717
For Thy mercy and Thy grace	728
Forth from the dark and stormy sky	100
Forth to the Land of Promise bound	403
Forward be our watchword	417
From all that dwell below the skies	103
From all Thy saints in warfare	723
From every stormy wind that blows	518
From foes that would the land devour	737
From Greenland's icy mountains	627
From the cross the blood is falling	196
From the cross uplifted high	299
From the vast and veiled throng	123
 GENTLY, Lord, O gently lead us	 398
Give me the wings of faith, to rise	590
Give thanks to God; He reigns above	113
Give to our God immortal praise	112
Give to the winds thy fears	502
Glorious things of thee are spoken	603
Glory to God on high	229
Go forward, Christian soldier	432
Go, labor on, spend and be spent	528
Go, preach My gospel, saith the Lord	618
Go to dark Gethsemane	191
Go, ye messengers of God	646
God bless our native land	745
God calling yet! shall I not hear	319
God eternal, Lord of all	121

	HYMN
God in His earthly temple lays	97
God in the gospel of His Son	294
God is love! His mercy brightens	12
God is the Refuge of His saints	460
God moves in a mysterious way	466
God of mercy, God of grace	14
God, that madest earth and heaven	549
God, the All-terrible	736
Good news from Heaven the angels bring	165
Grace, 'tis a charming sound	352
Gracious Spirit, Dove divine	272
Gracious Spirit, dwell with me	282
Gracious Spirit, Holy Ghost	268
Granted is the Saviour's prayer	274
Great Father of each perfect gift	279
Great God, how infinite art Thou	131
Great God, the nations of the earth	643
Great God, we sing that mighty hand	725
Great God, who hid from mortal sight	77
Great is the Lord our God	606
Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah	399
HAIL, my ever-blessed Jesus	365
Hail the day that sees Him rise	224
Hail, Thou God of grace and glory	602
Hail, thou once-despised Jesus	252
Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning	651
Hail to the Lord's Anointed	628
Hallelujah, raise, O raise	117
Happy the man who knows	534
Happy the souls to Jesus joined	592
Hark, hark, my soul; angelic songs	595
Hark, my soul, it is the Lord	498
Hark, the glad sound, the Saviour	149
Hark, the herald angels sing	151
Hark! the loud celestial hymn	49
Hark, the song of jubilee	648
Hark, the sound of holy voices	715
Hark! what mean those holy voices	172
Hark, what mean those lamentations	650

HYMN

Hasten, Lord, the glorious time	647
He comes in blood-stained garments	661
He dies, the Friend of sinners dies	221
He has come, the Christ of God	152
He is coming, He is coming	692
He is gone! and we remain	226
He lives, the everlasting God	462
Hear my prayer, O heavenly Father	46
Here I can firmly rest	374
High in the heavens, eternal God	105
Holy Bible, book divine	290
Holy Ghost, dispel our sadness	284
Holy Ghost, the Infinite	267
Holy Ghost, with light divine	273
Holy, holy, holy Lord, Be Thy	120
Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty	1
Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts	17
Holy Spirit, Lord of light	285
Hosanna to the living Lord	6
How beauteous are their feet	605
How beauteous on the mountains	631
How beauteous were the marks divine	182
How blest the righteous when he dies	681
How calm and beautiful the morn	215
How charming is the place	85
How did my heart rejoice to hear	80
How firm a foundation, ye saints of the	497
How gentle God's commands	500
How heavy is the night	349
How pleasant, how divinely fair	96
How pleased and blest was I	95
How precious is the book divine	288
How sweet and awful is the place	586
How sweet, how heavenly, is the sight	593
How sweet the name of Jesus sounds	371
I BLESS the Christ of God	348
I bring my sins to Thee	335
I heard the voice of Jesus say	339
I know no life divided	472

	HYMN
I know that my Redeemer lives	218
I'll praise my Maker with my breath	122
I love Thy kingdom, Lord	599
I love to steal a while away	524
I'm not ashamed to own my Lord	447
I need Thee, precious Jesus	509
I saw One hanging on the tree	203
I say to all men, far and near	211
I see the crowd in Pilate's hall	202
I've found the pearl of greatest price	344
I will love Thee, all my treasure	351
I worship Thee, sweet Will of God	464
I would not live away	675
If human kindness meets return	585
If, through unruffled seas	501
In all my vast concerns with Thee	139
In heavenly love abiding	471
In stature grows the Heavenly Child	177
In the cross of Christ I glory	441
In the dark and cloudy day	516
In the hour of trial	671
In Thy name, O Lord, assembling	18
Infinite excellence is Thine	237
It came upon the midnight clear	154
JEHOVAH, God, Thy gracious power	134
Jerusalem, my happy home	703
Jerusalem, the golden	718
Jesus, and shall it ever be	439
Jesus calls us; o'er the tumult	443
Jesus came, the Heavens adoring	170
Jesus comes, His conflict over	230
Jesus, full of truth and love	326
Jesus, I live to Thee	367
Jesus, I love Thy charming name	364
Jesus, I my cross have taken	444
Jesus is the name we treasure	375
Jesus lives! no longer now	245
Jesus, Lord of life eternal	258
Jesus, Lover of my soul	450

Jesus, my Lord, my God, my All	576
Jesus, my Strength, my Hope	495
Jesus, Name all names above	328
Jesus, one word from Thee	496
Jesus shall reign where'er the sun	622
Jesus, still lead on	395
Jesus, Sun of righteousness	342
Jesus, the very thought of Thee	361
Jesus, these eyes have never seen	369
Jesus, Thine all-victorious love	482
Jesus, Thou Joy of loving hearts	578
Jesus, Thy blood and righteousness	331
Jesus, Thy Name I love	382
Jesus, where'er Thy people meet	27
Jesus, who can be	396
Join all the glorious names	336
Joy to the world, the Lord is come	158
Just as I am, without one plea	330

KEEP silence, all created things	136
Kingdoms and thrones to God belong	111

LADEN with guilt and full of fears	289
Lamb of God, to Thee we cry	222
Lamb of God, whose bleeding love	572
Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling	407
Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us	392
Let children hear the mighty deeds	735
Let everlasting glories crown	295
Let saints below in concert sing	591
Let us, with a gladsome mind	114
Let Zion and her sons rejoice	655
Lift up to God the voice of praise	733
Lift up your heads, ye gates of brass	657
Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates	163
Light of light, enlighten me	4
Light of the lonely pilgrim's heart	406
Light of those whose dreary dwelling	270
Little travellers Zionward	562

Lo, God is here: let us adore	30
Lo, He comes, with clouds descending	699
Long hath the night of sorrow reigned . . .	488
Look from Thy sphere of endless day . . .	634
Look, ye saints, the sight is glorious	234
Lord, as to Thy dear cross we flee	446
Lord, dismiss us with Thy blessing, Bid . . .	146
Lord, dismiss us with Thy blessing, Fill . . .	19
Lord God of morning and of night	545
Lord God, the Holy Ghost	276
Lord God, we worship Thee	739
Lord, I am Thine, entirely Thine	567
Lord, I know Thy grace is nigh me	346
Lord, in the morning Thou shalt hear . . .	81
Lord, in this sacred hour	88
Lord, in this Thy mercy's day	286
Lord, it belongs not to my care	687
Lord Jesus, by Thy passion	510
Lord Jesus Christ, my Life, my Light	695
Lord, lead the way the Saviour went	532
Lord of all being, throned afar	106
Lord of all power and might	637
Lord of glory, who hast bought us	537
Lord of hosts, to Thee we raise	611
Lord of mercy and of might	515
Lord of the worlds above	66
Lord, Thou art my Rock of strength	452
Lord, Thou hast searched and seen me . . .	128
Lord, we come before Thee now	22
Lord, when we bend before Thy throne . . .	92
Lord, who didst bless Thy chosen band . . .	617
Lord, with glowing heart I'd praise Thee . .	366
Lord Divine, all love excelling	269
Lowly and solemn be	682
MAJESTIC sweetness sits enthroned	343
March, march onward, soldiers true	437
Master, Lord, to Thee we cry	227
"Mercy, O Thou Son of David"	345
Messiah, at Thy glad approach	157

HYMN

'Mid evening shadows let us all	552
'Mid scenes of confusion and creature	69
Millions within Thy courts have met	98
More love to Thee, O Christ	481
Morn's roseate hues have decked the sky . .	213
Must Jesus bear the cross alone	445
My country, 'tis of thee	744
My dear Redeemer, and my Lord	180
My faith looks up to Thee	381
My feet are worn and weary with the	413
My God and Father, while I stray	508
My God, how endless is Thy Love	544
My God, how wonderful Thou art	132
My God, I love Thee: not because	362
My God, in whom are all the springs	127
My God, my Portion, and my Love	467
My God, the Spring of all my joys	479
My gracious Lord, I own Thy right	527
My Jesus, as Thou wilt	505
My Lord, how full of sweet content	58
My Lord, my Love, was crucified	71
My soul, be on thy guard	425
My soul doth magnify the Lord	280
My soul, repeat His praise	142
My soul, weigh not thy life	427
My spirit longs for Thee	506
My spirit on Thy care	504
NEAR the cross was Mary weeping	195
Nearer, my God, to Thee	480
New every morning is the love	542
No track is on the sunny sky	262
Not all the blood of beasts	205
Now God be with us, for the night is	54
Now thank we all our God	738
Now that the sun is gleaming bright	548
Now the day is over	50
Now to the Lord who makes us know	249
Now when the dusky shades of night	48

	HYMN
O BREAD to pilgrims given	588
O cease, my wandering soul	309
O Christ, our King, Creator, Lord	250
O Christ, uplifted to the sky	248
O city of the Lord, begin	134
O come and mourn with me a while	201
O come, loud anthems let us sing	74
O come to the merciful Saviour that	297
O could I speak the matchless worth	386
O day of rest and gladness	63
O deem not they are blest alone	459
O'er the distant mountains breaking	700
O'er the gloomy hills of darkness	640
O'erwhelmed in depths of woe	204
O for a closer walk with God	487
O for a heart to praise my God	485
O for a thousand tongues to sing	378
O for the death of those	669
O gift of gifts! O grace of faith	376
O God, beneath Thy guiding hand	740
O God, mine inmost soul convert	702
O God of Bethel, by whose hand	402
O God, our God, Thou shinest here	644
O God, our help in ages past	133
O God, who metest in Thy hand	663
O happy band of pilgrims	397
O happy day that fixed my choice	566
O Holy, holy, holy Lord	8
O Jesus Christ, grow Thou in me	372
O Jesus, ever present	511
O Jesus, King most wonderful	377
O Jesus, Lord of light and grace	41
O Jesus, sweet the tears I shed	199
O Jesus, Thou art standing	300
O Jesus, Thou the beauty art	370
O Lord, how good, how great art Thou	156
O Lord, how happy is the time	383
O Lord, how happy we should be	457
O Lord of heaven and earth and sea	526
O Lord, our fathers oft have told	734

HYMN

O Lord, turn not Thy face from me	321
O Lord, when we the path retrace	186
O Love divine, how sweet Thou art	385
O Master, it is good to be	187
O mean may seem this house of clay	242
O mother dear, Jerusalem	704
O Paradise! O Paradise	722
O praise our God to-day	535
O Sacred Head, now wounded	194
O Saviour, who for man hast trod	247
O Shepherd of the sheep	685
O Spirit of the living God	621
O sweet and blessed country	720
O that the Lord's salvation	636
O Thou that hear'st the prayer of faith	338
O Thou to whose all-searching sight	415
O Thou who by a star didst guide	176
O Thou whose own vast temple stands	612
O very God of very God	531
O what if we are Christ's	598
O where are kings and empires now	625
O where is He that trod the sea	183
O where shall rest be found	314
O Word of God incarnate	292
O worship the King, all glorious above	2
Of Him who did salvation bring	312
Oft in sorrow, oft in woe	390
On the fount of life eternal	696
On the mountain's top appearing	639
On Zion and on Lebanon	659
One sweetly solemn thought	668
One there is above all others	582
Onward, Christian soldiers	418
Our blest Redeemer, ere He breathed	261
Our day of praise is done	37
Our Heavenly Father calls	547
Our Lord is risen from the dead	217
Our Lord, who knows full well	32
Our yet unfinished story	512
Out of the deep I call	315
Out of the depths of woe	492

	HYMN
PALMS of glory, raiment bright	707
Pass me not, O gracious Father	327
People of the living God	568
Pilgrim, burdened with thy sin	387
Pleasant are Thy courts above	94
Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven	356
Praise the Lord, His glories show	116
Praise the Lord, ye heavens, adore Him	11
Praise the Rock of our salvation	604
Praise to God, immortal praise	731
Praise to God who reigns above	16
Praise to the Holiest in the height	207
Praise to Thee, Thou great Creator	13
Praises to Him whose love has given	108
Pray, without ceasing, pray	525
Prayer is the soul's sincere desire	523
Prostrate, dear Jesus, at Thy feet	322
REJOICE, rejoice, believers	589
Rejoice, the Lord is King	244
Rejoice to-day with one accord	436
Rejoice, ye pure in heart	433
Rest for the toiling hand	670
Resting from His work to-day	209
Return, O wanderer, return	310
Ride on, ride on in majesty	188
Rise, crowned with light, imperial Salem	658
Rise, glorious Conqueror, rise	228
Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings	409
Rise, O my soul, pursue the path	594
Rock of ages, cleft for me	332
Round the Lord in glory seated	9
SAFE across the waters	394
Safe home, safe home in port	709
Safely through another week	67
Saints in glory, we together	380
Saviour, again to Thy dear Name	61
Saviour, breathe an evening blessing	44
Saviour, happy would I be	359

559

HYMN

Saviour, like a Shepherd lead us	393
Saviour, sprinkle many nations	649
Saviour, teach me, day by day	499
Saviour, when in dust to Thee	458
Saviour, who Thy flock art feeding	558
See Israel's gentle Shepherd stands	564
See the Conqueror mounts in triumph	220
See the ransomed millions stand	708
Servant of God, well done	684
Shall hymns of grateful love	126
Shepherd of tender youth	559
Shine on our souls, eternal God	539
Shout the glad tidings, exultingly sing	160
Show pity, Lord, O Lord, forgive	318
Since all the varying scenes of time	137
Sing, my tongue, the Saviour's triumph	231
Sing of Jesus, sing for ever	379
Sing to the Lord, our Might	35
Sing to the Lord, ye distant lands	159
Sing, ye redeemed of the Lord	404
Sleep thy last sleep	676
So let our lips and lives express	529
Softly now the light of day	25
Soldiers of Christ, arise	423
Soldiers of the cross, arise	645
Soldiers, who are Christ's below	429
Songs of praise the angels sang	119
Soon may the last glad song arise	633
Sovereign of Heaven, who didst prevail	233
Spirit Divine, attend our prayers	278
Spirit of power and might, behold	626
Spread, O spread, Thou mighty Word	291
Stand up, and bless the Lord	86
Stand up, my soul, shake off thy fears	421
Stand up, stand up for Jesus	434
Star of peace, to wanderers weary	666
Summer suns are glowing	741
Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear	42
Surely Christ thy griefs hath borne	333
Sweet is the work, my God, my King	79

Sweet is the work, O Lord	33
Sweet is Thy mercy, Lord	414
Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go	51
Sweet the moments, rich in blessing	581
Sweet the time, exceeding sweet	118
TAKE me, O my Father, take me	324
Take my heart, O Father, take it	583
Take, my soul, thy full salvation	442
Take up thy cross, the Saviour said	440
Tarry with me, O my Saviour	45
Teach me, my God and King	494
Ten thousand times ten thousand	706
Thank and praise Jehovah's Name	115
That day of wrath, that dreadful day	701
The billows swell, the winds are high	474
The breaking waves dashed high	746
The Church's one Foundation	616
The dawn is sprinkling in the east	546
The day is gently sinking to a close	56
The day is past and gone	554
The day is past and over	53
The day, O Lord, is spent	36
The day of resurrection	64
The floods, O Lord, lift up their voice	110
The God of Abr'am praise	714
The God of harvest praise	726
The goodly Land I see	713
The head that once was crowned with	235
The heavens declare Thy glory, Lord	293
The King of love my Shepherd is	468
The Lord descended from above	141
The Lord is King: lift up thy voice	461
The Lord is my Shepherd, no want	475
The Lord Jehovah reigns, And royal	130
The Lord Jehovah reigns, His throne	124
The Lord my pasture shall prepare	99
The Lord my Shepherd is	477
The Lord of might from Sinai's brow	691
The Lord on high ascends	232

561

HYMN

The Lord our God is clothed with might . . .	136
The morning light is breaking	629
The perfect world by Adam trod	615
The pity of the Lord	143
The race that long in darkness pined	150
The royal banners forward go	193
The sands of time are sinking	679
The Son of God goes forth to war	654
The spacious firmament on high	104
The Spirit in our hearts	307
The strife is o'er, the battle done	212
The twilight falls, the night is near	553
The voice of free grace cries, Escape	296
The winds were howling o'er the deep	184
The world is very evil	716
Thee, we adore, Eternal Lord	7
There is a blessed Home	721
There is a fountain filled with blood	334
There is a green hill far away	206
There is a land of pure delight	710
There is a little, lonely fold	491
There is an eye that never sleeps	522
There is an hour of peaceful rest	711
There is no Name so sweet on earth	556
There's a wideness in God's mercy	301
They pray the best who pray and watch . . .	520
They whose course on earth is o'er	690
Thine arm, O Lord, in days of old	185
Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love	75
Thine for ever! God of love	569
This is not my place of resting	672
This is the day of toil	401
This is the day the Lord hath made	82
Thou art coming, O my Saviour	693
Thou art gone to the grave	677
Thou art the way: to Thee alone	260
Thou, whose almighty Word	638
Though faint, yet pursuing, we go on	476
Three in One, and One in Three	52
Through all the changing scenes of life . . .	455

	HYMN
Through sorrow's night and danger's	686
Through the night of doubt and sorrow . . .	601
Through the passing of the week	26
Thus far the Lord has led me on	43
Thy counsels, Lord, shall guide my feet . . .	484
Thy presence, everlasting God	76
Thy way, not mine, O Lord	507
Thy works, not mine, O Christ	337
Till He come, O let the words	573
Time is winging us away	410
'Tis by the faith of joys to come	422
'Tis midnight, and on Olive's brow	189
'Tis thus in solitude I roam	519
To Canaan's sacred bound	400
To God I cried when troubles rose	473
To God, the only wise	87
To Heaven I lift my waiting eyes	483
To Thee, my God and Saviour	453
To Thee, O dear, dear Saviour	454
To Thy pastures fair and large	486
To Thy temple I repair	93
Tossed upon life's raging billow	662
Trembling before Thine awful throne . . . *	355
'Twas on that dark, that doleful night . . .	577
UNVAIL thy bosom, faithful tomb	683
Uplift the blood-red banner	635
Upward where the stars are burning	246
VAINLY through night's weary hours	47
WAKE, awake, for night is flying	694
Watchman, tell us of the night	147
We are living, we are dwelling	538
We are on our journey home	411
We give Thee but Thine own	533
We march, we march to victory	438
Weary of earth and laden with my sin . . .	329
Welcome, delightful morn	65
Welcome, happy morning	210

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

563

HYMN

Welcome, sweet day of rest	84
What a Friend we have in Jesus	302
What are these in bright array	712
What grace, O Lord, and beauty shone	179
What star is this, with beams so bright	167
When all thy mercies, O my God	138
When gathering clouds around I view	517
When God of old came down from heaven	263
When His salvation bringing	560
When I can read my title clear	405
When I survey the wondrous cross	197
When in the Lord Jehovah's Name	561
When Israel of the Lord beloved	129
When Jordan hushed his waters still	164
When languor and disease invade	667
When like a stranger on our sphere	181
When marshalled on the nightly plain	166
When morning gilds the skies	373
When on Sinai's top I see	190
When our heads are bowed with woe	513
When shall the voice of singing	630
When streaming from the eastern skies	20
When this passing world is done	451
When through the torn sail	665
When, wounded sore, the stricken soul	323
Where high the heavenly temple stands	251
Where wilt thou put thy trust	478
While now the daylight fills the sky	28
While o'er the deep Thy servants sail	664
While shepherds watched their flocks	148
While Thee I seek, protecting Power	470
While with ceaseless course the sun	727
Who are these like stars appearing	697
Who is He in yonder stall	162
Who, O Lord, when life is o'er	689
Why should the children of a King	277
With broken heart and contrite sigh	317
With gladsome feet we press	83
With joy we hail the sacred day	91
With songs and honors sounding loud	732

	HYMN
Witness, ye men and angels, now	565
Workman of God, O lose not heart	530
Worship, honor, power and blessing	253
 YE Christian heralds, go, proclaim	 619
Ye servants of God	3
Ye servants of the Lord	536
Ye trembling captives, hear	308
Ye tribes of Adam, join	125
Your harps, ye trembling saints	408
 ZION, at thy shining gates	 705
Zion's daughter, weep no more	192
Zion stands, by hills surrounded	609
